St. Leo's Nativity Scene Attracts

The Roving Camera, passing St. Leo's Catholic Church, stopped long enough to get a picture of the Nativity scene established for the Christmas days on the lawn of the residence. Numerous cars were observed stopping to see the attractive scene.

In Passing

YEAR END

Another year has woven its design,
Into the tape of time, and stitched a line
Or two across each countenance, and sewed
A final seam where Death inscribed his code . . .
So many fleeting days torn, page by page,
From calendars that measure only age,
So many hours clocked, and minutes spurred
Until their fragmentary forms are blurred
And pale—life slipping, sand-like, through our grasp
As, futilely, our fancy tries to clasp
Retreating episodes, forgetting how
The only moment that we live is now.

Jeanne Paul Christensen, in Wings.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if, in the year just ahead, there would be no traffic accidents, no destructive fires, floods or tornadoes; a cure for cancer would be discovered; that there would be only rumors of peace, not war; that "man's inhumanity to man" would cease? A friend to whom I mentioned the above wishful thinking for 1958, said "What do you think 1958 will be, the millenium?" But take away wishful thinking and what do you have left? . . . so I'll go right on dreaming.

Now it's New Year's Day; soon it will be Easter, then Fourth of July, then Thanksgiving and Christmas again. (It filled space.)

As always, Christmas was wonderful even with an ulcerated tooth that started when Santa Claus arrived.

The best part of Christmas, as any parent of small children or grandparent of same, can tell you, is seeing the childrens faces when they see their tree and toys.

This Christmas, Mark, age four, had measles and at first was a bit subdued, but before the day was over he was honking horns, ringing bells, shooting guns (at his sister's dolls, mostly) and doing other things that made the noise a small boy feels is necessary to his well-being.

Quote — You are getting old when the gleam in your eyes is from the sun hitting your bifocals . . . Middle age is the period of life when you will do anything to feel better, except give up what's hurting you . . . A man who wakes up and finds himself a success hasn't been asleep. Unquote.

A very happy and healthy New Year, everybody.

Eliminate Danger Spots In Kitchen, Warns Specialist

"Many dangers confront the homemaker in the kitchen if she is excited, hurried, forgetful or careless," warns W. E. Stuckey, Ohio State University Extension safety specialist.

Some of those potential dangers are slippery floors, steam, hot metal and hot fat.

According to the safety specialist, here's what to do:

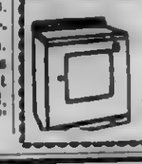
Apply wax in thin coats to keep the floor smooth but not slippery. A thick coat of uneven wax can be treacherous. Remove slippery wax from the floor surface then re-apply a thin coat and rub it out thoroughly. Make a practice of removing immediately all material such as water, grease or soap suds spilled on the floor.

To prevent steam burns, turn the spout of the teakettle so that it is not necessary to reach over the steam to grasp pan. Remove lids from pans containing steam so that the steam will escape away from you.

Hot metal burns can be prevented if pot holders are heavy enough to prevent heat from coming through and large enough to cover the entire hand.

"Fat should be heated slowly in a container not more than 2/3 full," says Stuckey. "Remember that cold food dropped into hot fat causes foaming and probably spillovers. In case fat catches fire in a skillet, smother it with a lid. Water thrown on burning fat will cause it to splatter in all directions."

Safety Specialist Suggests Check Of Home Hazards



"Grandpa and Grandma may be coming to visit Christmas day, so it's a good idea to check for accident hazards before the holidays," suggests W. E. Stuckey, Ohio State University Extension safety specialist. Handrails should be firm and placed at a convenient, easily reached height.

"Stair treads should be inspected periodically to see that they are firm, not worn thin or splintered along the edge where someone might catch his foot," Stuckey said.

Stairs which may be hard to see should have white paint on the edges and on the bottom step. All stairways should be well lighted, he points out.

Place a firm gate at the head of stairways where children may play or where there is no rail to separate it from the hall or another walking area, Stuckey advises.

"Repair holes in floor coverings so the entire surface is even. Cut off all ragged edges of rugs and finish the new edge, and put a large rubber mat under small, slippery rugs or tack them down," the specialist suggests.

(4) If at the time of cleaning, small, raised, pus-filled, yellowish spots are present on the liver or spleen of the rabbit, the animal should be burned or buried.

(5) The meat of wild animals, especially rabbits, should be thoroughly cooked as this will render it safe, even though it may have harbored the disease. There should be no red meat s und the bones after proper cooking.

Incubation period for the disease is from one to 10 days, usually within 48 hours after the beginning of symptoms of chills, fever and general malaise. Streptomycin and aureomycin are effective therapeutic agents and permanent immunity commonly follows infection.

Shipley Looks For Record Racks

Max Shipley, right, taxidermist, of 705 S. Ogden-av, and his assistant Herb Hull, 2375 Briggs-rd, work on the antlers of a record 10-point deer shot by Ralph Miller of Basil, and a near record breaker 12-point head, shot by W. S. Beaty of Carroll.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Hilltop taxidermist Max Shipley is keeping his eyes open these days for extremely large deer antlers in hopes he will find some that will qualify in the record books. A few heads from the recent Ohio deer season are still trickling in to be mounted by Max.

Shipley is recognized all over the country as an exceptionally fine taxidermist. He does his work in the basement of his home at 705 S. Ogden-av.

It all started as a hobby, and then Shipley carried it on as a sideline to farming 200 acres. Eventually he gave up farming, and now mounts about 100 big game heads a year in addition to many smaller animals and fish. He also gets deer hides tanned, and can arrange for gloves, jackets, and other items to be made form deer skins.

Says Ohio Deer Bigger

His consuming interest for several years though has been to see that some of the truly magnificent Ohio deer heads are recognized in the World's Record Books kept officially by The Boone and Crockett Club. Twelve years ago, when Ohio had its first deer season in recent years, Shipley noted that Ohio heads were larger on the average than the heads from Canada, Michigan, Wisconsin, and West Virginia. This is easy to understand when you consider that most Ohio deer are exposed to fields of corn, alfalfa, and clover. These rich foods produce big deer with large, massive antlers.

When I talked to Max, there had been at least four heads given to him for mounting that will land in the record books. They cannot be officially measured for 60 days in order to allow for shrinkage, but Shipley is certain that they will be large enough to qualify.

Points Don't Tell Age

Most people know that you can't determine a deer's age from his antlers. But every year I find a hunter or two counting up points and saying, "Well, this old buck's about 10 years old." The only true way of determining age in deer is by examining their teeth—and this isn't easy to do. A representative from the Division of Wildlife aged the four gigantic heads I saw at Shipley's, heads that will take their place among the best whitetail deer ever shot in America, and discovered that two were four and a half years old and the other two were five and a half years old.

During the past 12 years, Ohio hunters have been getting their names on the list of world's records faster than hunters from any other state. Max Shipley is just waiting for the day when some smiling hunter walks in with a deer head that will place in the first three, or maybe even take top honors. Come to think of it, I'm sort of waitin' for that day, too.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Protein Foods — ground beef, fresh sausage, fryers, large eggs, dairy products.

Vegetables — lettuce, carrots, onions, potatoes, frozen peas.

Everybody Likes Thrifty Ground Beef

Many of us will go to the food store this week-end with purses flattened from holiday buying and with a firm resolution to feed our families well, but spend less. Meat, the most expensive item on the shopping list, stays high priced. One meat that many will return to is the old standby, ground beef—and it need not be a "come down."

Thrifty ground beef is a quick-change artist that plays many parts. You can use it for casual family meals broiled and garnished with onion and pepper rings; or for parties dressed up with cheese; or for hearty and substantial meals as meat loaf or served with spaghetti and meat sauce; or turn it into gourmet fare as Swedish meat ball hors d-oeuvres.

This versatility of ground beef or hamburger makes it a universal favorite. High in flavor, low in cost, ground beef disproves that cardinal culinary rule that only the finest grades of ingredients should be used. Low-cost cuts of beef score just as high nutritionally as more tender cuts, and hamburger acquires tenderness from a trip through the grinder.

The variety that can be achieved with meat loaves is limited only by the imagination and ingenuity of the cook.

Beef balls served with spaghetti or rice are favorite dishes of many nationalities. They're easy to make and take only minutes to shape. Occasionally wetting your hands with cold water makes shaping easier. It's a good idea, if you have a freezer, to make extras while you're at it, and tuck them away for another occasion.

Burger Rafts

2 lbs. ground beef
1 teaspoon Accent
1¼ teaspoons of salt
8 slices bread
Cheese strips.

1. Break up meat with fork and add seasonings.
2. Place bread slices on baking sheet; place under medium heat of broiler until lightly browned.
3. Remove from heat; turn bread slices.
4. Spread each slice with one-fourth pound of meat, spreading to edges. Return to broiler and cook approximately 10 minutes.
5. Top each with cheese strips, return to broiler until melted. If you like, serve with broiled tomatoes. Makes eight servings.

Warnings Against Tularemia Listed

Cases of rabbit fever (tularemia) are very uncommon in the Buckeye state, according to Bill Edwards, game biologist; however, preventive measures should be noted:

(1) Do not retrieve rabbits that seem sluggish.

(2) Avoid contact with your skin the blood or other discharges of all wild game.

(3) Be careful not to rub your eyes with soiled fingers or gloves after handling rabbits. Persons dressing wild game, particularly rabbits, should wear rubber gloves and always wash their hands with soap, water and disinfectant.

(4) If at the time of cleaning, small, raised, pus-filled, yellowish spots are present on the liver or spleen of the rabbit, the animal should be burned or buried.

(5) The meat of wild animals, especially rabbits, should be thoroughly cooked as this will render it safe, even though it may have harbored the disease. There should be no red meat s und the bones after proper cooking.

Incubation period for the disease is from one to 10 days, usually within 48 hours after the beginning of symptoms of chills, fever and general malaise. Streptomycin and aureomycin are effective therapeutic agents and permanent immunity commonly follows infection.

Shipley Looks For Record Racks

Max Shipley, right, taxidermist, of 705 S. Ogden-av, and his assistant Herb Hull, 3375 Briggs-rd, work on the antlers of a record 10-point deer shot by Ralph Miller of Basil, and a near record breaker 13-point head, shot by W. S. Beaty of Carroll.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Hilltop taxidermist Max Shipley is keeping his eyes open these days for extremely large deer antlers in hopes he will find some that will qualify in the record books. A few heads from the recent Ohio deer season are still trickling in to be mounted by Max.

Shipley is recognized all over the country as an exceptionally fine taxidermist. He does his work in the basement of his home at 705 S. Ogden-av.

It all started as a hobby, and then Shipley carried it on as a sideline to farming 200 acres. Eventually he gave up farming, and now mounts about 100 big game heads a year in addition to many smaller animals and fish. He also gets deer hides tanned, and can arrange for gloves, jackets, and other items to be made form deer skins.

Says Ohio Deer Bigger

His consuming interest for several years though has been to see that some of the truly magnificent Ohio deer heads are recognized in the World's Record Books kept officially by The Boone and Crockett Club. Twelve years ago, when Ohio had its first deer season in recent years, Shipley noted that Ohio heads were larger on the average than the heads from Canada, Michigan, Wisconsin, and West Virginia. This is easy to understand when you consider that most Ohio deer are exposed to fields of corn, alfalfa, and clover. These rich foods produce big deer with large, massive antlers.

When I talked to Max, there had been at least four heads given to him for mounting that will land in the record books. They cannot be officially measured for 60 days in order to allow for shrinkage, but Shipley is certain that they will be large enough to qualify.

Points Don't Tell Age

Most people know that you can't determine a deer's age from his antlers. But every year I find a hunter or two counting up points and saying, "Well, this old buck's about 10 years old." The only true way of determining age in deer is by examining their teeth—and this isn't easy to do. A representative from the Division of Wildlife aged the four gigantic heads I saw at Shipley's, heads that will take their place among the best whitetail deer ever shot in America, and discovered that two were four and a half years old and the other two were five and a half years old.

During the past 12 years, Ohio hunters have been getting their names on the list of world's records faster than hunters from any other state. Max Shipley is just waiting for the day when some smiling hunter walks in with a deer head that will place in the first three, or maybe even take top honors. Come to think of it, I'm sort of waitin' for that day, too.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Protein Foods — ground beef, fresh sausage, fryers, large eggs, dairy products.

Vegetables — lettuce, carrots, onions, potatoes, frozen peas.

Everybody Likes Thrifty Ground Beef

Many of us will go to the food store this week-end with purses flattened from holiday buying and with a firm resolution to feed our families well, but spend less. Meat, the most expensive item on the shopping list, stays high priced. One meat that many will return to is the old standby, ground beef—and it need not be a "come down."

Thrifty ground beef is a quick-change artist that plays many parts. You can use it for casual family meals broiled and garnished with onion and pepper rings; or for parties dressed up with cheese; or for hearty and substantial meals as meat loaf or served with spaghetti and meat sauce; or turn it into gourmet fare as Swedish meat ball hors d-oeuvres.

This versatility of ground beef or hamburger makes it a universal favorite. High in flavor, low in cost, ground beef disproves that cardinal culinary rule that only the finest grades of ingredients should be used. Low-cost cuts of beef score just as high nutritionally as more tender cuts, and hamburger acquires tenderness from a trip through the grinder.

The variety that can be achieved with meat loaves is limited only by the imagination and ingenuity of the cook.

Beef balls served with spaghetti or rice are favorite dishes of many nationalities. They're easy to make and take only minutes to shape. Occasionally wetting your hands with cold water makes shaping easier. It's a good idea, if you have a freezer, to make extras while you're at it, and tuck them away for another occasion.

Burger Rafts

2 lbs. ground beef
1 teaspoon Accent
1½ teaspoons of salt
8 slices bread
Cheese stripe.

1. Break up meat with fork and add seasonings.
2. Place bread slices on baking sheet; place under medium heat of broiler until lightly browned.
3. Remove from heat; turn bread slices.
4. Spread each slice with one-fourth pound of meat, spreading to edges. Return to broiler and cook approximately 10 minutes.
5. Top each with cheese strips, return to broiler until melted. If you like, serve with broiled tomatoes. Makes eight servings.

Vol. VI, No. 43 | Columbus, Ohio, Thursday, January 9, 1958 | Total No. 303

To Vacate Barrett Jr. Hi Position On February 1

Franklin County schools will have a new assistant superintendent effective Feb. 1 of this new year. The assistant superintendent will be present principal of Barrett Junior High School, Thomas J. Quick

The appointment, which was made and announced by County Superintendent of Schools George C. Beery, was approved Friday of last week by the Franklin County Board of Education. Quick became principal of Barrett Junior High School at the beginning of the school year, and reportedly has made a large number of friends among the students, faculty and parents.

Thomas J. Quick

Quick said he had previously discussed his resignation with Columbus School Superintendent Harold H. Eibling, and that he is prepared to make the switch from the Barrett job to the assistant superintendent job with the Franklin County School system on Feb. 1.

New Position

The post to be filled by the appointment of Quick is said by County Superintendent George C. Beery to be now. He also said that details had not been worked out. However, the superintendent said that Quick's first assignment will be to assist in the recruitment of additional teachers for county schools in the 1958-1959 school year.

The salary of the new assistant superintendent is $9,000 a year, with a contract covering a total of three years, it was said.

Franklin-Marion

The 46-year-old Quick is a veteran of more than 20 years of teaching and school administration. He was executive head of Marion Local School District for two years before it was annexed to Columbus in January, 1957.

Before that, Quick had served in teaching and administrative posts at Sistersville, Granville, Alexandria, and Utica.

He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Ohio University and has taken further graduate work at Ohio State University.

His Home

Quick lives at 1213 E. Woodrow-av with his family. His son, Don, 18, is a freshman at Ohio University. His daughter, Anita, 15, is a sophmore at Marion-Franklin High School.

In other action Friday, the county board approved a budget of $108,325 for 1958. Final approval on the budget appropriation now must come from the State Board of Education. Last year's budget for the county was $90,300.

Changes

A story in last week's South Side Leader told of the retirement of Mrs. Henrietta Sabine, classified advertising manager. A great many of the vast number of South Side Leader advertisers will miss their friend even while greeting another neighbor, Mrs. James (Isabelle) Coslett of 504 E. Morrill. Changes must come while we retain pleasant memories of congenial associates.

Heart-Break

While most of us were "making merry" in some form during the Christmas holiday week, others were without the smallest reminders of the occasion, and little hearts were broken. Fortunately they will heal quickly—all except the hearts of, particularly, mothers of homes where want, for some reason, existed. Deeply, we wish the balm of love can somehow shower all these, and that next year all of us may interest ourselves in more families where need exists.

Resolutions

Have you broken your newest new year resolution?

If you made the resolution more than 24 hours ago it is likely that it is by now a fractured thing. Wonder why? Most likely it is because we were a bit hilarious when we made it. But even sober, well-intentioned resolutions go the way of—well, go the way of ALL resolutions. And because our hearts are not properly and effectively touched.

'58 Pot Luck To Consider Style Show

Mrs. A. J. Fontaine, publicity chairman, has announced that the annual pot luck supper of St. Leo's Altar Rosary Parish Council will be held at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 14 in St. Leo's School Auditorium preceeding the regular monthly meeting.

Final plans for the "Hearts and Flowers" style show to be given on Wednesday, Feb. 12, will be made.

Russell Named 'March' Chairman

Mrs. Roy Russell, 969 S. Champion-av, has been named South Side district chairman for the 1958 Mother's March On Polio, according to an announcement at the first of the week by County Chairman Mrs. T. R. Powell, 2337 Canterbury-rd.

Sister To Speak

At St. Mary's PTA meeting to be held Thursday, Jan. 9, at 8 p.m., in the school hall, Sister Mary Evangela, principal of the high school will be guest speaker. The subject will be "The Role of the Catholic School in the Modern World," involving the aims and goals of the Catholic philosophy of education, Mrs. Herbert J. Brooks, publicity chairman said.

Randy Mason Duncan '58 Baby Derby Winner

A young fellow named Randy Mason Duncan stepped out of obscurity into the limelight at 5:49 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1958, in Doctors Hospital. The young fellow immediately became entitled (through mother and dad, of course, they being his guardians) to a flood of gifts donated, as an annual affair, to be used for and, later, maybe, by, young Mr. Randy Mason Duncan himself.

Seven In Family

This makes five children in the family, others being shown in the picture, with their names and ages. The father, Harold E. Duncan, is employed by Westinghouse Corporation. The family's home is at 102 Woodrow.

Calls In Person

This week Mrs. Duncan, the mother, started out to collect the prizes donated by business people for the first baby born in 1958 in The South Side Leader territory. She made the calls herself, she said, because she wanted to thank each donor in person for the generosity shown in contributing so much to the comfort of the new baby.

Measured

Baby Randy Mason Duncan had to be measured, of course, had to be weighed, and maybe cooed over, although we can't put the coos into this story—the reason being that the reporter can't spell. But he weighed 8 pounds 13 ounces at birth: he was 21 inches long, his eyes are blue, and then the recorder marked . . . HEALTHY!

Prizes for Baby

Prizes are listed below and are given by the business houses whose names precede the prizes:

Fountain Drug Store—40-piece Even-Flo Layette feeding set.

High Mithoff Pharmacy—Johnson & Johnson baby set.

Joe Ronson's Barber Shop—Free haircut for any member of the family.

Wives Set Date Meet

Announcement has been made that at the next meeting of the Overseas Wives Club will be held Friday, Jan. 10, at 8 p.m. at the YWCA. Miss Anna Hansen will show slide pictures on the English churches and cathedrals. Hostesses will be Mrs. James Armstrong, Mrs. Gil Cotton, Mrs. Charles Light, Mrs. John Flowers.

Membership in this group is open to any foreign-born wife of an American serviceman or ex-serviceman. Any one interested in joining this group should call Mrs. Robert Dorsey, CA. 4-7938, it was stated.

Soup Day

Mrs. Orville Rader has announced a special occasion for the WSCS of Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, of which Rev. Carl E. Brown is pastor.

Mrs. Rader and co-committee member Mrs. Leota Green have announced a vegetable soup day to be served at the church Wednesday, Jan. 15, beginning at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Rader told the Leader that a large portion of the "business" done that day is for taking home. "Do you supply cartons?" the reporter asked, only to learn that he must take his own container in which to take away his soup.

Recreaton Clubs To Open; Begin 9th Year

Boys recreation clubs will be operated by the Columbus Recreation Department for the ninth consecutive year beginning Saturday, Jan. 11, from 9 a. m. until 1 p.m. This physical activities program for boys from the fourth through the ninth school grades will be offered every Saturday through Mar. 15 at 13 schools or recreation center gymnasims. The purpose of this program is to provide organized and supervised recreational activities for boys in as many sections of the city as possible.

Under the direction of the Columbus Recreation Department, physical education students from Ohio State University will conduct activities which include basketball, tumbling, group games, volleyball, wrestling, and physical fitness. Boys in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades should report at 9 a.m. this Saturday at the club site nearest their homes an announcement stated, while the seventh, eighth, and ninth graders should report at 11 a.m. to the club nearest their homes.

Following are the clubs and their addresses:

Walter J. Leukart, Sr., 69-year-old former president, treasurer and chairman of the board of J. Leukart Machine Co., Inc., 2222 S. Third-st, died Tuesday night, Jan. 7, in St. Anthony Hospital. He lived with his wife, Florence, at 2311 Brookwood-dr.

He headed the firm for 38 years. He also is survived by his son, Walter, Jr., president of the firm; one daughter, five grandchildren, and three sisters. Arrangements are to be completed at the Schoedinger Funeral Home, 229 E. State-st.

Indiana Musician Provides Music For Ohio-av EUB Special Services

Curt Davis of Indianapolis, Ind., is guest musician beginning Thursday, Jan. 2, in a Spiritual Life Mission at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, according to Rev. Glendon, pastor. The musician brought his own Hammond organ and chimes and has had wide experience on radio and television. The Indianapolis man directs the music for the Methodist Camp at Lancaster each summer. He directs the music at each service at 7:30 each evening, except Saturday, and plays request numbers at 7:15 p.m.

Dr. Clayton F. Lutz of Columbus is the guest speaker for the series of services. He is a superintendent in Ohio Southeast Conference of the EUB Church and is a former pastor of Fifth Avenue and Burgess Avenue Churches in this city.

Curt Davis

C. F. Lutz

The services are continuing until Sunday, Jan. 12, with services on Sunday at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

These services are under the direction of the board of evangelism of the church. Rev. Glendon Herbert is the pastor of Ohio Avenue EUB Church, which is located at 1013 S. Ohio-av.

Urgent Topic To Draw Big Attendance

Roosevelt Junior High School PTA leaders expect a large attendance at the meeting this evening, when the subject of sex problems will be divided following the business meeting, at which Mrs. L. D. Thompson will preside

The meeting will begin at 7:45 and then will divide into three groups to consider different phases of the sex problem, including "The Molestation Situation in Columbus," "Sex Education For Adolescents," "The Family Council Plan — Patterns of Conduct for Home, School, Community."

Rev. Everett Mosslander will give the invocation, it was announced.

X-Ray Cruiser At Peerless Saw

The Tuberculosis Society's Christmas seal X-ray cruiser will visit Peerless Saw Co., 571 S. 3rd-st, Wednesday, Jan. 15, as it begins its 1958 tour of industries and other groups.

Employees X-rayed will receive literature explaining the program and its importance in keeping a clean bill of health.

Reports on the X-ray examinations will be sent to the employees by mail within two weeks.

Ballet Man To Be Guest

Jorg Fasting, Columbus, ballet instructor, will be the guest of honor at the Jan. 8 meeting of the South Unit of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

He will discuss the "Ballet and the Symphony" following the business meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Puetz, 1470 Studer-av, at 7:30 in the evening.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Floyd Ballenger, 943 Champion-av, and Mrs. George Gans of 2899 Neil-av.

Euchre Party

St. Leo's PTA is sponsoring a euchre party Saturday, Jan. 11, in the school hall at Hanford and Bruck-sts, according to Andrew Theado, chairman. Mrs. Arnold Plageman is assisting him as co-chairman. The party will start at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Plageman said.

Dance Plans

The Friday Social Dance Committee has engaged the "Strollers," under the direction of John Justus, 1447 Wilson-av starting Jan. 10. The "Strollers" will alternate every other week with Bob Rockey and his orchestra for the first part of the 1958 season.

PTA Meeting

Siebert School PTA will hold its first meeting of the new year in the form of a family night potluck supper, Tuesday, Jan. 14, at 6 o'clock. A short business meeting will follow.

Classified Adv. Pays Off—Big!

These things happen so often that we can't call them NEWS! But we like to hear them, even though it is a daily occurrence. Today we have selected an advertisement which recently appeared in the South Side Leader Classified pages . . . and for ONLY one day, too . . . Now you read on and see what Mrs. S. Powell of 1532 E. Livingston, has to say:

Mrs. Powell says she advertised a bedroom suite—double bed, springs, mat, night light, High Boy chest, vanity bench and desk, walnut wood like new, $95.00. SOLD! NOW, Mrs. Powell says she has always had wonderful results from classified advertising in the South Side Leader. In one recent classified ad she said she received more than 40 telephone calls . . . and made the sale, OF COURSE!

Hartley Honor Carriers Reap Harvest Of Valuable Prizes

MORE THAN 207 CARRIERS PARTICIPATED and "divvied-up" prizes, including basketballs, radios, bicycle accessories and home appliances, awarded in the Hartley Newspapers Carrier contest. The three-month contest was based on accumulated points on a basis of increased customers. Winners for the three-month period in their area were: Alex Manzares, South Side Leader, whose story appeared in this paper in October; Alice Wemyss, West Side News; and Dick Alder, Hilltop Record. Runners-up in the Leader area were Ricky Huffman, Mike Haten, Malcolm Parsons, Paul Kazee, Terrel Skaggs, Carl Leatherwood and Jerry Butts. Here, carriers representing the three newspapers are examining a few of the gifts. Pictured, left to right are, Kenny Kleinhenz, Tom Daft, Jack Schluep, circulation manager; Dick Madley, Joe Spender, Steve Daft, Jerry Ash, Cecil Wriston, Kenny Ash, Tom Hall, John Bentz and Ray Thomas.

Industrial Park Planned For Southeast

Residents, Planners and Broker Plan Attractive New Plant Sites

About 200 acres of the land located west of the N&W Railroad and north of the N.Y.C. tracks is involved in the proposed development. Neighboring residents seem ready to accept the park.

Surveys are due to begin soon; brokers promise a highly restricted development, say the site will be made attractive and clean.

Rumors of new industry for the Southeast moved out of the talking stage this week when a committee of interested citizens met with representatives of the Regional Planning Commission, engineers and brokers, to talk specifications for an industrial park in old Marion Twp.

The meeting is being held this morning (Thursday). Out of the discussions should come preliminary approval for development of a tract bounded by Moler and Refugee-rds, Fairwood-av, and the N&W RR tracks that run north and south between Alum Creek-dr and Columbus proper.

A spokesman for the citizens group reported Wednesday that surveys conducted recently among the residents in the neighborhod gave tentative approval for industrial development.

The area must be resoned before construction can proceed.

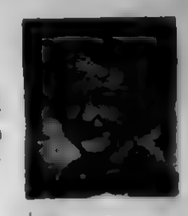
Several industries are reportedly ready to build.

The tract comprises approximately 200 acres; water, sewage and four-way access can be made available. It can be reached from route 33—only two miles away—and route 23 — less than three miles away.

Preliminary specifications describe improvements for the area of the kind mutually desirable to both industry and residential developments. Restrictions will limit building on no more than one square foot of ground to every two feet left vacant or planted.

Buildings can not utilize less than five acres each; must be set back at least 75 feet from roadways.

The industry will be of a class that can operate without dumping odors and smoke on the surrounding community.



If hoped-for-things come true, building will start in the spring.

Spokesman for the citizens group reported that restrictive provisions in both rezoning authority and deeds will insure development of the kind that has been talked.

A spokesman for the brokerage firm which will plot the site said Wednesday afternoon: "We are quite optimistic and most enthusiastic about the plan (preliminary)."

"It will be very nice," he said. "It will have built-in protections for both the industry and the neighboring residential areas."

Exact nature of the industry has not been disclosed.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Anyone For Birds?

It was just getting daylight, and I was crouched beside a bush straining my eyes looking into the dense fog rising from Big Darby Creek.

I had heard the squealing call of a wood duck somewhere nearby, and I was hoping that I would get a glimpse of the bird. Presently, a pair of wood ducks swam cautiously into view, took alarm and flew, with wings whistling, off into the misty gloom of the creek.

No, I didn't hastily click the safety off my shotgun and send a couple of magnum loads after them. The date was April 13, and I merely took out my notebook and added "two wood ducks" to a growing list of birds.

Records 93 Species

Just as some people play solitaire, or overwork their brain cells on crossword puzzles, I play a bird watching game that lasts all year long. The rules are simple—keep track of all the different kinds of birds I see in the vicinity of our house. I have just finished the 1957 game with a total of 93 different kinds of birds.

This may sound like a lot of birds to see in one year to hunters who think the only creature worthy of the name "bird" is a cock ringneck pheasant. Well, one reason I see a lot of birds is because there is a variety of living conditions near our house. Big Darby Creek is just a stone's throw from the edge of our yard. The house is surrounded by trees, and an abandoned hay field is on the west side. In wet periods marshy areas persist in the old hay field. I see water birds along the creek — mallard ducks, great blue herons, and sandpipers. In the trees we have warblers, thrushes, catbirds, and many others. The open field provides native sparrows, bobolinks, pheasants and killdeer, to list a few.

Another trick that is not against the rules of my game is to feed birds during the winter. Last Jan. 13, for instance, I observed four downy woodpeckers, two bluebirds, two white breasted nuthatches, one pine siskin (a real rarity for that time of year), one tufted titmouse, two Carolina chickadees, one flicker and two song sparrows at the feeder.

Checks Spring Migrations

To compile a pretty fair list of birds from a small area such as I have limited myself, you have to be out early in the mornings during the spring migrations. If you keep your eyes open the last two weeks of April and the first part of May, you can add many migrants to your list. For example, on May 16 I added 11 birds to the list on that day alone.

Surprisingly, there were several game birds on the list. I've already mentioned wood ducks, mallards and pheasants. A covey of bob-white quail lived in the open field, and on April 16 I was walking around some puddles in the same field and flushed six jacksnipe.

Some birds I saw many times, and others I was lucky to see at all. A pair of Carolina wrens were with us all summer, and raised three families in our carport. The Cooper's hawk with a nest along the lower road was difficult to catch at home, and I saw her only twice sneaking off through the treetops.

On a cloudy, cold day in April I got only a quick glimpse of a high-flying herring gull. An American bittern almost eluded me, and I saw it for only a fleeting second before it disappeared down the creek.

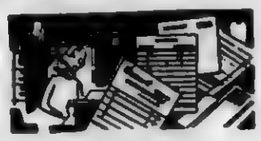
I'm in the midst of the 1958 bird game, and by this time the Donald Webers next door are accustomed to me peering out the windows with various spy glasses. Maybe I'll break a hundred this year, and then again I may chuck the whole business and try something sane like seeing how many fish I can catch out of Big Darby in a year's time.

The keel for the navy's sixth supercarrier, the Constellation, has been laid. The carrier bears the name of the first vessel ever built specifically for the navy, over 160 years ago.

Restoration of the navy cruiser Olympia is under way. Originally, she was the flagship for Commodore George Dewey, and sea history was made when Dewey delivered these famous words from her bridge, "You may fire when ready, Gridley."

Statewide Habitat Project Okayed By Wildlife Council

The Ohio Wildlife Council has recently approved a statewide wildlife habitat improvement and management project for the coming year. It will be carried out on both public and private lands totalling 355,00 acres.



Under the plan, the Division of Wildlife will furnish SCS farm cooperators with planting stock (trees and shrubs) and assistance in planting and development of living fences of multiflora rose to serve as connecting cover between wood lots and other wildlife habitat.

On public lands the program will include controlling natural succession of woody species to eventually permit more luxuriant growth of grasses, low brush and briars which provide optimum habitat conditions for rabbits, quail and deer. Wood lot border and black plantings of conifers will be made to improve winter cover for grouse, pheasants and rabbits.

Since large portions of many of the areas is in brush and timber, the practice will be to maintain certain age stands that will benefit the forest game species found thereon. Clear cuttings will be carried out in the larger blocks of timber to improve browse conditions and undesirable woody species will be removed to improve the habitat for squirrel, deer and grouse. To supplement the permanent food supply on the areas, annual food strips (one-fourth to one-half acre) of corn and other grains will be made near permanent cover.

On some of the heavily hunted areas, five-acre fenced enclosures will be erected to provide protected nesting cover and other ideal conditions for ring-necked pheasants and cottontail rabbits and serve as holding quarters for wintering Canada Geese.

Other uses of the 23 public areas will include: field trials, dog training, hiking, nature study, etc., as long as these activities do not interfere with the primary objectives of providing better hunting and hunting opportunities.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lenox
HI. 4-1251

New York City is currently being explored by a Columbus South Sider, Mrs. Mabel M. Grimm. Mrs. Grimm is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John A. Callahon. The visit is a month-long one, so Mrs. Grimm should be able to see quite a bit of the nation's largest city.

We hope 1958 proves a much happier year for Laura Roughn, for 1957 ended bumpily enough. Laura took a tumble down her daughter's steps and was considerably shaken up. She is a resident of 1415 S. Sixth-st.

A late December wedding and an early January one comprise our newly-wed list. Miss Beverly Benedict, 1079 Ellsworth-av, and Philip Reed, Norwich, O., exchanged their Dec. 28 vows in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. The bride is a South High graduate, while her husband graduated from Norwich High. After Jan. 8 their home will be at 1600 Elmwood-av. Livingston Methodist Church was the setting for the Jan. 3 marriage of Sara Lee Pierce, 1276 S. Fourth-st, and Robert Irwin, 840 S. 22nd-st. The South High graduates will go to Tucson, Ariz., where the new husband is stationed in the air force.

Early January birthdays: Jimmie O'Neill, 235 Thurman-av, was three years old Jan. 3. Joyce Black, who went one step higher in the "teens" on Jan. 8, of 1700 Frebis-av, and Priscilla Lenox, who didn't get any younger on Jan. 7, dern it!

Roosevelt Junior High PTA members are in full swing already, with a meeting scheduled for 7:45 tonight. The band will present the entertainment. The theme is "Face the Facts," to be held in group discussions.

How does the idea of homemade soup strike you? Well, if you like it, but don't like all the work that goes with it, here's a solution: The Ruth Circle of Gates-Fourth Methodist is selling it next Wednesday, Jan. 15. The soup will be ready from 11:30 a.m. on, won't be served at the church. Be sure to bring your own container.

Two Trudeau Guilds held meetings last evening, one out of the regular meeting time. Guild 25, because the first Wednesday was New Year's Day, held its meeting off schedule. The group met in the home of Helen Fisher (Helen will be having a birthday the 15th of this month, incidentally). Guild 10 met in the home of Frances Paulus of Welch-av.

Basketball resumes again for the school youngsters. The Bulldogs will play at West tomorrow evening.

The holiday season was a particularly active one for the Souder family of S. Third-st. Mr. Souder's parents, of Blacklick, O., celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Dec. 22, and their family gathered to honor them with a dinner. The senior Souders have four sons, and all except the one in Idaho were able to be present. To make the holiday even gayer, Richard Merriman was able to get a 10-day furlough to help his grandparents celebrate. Richard, the son of Tim and Helen Souder, is stationed at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

WSCS Circle meetings to be held soon: Mary and Martha of Gates-Fourth, today at 10:30 a.m.; Thurman Avenue Methodist has two Circle meetings also, as well as a general meeting. The general meeting is set for 10 a.m. Mrs. Harry Hymrod will preside. Elizabeth Circle meets at the church, and hostesses are Grace Adams and Ethel Burke. Mary Circle will have a luncheon at the Seneca Appliance Co. Oakwood Methodist WSCS meetings are: Susannah Wesley, Jan. 10, 7:45 p.m., hostess, Mrs. W. R. Smith, 1172 Miller-av. Three circles have Jan. 14 meeting days. They are Bennett, at 8 p.m., 608 S. Ohio-av, home of Miss Ethel Smith; Esther Hall, 564 Wilson-av, home of Mrs. Viola Fuller, at 1 p.m., and Ethel Harpst, 7:30 p.m., 1024 Berkeley-rd; hostess, Mrs. Ed Cunliff.

Leonard Reynolds, 1741 S. Champion-av, ended 1957 in chipmunk fashion, we'd say. Yep, he had the mumps!

Our sympathy to Mrs. Hazelbarger, who lost her sister last week.

Birthday time for these kiddies: Paul Hahnert, 164 Innis-av, Jan. 13; Tommy Mulisano, 43 Jenkins, Jan. 11; Sonja McCormick, 1725 S. Fourth-st, Jan. 13; Mark McKinster, 232 Markison-av, Jan. 11; James Delgarn, 1482 S. High-st, Jan. 1; Gary Binegar, 310 Hanford-st, Jan. 9; Todd Alles, 70 E. Woodrow, Jan. 10; Howard Raffeld, 279 E. Moler, Jan. 11; Ralph Denney, 51 W. Moler-st, Jan. 13.

Mrs. Bier, our wonderful "doll lady," is once again looking for dollies to dress for the less fortunate childre next Christmas, so if any youngsters are wanting to discard old dolls, now that Santa has brought them new ones, won't you get in touch with her at HI. 4-4083? For those who live in the vicinity of Howard Ebert's Drug Store, it is possible to take the dolls there. (Mr. Ebert suggested this himself, and we appreciate his thoughtfulness). It makes no difference if the doll looks beyond repair. Mrs. Bier has a magic way with them, believe me!

Three young folks from this area are quite busy this week, and in a rather unusual capacity. Bob Dean, Dan Bayes, and Priscilla Dicke are combining efforts to hold an evangelistic service at Edgewood Chapel in the west side of the city. Dan and Bob are alternating with song-leading and preaching duties, while Priscilla is the pianist. The rest of their group, the Christian Crusaders, will sing on two occasions and Don Dicke will contribute musically with his violin.

The Swiss Club, Third and Beck-sts, will hold its first card party of the year Saturday, Jan. 11, at 8:15 p.m.

No more news for this edition. How about making a resolution to include the Gadabout in your group's publicity plans, or in your family celebrations, etc.? She'll be most grateful, believe me! The phone is HI. 4-1051, for your convenience. Till next week, then, 'tis—

THE GADABOUT.

Evangelistic Team Coming To Washington Ave. Church

Pastor Boyd C. Rife of Washington Avenue EUB Church has announced the coming here of the team of evangelists widely known as the "Ray Nelsons" to conduct an evangelistic campaign at the Washington Avenue EUB Church. The church is located at 359 Markison-av.

Dates for the evangelistic program have been announced as Jan. 14 through Jan. 26. Services will begin each evening at 7:30, according to the pastor, with gospel singing contributing to each evening's inspiration.

The Nelsons' home is in Jamestown, N.Y. They are both reputed to be outstanding musicians. Both participate in the music program which will be a part of each evening's program, it was said, with solos and duets being an important phase of the service. Varied instruments contribute to the successful musical programs, the statement said.

THE NEW YEAR

The New Year has been called many things: A fresh white page . . . A path once familiar, now covered with snow . . . An unread book . . . Fresh calendars . . . A new beginning.

This is being written on the last day of 1957, but it will probably be 1957 to me till about April, when it will dawn upon me that it's 1958 I should write in the date line.

About all there is left to do in 1957 is to thank God for bringing us safely through it, with a minimum of scars, and to say the usual fond farewell to the year of Sputnik, Little Rock, hurricanes, et al.

But 1957 has not been all bad, for any of us. It has been a year of warm friendships, wonderful families, good books, good music and other fine things. It is so much easier to enumerate the good things of 1957 than the bad—there are so many more of them!

Just wondering — if there is anything that looks as final and as lonely as a Christmas tree thrown on the trash, with a few stray bits of tinsel glistening in the sun . . . . How many doting parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and friends of small children, are proudly displaying photographs of them, taken with that V.I.P., that Man of Distinction of December, Santa Claus Himself . . . How soon one of those male television singers is going to fall off the stool . . . How even a city the size of New York could find five doctors who would have the time to get together on anything . . . How Tallulah likes to have M.C.s. call her "dahling"—turn about is fair play, they say.

Circles Of Oakwood Set For Meetings

The Oakwood Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church Jan. 8, with business at 9:30 a.m. The luncheon was served at 12:15 p.m. with Mrs. H. B. Watts having a program entitled "Christian Action on the March." Mrs. Earl Toole gave the devotions.

Circles will meet as follows:

Bennett will meet Jan. 14 at 8 p.m. at the home of Miss Ethel Smith, 608 S. Ohio.

Esther Hall will meet Jan. 14 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Viola Fuller, 564 Wilson-av.

Time and Clime Covered By Books At Parsons Library

By Julie Warner

As the new year begins, the Parsons Branch Library will be offering a wide selection of new books to their patrons.

"The Wind In the Forest" by Inglis Fletcher, is among the historical novels soon to be available. It is a moving story of the conflict between the frontier farmers and the conservative plantation owners of North Carolina around 1771. The novel is Mrs. Fletcher's ninth concerning the history of the Carolinas.

Harnett T. Kane's "The Gallant Mrs. Stonewall," is a biographical novel concerning the tragic life of Mrs. Anna Jackson. Anna faced ridicule from her friends in her marriage to "Stonewall" Jackson only to lose him through the unfortunate accidental shooting at Chancellorsville. This book will also be on the shelves soon.

"The Expanding Case for the UFO" is M. J. Jessup's latest book on the controversial subject of flying saucers and the possibility of life on the moon. Both historical data and the most recent in formation are used in this thought-provoking volume to support Mr. Jesup's belief that unidentified flying objects do exist.

Everyone who read the best-seller "Something of Value" should enjoy reading the autobiography of the author, Robert Ruark. Entitled "The Old Man and the Boy," the book described the relationship of the author to his grandfather and the influence which the older man had upon him.

Harry Emmerson Fosdick's autobiography, "The Living of These Days," is among the new books at Parsons. The well-known minister and author has kept in step with the changing times. At 79 he expresses his feelings about the state of the world by saying "I want to stay around and see how it is all going to come out." The story of his life is both informative and inspiring.

Mystery fans will enjoy "The Mary Roberts Rinehart Crime Book." The book includes three of Miss Rinehart's finest and most popular works, "The Door," "The Confession" and "The Red Lamp."

"We hope that the new year will bring new experiences in reading enjoyment for our patrons," Miss Margaret Bausch, branch head at Parsons, said.

The 4-H program is a part of the national educational system of cooperative extension work in which the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the state land-grant colleges and the counties share.

Operation of farm machinery causes about a third of farm accidental deaths; next in order are drownings, firearms, falls, animals and burns.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

By Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

JANUARY PLENTIFULS: Apples, dried prunes, dates, potatoes, canned and frozen peas, dairy products, broilers and fryers, almonds and filberts.

A LOOK TO THE FUTURE

How will your food budget fare in 1958? The crystal ball gazers have been using the phrase, "little different from 1957", when describing the general food situation for the coming year. Food supplies during 1958 are expected to be large—almost as large as during the past year.

Retail prices on food may average a little higher in 1958, especially during the first half of the year. This will be partly because of the strong demand for some foods that will be in shorter supply such as beef and eggs, and partly because of increased marketing cost. When costs of getting food from the farm to the store rise, the increases are likely to show up in retail prices. Also, we'll be starting the new year with food prices higher than they were in January, 1957.

MEATS—The meat counter will display supplies close to that of 1957. Marketings of pork are expected to be larger, especially during the last half of the year. We'll probably have a little less beef and veal.

POULTRY AND EGGS—We'll be eating more chicken. In fact, chicken consumption in 1958 is expected to be at a record high. The increase will be in broilers and fryers. Because there are fewer laying hens than a year ago, there will be fewer eggs—at least until late summer. This will result in higher egg prices.

FRESH PRODUCE

Recent cold weather in many of the growing areas has started things off on the "wrong foot" as far as fresh produce is concerned.

FRUITS — Citrus shipments from Florida were embargoed until Dec. 30, to permit damage from the recent freeze to show up, so that only good fruit would be shipped. Supplies of both oranges and grapefruit will increase during January and February. However, there will be fewer oranges than expected earlier, and prices will be higher.

While damage to the grapefruit crop was less severe than on oranges, prices will be higher than in 1957. Apples, a favorite of many, remain abundant . . . quality is staying good and price is low. We'll have more bananas and more grapes than last year. We have about the same amount of canned fruit on hand as a year ago and more frozen fruit.

VEGETABLES — The fresh vegetable picture is difficult to anticipate for any long period of time, but we'll "start the New Year" with large supplies of canned and frozen vegetables.

Some spots can be romeved from felt hats and suede shoes by rubbing lightly with sandpaper or an emery board.

After six years of experiments, navy scientists have successfully bounced radar beams off the moon, indicating the moon can be used as a radio relay station.

Over all 1958 will be a good eating year. Plenty of food for everyone . . . the total cost of our food market basket slightly above 1957 . . . a continued trend toward more convenience and built-in maid service . . . more people to feed . . . marketing cost still rising.

Brief Story About Junior Church Choir And Loyalty

By Mrs. Donald Salser

The Junior Church of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church is the result of a prayer, the love of God and the love of children. It is truly an "upper room" sanctuary, made beautiful by the donations and services of many. The children have their own bulletins, ushers, projectors, record players, and church envelopes. By the use of these, they learn to feel at home in an adult service anywhere. The average attendance ranges high. It was organized in 1952, is now under the direction of Mrs. Paul Hanson, Mrs. Donald Salser and Mrs. Paul White.

The choir of 20 has participated in special adult services and regularly sings in its own service.

Maintaining Interest

Every service is made meaningful by all the means available for reaching the hearts of children and keeping their interest, such as flannelgraph work, film strips, movie film, mission stories by recordings and books, awards made for memory work and attendance.

Over the years there have been guest speakers from many countries, bringing with them slides and possessions from their homelands; and missionaries returned with a story of interest to little people, about their service; and young men who have been in the service of our country have brought us pictures and stories of other lands. With all of this, the children dislike missing any Sunday service. In June we had a service for 16, some of whom had attended for five years. These were going into the adult church.

P.-T. Council Meets Jan. 9

The Columbus Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will meet at Central High School Jan. 9 at 1:30 p.m. with the invocation being given by Frye McDonald, principal, Lincoln Park School. The pledge of allegiance will be led by H. Delbert Swain, second vice-president. Music will be given by the instrumental ensemble from Dominion Junior High under the direction of John W. Haas.

The subject for the meeting is "Expanding Horizons in Teacher Recognition." A panel of recipients of "Grants for Achievement in Education" will have as moderator W. W. Miller, assistant superintendent of Columbus Public Schools.

Members of the panel are teachers who have been recipients of the $500 grants and will explain their particular field of specialization in education and how they used their grant to further it.

Teachers comprising the panel are Miss Goldie Bowles and Mrs. Juanita Webster, who developed reading aids; Edwin Stauffer, physics and science instructor, South High School; Miss Genevieve Miller and Miss Helen Sanfort will treat of an arts and crafts workshop, while Lewis Feesler, who developed instrumental resource material used in schools in connection with a study of the peoples of the world, will represent this topic.

Hens and pullets on farms Jan. 1, 1958 will be down about five percent from a year earlier. Rate of lay will be up slightly over a year earlier and will continue up slightly in 1958, according to Ohio State University Extension poultry specialists.

the people in the community. Year after year the custom is maintained in the South Side Leader area.

Merchants and other business and service concerns have cooperated with Tom Sharp, display advertising manager for the South Side Leader, by taking space in the Leader to sponsor the "First Baby Marathon," and by providing gifts and they deserve the appreciation and patronage of the public. Tom's usual enthusiasm and expenditure of physical energy were unlimited in the promotion of a royal welcome for the first-born after midnight the 31st of December. Congratulations, Tom, and to your business people—they're just Tops of the Tops.

Not Too Early

In her weekly column Gadabout tells of an opportunity for many to help in distributing Christmas cheer next December. Long way off?- Not at all, bless you! It's right here, with the "Doll Lady" asking for discarded dolls so she can be working on her gifts to those who would be without come next Christmas morning. The "Doll Lady" can't fix dolls fast enough to take care of the urgent needs at Christmas time unless cast-off dolls are brought to her now. She is a friend to many. The Bier home is at 742 E. Gates-st. The telephone is HI. 4-4063. Let's flood her with cast-off dolls!

THE S.O.S. CALL

An Ontario mother took her young son on a Sunday-school picnic, only to lose him in the excitement of watching his first three-legged race. She had just begun an anxious search for her small one when—loud and clear above all the other talk, shouts and laughter—came a desperate young treble crying, "Jessie — Jessie."

When she finally go to his side and had him calmed down again, she asked why he called her Jessie when he always called her Mother at home.

The tyke looked at her with justified disdain and declared shortly, "It was no use calling Mother — the place is full of mothers."—Maclean's.

The USS Nautilus has scored another "first" for the navy by submerging five and one-half days under the Arctic ice pack a distance of more than 1,000 miles to obtain data on under-ice conditions and other scientific information.

Export demand for fresh citrus fruits during 1957 dropped from four to 11 percent, but exports of canned and frozen juice concentrates were up sharply.

Dog Licenses At Great Southern

The Humane Society has informed the Leader that dog owners in this area may secure their licenses at Zettler Hardware, Great Southern Shopping Center. The only other place available, it was stated, is the County Auditor's office in the Court House. Deadline for nonpenalty purchase is Jan. 20.

The County Auditor's office will mail your license to you upon receipt of your application giving a full description of your dog, such as age, sex, coloring and breed, accompanied by the correct amount for the license tag and a self-addressed stamped return envelope.

License fees are $2 for a male, female, or spayed female, and $10 for a kennel license.

In addition to being licensed, all dogs three months of age and older must be immunized against rabies. The health regulations adopted by the boards of health of Columbus, Franklin County, Upper Arlington, and Grandview Heights require the immunization against rabies of all dogs every 12 months, if the regular type vaccine has been used and the re-immunization against rabies of all dogs every three years if the new type of chick embryo vaccine has been used.

Clean Speech . . . Spots, Scholarship and Living-Pledged By Marion-Franklin HI-Y

CLEAN SPEECH—Marion-Franklin Hi-Y boys pledge to help one another through individual examples of high Christian character. Pictured is the induction team (in robes) and new members: Jerry Ray, Gary Hahn, Ronnie Leddy, Ward Barritt (Advisor), Jerry Reeves, Don Darst, John Solt, Charles Pyle, Larry Lupfer, Herb Little, Roy Keckley, Ralph Macioci, Jim Kremer, Don Dailey, Gilbert Fuleki, Dave Jackson and Roderick Cripe.

The Right Angle Club House at South Y-Park was recently the scene of the Marion-Franklin Hi-Y induction ceremony, at which time eight new members were inducted.

M. V. "Cap" Hoover, executive secretary of the South Side Branch YMCA, was guest speaker and delivered a challenge for the Hi-Y Fellowship to be tops in all they do.

The Marion-Franklin High School Hi-Y Club is a sponsored club of the South Side Branch YMCA and is affiliated with the Columbus Metropolitan YMCA, the Ohio-West Virginia Area YMCA, and the National Council YMCA of the United States. Ward Barritt is the faculty advisor.

Officers of the club are Larry Lupfer, president; John Solt, vice-president; Gilbert Fuleki, secretary; Ralph Macioci, treasurer; Jerry Reeves, chaplain, and Dan Dailey, sergeant-at-arms.

Hi-Y members pledge themselves to help one another in the keeping of the covenant to create, manitain and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character and to stand together on and for the pltaform of clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship and clean living.

'Dear Son'

Chittlin' Switch,
Friday night.

Dear Jason:

Well, Christmas is over until next year. It's too bad you couldn't make it home for Christmas but then, as I told everybody, your Commanding Officer just coudn't spare you with the Executive Officer taking leave and everything. Somebody has to take charge of things.

We had quite a party here Christmas. They came from all over — Polecat Junction, Elbow Bend, Pasture Flats, DeWitt Corners and I don't know the other joints.

Anyway, there must have been a hundred people here at the house. You know how those society people do each Christmas Eve like carry in the Yule log? Well this year, as usual, promptly at midnight they carried in your old man. Nothing but loaded!

We sure had a nice crowd but like everything else, there's always a show-off or two in the bunch to spoil things, like the old maid school teacher, Sophie Sludge. She's been all over the world and loves to brag about it. It seems that when she was in Bali, the Cannibal-in-Charge presented her with a lapel ornament to go on her powder blue suit. She spent the entire evening here showing all the men her Bali button.

Your brother Elmo gave his wife a couple of unusual gifts for Christmas. He got her a washboard and a mirror. Elmo always was a lazy one but this takes the cake. It seems he was sick of working and quit his job. When his wife asked him how come such silly presents, like a washing board and a mirror, Elmo told her that if she didn't start taking in washing she could watch herself starve to death.

Ned Poozer also came to the party. He was the principal of the school of business that your sister Moronica graduated from. I don't think that business course did your sister a bid of good. She's had a tough time landing a job although she nearly got one the other day. She was being interviewed by the president of the Chittlin' Switch National Bank and he gave her sort of an examination. He asked her if she knew punctuation, shorthand, how to care for a typewriter and filing. She knew all about that stuff but when he asked her if she could manipulate a roll top desk — that's where he had her!

Incidentally, Moronica was getting slightly on the fat side and about a month ago she went to the doctor and he put her on a diet and she can't eat anything except coconuts and bananas. To my estimation, she hasn't lost any weight but she can sure climb trees.

We were all sorry that your Uncle Lushmore couldn't make it for the festivities this year but he fractured his right leg. It seems he fell off a ladder while trying to put on his long drawers. Lush says that the only reason he drinks is because it's cheaper than sending his wife to the beauty parlor.

The other day he was on his way home after your paw had just given him a pint of joy juice he had just run out of the still. Lush put it in his hip pocket. While he was crossing the turnpike he got hit by a truck and when he got up on his feet he felt something trickling down his right leg. Lush was real worried for a minute but was very relieved when he found it was only blood.

Write soon. Your loving,
MOM

Who's Conducting What?

It's a case of turnabout as Columbus, O., Symphony Conductor Evan Whallon (right), tries his hand at punching a ticket, while C. L. Weber, passenger conductor for the Pennsylvania Railroad, takes over "conducting" chores. Switch was arranged to publicize "Railroad Night at the Symphony" scheduled for January 22. Special event is being sponsored by Railroad Community Committee of the Columbus Area, an organization comprising membership from the five railroads serving Ohio's capital city area.

Hamilton Twp. Organizes Board

Three new members for the Hamilton Township Board of Trustees were sworn into office this week. Organization of the Board resulted as follows: Donald Lytle, president and Leroy Green, vice president. Edson Doersam was the third member.

Regular meetings of the Board will be held at their office, 29 Cottage-st, Shadeville, the second Wednesday of each calendar month at 7:30 p.m.

A Picture for Remembrance
THE DEDICATED purpose of every funeral director is to make the final hour of parting one that will bring comfort of mind — to create a Memory Picture that will live through the long years ahead. This is the reason for the beauty of the caskets, the soft lights and music, the flowers and the evidence of tenderness and reverence in the service. We have dedicated our chapel to this high purpose.

Plans For New South Side YMCA Building Are Announced At Fortieth Annual Meeting

Mrs. Harold Brunton Receives Guild 8 Gavel From Mrs. Spiker

Guild No. 8 of Guilds of Mercy Hospital will have their regular meeting Wednesday, January 22, in the assembly room of the hospital when new officers will take office, with Mrs. Joseph Spiker turning over the gavel to Mrs. Harold Brunton, of 347 Southwood, newly elected chairman. Others taking office: Mrs. Robert Baker, 375 S. High-st, co-chairman; Mrs. Harry Rucker, 1427 Parsons-av, treasurer; Mrs. Oscar Brown, 374 E. Whittier-st, Sunshine chairman.

Business Organization Officials Stand For Induction

$350,000 Structure To Be Built At Jenkins And Sixth

The YMCA . . . the part it has played in character building and service to the South Side community . . . took the spotlight on Monday evening when the fortieth annual meeting of the South Side Young Men's Christian Association was held at St .Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, 225 E. Gates st.

Of major importance to the more than 250 persons assembled for the meeting was the announcement of the forthcoming capital funds drive for the YMCA and YWCA, which, if successful, will provide a new $350,000 building for the South Side YMCA at Jenkins and Sixth opposite Southwood School.

The meeting was opened with the invocation by Bruce Gischel, chaplain of the South Hi-Y Club. Guests were introduced by C. C. Brown, chairman of the local branch board of management. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Joe Davis, a board member.

C. C. Loudenslager announced that the following men had been elected to membership on the board: R. L. Hepner, J. L. Davis, R. E. Madden, Don Lund, Rev. Paul C. Kaefer and Arthur Starrett. These men were installed by Judge Alan Schwarzwalder.

A song fest was led by Paul Ward and the Junior Optimist Glee Club sang several selections.

A special resolution from the board of management honoring the memory of their late board member Floyd Lemon was read by C. L. Dumaree and the resolution was presented to Mr. Lemon's son, Floyd. An orchid was presented to Mrs. Lemon.

Don Lund read a citation to Elsie Grove, South High vice principal and presented her a plaque and orchid for her many years of service to the youth of South Columbus.

Walter Denny read a citation to Norman Gatsch and presented him a plaque and an orchid to Mrs. Gatsch.

Davis read a citation to Mr. Dumaree, presenting him with a plaque and an orchid to Mrs. Dumaree.

Expression of appreciation on behalf of the staff was by M. V. "Cap" Hoover, executive secretary of the South Side Y. Following a moment of silent prayer in tribute to Floyd Lemon the benediction was given by Rev. Paul Kaefer.

A slide story outling the needs of the YM and YW in their capital funds drive was presented and narrated by Tom Moody.

It was pointed out in the information regarding the fund drive that a total of $2,520,000 is now being sought for the purpose of erecting three new YM buildings and a new residence hall for the YW.

At present members of the official boards and staffs are being solicited for a goal of $250,000. This is being followed by soliciting of manufacturers, commercial firms and individuals. The community wide campaign for funds will be held after Easter of this year at which time every family will be asked to support this program.

It is planned that the new South Side Y building will contain a large gymnasium, meeting hall and numerous club rooms and other facilities that will be available for residents of this community.

C. Carlton Hartley, publisher of the Hartley Newspapers, including the South Side Leader and Rural-Urban News, is chairman of the county wide capital funds drive.

By OLIVER GEDEIST

This Is Printing Week

This is International Printing Week, marked across the nation and in Canada. It is no exaggeration to say that this is one of the most important weeks of the year to which the public attention is directed. A moment's reflection makes abundantly clear how impossible it would be to achieve, let alone to sustain, our present state of civilization without the aid of printing.

The printed word gives permanency to man's thoughts, his discoveries and his beliefs. It gives not only permanency but scope, so that through printing time is bridged and millions today may converse with the mind of Socrates or hear long-dead Ben Franklin discourse on the foibles of humankind.

Seeing the Country Fast

One of our very good friends is one of the best travelers we know—he's here today, but may be seven or more hundreds of miles in another 24 hours . . . providing, that is, if he has been able to arrange for the filling of his pulpit, which is the Wilson-av Church of the Nazarene. It will be remembered that two or three years ago the Old Parsons Church of the Nazarene was abandoned in favor of the new edifice at 1650 Wilson, with the home hard by. There is now a large congregation, modern equipment, a happy congregation . . . and he would not want us to overlook the nursery . . . so mama and papa can attend services merely by sitting in the nursery with their own and others' infants and little tots and listening . . . well, back to the travel, and this I want to say . . . that if, as I believe, he recharges his batteries, intellectually, and spiritually, on trips, he has a mighty storing capacity. This came about when he told me about a trip to Florida . . . zip . . . gone . . . and before I finished snoring . . . who was that who just breezed in? . . . why, my good friend Rev. D. E. Clay, who brought word of several interests down in the land of cotton and oranges. Many more trips for you my good friend . . . really, I can't ask for more for him . . . incidentally, although he wouldn't agree with the phrase, there's a special program coming up, with Rev. C. L. Wooten conducting. The meetings start next Monday evening and continue until Sunday, Jan. 26, when that day's services will end the program. The visiting minister is pastor at Athens, O. The hour 7:30.

Little shaver returned from a visit to a museum . . . "I saw a side saddle that pioneers put two legs on one side." He suddenly became modern on the visit to the museum. He adds: "I even saw fifty-nine dolls on the way to the museum."

Aquinas Ball Honors Queen

Mrs. William P. Hoermle, 2434 Beverly-rd, and Mrs. Anton Schumick, 736 S. Fifth-st, are members of the committee for "Her Majesty's Ball," sponsored by the Aquinas Mothers' Club, to be held at Valley Dale, Jan. 24, beginning at 9 p.m.

A queen will be chosen at the ball, although how she is to be chosen will remain a secret until that night. Any young woman over 18 who attends this gala affair will have the chance of wearing the coronation attire, Mrs. Hoermle and Mrs. Schumick said. Many beautiful gifts will be presented to "Her Majesty." Tickets are available from any member of the Aquinas Mothers' Club or at the door, it was said.

Church Basketball Leagues Open Season With Thriller

Tuesday, Jan. 7, and Wednesday, Jan. 8, marked the first nights of league competition in the South Side Branch YMCA Church Basketball Leagues.

The Junior League, with six teams, will play Tuesday nights and the Intermediate League, also with six teams, will compete on Wednesday nights. Both leagues plan to play two rounds, with championship games played if they are needed. The emphasis of the league play will be placed on the teams' sportsmanship during competition. Officials of the games will grade the teams according to their play and the team receiving the most points will receive a trophy at the award party as a reward for good sportsmanship.

Thriller

The Tuesday Junior League opened with a thriller and then broke wide open for the last two games. St. John United Church of Christ (E and R) started the season off right by taking a close one from St. Paul United Church of Christ (E and R), 23-20. Both teams played good ball and were never far apart in the scoring. Bob Harris led St. John with 11 points while Bob Boland scored nine for the losers. Oakwood Methodist had more height, more weight, and more score to give Frebis Avenue Church of God a tough evening. Bill Rundio took advantage of the situation and popped in 20 points for the winners and Darrell Branham put in six for the losers as Oakwood beat the Church of God 66-10. The same situation faced Central Community as Livingston Methodist put in 33 points to 4 for Central. Mike Grayem poured in 17 for Livingston and Don Wray put in all four for the losers.

Consumed By Forfeits

The Wednesday night Intermediate League was monopolized by forfeits on its first night of play. South Methodist bested Ohio Avenue EUB 41-20 in the first and only game of the evening. Scoring was very close in the first half, but broke in South Methodist's favor in the last half. Harold Bauer led the scoring for South Methodist with 28 and Steve Rounds did likewise for the losers with eight points. The other two game winners were by forfeit.

Gates-Fourth Methodist forfeited to St. Paul United Church of Christ and Thurman Methodist did likewise to Oakwood Methodist.

Barrett Cagers Win Over Eastmoor; Tells Of School's Graduation Days

Barrett Junior High School won over Eastmoor in the third league game by a final score of 46 to 12. Barrett took the lead in the beginning and kept it. The score by quarters was as follows:

Barrett	14	21	32	46
Eastmoor	4	6	8	12

Dan Valentine scored 16 points for Barrett and Al Wilson got nine points. Other high scores for Barrett were Merriman 7 and Martin 7. Bell, Gualke, Reynolds and Lee also scored.

Kenny Schumacher will be off the floor for the rest of the season because of an appendicitis operation. He will be missed by Barrett's team. He was a good prospect for the All-City Junior High team.

Thursday evening, Jan. 16, Barrett goes to George C. Beery Junior High School for a league [illegible]

As the term moves to its close, the following dates are announced:

Graduation exercises, Wednesday, Jan. 29, at 2:30 p.m.

Last day of school for graduates, Friday, Jan. 24.

Last day for every one, Wednesday, Jan. 29.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lower
HI. 4-1051

Wilma Barton, 341 Innis-av, is keeping her suitcase packed these days. The long-legged bird has an appointment in Houston, Texas, and his visit will make Wilma a grandmother for the first time. The parents-to-be are Chuck and Jacqueline Dersom. ("Jacky" is a South High grad of a few years back, incidentally.) Wilma will be starting for the Southwest a few days after she knows the little Dersom has put in his or her appearance.

East High will face the South High "Spoilers" tomorrow night on the Bulldogs' floor.

Betty Justice, 1447 Wilson-av, adds a candle to her birthday cake tomorrow. Mary Russell of 1809 S. Sixth-st, had her birthday this past Tuesday. The big news in the Russell household these days is the imminent marriage of granddaughter Marilyn Nistlebeck. Marilyn and her folks are native South Siders, but now reside at 47 N. James. Her marriage to a Chicago lad will occur Feb. 1.

Thurman Methodist's Susannah Circle will meet Jan. 21, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. John Hardwick. Mrs. Evelyn Walters is the co-hostess.

Women of the Church at Grace Lutheran Church have two women from this area as officers. The women are Mrs. John Westlake and Mrs. Joseph Pastorek, Jr. Mrs. Westlake, 1218 Lockbourne-av, is in charge of junior work, while special needs is under the supervision of Mrs. Pastorek, 1064 Linwood-av.

Birthday time for these younger South Siders: Jerry Wough, 79 Woodrow, Jan. 16; Richard Poezik, 133 Hinman, Jan. 21; Janice Pieplow, 153 E. Gates-st, Jan. 22; Robert Townsend, 104 Innis-av, Jan. 20; Norma Marcum, 195 E. Moler-st., Jan. 19; Linda Newkirk, 56 W Moler-st, Jan. 22; Daniel Robinson, 385 E Morrill, Jan. 20' Richard James, 155 Woodrow-av, Jan. 20, and David Wechers, 236 E. Moler, Jan 20

Two Cloverleaf Clubs will meet within the week in this part of Columbus. They are numbers 20 and 21. Leaf 20 will meet on Jan. 16 for a 12:30 luncheon in the home of Clara Distelzweig, 1685 S. High-st. Leaf 21 will have Mrs. Robert Miller, 401 Forest-st, as their hostess at 8:30 p.m. on Jan. 20.

Jan. 19 will be the wedding date for Maryann Karagianni, 782 Elizabeth-av, and James J. Eckstein, 869 Ebner-st. The open church ceremony will take place at 9:30 a. m. in Christ the King Church.

The ailing list for this week . . . Linda Gray, who has had a very rough time with her tonsillectomy, due to hemorrhages, etc. She has returned twice to the hospital since the original operation. Another youngster who is not making satisfactory progress is little Barbara Davis, 1460 S. Fourth-st. Marie Hoffman, 229 Southwood-av, is quite appreciative of any calls, letters, visits or cards she received since having her second leg removed. Mrs. Ola Bailey, 302 Rumsey-rd, is also ill. Do take time from your busy schedules to drop a card to one, or all, of the sick folks we've listed, won't you?

Mrs. Noble Hagelbarger, who lost her sister recently, lost her cousin shortly after. Our sympathy goes to her for her double loss.

Buss McCoffrey, former Frebis-av resident, celebrated his Dec. 29 in great style. He came home with a spanking new car!

Mom and Dad Schneider, 1402 Parsons-av, send birthday greetings to their daughter-in-law, Pat, of Torrence, Calif. (The Leader travels all the way to the younger Schneiders' home, to keep them in touch with the old home town.) Pat's birthday is Jan. 16, and here in Columbus, Don Schneider, son of the Parsons-av residents, had a Jan. 15 birthday.

Jackie Pfeifer, South High student, has been on the ailing list and wishes for a speedy recovery go her way.

Jack and Jewel Castle, 85 E. Moler-st, think January is a pretty nice month to celebrate birthdays so Jewel celebrates hers this Sunday, the 19th, and Jack's day is the 27th.

Peggy and Mike Shields achieved a dream of five years standing last week when they were able to celebrate an anniversary (their fifth together and in their own home. Two anniversaries were achieved while Mike was in the service. (Last year he was in Germany.) The former Peggy Grace (her folks lived on Hanford-st) and her husband now live on S. Hampton.

The Swiss Club will hold a euchre party this Sunday, Jan. 19, at the Club, Beck and S. Third-st, at 2:30. Chairman will be Laura Gerber.

A miscellaneous shower for a new bride will be an event of Friday, Jan. 17, in the home of Mrs. C. M. Brixner, 824 Heyl-av. Assisting Mrs. Brixner will be Miss Lillian Hensel. The young bride is Marilyn Breckner, nee Elerick of 1377 S. Sixth-st. The wedding took place on Dec. 16, during a 30-day furlough from Germany for the bridegroom. Mrs. Breckner (who has the unusual name of Heinz) is now back in Germany where he has been stationed for over a year.

The board members of Beck PTA held a baby shower for their president, Mrs. Claffey, on Jan. 13. Mrs. Claffey presented her husband with a 10-pound girl on Jan. 7. That's a big un, almost school size, don't you think? Virginia Leonard was in charge of the shower.

Guild 33, of South Methodist Church meets at 10 a.m. today at Henderson Hall.

Two South High grads exchange their wedding vows on Jan. 18. The bride-to-be is Margie Ann Miller, 1806 Oakwood-av, and the bridegroom is James Flovin, 928 Heyl-av.

Trudeau Guild 10 will be holding a bake sale on Jan. 25, and we'll give you more details later.

Sharon Storch celebrates her 13th birthday today, so we hope her entrance into the teens is an especially happy one.

Books About Indian Lore At Library

By Julie Warner

Children who attend the weekly story hour at Parsons Branch Library will be studying Indian lore during the next few weeks. Story hour is a period of reading and crafts held each Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the library. All children in the neighborhood are eligible to attend. The group also has planned some special projects in connection with the forthcoming Valentine's Day and the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington.

Adults who enjoy reading good mysteries should enjoy "What Mrs. McGillicuddy Saw" by Agatha Christie. The story is moving, the technique is brilliant, and the ending a complete surprise to the reader. The book will be on the shelves at Parsons' soon.

The stories of John McNulty are enjoyable to nearly everyone who reads them. His observations of cab drivers, bartenders, children and strangers in the street are warm and amusing. His best works are combined in one book, "The World of John McNulty," which will soon be available.

"A Touch of the Poet," Eugene O'Neill's last full-length play, is also among the new books. The story, the life of an Irishman who settles in Massachusetts in the 19th century, is told with the passion and understanding that is typical of O'Neill's writing.

Lncoln PTA To Feature Test Pilot And Pancakes

A North American Aviation Company test pilot, Fred Henson, will be the speaker at the regular January meeting of the Lincoln Park School PTA, according to Mrs. William Conley, PTA publicity chairman. The date is set for Thursday, Jan. 23, Mrs. Conley said.

The occasion also sets the background for another interesting phase of the evening. That is the annual pancake supper served by the fathers of the students, Mrs. Conley said. Serving, the publicity chairman said, will start at 6 p.m., followed by the regular meeting at 7:30 o'clock.

Test pilot Henson has a record of much experience behind him, it was stated, and is competent in both speed and altitude flying. His talk, Mrs. Conley said, will deal with space and travel in general as related to present facilities available to the public.

Nationally Known Caller Aids Dance Festival

Ed Gilmore, well-known national square dance caller, will be in Columbus, Jan. 24 for a square dance festival at the Ohio State Fair Grounds Youth Building.

Gilmore is experienced in calling for those who know very little about square dancing as well as for the more experienced dancer. During intermission there will be demonstrations of round dancing and highly skilled square dancing. A donation of one dollar per couple is asked.

The square dance festival is sponsored by the recently organized Square Dance Council as one of its first big undertakings. The council is made up of representatives of the various square dance clubs and interests in Columbus. By having Gilmore as the caller, the council officials feel that this will offer an outstanding event for the people in Columbus who enjoy square dancing. Gilmore travels throughout the entire United States calling for such big events. He has made many records of his square dance calls. These are used by many square dance clubs, it was said.

A series of square dance classes for beginners have just been concluded at Whetstone and Schiller Recreation Centers. A new class will begin the week of Feb 3. One such class will be held at Glenwood Recreation Center, 1925 W. Broad-st, with Bernard Swisher as instructor. These classes will be held for 10 consecutive weeks. It was recommended that people interested in classes and the square dance festival should contact the Columbus Recreation Department, Room 124, City Hall.

Deshler Parent Group To Study 'Molesters'

"Ten-Point Protection Against Molesters" is the topic for discussion at the meeting of the Deshler Parent Education Study Group when it meets Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 1:30 p.m., in the school's multi-purpose room. A film, entitled "Dangerous Strangers," will be shown, followed by a talk by Officer Stephen McDonald of the Columbus Police Force Safety Education Department, on the subject "Pointers to Parents on Safety of Their Children." This will be a talk every parent should hear . . . "an interesting and informative meeting," Mrs. Paul Dean, chairman of the Deshler Parent Education program committee said, according to Mrs. Fred Roeger, Deshler PTA publicity chairman.

Regular Meet For Golden Age Group

The Schiller Park Golden Age Club will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting next Tuesday, Jan. 21, in the dining room of the Schiller Recreation Center. This meeting will be in the form of a potluck luncheon and will start at 12 o'clock noon, it was stated.

After the luncheon their will be a regular business meeting and a social hour. Business to be discussed will concern the club's participation in the forthcoming Golden Age rally to be held Feb. 26 at the Whetstone Recreation Center.

Any South Sider who is 60 years of age or older is welcome to come and join the fellowship of this group of men and women, which meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month the statement said.

Hikers To Visit Old Mill Jan. 19

Hikemaster Dale Miller and his assistant, Jack Joffe, will lead Central Ohio Hiking Club on its next outing, Jan. 19 along the Hocking River in the vicinity of Greencastle.

It will follow the sides of a gorge for a short way, wind through a forest and finally end up at the old mill where the hike started. Following the hike all hikers will enjoy dinner at an inexpensive restaurant in Canal Winchester.

All adults are welcome. The group will meet at the YMCA at 1:30 p.m. and will travel by charter bus to the starting point of the hike.

It's easy to rustproof metal clothes hangers by wrapping masking tape around the metal frame.

Shuffleboard Winners

Boy Scout News

Ed. Adolph, chairman of Mohawk District Committee of Central Ohio Council, Boy Scouts of America, has announced the organization of a new Explorer Post at Grace Lutheran Church, 492 S. Oakwood-av.

Joe Pastorek, former leader of Troop 237, will assume the duties of Explorer advisor for the new Post 237. All young men between the ages of 14 and 18 are eligible.

It was also announced that the regular meeting of the Mohawk District Committee will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 21, at South Methodist Church. E. Morrill and Sixth-sts, at 7:30 p.m.

Fred Terrill, Mohawk district commissioner, announced that the regular district round table for Cub leaders, Scout leaders and Explorers and leaders will be held at Oakwood Methodist Church, in the basement, 684 Oakwood-av, 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Jan. 16.

Mrs. Streaty Is Sponsor Sunday

Sunday, Jan. 19, at 3:30 p.m. Mrs. Anita Fields, president of the Central Jurisdiction of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, will be guest speaker at Asbury Church, on Clifton and Parkwood-sts.

Mrs. Fields will be sponsored by Mrs. Valeska Streaty of Claire Chapel Church and Mrs. Mabel Arnold for the benefit of the "Ministers' Wives' " portion of the reserve pension fund for the Columbus District of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Fields, an instructor at Kentucky State University, has been active with the Woman's Society of Christian Service for a number of years. She is past president and treasurer of the Lexington Conference Woman's Society and is an officer of the United Church Women of Frankfort, Ky.

PREVENT WINTER ACCIDENTS

Wintertime is fun for most boys and girls. But the Safety Council of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce says you should never use your sled in any open street where there might be automobiles. Remember, if it's slippery enough for sleds, it's slippery enough for cars to skid and get out of control.

Gra-Y B-Ball Leagues Started

The South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Basketball Leagues were scheduled to begin Tuesday, Jan. 14, and Thursday, Jan. 16, games starting at 3:30 p.m. in Schiller Park gymnasium.

Sportsmanship will again carry the main emphasis in the leagues, with a trophy being presented to the team in each league that received the most votes of the managers and officials. The closing award party will be held following the season's games, with refreshments, awards presented, and a program and speaker.

Teams participating in the Tuesday League are the Siebert Scorpions, Siebert Sputniks, Beck Bulldozers, Beck Wildcats, Southwood Floor Trotters, Southwood Atoms, and the Reeb Musketeers.

The Thursday League has the Lincoln Park Scarlets, Lincoln Park Grays, Deshler Panthers, Stewart Bulldogs, Heyl Satellites, and Heyl Pork Chops participating.

PTA's Program: College, Jitney Lunch; Southwood

"College, a Grade School Decision," is the topic of the PTA meeting to be conducted by the Parent-Family Life Committee at Southwood Elementary School Jan. 23, 8 p.m., according to Mrs. Carl E. Jividen, 197 Frebis-av, the chairman.

The invocation will be presented by Rev. Willie Davis, pastor of the Southwood Church of Christ. A solo will be given by Mrs. Jack Alton, 2595 Welsley.

A panel discussion moderated by Southwood Principal Merle Coskey will be open to the audience.

The panel will be made up of three people: Earl Metz, head of the department of education of Capital University; Mr. Foreman of Ohio National Bank; Russell Slater, director of child study and student counseling on the board of education.

Open To Parents

Refreshments will be served after the meeting and movies will be shown for children who accompany their parents to the meeting. The meeting is open to all parents of Southwood school children, Mrs. Jividen said.

Mrs. Charles Dayton, president of Southwood PTA, has announced that today, Thursday, Jan. 16, there will be a jitney lunch for the students of Southwood school, followed in the afternoon by a board meeting. Mrs. Dayton emphasized the date for this jitney lunch and board meeting is today, Thursday, Jan. 16.

Food Markets This Week

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

WORLD FOOD SITUATION

"Over all 1958 will be a good eating year." You've probably read or heard this many times during the last two weeks. There's no intention here to cast any shadows on the bright New Year, but we can more fully appreciate our bountiful food markets by taking a look at how the rest of the world eats.

Most of us in this country are mainly concerned with two problems when we go to the food store. We must select items for which we have enough money to pay — the number one problem for many. For those not plagued by this necessity, the main problem is choosing between the thousands of items available.

To millions of people in other countries of the world "these problems" seem trifling, in light of a recent report by Dr. R. W. Sherman, agricultural economist, O.S.U. Dr. Sherman points out that the world population has grown more rapidly than food production during the last 20 years. This seems strange to us in the United States where "surpluses" have burdened our economy during the same period.

ARE WE MAKING PROGRESS?

Country by country, world food production progress shows considerable variation. Some small countries, such as Thailand, have increased production by nearly 40 per cent per capita since 1935. But the contribution of these isolated areas has only a minute effect on the world situation. Most of the countries where food shortages were a major problem 20 years ago have made little progress in solving the problem.

WILL OUR SURPLUSES HELP?

Less than six per cent of the world food production enters world trade. This is due mainly to the fact that nations with food shortages are too poor to buy very much. Countries with surpluses, like our own, can sell only limited quantities to such nations and are, therefore, unable to help them substantially. Dr. Sherman says that until productivity increases in the food-shortage countries, their problem seems hopeless.

This situation is the reason for the significance of the "Point Four Program" through which this country lends help to such needy countries by sending trained agricultural specialists, research workers, and teachers to help those other nations learn to produce more and better food for themselves.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Hunters Don't Harm Grouse Population

I have just returned from hunting grouse in southern Ohio, and I have greenbriar scratches on my hands to prove it.

Lou Eakin, London-Groveport-rd, was along on this hunt, and after five and a half hours of hard hunting no one had shot a bird. I asked Lou, a farmer, why he didn't care to hunt pheasants on his own place, yet would climb over Lawrence County hills like a mountain goat in the hope of downing a ruffed grouse. Lou answered, "I don't know, except that I just like to hunt ducks and grouse."

Grouse hunting is more an affliction than a sport, and those who get "bitten" can't really explain the attraction. But we always come back for more.

After other hunting parties returned we determined that 13 men had hunted a total of 65-man hours, and had bagged three grouse. We were tired and rather dejected, but grouse hunters must be philosophic. Every one had seen, and shot at grouse. In fact, the group had moved 57 birds during the day. We didn't see 57 different birds, for a few were flushed more than once. We had 57 flushes—supposedly 57 opportunities to bag a grouse.

Is Exasperating Sport

Grouse hunters do not offer apologies, so I won't start here. We just invite you to try it yourself. To show you how exasperating the sport is, all three were shot by one man. Mike Griffith, hunting with his father, shot his limit, and 12 other hunters shot nary a bird. Three of the other parties had well-trained bird dogs and still no grouse in the bag.

If you like tough odds, and count a day successful if you see game whether you shoot any or not, then you should try grouse hunting. There is still time before the season runs out on Jan. 31. You'll have a pleasant day afield, for the forests won't be crowded. I'll even bet you a dollar that you can hunt all day without seeing another party.

A few sportsmen thought that the grouse season should not be lengthened several years ago when the Wildlife Council began stretching it out. Now we have a three-and-a-half month open season probably the longest in the United States. Ohio hunters are lucky to have this hunting opportunity.

Kill 'Not As Important'

When the bag limit was upped to three birds a day, again some concern was expressed by the hunting fraternity. I know a lot of hunters who would be happy if they could limit out on grouse once every two or three years. The hunter harvest is not as important in controlling grouse populations as we once thought. It seems that the gun has very little effect on them at all.

Grouse are birds of the hill section of Ohio. Once you get into the hills of Ross County you are in grouse territory, and it extends to the Ohio River. Many deer hunters remarked this year on the number of grouse they saw in Vinton and Hocking Counties. There are many public hunting areas in the hill counties, and permission to hunt on private land is easy to obtain in this forested section.

It is usually best to hunt in small parties—two or three hunters. Work up the hollows and if you don't find any grouse, try the ridges. Sunny slopes are good on cold days. Also, hunt the vine thickets.

If you work through the thickest cover you can find, then you know you're hunting in the right places. You will have to shoot fast, and don't wait for a clear shot or you won't fire a shell all season. I use brush loads, which are made especially for use in thick cover. They are loaded with number 8 shot, and the shot scatters much more than in an ordinary shell. Many hunters use 7½ shot in a low velocity shell.

When you bag three grouse in a day let me know, and I'll help you celebrate. Until then we'll compare greenbriar scratches.

Tap Dancing

A new beginning tap dance class will start this afternoon at 3:30 at Schiller Recreation Center according to an announcement. This class is for boys and girls age seven through 10 years.

Each participant is encouraged to bring tap shoes or have taps put on an old pair of shoes. Children interested in this class should contact Miss Jeanne Williams at Schiller.

KEEP CONTROL

Winter driving is different! City streets are often slippery, and it gets dark a lot earlier. So, easy does it on turns. And if you start skidding, remember to turn into the skid to regain control of the car. At twilight turn on those headlights— see danger and avoid it.

Make slits in the fat around the edges of steaks and chops before broiling and the meat will lie flat.

There's a fifth thing, too, but Chet doesn't always realize it. Electricity helps Chet enjoy all the important things in his life more and at low cost. Chet didn't realize either that he and his family are sharing in 80 million dollars that the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company has invested in new equipment and better service in the last three years. Another 60 million dollars has been budgeted for continued expansion during the next three years. These multi-million dollar expenditures are helping all of us live better electrically.

No License? Times Short!

Less than a week remains to get a 1958 license for your dog, County Auditor Fred C. Dunn has warned. With only a small portion of the county's estimated 42,000 dogs licensed so far, the Humane Society of the City of Columbus urges all dog owners to obtain their dog licenses before the deadline date of Jan 20. After this date a penalty is added, the auditor warner.

If you are unable to get to the Court House, the county auditor said he will mail your license on receipt of your application giving a full description of your dog as to breed, sex, age, color, and marking of your dog, accompanied by the correct amount for the tag and a stamped, self-addressed return envelope. The price of the dog license is $2 for a male, spayed female or female dog, and $10 for a kennel license.

Making Good Impression Is Main Objective In This High School Classroom

THIS LARGE WELL-LIGHTED, well-equipped print shop which was set up in 1954 in Central High School is a far cry from the one Harold Stegmiller saw open there in 1927. Said to be the largest school print shop in the country, Central's shop is so swamped with work that it is only able to handle a part of the Board of Education's printing jobs. These boys helped run off nearly four million copies of job printing in the shop last summer. They are Harold Clegg, left; Stegmiller, instructor; Charles Lykins, Tom Kinnell, Ken Rayburn and Forrest Townsend.

HAROLD STEGMILLER, Central High School printing instructor, reviews operation of a rotary press for Forrest Townsend and Martha White. Martha is one of several girls enrolled in the printing course and worked in the print shop during last summer.

High school students from all over the city come to Central High School to learn how to make a good "impression," printing wise, that is, with black ink! Nearly four million impressions were made this past summer during vacation in Central's print shop.

According to records produced by Harold Stegmiller, printing instructor, exactly 3,681,715 copies of job work were run off in the shop which remains open during the summer months.

This work was done for the Board of Education Administration and various schools around the city. Jobs included library permits, 400,000 class absent slips, school calendars, grade cards and grade books.

Students living anywhere in the city, interested in printing as a vocation, may come to Central, only high school in Columbus offering vocational training in this line.

Besides providing time to handle commercial and school printing needs, keeping the shop running in the summer gives students summer jobs. Students are paid for their vacation work and are under the supervision of the two printing instructors, Stegmiller and Earl Hayes.

The shop started at Central when the old Trade High School combined with Central High in 1927, and was divided into two classrooms, one for beginners and one for advanced students. In 1954 it was moved into new room 18. It is said to be the biggest and best-equipped school print shop in the country.

Boasting eight presses, one cutter, one stitcher, one perforator, one drill and 250 type cases, the shop has recently added a $4 thousand offset camera and fully equipped darkroom.

'At Home' At Central

Harold Stegmiller of 127 Nottingham-rd, started his high school education in Central on the first day the school was opened in 1924. He continued to work there after graduation while attending Ohio State University. He taught at Mifflin High School for three years and returned to Central as a teacher in 1939.

His two sons are both interested in printing and have free access to the Stegmiller press at home. One son, Richard, is attending Crestview Junior High School while his other boy, Bob, is a student photographer at Central. Bob intends to make printing his career, if it's any surprise after such a background!

Opportunity For All

Harold feels that many students in Columbus with the aptitude for printing don't know of the opportunities that Central offers because only seven new students entered the course this year. He added that in recent years, the commercial printing industry has cooperated tremendously in backing Central's print shop.

"The industry has had an 'open-door' policy towards our young printers, taking them on tours and giving any advice they have asked for in regards to printing," concluded Harold.

Mastitis, a bacterial infection of a cow's udder, is one of the most prevalent diseases in dairy herds.

LEARNING TO READ "UPSIDE DOWN" is one of the first requirements for anyone aspiring to the printing profession. Here Bob Stegmiller, who has mastered this art, goes over some type.

Pancake Supper Date Set: 30th

Guilds of Mercy Hospital have announced that the annual pancake supper, for "feeding" the treasury, will be held Thursday, Jan. 30.

One of the biggest drawing affairs of the year, the pancake supper will again be given in the spacious dining room of St. Paul E and R Church at 225 Gates-st. The hour, the announcement said, will be 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Proceeds from this pancake supper will make possible the furnishing of one of the 20 rooms in the new section of the building, with occupancy expected early in May, it was said.

Members of the committee in charge of the affair are Mrs. Nancy Ruzecke, Mrs. William M. Schaible, Mrs. Joseph Spiker and Dr. Paul E. Brady.

'High' Play At South-West Game

South's Waldo Drake, No. 83, leaps high for a rebound at West last Friday, to gain possession of the ball on this particular play. West High Cowboys surrounding him are Furry, No. 24; Clapsaddle, No. 14; Price, No. 16; Mack, No. 23. South won the game 64 to 61.

In Passing

By Esther Weakley

ONLY TRUST JESUS

Is your heart heavy and ready to break?
Do you feel lonely and sad?
Are you so weary of life you could die?
Would you give anything you had
To be happy again; carefree again;
Light-hearted and gay, as you were long ago?
Then trust in Jesus to carry your load,
And your joys will all overflow.
Do you not know how you'll live through the day?
Do the nights seem too lonely and long?
Does your heart ache for companionship;
Do you weep for your youth that is gone?
Just be happy again; carefree again;
Light-hearted and gay, as you were long ago.
Just trust in Jesus to carry your load,
And troubles you'll no longer know.

Margaret Mays,
West High pupil.

Far be it from me to give recipes and household hints, but here are a few that came from Belgium. A friend there says the recipes are popular there; some of them sound good.

Sandwich fillings: cottage cheese, blended with honey; ground raisins and chopped nut meats, moistened with fruit juice; raw carrots, ground, mixed with hard cooked eggs and salad dressing; mashed sardines, hard cooked eggs and sour cream; grated cheese and olives.

She says they also like nutmeg on creamed spinach but not oysters in milk—our oyster stew. Everyone to his own taste, I suppose.

Mail—"All the Christmas cards put away and the pine needles swept up and the ornaments down? I used to keep our Christmas candles in the icebox so they wouldn't melt in the summer heat, but the year's accumulation finally left no room for food, so we now wrap them in aluminum foil and they keep fine."

"How did you like the Marian Anderson program? We thought it most impressive, and we have doubled our admiration and respect for her, and for Edward R. Murrow, for putting on the program" . . . From a teen-ager: "If the Reds are so brilliant why don't they take a trip to the moon, and stay there?" . . . "The vacation lists will soon be circulated in our office, so can spring be far behind?"

From my favorite shut-in: "Up here the talk is all about skiing on Lake Placid, rather near it. It is beautiful in up-state New York now, but it is cold. About every other car that passes has skis and tobaggans tied to the sides, and red mittens wave."

I had a chance to see a school girl's autograph album recently. They haven't changed much since I went to school, which wasn't exactly yesterday! I even saw a "roses are red, violets are blue" verse, though it had been altered a bit. Most of the verses lack sentiment which was more prevalent in my day of autograph albums.

Schiller's Friday Night Dance Program Happily Received

The Friday night record dances now in progress at Schiller Recreation Center are proving to be very popular, according to a report. These dances are open to teen-agers and adults. Children 13 and under are permitted to attend if accompanied by an adult, and parents have been urged to attend and join with them in an evening of fun.

Each dance is MC's by a teen-age disc jockey and is of a dress nature in that no levis are allowed on the floor.

Dancing starts at 7:30 p.m. and ends at 10 p.m. in the Schiller auditorium each Friday evening with the exception of a few times a year when the room is used for some other activity, the Schiller recreation director said.

Old Mill Hikers' Walk End Object

Hikemaster Dale Miller and his assistant, Jack Joffe, will lead the Central Ohio Hiking Club on its next outing, Jan. 19. The hike will be along the Hocking River in the vicinity of Greencastle. It will follow the sides of a gorge for a short way, wind through a forest, and finally end up at the old mill where the hike started. Following the hike all hikers will enjoy dinner at an inexpensive restaurant in Canal Winchester.

All adults are welcome. The group will meet at the YMCA at 1:30 and will travel by charter bus to the starting point of the hike.

Farmers who took part in the 1957 acreage reserve program will be paid a 10 per cent premium above the 1958 compensation rate set for their farms if they put the identical land in the 1958 program.

A heavy rubber band stretched around a child's small toy auto or truck will act as a bumper to prevent dents and scratches on furniture legs and baseboards.

Brandt Replaces Howe As Track Coach At Central

Appointment of John F. Brandt to succeed Frank Howe as track coach at Central High School has been announced by Irvin F. Young, assistant superintendent of the Columbus Public Schools.

Young said that Howe will continue to be head football coach and a teacher of biology and physical education at Central.

Brandt, a native of Greenville, Ohio, joined the Central faculty last September following his graduation from Ohio State University. He teaches driver education. Brandt is married and lives at 13 E. 18th-av.

Erie County is part of the 'Firelands' so called because Connecticut awarded land here to citizens whose home had been burned by British troops in the War of 1812.

Local Man, Wife In Vicenza, Italy

M/Sgt. Theodore C. Von Gerichten, son of Mrs. Mabel S. Von Gerichten, 117 E. Deshler-av., is a member of the 543rd Field Artillery Missile Battalion in Vicenza, Italy.

Sgt. Von Gerichten, whose wife, Dolores, is with him in Italy, is assigned to the battalion's headquarters and service company. He entered the army in 1942 and arrived overseas on this tour of duty in July, 1957.

The 35-year-old soldier was graduated from South High School in 1940 and attended Ohio State University.

J. Fontaine, publicity chairman. The models, all members of St. Leo's Parish, will wear clothes from Robinson's of the Great Southern and the Great Western Shopping Centers. Mrs. Fontaine said.

Mrs. Lewis Dorn, general chairman, and Mrs. Morrey Diamond, co-chairman, will be assisted by the following committees: decorations, Mrs. James McGinnis, Mrs. George Miller and Mrs. John Riat; door prizes, Mrs. James Sergi, Mrs. Terrence George and Mrs. Carl Beyer; favors, Mrs. Robert Burkey and Mrs. Jack Pope; models, Mrs. John Winel; programs and publicity, Mrs. A. J. Fontaine and Mrs. Robert Sweeney; refreshments, Mrs. Jack Burdett and Mrs. Ollie Lauber; table set-up, Mrs. Ray Phillips; tickets, Mrs. Joseph Guth and Mrs. John Jakob.

Mid-Winter Meet Is Set For Jan. 25

Columbus Chapter 206 will be hostess for the mid-winter conference of Women of the Moose to be held Sunday Jan. 26, 1:30 p.m., at the Moose Home, 36 W. Sycamore-st.

The meeting will be under auspices of the College of Regents. Conference leader will be Marilyn Blake, senior regent of Delaware Chapter. General chairman will be Dorothy Jolly, senior regent of Columbus Chapter.

Chapters expected to participate are Delaware, London Worthington, Mt. Vernon, Columbus, Washington C. H.

All chapters will take part in investiture ceremony, initiation of new candidates, and a social hour following the meeting.

Euchre Party

St. Mary's PTA and Parish Council are co-sponsoring a euchre party Tuesday, Jan. 28, at 8:15 p.m. in the high school at 685 Mohawk-st.

The party is open to the public, according to Mrs. Fred Michael, reporter.

South Side Mothers Plan For Annual Hour March On Polio

The women visited the Respirator Center at Children's Hospital recently to see how March of Dimes funds are helping polio patients like Mary Jo return to normal living.

Hundreds of mothers in our community will be among the nearly 10,000 women who will visit every home in Franklin County during the annual Mothers' March on Polio, Thursday evening, Jan. 30.

Starting promptly at 7 p.m., these women will visit every home seeking money to help speed the recovery of thousands of polio victims for whom the Salk vaccine came too late. In addition to soliciting funds, the women will leave a polio vaccination reminder card at each home. This card urges that every member of the family under 40 years of age who has not already received the full three-shot series of polio vaccinations make arrangements with the family doctor to do so.

Women in this area who have helped organize this annual drive for polio funds include the following: district chairman, Mrs. Roy Russell, 969 S. Champion-av; colonels, co-colonels, and their territories: Southeast, Mrs. Paul Kaya, 1195 S. Champion-av, and Mrs. Jerry Moore, 1029 S. Champion-av; South, Mrs. C. J. McGrath, 353 Siebert-st, and Mrs. J. F. Ardner, 1908 Wager-st; Hamilton Township, Mrs. Lewis W. Eakin, London-Groveport-rd, Lockbourne, and Mrs. John Britton, 182 Shook-rd; Marion Township, Mrs. Ralph Keckley, 96 Alcott-rd, and Mrs. Fred Meuser, 1963 Studer-av.

The motto is to be "Turn on the porch lights to light the way for the polio volunteers during the Mothers' March on Polio" . . . Thursday evening, Jan. 30.

Good Sportsmanship Is Shown In Church League

By "Y" Sports Writer

The second week of basketball in the South Side Branch YMCA Church League proved to be another group of well-played games. Most teams displayed good sportsmanship for the first week of play.

Spectators from the various churches showed approval and enjoyment of the play displayed by all partricipants.

Too High

The Tuesday Junior League had one close game and two of the opposite nature. St. Paul United Church of Christ overpowered the Frebis-av Church of God 28-15 in a game well played by both teams. St. Paul's starters played only a small part of the game as their height was too much for the smaller Church of God team. Tom Boland and Dave Mouser played good games for the winners and Roger Evans played a scrappy game for the losers.

Oakwood Methodist put the heat on undermanned Central Community in a 49-4 victory. Central's five men could not compete against the depth of Oakwood's team. Harold Eads topped the scoring column with 16 points, while Oon Wray scored all of Central Community's. The closest and best-played game of the night was between Livingston Methodist and St. John United Church of Christ. Livingston held onto their one-point half-time lead and went on to win 12-11. Both teams showed great desire and sportsmanship down to the last second. Mike Grayem and Larry Cook played a fine game for the winners, while Butch Campbell and Sam Shannon battled all the way for St. John.

Team Play Won

The Wednesday night Intermediate League opened with Oakwood Methodist taking a tough one from St. Paul United Church of Christ 36-32. St. Paul started the game with a very poor shooting percentage, which showed up until the last quarter, when the score tightened. Oakwood's fine team play was the deciding difference in the game. Jerry Woodyard led the scoring for the game with 13 points for Oakwood. Dave Spanner scored nine for the losers. Ohio Avenue EUB opened up on undermanned Thurman Methodist with a 53-10 barrage. Steve Rounds popped in 20 points for Ohio, while Whitt scored five for the losers. The last game of the evening saw South Methodist win from Gates-Fourth Methodist 36-24, with only four men. Harvey Thompson of Gates-Fourth was the game's leading scorer with 17 points, George Heery scored 18 for South Methodist.

Leprosy Mission Worker To Speak At Oakwood

Miss Erma Lupton, representing the American Leprosy Mission, an interdenominational organization, will be the speaker at the evening service at Oakwood Methodist Church this Sunday. The church is at 684 Oakwood-av. Rev. James Hicks is pastor.

Miss Lupton is located in Chicago, Ill. Her major mission here is to speak at the Pastors' Convention being held at Veterans Hall, Rev. Hicks said.

Nelsons To End Program

Rev. Ray Nelson will be the speaker at the 9:30 o'clock worship service Sunday morning, according to a statement by Rev. Boyd C. Rife, pastor of Washington-av EUB Church. The Nelsons have been conducting an evangelistic campaign in the church during the past two weeks. His sermons at the morning service and 7:30 p.m. service will close the evangelical program, it was said.

Sunday Date

"FOYAL" (Federation of Young Adult Lutherans) will meet Sunday night, Jan. 26, at 7:30, at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, corner of Vida Place and South Harris. The Hon. Judge Schwarzwalder will speak on the topic "Gambling."

Auxiliary Elects

A Valentine party will be given by the Auxiliary for the Harmony Glee Club, it was announced this week. The date has been set for Friday, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock.

PTA Council Meets Feb. 6

The Columbus Council of Parent Teacher Associations will hold its regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 6, at 1:30 p.m. in Central High School auditorium. This is the annual Founders' Day program. Music for the program will be furnished by the South Side's Mother Singers, under the direction of Kenneth Keller.

Schiller's Keglers Said To Be Rolling Along

The Keglers of Schiller Recreation Center Saturday A.M. Bowling League are rolling along at a fast clip with some good scores being turned in, the group reports. Last Saturday the league was paced by Jerry Hart with high game of 222 and series of 537. George Heery rolled 215 and 516, closely followed by Lewis Purtee with 515 and Dick Guyer with 510. Sandy Pehrson paced the girls with a game of 158 and series of 438.

With their high game of 1013, the team "Hart's Folly" took high game honors and they also rolled high series for the year with a fine score of 2853. The "Hot Shots" girls' team rolled 853 and 2429 series to climax a good day of action.

The All Stars boys' team leads the league, closely followed by the Hot Shots (girls) and Superior Plumbing (boys).

Film Showing

The Rosary-Altar Society of Corpus Christi Church will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the Parish social hall. Mrs. Charles O'Connor, chairman of International Relations, is planning the showing of a film "Pilgrimage of Grace." All ladies of Corpus Christi are eligible to attend Irene Wiltshire, publicity chairman said.

Graduation Set At S. High School

Commencement of the graduating class of South High School will be held Wednesday, January 29, in the school auditorium.

Patti Trumps and Bruce Gischel, class speakers, will talk on "Rehearsal" and "Performance." The invocation and benediction will be given by Rev. William E. Davis of Southwood Church of Christ.

Present Diplomas

The class will sing two selections, "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "God of Our Fathers." Homer Tranthum, a member of the Board of Education, will pass out the diplomas to seniors.

The graduating class will hold the traditional Class Day on Monday, Jan. 27, when honors earned by the seniors will be announced. H. D. Swain, principal of South High School, will make the presentation of the awards and scholarships.

Class Memorial

Charles Hegenberger will give the class memorial to the school and Milly Lowe, class treasurer, will present the class key to Alan Weinberg, president of the June class.

An address will be given to the class by Professor Armin Langholz of Capital University. Class president Jerry Hill will give the farewell address.

The school orchestra, directed by Randal Near, will play selections at both commencement and Class Day.

X-Ray Cruiser To Be Here

Free chest X-rays will be given to 100 South Side employes when the Tuberculosis Society's Christmas seal X-ray cruiser visits Boyertown Burial Casket Co., 1675 S. High-st, Friday, Jan. 31, according to a report from the society's office.

The primary aim of the TB Society is to find tuberculosis in its early stages; however, it also gives preliminary reports on other suspected chest ailments such as lung cancer, tumors, and heart conditions.

Graduation At Barrett, Jr. Finds 'Honor' For Many

Twenty-eight Barrett Junior High students received the Page degree in the Court of Honor for good work and high grades in the seventh grade. Their names make up the following list:

Shelia Beals, Priscilla Bradley, Carol Camper, Jane Dodd, Florence Eblen, Janet Endicott, Sharon Everitt, Ferd Gaulke, Elaine Hardwick, Barbara Heinlein, Virginia Hessenauer, Wanda Hiser, Claudia Hoyt, Mary McClain.

Bonnie Mitchell, Nancy Paulus, Linda Poppy, Sharon Rings, SuEllen Ross, Anita Sands, Nancy Shawen, Robert Stump, Donna Thomas, Janis Vance, Connie Vanatta, JoAnn Waugh, Sharon Wilkerson, Thomas Yoakum.

Besides the Court of Honor award winners the following individuals received service and achievement awards:

Helen Stevoff, Sharon Weaver, William Ochsenwald, Charlene Watson, Sandy Stewart, Gertrude Trice, Marjorie Sanke, Deloris Mitchell, Donna Cavanaugh, Rose Barkie, Anne Disbon, Vivian Collier, Catherine Golden, Joan Sollner, Joyce Whitt, Sharon Burton.

Sue Stalter, Judy Stemen, Dave Boye, Claudia Hoyt, Sally Hickle, Carol Camper, Sharon Everitt, Donna Riley, Priscilla Bradley, Sheila Beals, Linda Barton, Ellen Penington, Jane Dodd, Florence Eblen, Ray Richardson.

It can be noticed that a great number of the service and achievement awards were won by persons who already had awards for scholarship. Scholarship is no barrier to other achievement.

Honors

Wednesday, Jan. 22, was Honor and Recognition Day at Barrett Junior High School. At the Court of Honor assembly held in Barrett auditorium Wednesday morning, 46 students received awards for scholarship, and 80 received other awards—for other achievement or for excellent service to their school.

For meeting a requirement of high grades in the ninth grade without any low or average

By a Hartley Staff Reporter

Announcement of the intent to construct a new and larger Young Men's Christian Association in the South Side was only one of a number of interesting phases of the evening program in observance of the South Side YMCA's 40th annual meeting. The story of the evening meeting was told in last week's South Side Leader.

Yet, it could only be hinted at—the story of the evening, when those who had gathered in the basement dining room of St. Paul United Church of Christ had opportunity to look into the future and see youth grown to strong manhood devoted to the ideals and purposes of the Young Men's Christian Association.

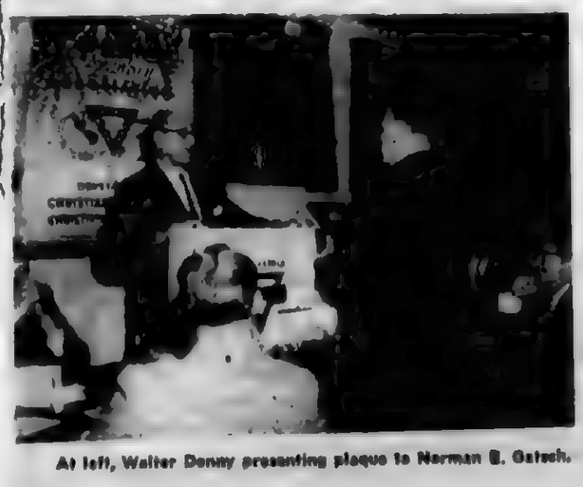
Perhaps the announcement that the housing for YMCA activities promised as a climax to the evening was not as significant as was the opportunity for young men to see others who had trod the same ground across and up which the feet of young men are beginning to rise.

The Program

The program of the Jan. 16 meeting was—as most programs are—a list of what was being done and who were doing these things. But here the similarity ends, because before the eyes of the audience there stood men who are still entitled to have the name "young" attached to them. And they, with others in the audience, also saw men no longer young . . . men who have paved the way for the greater opportunity for local YMCA work . . . they saw these men and women as they stood before the audience and received honors because of the lives they had led and the services they had rendered to the youth of the community over the years . . . And, there was a feeling that many of these young people of the evening could visualize themselves years from now and see themselves as standing before audiences and receiving honors because of their lives and the way they lived them . . . That's the way the Young Men's Christian Association works . . . building for the future . . . in human lives as well as in the more material things required for living . . . like a new building where healthful exercises will be encouraged . . . where youth may meet clean, upright youth for companionship . . . where there are to be numerous facilities available to the public . . . for public service.

A Story

This reporter remembers a talk with a man many years ago . . . he had just landed in the big city . . . afraid of the things he saw, wondering where to find good companions . . . people like the folk back home . . . and he was advised to go to a nearby Young Men's Christian Assn. And there he found the needed fellowship of kindred age and interests . . . and the talk sank in, and another no-longer "young" man remembers that talk and the result although the years between then and now have been many . . .



Equipment

According to the story last week in the South Side Leader, it is planned that the projected building will have a large gymnasium, meeting hall and numerous club rooms . . . and there will be other facilities that will be available for residents of the community . . .

Some Uses

In this article there has been reference to facilities, to club rooms available to the community . . . where meetings may be held, where relaxation may be had, where committees may meet

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lance
HI. 4-1051

A busy mother with six children became a member of the Gallon Club recently. Membership in this group consists of donating a gallon of blood to the Blood Donor Center. Our congratulations to Dorothy E. Frank, 611 S. Pearl-st.

Imagine our consternation at only now hearing of the death of one of the South Side's outstanding men . . . the gentleman was John Mallory, owner of the ABC Carpet Cleaning Co. Our sympathy to Mrs. Mallory for the loss was a double one, coming so soon after losing her daughter, Gertrude Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kavanaugh, 760 E. Gates-st, are spending a pleasant two weeks in Florida.

South High School seniors will be enjoying themselves this evening at their supper and prom. The basketball team is busy this week-end, for they engage the Aquinas team on the Terriers' floor tomorrow night, then entertain Springfield on Saturday.

Trudeau Guild 10 will hold its bake sale this Saturday at Roy's Superette, Moler and Fourth-sts. It's slated for an early starting.

It's birthday time for these youngsters . . . Milford Ohlinger, 1415 S. Fourth-st, Jan. 23, Grover Skeen, 35 Morrill-av, Jan. 26; Alice Miller, 1489 S. Fourth-st, Jan. 28; Michael Tabor, 1566 S. Sixth-st, Jan. 28; Brenda Wray, 1647 S. Parsons-av, Jan. 24; Nancy Trumps, 162 Innis-av, Jan. 27; Kenneth Taylor, 1528 S. Fourth-st, Jan. 29; Gary Holmes, 1778 S. High-st, Jan. 23; Jerry Saunders, 429 Sheldon-av, Jan. 24.

Group B of Ohio State University Mother's Club met this past Tuesday for a 12:30 dessert luncheon in the home of Mrs. Floyd Lemmon, 2050 Linwood-av. Jean Shea was the speaker. Hostesses were Mrs. Wilbur Martin, Mrs. Marshall Houghn, and Mrs. Joseph Straub. Mrs. Lemmon is a busy lady these days, for the marriage of her daughter, Rosalie, will be taking place early next month. A little extra news about one of the hostesses, too, if we may add it here: Mrs. Houghn is still being plagued by her back trouble incurred in a fall. We certainly hope that she recovers fully and soon.

A young lady we got to know quite well a year ago will be changing her name this Saturday, so congratulations to Nancy Whitmer of 666 E. Mithoff?st. The lucky young man is Charles Enis, 1321 Lakewood-rd. Corpus Christi Church will be the scene of the wedding.

Another local young couple chose Jan. 25 for their exchange of vows, so congratulations are in order for Barbara Ann Fairand, 678 Southwood-av, and Raymond Vannoy, 1659 Rainbow Park. The South High graduates will exchange their vows in St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Since the Gadabout is membership chairman of the South Unit of the League of Women Voters, we do hope that more women in this area would think of attending a meeting, becoming interested and joining. The meetings are always informative and matters of vital importance are discussed. The meeting for this month is on the 28th, 8:15 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Gail Windon, 1333 Wilson-av. The topic is "Ways of Meeting Cost of State and Local Government." Mrs. Earl Todt is the resource person. If you are the least bit interested, won't you call us at HI. 4-1051, and find out more about the group? We find it stimulating and provocative. We all belong to things that help other folks, and they are necessary. We do owe it to ourselves to keep abreast of the world around us, at least that's our opinion.

Congratulations to the new officers of Mercy Hospital Guild 8 They took office yesterday in the assembly room of the hospital. The women are Mrs. Harold Brunton, 347 Southwood-av, Mrs. Robert Baker, 375 S. High-st, Mrs. Harry Rucker, 1427 Parsons-av, Mrs. Oscar Brown, 374 E. Whittier-st.

Belated birthday greetings to Pat McCloskey, of 356 Innis-av, whose natal day was the 17th.

Paul and Jean Gusa merit congratulations for their silver wedding anniversary.

The Parent Education Group of Southwood School will be in charge of the PTA meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Carl Jividen, chairman, announces that the topic is "College — a Grade School Decision." Refreshments will follow the discussion.

The Mother's Club of Southwood Church will be hostesses to members of the Wilson Avenue Christian Church on Tuesday, Jan. 28.

Our sympathy to Lora Rakin 1713 S. Third-st, who lost her brother recently, and to Jim Robilion, 1871 S. Sixth-st, who lost a sister.

No more news . . . do call us at HI. 4-1051, won't you? We DO NOT like just to give news of our friends week after week and can only avoid this by hearing YOU. Till next week, then, tis

THE GADABOUT.

New Prexy Welcomes Officers

Yesterday, Wednesday, evening the new president of the Martin Luther Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Richard J. Brown, welcomed new officers who are to serve with her for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Charles Miller is vice-president, Mrs. Richard Gahn is secretary, and Mrs. John Factor is treasurer.

President Mrs. Brown presented a working instruction ceremony for the seven department chairmen, based upon biblical stories of the seven-branch candelabra, each representing a gift of the Spirit. Taking part in the ceremony were Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Christian Service; Mrs. Carl Blum, India Missions; Mrs. John Zimpfer, life memberships; Mrs. Henry Oestreich, missionary education; Mrs. Paul Schaible, New Guinea missions; Mrs. John Factor, special needs; Mrs. Otto Raduegge, thank offering.

The invocation was given by the paster, Rev. Henry Oestreich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hesterberg of Litchfield, O., Route 1, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to James L. Wagner, son of C. M. Wagner of Marietta, O.

Miss Hesterberg is secretary to the Litchfield unit school district. Mr. Wagner, a graduate of Ohio State University, is associate executive secretary of the South Side branch YMCA in Columbus.

No date for the wedding has been set, it was stated.

Jackson, Ohio, is the center of the silvery pig iron industry of the United States. A Jackson company is the world's largest producer of this metal of high silicon contest used as a "mix" by malleable foundries and steel mills.

Hello

This changeable January weather is causing much illness from colds and flu. It certainly has been a "month of sneezes" for me. Nothing cheers a convalescent patient as does a gift of lovely flowers. If you know someone sick, pick up your phone now and order some flowers delivered to the ill one. They're good medicine. Give your own spirits a lift when you're down in the dumps by sending yourself a bouquet of lovely spring flowers. They do something for you!

Recently on our "get well quick" list have been Mrs. Helen Hott, Mrs. Charles Hurst, Mrs. Mary Kleinline, Mrs. Sadie Weatherby, Claude S. Fuller, Mrs. Pauline Bullock, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, Ann Walliser, Mrs. Edson Dill and Joseph Studer . . . anniversary greetings to Mr. & Mrs. Albert Elliott and Mr. & Mrs. J. N. Rhodes . . . birthday greeting to Mrs. Mary Ann Hinebaugh and Mrs. Margaret Gettinger . . . a speedy recovery also to Clyde Waugh, Mrs. Edna Glaze, Mrs. Rosie Dowler, Raymond Moore, Miss Marie Kints, Mrs. William Lawrence, Harold Jones, Rosie Cain, Virginia Rosen, Abe Cohen, Alice Cotton, Ben Burcher, Corrinne Wiggins and Mrs. Walter Obetz . . . new parents are Mr. & Mrs. Philip Blevins (daughter), Mr. & Mrs. Harold Barber, Mr. & Mrs. Carl Smith, and Mr. & Mrs. Carmen Tope (sons).

Starling Jr. Hi Principal To Barrett

Kenneth Olbert, who joined the Columbus school system as a teacher at North High in 1953, Tuesday was named new principal of Barrett Junior High School. He succeeds Thomas Quick who in February will become assistant superintendent of Franklin County Schools.

Olbert's appointment was announced by Dr. Harold H. Eibling at a city school board meeting Tuesday afternoon. He will assume his new duties at the start of the second semester, Feb. 3.

Olbert presently is vice-principal of Starling Junior High, a post he has held since September 1957. After his stint at North he taught at Eastmoor Junior-Senior High from 1955 until early 1956. He then became an administrative cadet.

Olbert served as vice-principal of Franklin Junior High School during 1956 and 1957.

A resident of 960 Rose-pl, he holds two degrees from Ohio State University.

Schiller's Cager Leagues Said To Be In Full Swing

Basketball Leagues at Schiller Recreaiton Center are in full swing, with all leagues having finished two weeks of play, according to a Schiller announcement. Tuesday night, Jan. 14, Senior League had three games played with Livingston Methodist, defeating St. Paul Lutheran in the first game 55-23. Fred Houck scored 14 points for St. Paul, while Bob Brodt paced the balanced Livingston 13 points. Oakwood Methodist easily handled Hungarian E&R 73-13 in the second game of the evening. Tim Woodyard had a big evening. Tim Oakwood with 33 points. He was also high scorer for the evening. In the last game of the evening South Congregational defeated South Methodist, 52-25. Gary Quillan paced the attack with 23 points. Livingston, Oakwood and South Congregational are leading the league with undefeated records.

Soutnik Lost

Wednesday, Jan. 15, the Intermediate League played four games with the co-leaders, Sputnik L and Margulis, winning easily. The Sputniks handled Corpus Christi 36-22, with Dick Guyer and Dick Bishop hitting 10 points each. George Ruyzicka scored 12 points for Corpus. The other co-leader, Margulis, ran away with Clover A.C. to the tune of 56-17. Jerry Hart scoring 16 points to lead the attack.

In the third game Oakwood Methodist defeated the Strippers 30-20, Bob Drury pacing Oakwood with 12 points. The last game of the evening was a forfeit with Livingston winnng from the Aramite.

Thursday Night League

The Thursday Night Senior League, Jan. 16, had three games on the docket. Undefeated teams tangled in the first game with Wilson- Ave. Christian, defeating the Aragons 39-26. Chuck Rice paced the winners' attack with 13 points. League-leading scorer Ted Schinger of the Aragons hit 15 points for the losing cause. St. Paul E&R also remained undefeated by winning over Emmanuel Lutheran 30-24. Tom Bolen of St. Paul hit for 12, while Don Roberts also scored 12 points for Emmanuel. In the last game of the evening Thurman Methodist defeated St. John E&R 24-18. Ron Firman paced Thurman's attack, scoring half the teams points with 12.

Scout Leaders To Meet Tonight

Leaders, assistants, and troop committee members of the Heyl Neighborhood Association will meet at 7:30 p.m. this Thursday at Ohio Avenue EUB Church, 1025 S. Ohio-av, according to an announcement.

Mrs. Lawrence Lane and Mrs. Vincent Meyer, who attended the national convention recently in Philadelphia, will report on their trip. The International Friendship program will also be planned.

It was said that adults who might be interested in Girl Scout work will find this meeting informative. It said that additional volunteers are needed to make scouting possible for the many girls who are waiting to join troops.

Heyl Neighborhood Association has three vice-chairmen to organize and assist troops: Mrs. Carmen Mininni, Corpus Christi school; Mrs. John Peer; Deshler school; Mrs. Guy Cochran, Heyl school.

The signup for the 1958 Acreage Reserve program for spring-seeded crops will start Jan. 13. The closing date is Mar. 7.

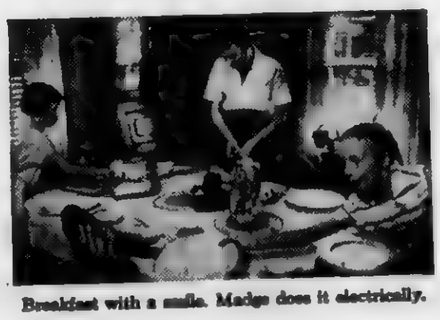
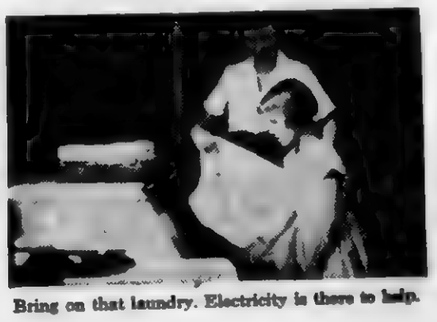
Two Localites Re-Named To Main Federal Board

At the annual meeting of the board of directors of Main Federal Savings and Loan Association at 24 E. Main-st, Jan. 15, secretary-treasurer Wilbur H. Morrison, 684 S. Roys-av, was re-elected as an officer and a member of the board.

Also re-elected as a director was William L. Seidensticker, 1511 Studer-av.



The first week of April was designated tentatively for dedication of the modernized building at 24 E. Main-st, as a feature of Main Federal's 70th year in Columbus.



President Harold C. Esper announced that 1957 saw the greatest one-year gain in savings in the firm's history.

A summary of more than 31,000 soil tests shows that the prosphorus level in Ohio soils generally is low.

Madge

Busy...busy...busy...with her family and her home—and enjoying every minute of it. That's Madge Rice of 876 South Remington Road. Madge is the kind of person that likes her job of being a homemaker and mother... and takes it seriously. She's in favor of anything that helps her do it better. She knows from experience how much better she can do it with her electrical helpers. But she probably doesn't know that the Electric Company, in the last three years, has invested more than 80 million dollars in new equipment and better services to make sure her electric friends are always on the job. Another 60 million dollars budgeted for continued expansion during the next three years will help us all live even better electrically, at the lowest possible cost.

Breakfast with a smile. Madge does it electrically.

Bring on that laundry. Electricity is there to help.

Hey, gang! . . . time for dinner! Even Mom enjoys it with an electric range.

'Dear Son'

Chittlin' Switch,
Saturday Afternoon.

Dear Jason:

Haven't heard from you all week but I suppose you're very busy there in Norfolk running things.

Your drunken Uncle Lushmore had to go to court Monday morning for setting his bed on fire in the Bon Ton Hotel by smoking a cigarette. Evidently Lush was still stoned when the Judge asked him if it was true he set the bed afire. Lush told him it was all a lie. Lush said the bed was on fire when he got in it. He'll be out for Easter.

Your buddy Vernon Stench got one of those greeting letters from the President and he reports to the draft board next week. They are going to give him a going away party tonight and your Paw is supplying all the hooch from our own still. Vernon tells me he's engaged to Mezzanine Tooker and he won't have to worry about her cheating on him while he's in the service. She still has three years to do in reform school.

Speaking of engagements, the bashful old maid school teacher, Sophie Sludge, finally got married and went to Beaver Gulch on her honeymoon. Before Sophie got married she was so modest she turned her dresser to the wall so the drawers wouldn't show. I met her after she came back from Beaver Gulch and by way of conversation I asked her how her new husband registered at the hotel. Sophie said he registered just fine!

I just don't know what to think of your brother Zeke's philosophy about women. Zeke says when a beautiful woman is good, she's swell. And when she's bad, she's even better. Zeke was engaged to Della Potts. He went out on a blind date the other night and the girl turned out to be Della so he broke the engagement right then and there. I never liked her, anyway. She's been picked up so many times she's growing handles.

Evidently Zeke got over his broken heart in a hurry because last night he went to a party in town where he met some new stock and made dates with some girls named Clara, June, Agnes and Fido. I told him I thought Fido sounded like a dog. Zeke told me if I thought Fido was a dog I should have seen Clara, June and Agnes.

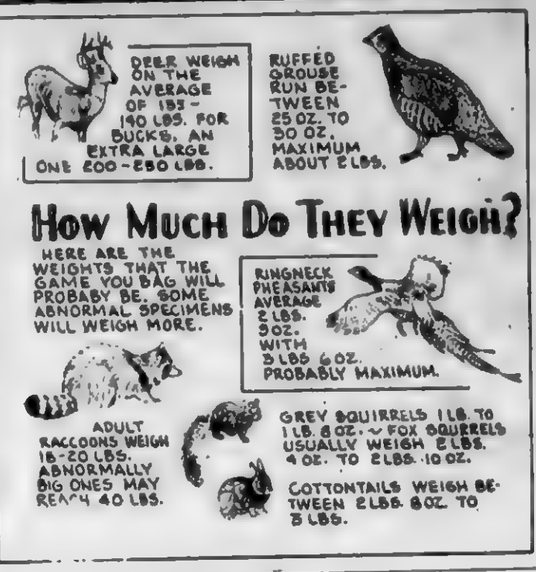
Guess I'll close now but before I do I must tell you that your seven-year-old nephew Cheddar was with the school children who put on a musical program at the Chittlin' Switch Town Hall last week. Cheddar played Brahms. Brahams lost.

Write soon.

Your Loving,
MOM.

Battelle Man On Program

The Brotherhood of Trinity Lutheran Church, Third and Fulton-sts, will hold its monthly meeting in the church parlors, Monday, Jan. 27, at 7:45, when Robert Badertscher will give an illustrated talk on satellites, guided missiles, and things to come. Badertscher, a project leader at Battelle Memorial Institute, received his batchelor of aeronautical engineering and master of science degrees from Ohio State University in 1950. Before coming to Battelle in 1952, Badertscher worked for the Aeroproducts Division of General Motors Corporation in Dayton, as an aerodynamicist, designing transonic and supersonic propellers. A considerable amount of his work has been directed toward the problems associated with the analysis of air-weapon systems.



A buffet lunch will be served immediately following the talk.

Banks and Curry, one each. Roosevelt's high scorers were White, 17; Harper, 12. Other scorers were Wade, seven; Green, six, and Wright and Sims, two each.

T-V Values To Be Topic

Advantages and Disadvantages of Television will be the topic for discussion for the Livingston-av PTA Parent Education meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 28.

Bud Gillis, program director of WLW-C television, will be the speaker. The meeting will be arranged and led by Mrs. Carl Dodge, Parent Education chairman. Mrs. Williard E. Miller, 842 Gilbert-st, publicity chairman, stated. She stated that refreshments will be served by the social committee after the meeting.

Teen-Age Council Plans Skating Party

The South Side Branch YMCA Teen-Age Council is sponsoring its fourth annual skating party to take place at Rollerland Thursday, Jan. 30, according to a "Y" announcement.

Tickets may be purchased at South High School, Roosevelt Junior High School, or Barrett Junior High School. They cost 60 cents per person. The fee includes admission and clamp-on skates, not shoe skates. This price ticket cannot be purchased at the rink, it was stated.

The profits from this skating party will go to the Teen-Age Council which promotes athletics, religious and social activities when there is a need in the three schools mentioned. It gives youth actual experience in bettering the community, in the opinion of youth leaders.

For Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee.—(Psalm 86, 5.)

Our Heavenly Father is all-good, all-love, all-mercy, all-wisdom. He hears every sincere prayer for forgiveness and help. The gift of His loving-kindness is not measured, but is abundant beyond human conception.

TENANT

Tom always hankered for a plain blue serge
To wear to town on Saturday night,
And all the other times man feels the urge
To look his best. He said outright
That husking through and cribbing done,
He'd look around. It seemed the land
Might owe him that; yet, in comparison,
It paid him overmuch. On his demand
The fields were fruitful and his children fed
Then he remembered all that stood
Between him and the land, and thought instead
Of deep blue woolens, just for good,
Plain overalls would do. Something fine
He sees in overalls: clean and new,
With roomy pockets riveted in line,
Creases at the knees . . . and very blue!

Quote — The royal road to success would have more travelers if so many weren't lost attempting to find short cuts . . . Errors, like straws, upon the surface flow. He who would search for pearls must dive below . . . Changing one thing for the better is worth more than proving a thousand things are wrong . . . Many a live wire would be dead if it were not for his connection . . . Sign along a wooded highway in Oregon: "A match has a head but can't think — never let it go out alone" . . . Somebody has said that our neighbors are "wished upon us" but we can choose our friends. When you live in one neighborhood for more years than you like to remember — as we have — neighbors come and go. We have kept in touch with many of them, although they have scattered to the four corners. Of course some have gone to Another Place. With very few exceptions our neighbors have been our friends too, and we are glad to have known them, even briefly. I've never had time—or inclination—to gossip, but have always been interested in comparing grandchildren; sympathizing with grief, illness and misfortunes; being happy about marriages, graduations, scholarships and successes of our neighbors. I like the neighbor who was loyal when I was "attacked" — more or less mildly; the one who fed the stray cat that parked on her porch; the ones who smile as they pass, though their names are not known to me; the neighbor who walked two blocks over icy sidewalks to bring some mail that had been left in her box by mistake. Small wonder the Hilltop has been called the neighborly section of Columbus.

Campaign For Christ Set: Southwood Church

In conjunction with "Christian Endeavor Youth Week" a "Campaign for Christ" will be held at the Southwood Church of Christ, beginning Jan. 27 and ending Jan. 31.

Dr. Earle Gates, president of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, will be the keynote speaker of the meeting and will deliver the opening sermon on Jan. 27. Other guest speakers will be Carlos Senn, director of education at Ohio State Penitentiary and a recognized authority on juvenile delinquency; Robert Ross, educational secretary of the International Society of Christian Endeavor; Bob Dean and Eddie Day, members of the Christian Crusades Choral Group.

On Thursday, Jan. 30, the Indianola Bible Drama Club will present a dramatization from the tenth chapter of Acts.

On Friday night, following the service, an open house will be held.

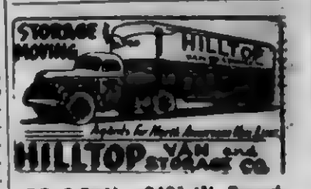
All services will start at 7:30, with Dan Bayes of the Christian Crusaders Choral Group, leading group singing. The services are being held at the Southwood Church of Christ, corner of Southwood-av and Fourth-st.

Dad's Club Dance

St. Mary Dad's Club is sponsoring its first round and square dance of the new year on Saturday, Jan. 25, in the school gym, from 9 to 12 p.m., according to George Maurer, publicity chairman. He said music will be furnished by "Del Walters" and his band.

Chairman of the dance is Joe Tanner and co-chairman is Fred Trout. Refreshments committee is composed of George Vogel, Herman Kaeppner, Bill Bond, and Dick Minshall. Tickets may be purchased at the door Mr. Maurer said, adding that the dance is open to the public.

Ends Course



Army Pvt. Lawrence Gussler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Gussler, 350 Welch-av, is scheduled to complete eight weeks of artillery survey training Feb. 8 at Fort Sill, Okla.

Gussler entered the Army in July 1957 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 17-year-old soldier attended Barrett High School and was employed by the W. T. Dickerson Company before entering the Army.

Score 90 to 68 Against Us

PHOTOGRAPHER CHUCK TOTH caught this bit of fast action during the South-East game on the Bulldog floor last Friday. Scrambling furiously for the ball is South's Ken Fowler, No. 42 (in white), and Roger Foltz, No. 22. The Bulldogs lost this one 90 to 68.

Paul W. Ward Is Director Of Independent Players

The Independent Players of Columbus, 279 E. Broad-st, has a new musical director, Paul W. Ward, to lead them in their concert singing, musical comedy, and variety shows during 1958, according to a weekend announcement. He is director of music at Central High School.

The director was born in Gallipolis, has a bachelor of music degree from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, a bachelor of science from the University of Cincinnati, and a master of arts degree from Ohio State University.

Prior to taking over the Independent Players, now in its 36th year in Columbus, Mr. Ward has taught five summers at the Adirondak Music Center, Saranac Lake, New York, and has directed and produced many operettas in Saranac and Baltimore as well as being choral director for the Beethoven Ninth Symphony.

South High School Baccalaureate

The baccalaureate service of South High graduating seniors will be held Sunday, Jan. 26, at 4 p.m. in the school auditorium. The seniors will make their entrance during the processional hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Rev. Boyd C. Rifé of Washington-av EUB Church will give the invocation. The two students participating in the program are Tom Watts, who will lead the responsive reading, and George Snow, who will read the Scripture. The sermon, "Dream Dreams" will be given by the Rev. Levon A. Shaum, pastor of Livingston-av Methodist Church.

Music will be by the Senior Choir under the direction of Miss Mary Winchester, accompanied on the organ by Judie Farley. Background music will be supplied by the school orchestra led by Randall Near.

Parent-Education Group To Meet

Stewart-av Parent Education meeting has been announced for Thursday, Jan. 23, at 7:30 p.m. The topic will be "College Grade Decision."

Discussion will be led by Mrs. Orland Sells, parent education chairman; pledge of allegiance, by Jack Roese; invocation; Rev. Paul Kaefer of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church, according to Mrs. William K. McDonald.

Barrett, Beck Schools Get Additions

The Columbus Board of Education approved preliminary drawings for an addition to Beck Elementary School and an addition and remodeling at Barrett Junior High School at its regular meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 21, it was announced.

According to Superintendent Harold H. Eibling, Barrett will gain six new classrooms and a girls' physical education room. Four of the classrooms will be obtained by remodeling the present girls' physical education room, which is located on the third floor of the school. Two classrooms and the new girls' physical education room will be housed in an addition to the school.

At Beck School

An addition housing four classrooms will be built at Beck.

School officials said that both projects are scheduled for occupancy in September, 1958.

Plans for the Barrett project are being developed by the architectural firm of Benham, Richards and Armstrong. The addition at Beck is being planned by Ramsey, Croce and Abbot, architects, a board of education spokesman said.

grades the following superior students received the degree of Knight in the Barrett Court of Honor:

Patrick Badgley, 883 Beech-st; Alex Meszaros, 370 E. Hinman-av; William Ochsenwald, 338 Siebert-st; Barbara Pfeifer, 489 Reinhard-av.

As evidence of the award each received a certificate and a jeweler-engraved Knight pin in the form of a shield.

Fourteen excellent students received the Esquire degree in the Court of Honor, for high grades through the eighth grade. They are:

Suzanne Bell, Bonnie Brown, JoAnn Crabtree, Joyce Fischer, Diane Gehl, Bonnie Husse Rebecca Miller, Sandra Nagy, Gerald Oursler, Judy Park, Joyce Reese, James Rogers, Sharon Roshon, Patricia Trigg.

They received certificates and metal Esquire badges.

The High Point

The high point in the assembly program was reached with the awarding of the American Legion Citizenship medal. At each graduation time Southway Post of the American Legion awards a medal to that boy and that girl in the graduating class considered by teachers and classmates to be outstanding in those qualities of integrity, personality, morality and leadership which are admirable in young American citizenship at its best. The award-winning graduates are not informed in advance, but are singled out from the audience by their home room teachers and conducted to the platform for the presentation.

This year's choice among the girls was Miss Marty Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson. Young Alex Meszaros, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Meszaros, Sr., was the boy chosen for the same honor. Amid the din of cheering schoolmates the two young people were led before Southway Post Commander Henry C. Butler, who made the presentation.

Shortly thereafter the assembly was dismissed by Principal Thomas Quick.

Egg prices during the first six months of 1958 are expected to average seven to eight cents a dozen above the first half of 1957, according to Ohio State University Extension poultry specialists.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Protein Foods—variety meats, beef rib roast, fryers, large eggs.

Vegetables — brussels sprouts, head lettuce, potatoes, dry onions, canned snap beans.

Fruits—apples, Florida oranges, canned fruit cocktail.

Variety For a Change

Are you looking for helps that stretch your meat dollar? You will find two-layer bargains in variety meats. These meats offer bargains in both price and nutrition. While prices of many meat cuts have continued to rise over the past months, price tags on variety meats have remained almost constant.

Variety meats include liver, heart, tongue, kidneys, brains, sweet breads and other such parts of the meat animal not normally included in the term red meat. What variety for your winter menus!

Liver, the best known of all meats, is famous for its iron content and is also an excellent source of vitamin A and riboflavin. It contains as much protein as regular cuts of meat and more minerals.

Beef Liver comes from mature cattle. It is somewhat coarser in texture than that of young cattle. It usually costs less, too. Baby beef liver comes from young beef animals. It has a moderately fine, velvety texture, is somewhat more tender than that from mature animals, and is medium priced.

Calves' liver is from immature cattle of perhaps less than one year in age. It has a fine velvety texture and a very delicate flavor. It, too, is generally moderately priced.

Veal liver comes from the young calf. It has a light color and a very fine, velvety texture, and the most delicate flavor of all. It is higher priced than the others, too.

Pork liver costs least of all. It has a pronounced liver flavor, and is somewhat darker in color than any other.

Good News

The Florida orange and grapefruit crop is not as hard hit as first reports after the chill indicated. There will be good supplies of each and the quality will be good.

The supplies of canned and frozen vegetables are large and attractively priced in view of the relatively high prices on many fresh vegetables. Canned snap beans, canned and frozen peas, and canned corn are good vegetable values. In addition, many stores will have "specials" on canned and frozen foods, which, if storage space is available, may rate a place on your shopping list.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Question . . How Fast Do Game Birds Fly?

The question of how fast game birds fly has always been a subject for debate — many times heated debate — wherever sportsmen gather.

Much research by various agencies and authorities has not yet brought to light the exact speed, and probably never will. Speeds probably vary between individual birds. Some can fly faster than others just as some men can run faster than others.

The speed of an upland game bird in flight depends on a number of conditions. When the bird is unmolested its flight is slower than when it is frightened by a hunter's approach. The same applies to waterfowl. On their long journey from one part of the continent to another, they conserve energy by adopting a somewhat "leisurely" speed. If frightened, however, that speed is stepped up immediately.

Pilots Make Guesses

Pilots who fly small aircraft at relatively low levels tell me that sportsmen probably overestimate the speed of ducks in flight. They maintain that they whiz by ducks when their air speed is in the vicinity of 100 miles per hour. This would indicate that the ducks were loafing along at 50 m.p.h. or less. My argument is that these ducks are not alarmed, and are flying at a leisurely pace.

I think that they have become accustomed to airplanes. I have flown at tree-top level over sitting ducks with Delmar Handley, waterfowl biologist with the Division of Wildlife, on waterfowl censusing flights, and many of the duck did not even bother to leave the water.

Here are some figures on the flight speed of unmolested game birds. They are computed as an average from the finding of a number of researchers. I would not say that they are exactly correct, but they constitute the best information we have to date on the subject: Dove: 34 m.p.h.; bob-white quail, prairie chicken, ruffed grouse, jacksnipe, mallard, black duck, shoveller, pintail, wood duck, baldpate, and gadwall, 41 m.p.h.; swans, 45 m.p.h.; Canada geese and brandt, 48 m.p.h.; green-wing teal, 79 m.p.h.; redhead, 82 m.p.h.; blue wing teal, 79 m.p.h.; canvasback, 94 m.p.h.

The dove is widely known as a gray speedball, and it's a little surprising to find him at the bottom of the list. Remember though, these are unmolested speeds. What a frightened dove, going downwind, can do is something else.

Teal and canvasbacks have commanded the respect of sportsmen since hunting began, and rightly so. The redhead can also hold its own in fast company, and you'd better be sure of your lead when you pull down on one of these speedsters.

Pure speed of flight, of course, is not the only factor that determines sporty shooting. As a cock pheasant roars into flight, he's flying very slowly. But they are almost impossible for me to hit when they are gaining air speed. My average is better on faster flying pheasants. Such factors as surprise, cover, etc. enter into the picture.

Maeder-Quint Long Time Family Touch Gives Assurance of Efficient Service

The Maeder-Quint Funeral Parlors started in business Dec. 23, 1948, and is now operated by John F. Quint, Jr., licensed embalmer and funeral director, and Mrs. Florine V. Maeder, licensed funeral director, wife of the late Arthur H. Maeder, who died July 17, 1949. He was associated with his father's firm, Maeder Bros. and Sebitzky, established in 1870, and located at 75 E. and W. Main-st. In 1931 the firm name was changed to Arthur H. Maeder and Co., then located at 671 S. High-st.

John F. Quint, Jr., merged with Mr. Maeder and changed the name to Maeder-Quint Funeral Parlors. He served his apprenticeship with his father, who operates the John Quint and Sons Funeral Home. He is a graduate of Aquinas College, Cleveland School of Mortuary Science, and attended OSU. He is a member of NFDA and OFDA and many civic and fraternal organizations.

The new Maeder-Quint Funeral Parlors, now with four complete parlors, is equipped to serve families of all faiths anywhere and any time. They have their own caskets, vaults and burial apparel display, large central foyer, lounge and smoking room, flower room, private parking area, and the comfort of all-year air-conditioning.

The funeral parlor is modern, homelike and spacious, with modern funeral facilities.

Pancake Supper Expected To Pass Other Years: 30th

Announcement of committees' reports yesterday indicted, it was said that the pancake supper to be held by Guilds of Mercy next Thursday, Jan. 30, will surpass most or all of the past pancake suppers.

Pancake Committees

Mrs. Robert Baker, ticket chairman, 375 S. High-st.

Mrs. Gus Ruzicka, publicity chairman, 2648 Vanderberg-rd.

Mrs. T. M. Watters, co-chairman, 690 Joyful-av.

Mrs. Harold Brunton, general chairman, 347 Southwood-av.

James Lilley, pancake chairman, 1424 Byron-rd.

The pancake supper will be held at St. Paul E&R Church at 225 E. Gates-st. The time, Thursday, Jan. 30, from 5 to 8 p.m.

It was stated that the funds realized from the three-hour serving of pancakes will go toward furnishing a patient room in the new wing.

Annie Oakley, champion rifle shot of Greenville, Ohio, gave us the phrase "Annie Oakleys" meaning complimentary theatre tickets. They are punched with holes like those Annie put in playing cards tossed in the air.

Winter wheat production in Ohio is forecast at 40 million bushels for 1958, say Ohio State University Extension economists.

YMCA Building—

. . . an institution whose basic reason for existing is the huge service YMCA's provide for the community, and which this proposed "Y" building will provide . . . but back to an alluring thought . . . youth of the community watched as men and women were given awards because of the efforts they have given to provide helpful influence for young men and women. These young men undoubtedly saw in the procedures something which they will have happen to them as the years pass by and youth has given away to a new generation . . . men and women called before a great crowd and honored for the things they have done for youth's development in a good environment . . .

Too Small

The meeting at which the building project was announced, the annual meeting of the YMCA, presented men and women who were in "Y" activities when they, too, "were young" . . . . it was these who were honored for their public service, for their devotion to opportunity . . . for service through the years . . . and the young who were there saw these older friends of theirs honored by their fellows because of the good things they had done . . . this, "Cap" Hoover, South Side YMCA executive secretary, said, "is what we want to encourage in the interest of the individuals as well as society as a whole." . . .

Retirement Into Activity Is Pastor's Future Way

Rev. E. Bruce Jacobs is retiring. Yet, he says that he will not be in actual retirement. It merely means, he said, that he is retiring from the pastorate of a church. The retiring pastor of Wilson-av Evangelical and Reformed Church recently told his congregation of his plans.

Rev. Jacobs

The pastor told his congregation that while he will shed the responsibilities of the pastorate, he will continue to serve various interdenominational programs, and this will keep him reasonably busy, he said.

The pastor was ordained to the ministry in 1916 at the Central Theological Seminary in Dayton, O. Rev. Jacobs also has access to many pulpits in the role of relief. This, he says, will keep him moderately busy and afford him opportunity for service.

Rev. and Mrs. Jacobs will continue to live in the church parsonage at least until after Easter. After that — well, he recently purchased a property at 619 S. Ashburton-rd, which may be the spot where the minister and his wife will live into the future.

The minister has, it was learned, given wide service to the church's interests all through the 29 years he and Mrs. Jacobs have lived in Columbus.

Gold Stars' Monthly Meet To Be Feb. 6

Columbus Chapter 1, American Gold Star Mothers, will hold its monthly meeting in Room 201, Veterans Memorial building, West Broad-st, Thursday, Feb. 6, at 7:45 p.m. Mrs. Carrie May, publicity, said. Gold Star mothers not affiliated with the chapter will find a special welcome. A social hour with a valentine exchange is planned to "stimulate bette" acquantance." Mrs. Frank Distelzweig, 53 E. Gates-st is president.

On Feb. 10 a group of veterans from Chillicothe Veterans Hospital will be entertained by the chapter at Whetstone Recreational Center with a dinner at noon and a trip to the Ohio State Museum. Mrs. H. A. Stoughton, hospital chairman, is in charge of this party and Mrs. J. G. May is the co-chairman, Mrs. May said.

Hungarian E&R Church Guild Sets Valentine Dance

The Needle and Thread Guild of the Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed Church is sponsoring its annual Valentine dance, to be held at Croatian Hall, 377 Reeb-av, Feb. 8, from 8 to 12 p.m. There will be Hungarian and American music, it was announced. Refreshments and door prizes are promised.

Chairman is Mrs. Michael Toth. Her committee consists of Mrs. Paul Gage, Mrs. John Pache, Mrs. Fred Kristoff, Mrs. Steve Sabo, Mrs. John Binder, Mrs. Martin Finta, Jr., Mrs. Louis Poczik, Mrs. Judy Cline, Mrs. Harold Larimer.

PTA Lunch For Faculty At So. High

South High School PTA executive board, assisted by room mothers, will have a potluck luncheon for the faculty of South High School today (Thursday). It will be held in the school cafeteria at 12 o'clock noon, Mrs. Paul Mason, PTA publicity chairman, announced.

Mrs. Donald Fischer, PTA president has announced there will be an executive board meeting following the luncheon. Plans for the Feb. 20 PTA meeting, "Gateway To Service" will be discussed, Mrs. Mason said.

Potluck Planned

Siebert School Room Mother chairman, Mrs. Carl Esselstein, and co-chairman, Mrs. Harold Druggan, have announced plans for a Room Mothers potluck, Wednesday, Feb. 5, at 12 o'clock.

At this time the Room Mothers will complete their plans for the school Valentine party. Tickets will be available for the school Valentine dance at this meeting.

Mothers Club To Hear Professor

Local OSU Mothers' Club members are expected to attend the seven o'clock dinner at Seneca Hotel Friday, Feb. 7, in the main dining room.

The dinner precedes an address by Dr. N. P. Bobrovnikoff OSU professor of astronomy and physics. His talk is expected to center about the developments in the fields of learning in which he specializes at the University.

A Potluck

St. Mary's Altar Society will have a potluck supper Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 6 p.m. in the high school.

Final "Pancake" Checkup

Pictured are a group of "planners" for the annual "Pancake Supper" presented each year by the Guilds of Mercy Hospital, in the hospital dining room. Serving begins this Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, it was said. Looking toward the purpose of the annual fest, that of replenishing the Guild funds, it is expected that this is "to be the best pancake supper we have had," one of the Guild members told the newspaper men. Funds are to be used to equip a room in the recently added addition to the hospital. Pictured are, seated, Mrs. Robert Baker, ticket chairman; Mrs. Phoebe Walters, co-chairman; Mrs. Harold Brunton, chairman; James Lilley.

Missionary Program

HEY THERE! I'M NEW

Yes, little Peggy is new to this paper. And so are many other features that will appear regularly in the South Side Leader beginning this week. Also included in the "something new" are The Tillers, Bible Comment, Cross Word Puzzle, Intelligram, Ticklers by George and many other features.

The swap column will also continue to appear regularly. The column may be used free by any paid subscriber to this newspaper.

Yes, something new has been added. Something for each member of the family. Something that will make the arrival of the South Side Leader an even more-awaited event.

Seek So. Hi '33 Grads For A Class Reunion

An anniversary program is being worked on by local members of the 1933 South High School graduating class, according to Columbus Fire Department's Squad Supervisor A. S. Justus, of 1447 Wilson-av.

There are some problems, the supervisor said, and one of the big problems is locating 66 "lost" members of the 25-year-ago graduates. Undoubtedly, he said while discussing the problem in the South Side Leader office, the majority of the persons listed are residents of the Columbus area.

The Problem

The biggest problem is that of girls of the class who have since married and have their maiden names hidden in the family name — their own families. Although the supervisor expects to have some difficulties in reaching a considerable number of the graduates of 25 years ago, there is considerable confidence in the group's capacity, it was said, to "pretty well assure that we are going to observe the 25th anniversary of our graduation, with most of the presently "missing" persons accounted for.

A Little Help

The supervisor thought that the South Side Leader might be the best medium for reaching those whose new names or addresses are unknown, although still living in Columbus.

So, according to the man from the Fire Department, it is hoped that South High School graduates will help round up these "missing" members of the 1933 graduating class so they may be included in the big affair always expected at reunions. Supervisor Justus asked that in addition to notifying such members of the 1933 graduating class at South High, the members should notify either "Bus" Justus, phone HI. 4-2055, or Mrs. Jeanette Foreman, HI. 4-9309, giving name and telephone number and address of the 1933 grad. "Bus" and the committee will think you're wonderful for your helping!

Wayt, Wings 56 and 65; prizes, Mrs. Herman Francis, Wing 17, and Mrs. H. C. Lamb, retiring Council chairman. Reservations deadline is said to be Feb. 1.

Paper Burner Coming Soon

The residential paper burner approved by the Columbus Division of Smoke Regulation went into production last week, announced Smoke Regulation Engineer H. C. Johnson. Several other local manufacturers are making models to be tested and setting up for production. The approved burner should be available at the retail level early in February, it was stated.

A PEAK AT THE WATER FLEA

Biology Seminar At Scioto Trail School

A peak into the Scioto Trail microscope puts the small water flea — and even smaller Paramecium—on an eye-easy stage. Students see heart-beats, eggs, the simple body structure . . . learn things described in science work books.

Mrs. Geraldine Smith, science resource teacher from Columbus schools demonstrates slide making to Mrs. Virginia Reese and Samuel Broadbelt, Scioto Trail's sixth and fifth grade teachers.

The Science Kit was prepared this year, is equipped to provide suitable teaching aid to all classes.

Seminars are conducted at Scioto Trail after classes. A radio can be turned to WCBE for educational programs.

As most school-age youngsters know, the world is a mighty crowded place. Most everything we tough is alive with some sort of small vegetable and animal life.

A water flea (Daphnia) is a small bit of animal life. He's vigorous, grows quickly, and abounds in steams and ponds where he survives the vicissitudes of cold and winters and summer droughts.

When viewed by magnification, he is obligingly unsecretive about his most intimate life processes. His heart beats, his tiny legs scoop food out of the water, he develops eggs.

The water flea — along with his distant cousin, the Paramecium — frequently becomes bottled-up and carried into classrooms where his exemplary qualities are made a regular part of science teaching.

The teachers of Scioto Trail elementary school were introduced — in some cases reintroduced — to Daphnia last Monday afternoon when a visiting

Mr. and Mrs. William Garwood, 972 Jaeger-st, certainly have reason to be proud of Kelton, their actor son. He is playing a featured role in "The Chairs", an off-Broadway production in the Phoenix Theater.

We'll remind you of these three items next edition, but did want to include them in the current wordage. On Feb. 12, a Heart and Flowers style show and card party will be held at St. Leo's at 8 p.m. Models will be members of the parish. There will be door prizes, favors, refreshments and table prizes. (We'll give you further details next week.) Mrs. Louis Dorn is the chairman.

Another event that is in the imminent future is the rummage sale that the Band and Orchestra Parents of South High have scheduled for Feb. 13, at 346 S. Fourth-st. Mrs. Clifford Berger asks that anyone caring to donate rummage, call her at CA. 4-1056 or call the ways and means chairman, Mrs. Ray Speakmon, at HI. 4-0832.

The third affair is a Valentine Dance that Siebert School PTA is planning for Feb. 7, at the school from 7:30 to 10:30. Jim Wagner and his group will furnish the calling and the music. No one need stay away because they do not know how to square dance for there will be instructions for beginners. Committee chairmen are Mrs. Roland Esswein and Mrs. Robert Riffle, chairman and co-chairman ways and means; Mrs. Donald Salser, Mrs. Lloyd Tatman, Alan Troutman and Mrs. Ardath Shelton.

The Room Mothers of Siebert Street School are holding a pot-luck on Feb. 5. Main business for the meeting is to plan the Valentine party for the pupils.

Anna Lynette LaRue, sister of earlier-mentioned Donna Marie, will be three years old when February is a few days old. (Donna Marie was five to keep things even for the sisters). Gary Eichel, 1541 S. Third-st, will age a year on Feb. 5.

The young folks of Southwood Church of Christ are holding a "youth revival" this week at the church. Tonight Ed Day, OSU student, will deliver, a sermonette, and the Indianola Church of Christ will present a Bible drama.. Tomorrow night Bob Ross, educational secretary of the International C.E., will be the speaker. There will be an open house with refreshments. After Bob's talk. (There is no age limit to those invited to attend; it is definitely open to the public. The way we see it, those folks who bemoan the waywardness of the younger generation should do something concrete, like supporting the teen-agers who are striving to do right. How about it?

Don't seem to see any more unchecked items this time around, so will bring this column to a close. Do give us your news, won't you. The number is HI. 4-1051. Till next edition, 'tis

WSCS Of Ohio Avenue EUB Church Gives Program

The Women's Society of World Service of the Ohio Avenue EUB Church has several important dates within the next few weeks, including the observance of World Service Day with Dr. E. E. Nietz as speaker is scheduled for Sunday, Feb. 16. This is the Annual Women's Day, observed throughout the denomination. The offering will be sent to both overseas and home missions.

The reorganization of the Women's Work of the church will be held Tuesday, Mar. 4, in Fellowship Hall. The election of officers for the "unified society" will be held on that date.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Thursday, Feb. 6, with a pot-luck dinner in Fellowship Hall. There will be a monthly sewing for the cancer clinic and comforters for Miss Boyenton. The hostesses are Mrs. Susie Miller and Mrs. Distlehorst. Mrs. Jennie Logue is president of this group.

The February meeting of the WSWS will be held Tuesday, Feb. 4, at the church. Mrs. Elaine Nelson, the program chairman, has the devotions. Mrs. Frances Nietz will speak on "Our Christmas Trip West." A special offering for the purchase of a church lot in Japan will be taken. The goal for this gift is one dollar per member.

The hostesses are Mrs. Marvel Grant and Mrs. Ethel Hartman.

Mrs. Joe Schlappelrai is president of the WSWS.

Gates-4th WSCS Date

The Woman's Society of Christian Service, Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, has announced the following meetings for February:

The Young Women's Circle will meet Monday, Feb. 3, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. David Harkless, 940 Sheridan-av.

Ruth Circle will meet Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Hostesses will be Mrs. Maude Armack and Mrs. Sarah Stormont.

Mary and Martha Circles will meet Thursday, Feb. 13, at the church at 10:30 a.m., followed by a covered-dish luncheon at noon.

The general society meeting will follow at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Essie Brown leading devotions. Mrs. Ralph B. Hudson will present the topic, "Christian Action on the March."

Mrs. Ralph B. Hudson is publicity chairman.

Dorcas Meet Thursday, 6th

Dorcas Missionary Society of Emmanuel Lutheran Church will meet Thursday, Feb. 6, at the church, where a dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30. Hostesses will be Mrs. Carl Weber, Mrs. Louis Horch, and Mrs. A. H. Bergener. Following the lunch the devotions and Bible study will be given by Rev. C. J. Sutorius with a short discussion, after which the business session will be held.

Mrs. A. H. Bergener is president of the Dorcas Missionary Society.

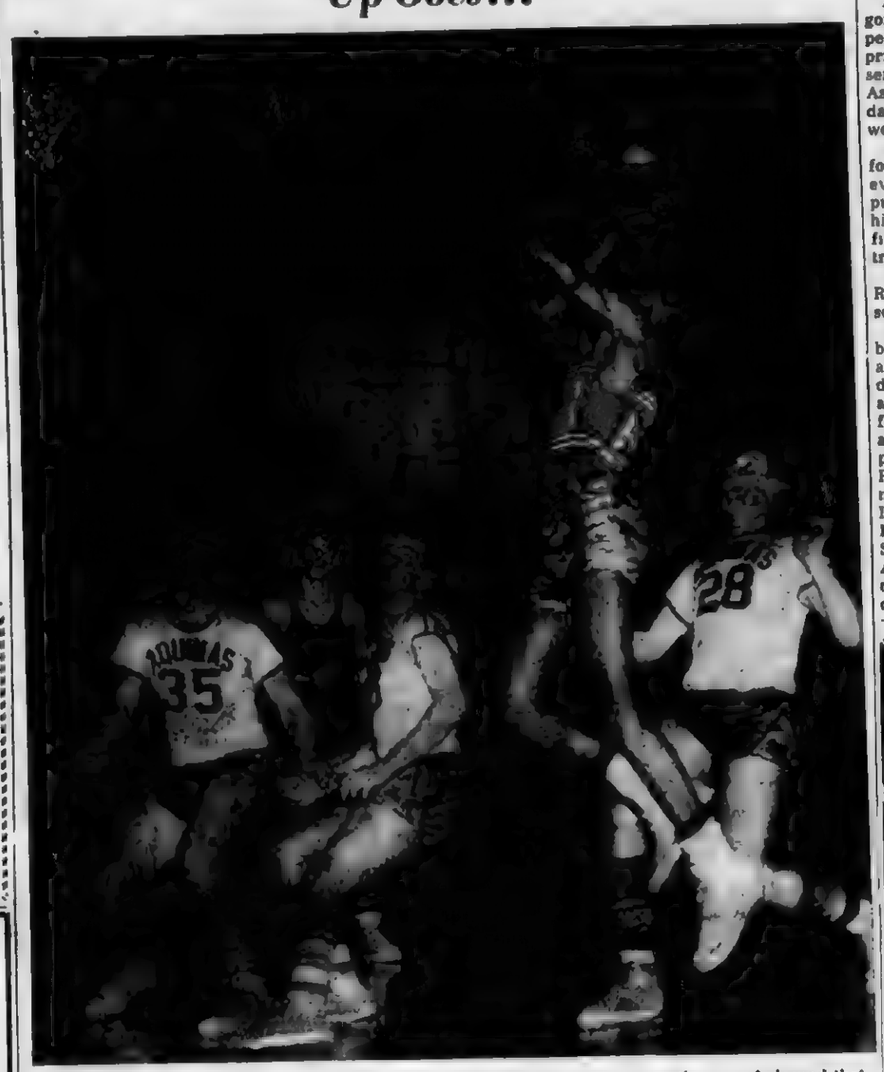
Tackle That Man!



WRONG GAME—Jim McConnell (24), University of Iowa guard, executes a beautiful end run with the ball tucked under his arm. Unfortunately, this maneuver is illegal in basketball and Jim was called for traveling. Illinois guard Al Gosnell (33) seems surprised by McConnell's earnest but misguided effort. Iowa won anyway, 70-68, at Champaign, Ill.

Bellar Files As Candidate To Assembly

Arthur J. Bellar

Arthur J. Bellar, 326 S. Algonquin-av, on Jan. 16, filed a petition to compete in the May primaries as a Republican representative to the Ohio General Assembly. He is the only candidate for the legislature living west of the Scioto River.

Bellar has never before run for elective public office, however he has been an active Republican for 30 years. Early in his career in industry he was affiliated with Journeyman Electrician's Local 38, of AFL.

In addition to his work with Republican veterans groups he served on the county committee.

For the last 26 years he has been active in a number of civic affairs. A draft board secretary during World War II, he is now associated with the Korean Conflict Compensation Fund. Other affiliations include member and past commander of Camp Chase Post, American Legion; charter member, Luther Turner Masonic Lodge; West Gate chapter, RAM; Knights Templar, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Elks, Reserve Officers Association and member of the official board of Westgate Methodist Church until 1957.

When you set up important telephone numbers for handy reference in 1958, be sure to include this one CApital 8-1767. That's the number of the free Telephone Information Service at your Columbus Public Library.

BEETLE BAILEY by MORT WALKER

Yams Blend With Tender Meats

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

THOSE moist deep-yellow yams now in the market combine deliciously with meats and other vegetables. Baked or boiled in their skins, they are a treat in themselves served with butter or margarine.

Mellow Yam Marino (4 servings)

One-quarter cup olive or salad oil, 1 medium onion, chopped; 1 clove garlic, finely chopped; 1¼ pounds veal, thinly sliced; grated Parmesan cheese, salt and pepper, ½ cup finely chopped green pepper, 1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes, 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce, 1 teaspoon oregano, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 medium yams, pared and sliced; 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Heat oil; add onion and garlic. Cook until lightly browned. Dredge veal with cheese; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add to onion mixture and cook until lightly browned on both sides. Add green pepper, tomatoes, tomato sauce, oregano and salt.

Cover and cook over low heat 25 minutes, or until veal is almost tender. Add yams; cover and cook 15 minutes, or until yams are tender. Add lemon juice and cook another 5 minutes.

Beef-Stuffed Mellow Yams (4 servings)

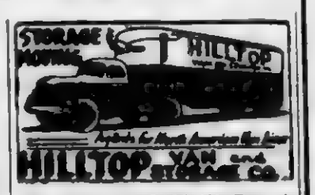
Four medium mellow yams, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 pound ground beef chuck, 1 cup chopped onions, ½ cup chopped green pepper, salt and pepper to taste, grated Cheddar cheese.

Bake yams in moderate oven (350 degrees) 45 or 50 minutes, or until tender. Meanwhile, melt butter or margarine; add beef, onions and green pepper. Cook over medium heat until meat is browned. Season.

Cut yams in half lengthwise; scoop yams from shells and mash. Reserve shells. Add mashed yams to meat mixture and mix well. Fill shells with yam and meat mixture and sprinkle with cheese. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes, or until cheese is melted and lightly browned.

Yam Marino is a combination of veal, cheese, tomatoes and yams. The blend enhances the appeal of each ingredient.

Retail food prices have increased less than prices for most items.



Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.—(Galatians 6,8.)

Each of us who has grown to maturity knows only too well that the bad things we have thought and done live on, if only in our dreams, to haunt and plague us. But, likewise, the good things we think and do live on to bless us—sometimes in unexpected ways when we most need reenforcing.

Ticklers By George

"Believe me, for every successful man you'll find a good woman standing behind him!"

HE QUIT — John Gates, 44, holds one of the last copies of the Daily Worker, the New York Communist newspaper which has ceased publication due to financial difficulties and an ideological split with the party. Gates, Worker editor for 10 years and a party member for 27, quit the Communists "to rejoin the American people." He estimated active membership of the U.S. party at only 7,000 and called it "a futile and impotent political sect."

KING-SIZE RANCHER—Joseph C. Coney, San Francisco steamship company executive, locates on a map of Argentina lands comprising some 2,300,000 acres which, he says, makes him owner of the world's largest ranch. The fabulous King Ranch in Texas covers about 1,000,000 acres of the Lone Star state. Coney plans to staff his holdings with families from the Netherlands and Italy if he gets Argentine and U.N. approval.

Labor disputes cost 7,200 working days in the Netherlands in 1957, compared with 213,000 days lost in 1956.

THROUGH SNOW'S LEGERDEMAIN

A stray cornstalk with empty husk,
Transfigured, poses well
For glistening marble pillar,
Decked with white gold dinner bell.

Where far horizon's paring knife
Cleaves Heaven's azure frills,
Fence posts, as snow men, masquerade
As sentries of the hills.

Mail — From an Air Force wife in Japan: "We have eaten rice and drank/drunken tea till we feel like natives but the real natives are so polite, how can we refuse to 'partake of their humble fare,' as they say" . . . From Vermont: "Yes, it is cold here but we don't mind. We keep thinking of how lovely it will be in the spring, summer and fall." . . . From my dirt-farmer friend near Buckeye Lake: "After the rain Christmas Day, we hiked to the top of one of our hills. Beyond one hill is a valley; beyond the valley is another hill. We gathered some rocks for our garden and found a bird's nest in a bush and we marveled at the craftsmanship. How many trips back and forth for little wings, and how many summer days and nights of watchfulness for the bird! Have been plowing and can visualize the full bins next autumn. We are also going through seed catalogs — fine pastime for winter evenings, though perhaps not as exciting as television."

Quote — Anger is only one letter short of Danger . . . Her hair looks like a mop but that doesn't bother her—she doesn't know what a mop looks like . . . If you think you're going to be happy and prosperous by sitting back and letting the government take care of you, remember the American Indian . . . Any time you feel indispensable, take a walk through a cemetery. Some of those boys were hot stuff too . . . The reason there isn't peace in the world is human nature . . . "I made up those jokes myself—out of my head." "You must be." . . . That new preacher ought to learn that all those coughs aren't colds, they are time signals . . . Intelligence is like a river — the deeper it is, the less noise it makes. Unquote.

Scene on The Hilltop — A little old lady stood in the middle of traffic till a burly truck driver parked his big truck and helped her to the other side of Broad st. She gave him an apple from a bag of groceries she was carrying and he climbed back into the truck, eating the apple . . . A State Hospital patient called to a motorist who was signaling he meant to turn into a one-way street, the wrong way. The motorist should have paid attention for he kept on going and met a police cruiser . . . A doctor, hurrying out of his office—stopped three times by his office nurse before he could reach his car. Once he came back with his bag, another time wearing a heavier coat; the third time he was handed his gloves through the door. Small wonder they forget things!

APPLE TIME IS ALL THE TIME

Fresh apples are available throughout the winter months and are never more appreciated than at present when other fruit supplies have us guessing. Stayman Winesaps, Rome Beauties and Red Delicious are common varieties you will find this week.

You will enjoy the Stayman Winesaps for eating-out-of-hand as well as for salads, pies, sauces, and for baking. Rome Beauties bake well and are good for sauce and pies, while the Red Delicious is generally used for eating as is, or for salad.

Fresh apples appearing on the fruit counters at this time of year are coming out of cold storage and need special care. Since harvest last fall they have been stored under temperature controlled conditions and the sudden rise in temperature in the stores or in your kitchen may hasten spoilage. It pays to select apples carefully by checking for bruises and skin blemishes. Buy in the quantity now that you can use in a few days and keep them in the refrigerator.

Apple Products

Apples, like most foods are new found in many ready-to-use forms. You can choose from a wide variety such as applesauce, apple pie filling, apple slices, and even baked apples.

Spiced apple rings are ideal garnishes for meat and relish trays. Chilled apple juice makes a delicious appetizer for any meal or a refreshing "cooler" between meals. It is usually packed with sugar. Old-fashioned apple-butter is always a favorite.

Preserving apples, either in cans or by freezing, insures a year-round supply. We can enjoy these products at the time when apples in cold storage begin to lose their fresh, firm, juicy, crispness.

Here's the Answer

Bible Comment:

Sick Souls Are More Important Than Sick Bodies

GALILEE, a thickly populated place, had no hospitals or asylums or adequate knowledge of medicine when Christ taught and healed there. Disease was often associated with possession of evil spirits.

This must have been true particularly in cases of epilepsy and various forms of insanity, which were probably as relatively numerous as today. We have in the New Testament vivid glimpses of dangerous maniacs or of poor human creatures wracked and torn in the throes of epilepsy or a similar seizure.

Christ healed these.

The question of divine healing brings up various problems, particularly in instances of miraculous healing reported today as they were in Galilee.

Has God ordained that the "miracles" of modern medicine should replace the miracles of healing Christ performed? Should divine agency accompany human agency in the healing of disease? Is there work for saints to perform when doctors have done their best?

Considering the prominence given to healing in a sick world and how quickly the stories of wonder-working power would spread in a thickly populated region, it is a marvel that the New Testament is not crammed with stories of miracle healing to the exclusion of everything else.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

from The Bible

In the day of my trouble I will call upon Thee; for Thou wilt answer me.—(Psalm 86, 7.)

How wonderfully blest are those who are so strong and steadfast in their faith—who, whenever it wavers for an instant, affirm it at once restored! They shall never be long desolate or sorrowed, for they live in God.

Something Has Been Added For Every Member Of The Family - - - -

In This, Your Community Newspaper

For more than 25 years The Hartley Newspapers organization has been publishing community newspapers on a "Grass roots level" tailored strictly to the needs of the community they serve.

In recent years we have not only published the local news of the area but have included hundreds of local photos and feature stories. Such a program has been well received as attested by the very large and extensive growth of our circulation.

NOW . . . we are pleased to announce that effective immediately we are expanding the editorial content of all our papers to include a number of additional interesting regular weekly features.

These will include such items as:

- Editorial Cartoon
- Ticklers by George
- Bible Comment
- Cross Word Puzzle
- Peggy
- Intelligram
- Strictly Fresh
- The Tillers
- And Others

This is merely the beginning . . . In succeeding weeks we will have numerous additional local as well as general features.

And don't forget the FREE SWAP COLUMN in the Hartley Newspapers each week. If you are a paid subscriber to this newspaper you are entitled to use this column free of charge.

Something for every member of the family is contained in this newspaper each week. Savings by use of the classified and display advertising columns in any one week may well pay the price of a year's subscription.

If you are not already a paid subscriber to this paper why not call BR. 9-9444 and be assured of a year of pleasant reading about the home folks.

C. J. Erlenbusch Of Pioneer Ice Cream Family, Dies

Carl J. Erlenbusch, 66, former operator of R. H. Erlenbusch Sons Co., 456 S. High-st, died Monday at his home, 970 Francis-av. He had suffered a heart ailment for several years.

Erlenbusch's "ice cream parlor," located at the corner of Livingston-av and High-st opened its doors in September, 1859.

The property has been continously occupied until the closing of the ice cream store early last year, as told in the South Side Leader at that time. In recent years the property was occupied by a bakery and tea room under the ownership of Carl and his sister, Miss Florence. They carried on the business until it was closed early in 1957.

Carl, his sister, and their late brother, R. H. Erlenbusch, took over the store after the death of their father, R. C. Erlenbusch. Last year the ice cream parlor was sold because of the illness of Carl.

Carl J. Erlenbusch is survived by his wife, Polly; a son, Carl J. Jr.; the sister, Miss Florence, 97 Erie-rd; four grandchildren.

Service was held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Schoedinger Funeral home, 239 E. State-st. Burial was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Snowman Western Style

NICE TRY—Even though snow is unheard of at the Valley of the Sun resort in Phoenix, Ariz., pretty Barbara Kolle, 17, does her best to build a "snowman." She puts the finishing touches on a "tumbleweed man." It's not quite the same, but who cares?

Biology—

resource teacher from Columbus schools conducted a seminar in science.

The particularly educative qualities of Daphnia will soon become a regular part of the school's instruction, grades one through six. They have a new microscope — their first — a gift from the Southeast Lions Club. Monday's seminar equipped the teachers with an up-to-date knowledge of the mechanics of microscopic display.

The school plans to make microscope slides, will buy some from educational laboratories.

Students with natural talent for science may be permitted to develop their own special programs.

"We have always taught science," principal Lowk said this week. "Our teachers study these things in college. Our work books and demonstrations are built on long-time recommended practices."

"Our own equipment . . . our new science kit for all grades . . . refresher seminars for our teachers now make it possible to regulate our science teaching."

Physical science is also a regular part — a remarkably developed part — of Scioto Trail teaching.

Under the guidance of its sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Virginia Roose, classes have been building electrically wired boards to demonstrate typical electrical circiuts. Some are dandies.

The boys and girls can demonstrate short circuits, series and shunt wound circuits, resistance, current and voltage. They have learned to make simple wiring diagrams.

"The exceptional student must be allowed to move ahead without obstacles and inhibitions," the visiting resource teacher, Mrs. Geroldine Smith explained. "All youngsters must have opportunity for dramatic visual education — in both biological and physical fields."

The increased tempo of scienc education is, of course, a natural thing in our International Geographic Year (IGY); but its also here to stay.

The Columbus Board of Education broadcasts a series of programs on its frequency modulation station WCBE; On Monday the teachers learned that rocket missiles will soon be sent into space to "sound" air density, wind velocity, dust conditions.

"We'll learn eventually how to regulate weather," the radio said.

Other tests are being conducted beneath the polar ice caps. "Seventy US Navy ships are studying deep ocean currents. Three thousand weather stations are building a precise picture of world weather" the radio reported.

In time, this information will filter down to the receptive, knowledge-hungry minds of the school-age youngsters.

The barriers to learning are exaporating; the most secretive life processes are becoming transparent.

A "one world language" is taking shape, teachers say.

Miss M. Lute Has Retired

Miss Minnie Lute, 249 East Gates-st, retired last month following 35 years of continuous service at the Columbus Timken plant. She has accumulated the longest woman's service record to date at the Columbus plant.

Miss Lute began Apr. 18, 1922, as an inspector of green product. She went on to spend the next 35 years doing inspection work primarily in Department 81. She was born Dec. 24, 1892 at Leon, W. Va. Her retirement plans include some traveling and more attention to her home and flowers.

She is a member of Grand Central Rebekah Lodge No. 699 and attends Central Presbyterian Church.

To Visit Caverns

The Central Ohio Hiking Club, under the leadership of Ron McDermitt and Lois Bell, will travel by charter bus to West Liberty, O., Sunday, Feb. 2, for an invigorating hike in the vicinity of Ohio Caverns. Hikers will bring their own lunches to eat on the hike and a stop will be made in Urbana on the return trip for supper at a fine restaurant. There is a small charge of 85 cents per person for the cavern tour.

The group will meet at the Central YMCA at 10 a.m. for the start of the trip. Leaders stated that the group welcomes any who enjoy hiking.

Local Service Stations Provide Weather Data For February 1948 To '58

On the back page of this newspaper is a full page ad sponsored by various service stations and businesses interested in the welfare of your automobile. On this page you will find facts about the weather for the month of February since 1948. Along with this information are ads from the sponsoring firms elaborating on their services and concern for your car. The following firms are sponsoring this project; read on and find out just who they are and then turn to the back page and read this ad.

Smile Maker Service is a byword of Dave Wood Marathon at the corner of Parsons and Whittier, and Dave is aware of what the weather can do to your car, and asks you to check his ad.

Steelton Auto Parts at 1984 Parsons is providing more and more the items that you need to fix up or spruce up your car. Parts for all types and makes plus accessories is the strong point of this organization.

OK Rubber Welders at 2013 Lockbourne-rd is featuring the new machine idea of perfecting truing your car tires. A bump in the cords or rubber can give you a bad ride. With this machine your present tires can be trued for smooth comfortable riding.

Bill's Sohio at the corner of Jaeger and S. Ohio is owned and operated by Bill Wemlinger who prides himself in smooth friendly courteous service, with customer satisfaction the uppermost idea in his business day.

Wellman's Sohio at Parsons and Dessler is known for many years of friendly service at this location and that familiar red pickup truck is his mark of friendly road service. Another feature is the complete automatic transmission service offered here.

B. F. Goodrich at 1942 Parsons is a nationally known firm and is continually offering many great bargains in tires and car accessories. Road service for both cars and trucks is another feature of this enterprising organization and two trucks are in operation at all times to keep your cars on the road.

Reichart's Sohio at Frebis and Ohio specializes in wax washing your car, and also with expert automatic transmission service and Atlas guaranteed tires and batteries. They also provide free pickup and delivery service.

Waugh's Marathon is a new one in the area. The Waugh's recently purchased this station from Johnny Bowsher and ask that everyone stop in and get acquainted by letting them clean your windshield or provide one of their services. The address is 1717 S. High-st.

Slim's service station is a dealer in Sinclair products and is located at the corner of High and Greenlawn. Two jeeps are always available to provide road service and the many normal elements of service station business is provided, including car wash and tune-ups.

Bobb Chevrolet is not only the oldest Chevrolet dealer in the area, but they also have two used car lots, so if your present car is getting old all you have to do is drop in to one or the other and trade up to a better OK used car. The two lot addresses are 621 and 780 Parsons-av.

A wrecker with a boom length of 25 feet is a big factor at Loretta's Pure Oil. Not only does this station provide complete service for your car, but the large wrecker is used for various jobs such as moving heavy machinery and various construction work. Joe Loretta is located at the corner of Parsons and Thurman-av.

Steve's Sohio at 1970 Lockbourne at Innis is operated by Buck Fitzpatrick and Paul Mathias, and they have invited everyone to drop in and gas up or have a lube job. Expert tune-up and head light aiming is another feature of this new station. All Sohio products are featured.

When you want to sell, buy or trade . . . rent or lease . . . hire somebody or get a job . . . the quickest, surest way to get RESULTS is via a want ad in this paper. South Side Champ In Local Races

Paul Parks, local and nationally known South Side driver, is racing in the Midget Races at Fair Grounds Coliseum Saturday nights. Parks lives with his family at 376 E. Markisen-av. He was the 1956 and 1957 late model stock-car champ of the Ohio Racing association and a prolific winner in various classes. He will race here every Saturday night at the Coliseum, he said. Time trials begin at 7 p.m., it was reported.

Evening High---Trade School Registration Opens Monday

Registration for Evening High School classes will be held at Central High School from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 3, announced G. B. Newton, principal of the school.

Regular sessions will begin on Tuesday, Feb. 4. Nearly all classes will meet at Central from 6 to 10 p.m. each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Some 63 courses leading to a high school diploma will be offered.

Non-credit courses in elementary English and arithmetic and special courses for persons of foreign birth who need help in speaking and reading English also will be given.

Newton said that courses in printing, office machines, and woodworking will be offered for the first time, and that courses in choral music and word study which were begun last September will be continued. Studies in rapid reading improvement, typing, shorthand and art, which have proved to be popular, will be offered.

Fees for Columbus residents are $6 for one subject, $10 for two, $13 for three, and $15 for four subjects. Fees for non-residents are double those for residents. All fees must be paid at the time a person registers.

Because of the strict attendance requirements of Evening High School, Newton said that enrollments must be completed by the end of the first week of school.

For further information on Evening High registration call Newton at the Board of Education, CA. 8-3821, during the day and at Central High School, CA. 4-3184, during the evening.

Registration for evening Vocational Trade Extension classes will be held in Room 1 at Central from 7 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 5.

Subjects to be offered include arc-welding, machine shop, shop mathematics, basic tool design, drafting and machine blueprint reading, basic electronics, electric motor repair and rewinding and shop trigonometry.

Questions concerning Vocational Trade School registration should be directed to R. O. Knight, director of industrial education for the Columbus Public Schools, at CA. 8-3821, Ext. 55.

Cub Scout 105 Reports

Hollywood has nothing on the Cub Scouts of Pack 105. At its monthly pack meeting, held at Smith-rd School on Jan. 24, the Cubs put on a skit entitled "Head 'em Off At The Pass." All of the dens contributed either by acting or making some of the stage properties.

The achievement part of the program showed the excellent progress that the boys have been making. Each of the 21 boys who received awards were accompanied by a parent who stood with the boy during part of the achievement ceremony. This, according to Cubmaster Merrill Wood, reflects the interest that the parents of Pack 105 have in their boys. The following boys received awards:

Dinner Coming

The next main event will be the annual Blue and Golu Dinner, held to celebrate the anniversary of the Cub Scout movement. The date for the dinner will be announced in the very near future.

Layman's Day

Nelson Hennis, lay leader of Livingston-av Methodist Church has announced Layman's Day program for Feb. 16 to feature Judge Roscoe E. Walcutt of the probate court. He will be the morning speaker.

Judge Walcutt is a leading Methodist layman from Westerville Methodist Church. He was a former state senator and holds many offices on various boards throughout the city and state. Mr. Hennis has announced that the evening service will be in charge of the various laymen of the church.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Homer K. Deighton, who passed away Jan. 29, 1957, at 1:40 a.m.

"Daddy Deighton," in our hearts your memory lingers,
Always tender, fond, and true.
There is not a day that I don't think of you,
What would I give to clasp your hand, your happy face to see; to hear your voice and see your smile, to have your love that made my life worthwhile.
Friends may think that I have forgotten, when at times they see me smile; little do they know the heartache
That's hid behind that smile.

Unlicensed, Unimmunized Dogs To Bring Penalties

The Humane Society announces that its officers are now taking a dog census in Columbus for the purpose of recording all dogs owned in the county and making sure all owned dogs are licensed.

In addition to having all dogs licensed, your dog must also be immunized against rabies. The local and Franklin County Boards of Health have adopted regulations requiring not only the immunization of dogs against rabies, but the re-immunization of all dogs against rabies every twelve months, if the regular type vaccine has been used, but the re-immunization against rabies of all dogs every three years if the new type of chick embryo vaccine has been used.

The entire staff of Humane officers will begin knocking on doors in the various parts of the community and will continue to do so until the census is completed. Owners whose dogs have been found unlicensed will be required to purchase licenses and pay a $1 penalty if they have failed to do so by the dead line date of Jan. 20.

Any person refusing to purchase a license for his dog is subject to a fine of as much as $25, and costs, it was emphasized.

St. Paul Lutheran Sets Candlemas

Feb. 2 is the 40th day after Christmas, "and on the 40th day after His birth, Jesus was presented in the temple and a man by the name of Simeon took Him up in his arms and called Him 'a Light to lighten the Gentiles'," Rev. John Lang quoted.

The 40th day after Christmas has, therefore, been called "The Festival of Light," or "Candlemas Day." The superstition of the groundhog and his shadow is only one of the many superstitions of light growing around the festival. St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, will celebrate the day with a candlelight processional and recessional at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. and with a sermon by Rev. John O. Lang on "I Am This Dark World's Light."

Barrett Splits In Week's Play

Barrett Junior High School's basketball team won one and lost one last week. On Tuesday Jan. 21, Barrett defeated Starling Jr. High on Starling's floor by a score of 34 to 21 and on Thursday, Jan. 23, Barrett lost to Franklin Junior High School at Franklin by a score of 46 to 38.

Barrett is now in second place in the league, with Franklin in first.

Siebert Dance Date Set Feb. 7

Siebert School ways and means chairman, Mrs. Roland Esswein, and co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Riffle, have announced plans for a Valentine school dance Friday, Feb. 7, at 7:30 to 10:30, both round and square dancing.

Jim Wagner and his band will furnish the music.

There will be a beginners' class for those wanting to learn square dancing.

Tickets will be sold at the school door the night of the dance, Mrs. Donald Salser, publicity chairman, stated.

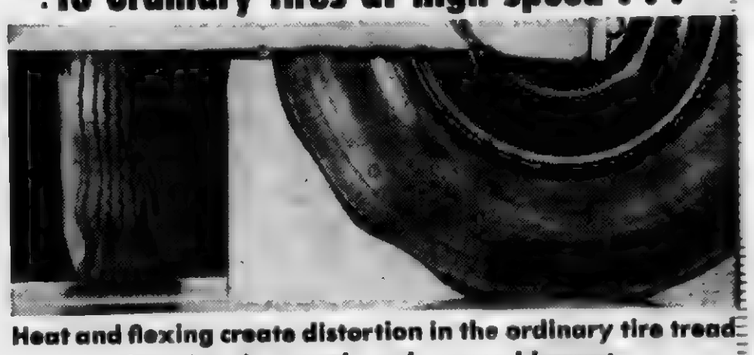
It pays to buy from our advertisers. Start now!

Dance, Round, Square, Leo's

Mrs. A. J. Fontaine, publicity chairman, has announced a Feb. 1 round and square dance to be given by St. Leo's Altar Rosary Parish Council in St. Leo's School Auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beyer, general chairmen, will be assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Robert Burkey, Mrs. John Compson, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Diamond, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kolas, Mrs. William McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schneider.

Mrs. Fontaine also stated that the Jim Swartzlander Orchestra will furnish music for the occasion, beginning at 8:30 p.m.



World War 1 Vets To Meet

The next regular meeting of Capitol Barracks No. 461, Veterans of World War I, USA, Inc. will be held Sunday, Feb. 2, at the new Veterans Memorial Building, 300 W. Broad-st, at 2 p.m. in the Veterans Wing. All World War I veterans are urged by officials to attend. All meetings are open to all WWI veterans, R. M. Hartman, the "Old Sarge," said.

New B.F.Goodrich
Silvertown 125
a special tire for turnpike driving
This great new nylon tire takes out the hazards of high-speed driving . . . keeps in the longer wear and smoother ride found in all B.F.Goodrich tires. At high speeds, ordinary tires will buckle and blow out due to constant flexing and tortuous heat build-up (see dynamometer test below). But the new, rugged Silvertown 125, designed along racing car tire lines, resists these tire-killers even at speeds far faster than you'll ever drive!

B.F.Goodrich
Here's what happens . to ordinary tires at high speed . . .

Heat and flexing create distortion in the ordinary tire tread that rips the tread, and causes blowouts.
Here's how B.F.Goodrich Silvertown 125 stands up at high speed . . .

Moving at the same speed this 6-ply nylon Silvertown 125 reduces tortuous flexing . . . resists blowouts!

Deep Freeze Fishing Gives Cool Contentment

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Dave Wilson, London, is a new convert to the art of catching fish without taking a chill. He's had pretty good luck so far at Madison Lake.

Bill Dixon, who lives at Madison Lake, caught a nine-pound channel catfish there a couple of weeks ago, and started the ice fishing season off with a bang. Several nice catches of bluegills have been taken since.

Deep freeze fishing has been in full swing in central Ohio for at least two weeks, and the fishing seems to be good practically everywhere. Buckeye Lake has its "ice fishing city" off Avondale every week-end. The fishing has been good, but not yet up to last year's peak.

Eldon Hales, Put-In-Bay ice fishing guide, tells me that large catches of perch are being made around the islands in Lake Erie. A few walleyes are being picked up too.

All this is enough to make a fellow start pawing through the moth balls for his long underwear and woolen socks.

New Use For Sleds

There was a time when most fishermen spent all winter by the fireplace waiting for spring to come. Now a substantial number of anglers barely get their rods and reels stored before they break out the ice fishing gear. They put on all the clothes they own, and then borrow a few more. Junior's sled is spirited away, and loaded with fishing tackle, camp stools, and thermos jugs filled with hot coffee. Then, they're off and running—toward the nearest lake or farm pond.

Dave Wilson and Dick Morse of London are a couple of recent ice fishing converts that I talked to the other way at Madison Lake. They are avid warm weather fishermen, but had just never tried ice fishing. When I saw them they were making their second attempt to defy Jack Frost. They had been ice fishing the week before, had caught fish, and so were back for more.

Their tackle was not elaborate, but was pretty much standard for deep freeze fishermen. They used a spud bar to chop a hole in the ice, and were careful to round off the corners under water. Both of them were using ice rods, which look about the same as a tip section on a flyrod. Four-pound test spinning line was used with a very small hook on the end. Standard split-shot sinkers are too large for ice fishing, so most anglers make their own. Dave and Dick were using a tiny bobber — just enough to stay afloat.

Need 'Dainty' Tackle

There is a reason for this diminutive tackle. Fish are cold-blooded creatures, and become rather torpid when ice covers their homes. When they take a bait, it's not the rod-jolting strike that you're accustomed to in the summer. It's barely a nibble—just the suggestion of a bite. With small, dainty tackle you can feel these nibbles.

Meal worms are the favorite bait for ice fishing in this area, and are available at most bait stores. Goldenrod worms are also popular, and you can collect these yourself. Locate a patch of goldenrod, and you will find swollen places on many of the dried stems. These are called galls. Cut one open with a knife and you will find a white grub that will make a bluegill lick his chops.

Bluegills are the main attraction for ice fishermen, and comprise the bulk of the catch. But look for some surprises, for large mouth bass, perch, bullheads, crappies and catfish can all be caught through the ice.

HIKERS TO VISIT CAVERNS

Central Ohio Hiking Club will travel by charter bus to West Liberty Feb. 2 for a hike in the vicinity of Ohio Caverns. Hikers will bring their own lunches and a stop will be made in Urbana for supper at a restaurant. All adults are welcome to attend. The group will meet at Central YMCA at 10 a.m.

MEAT CONSUMPTION DROPS

Total meat production in 1958 may be about the same as in 1957. Beef output probably will decrease. Consumption of meat per person, reflecting reduced supply and larger population, has dropped to about 159 pounds. It was 166 pounds in 1956.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Women Voters Schedule Panel On Water Topics

Dear Mr. Editor:

The subject of "water" has been in the headlines so often recently, in connection with annexation, finances, etc. We all know water is important to our daily existence but many of us have a hazy view of the various water problems here in Franklin County.

It is our duty as citizens to keep informed on public affairs, both national and local, but often it is not easy to do. That is why I would like to call to your readers' attention a wonderful opportunity to gain a first-hand look at the water picture in our county.

On Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 8:15 p.m, in Central High School, the Columbus League of Women Voters will present a panel discussion on water to which the public is invited. The officials who will speak and answer questions on water are Floyd C. Redick, Columbus City Service Director; A. K. Pierce, mayor of Grandview; Ernest Stork, Chamber of Commerce Consultant; and Roland Holmes, Regional Planning Commission. Mrs. James Briers, state board member of the LWV, will moderate the discussion.

It is certain to be a stimulating evening on a timely and vital topic and I hope many will take the time to attend.

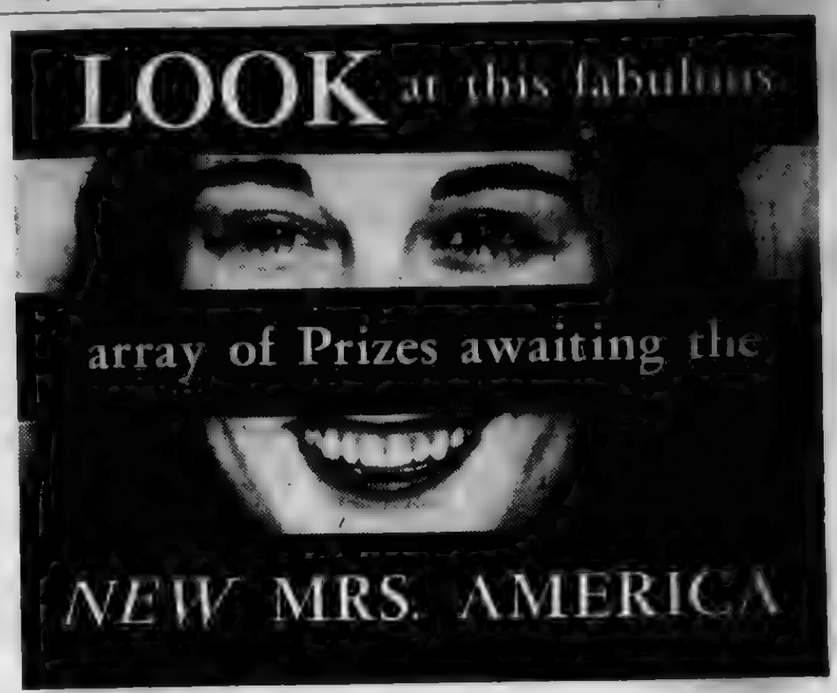
Reilly Will File For Repeat Term In Legislature

Archer E. Reilly, Jr., State Representative, has announced that he will file petitions this week for election to a second term.



Reilly is a practicing lawyer and also a member of the teaching staff at Franklin University. He has been a contributor of articles to daily newspapers and legal journals on governmental subjects. At the last session of the Legislature he received honorable mention in a poll of legislative correspondents among members of the House, and also honorable mention as a first termer.

Reilly is married and the father of two sons.

Merchants Deserve Help On Parking Problem

South Side merchants have been informed that in the near future the city will eliminate all parking on the west side of Parsons-av from 4 to 6 p.m. and on the east side from 7 to 9 a.m.

It is only natural that local business people on Parsons-av should look with disfavor on such action They have openly expressed themselves and will be present at city council Feb. 17 to again protest such action.

This brings to a head a long present problem and one of ever greater significance to this community—that of parking

Business people today find themselves in a situation that is indeed difficult to live with. The ever increasing number of cars on the streets makes it ever more important that there be more and more parking space available for people who are seeking the goods and services of business people

Off street parking could be a solution but there seems to be little possible assistance forthcoming from the city in this direction. South Side business people have come up with some proposals that would serve to help their cause but for some reason the city finds a way of shrugging shoulders and saying it is none of their responsibility.

Any public service to the people should be a city responsibility. It is hoped that when local business people present their case at city hall soon they will be received with open minds by the city fathers who should seek some opportunity to assist in their problem.

Our Most Valuable Natural Resource

Many people have many observations as the result of the launching of our satellite.

It was big news to all and while there was less excitement because of the delay, it still provides the major topic of conversation.

But last Saturday morning as the news came over the radio I couldn't help but observe that I was not half so thrilled by that spoken word as by the expression of our 19-month-old Kathy as she looked up and smiled and said, "Daddy's baby."

And as we are currently engaged in a campaign to raise $2 520,000 for the purpose of erecting YMCA and YWCA buildings in our city we will do well to reflect that our greatest natural resource is in the character of our young people

Soon men and women of this community will be calling on nearly every family and individual to ask that they support this campaign with a generous contribution that may be paid off over a three-year period.

We have no finer opportunity to invest in the development of this great natural resource than by this means.

Tom Sharp Honored

Tom Sharp

Tom Sharp, display advertising manager for the South Side Leader, has been honored by having one of his designed display advertisements reproduced in the house organ of the Fairchild Graphic Equipment, Inc., of Plainview, L.I., N.Y.

The manufacturer of the plastic engraving machines used by the Hartley Newspapers chose an advertisement prepared for Bobb Chevrolet and published in the South Side Leader recently. The advertisement was one of three advertisements from across the United States and Canada selected for reproduction in the firm's publication The selection was made from hundreds of advertisements. The South Side Leader people are quite proud of our Tom Sharp The other two papers selected with Sharp's Leader advertisement for Bobb Chevrolet were the Urbana (Ohio) Daily Citizen and the St. Thomas, Ontario, (Canada) Times-Journal, a daily newspaper.

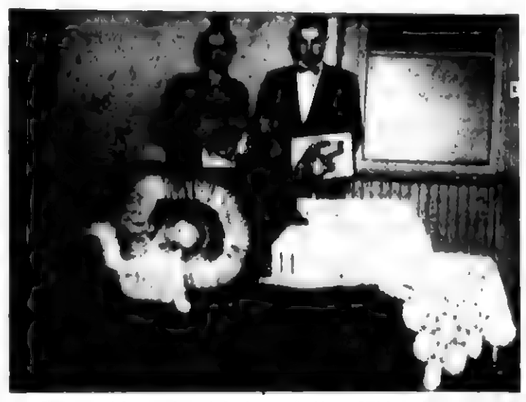
Ends Period Of Training

Army Pvt. Sylvester L. Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Carter, 518 Southwood-av, completed eight weeks of basic combat training Jan. 18 under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox, Ky. The 17-year-old soldier attended South High School.

Mrs. Potter Tells Of Mohawk's PTA

Mohawk School's PTA meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 13, at 8 p.m. Invocation will be given by Rev. Ralph E. Schuler, associate pastor of St. John's E and R Church. "What PTA Means To Father," a skit, will be presented by the PTA mothers, Mrs. William A. Potter, Jr., publicity chairman, said.

A film will be shown by Ted Lee of the Southeast Conservation Club. Curtis Brady will lead the music, played by the Mohawk School orchestra. Refreshments and social hour will follow.



Livingston PTA Has Hobby Show Date 18th

Mrs. Willard E. Miller, Livingston Avenue Elementary School PTA publicity chairman, has announced a hobby show to be given Feb. 18, at 7:30 in the school building. This show, Mrs. Miller said, will follow the regular PTA meeting

The reporter was taken "back stage" recently to see some of the exhibits and Mrs. Miller lived up to her claims as hobbies of various kinds were presented to the newspaper men. They include in the adult section, a crocheted bedspread made by Mrs. Golden Gannon; a musical church by Orr Frye . . . but wait: Livingston people are to buy tickets for the affair, and the reported mustn't report on too many things.

The foregoing, of course, has relation to the adult exhibits. Mrs. Miller showed a list of the children's exhibits—they have a multitude of exhibits and are enthusiastic over the soon-coming show.

Principal Neal Greenfield and PTA President Mrs. William Tidwell are on the committee arranging the show.

Shown with crocheted bedspread, Mrs. Golden Gannon, 655 Ann-st; cats, Mrs. Richard Stamm, 899 Linwood-av; musical church, Orrie Frye, 777 Gilbert- st; paintings, Mrs. Austin Davis, 527 S. 18th-st.

The card party is for the benefit of the Student Nurse Scholarship and Aid Fund a help to young women who may need such help to enter the field of nursing, it was said.

Mrs. James Strapp, 1248 S. Champion-av, and Mrs. Joseph Fleshman, 1236 Lockbourne-rd, have committee responsibility, it was stated.

Film 'Preface To A Life' Set

The Parent and Family Life Education meeting of the Columbus Council of Parent Teacher Association will be at 1:15 p.m. Monday, Feb. 10, at the administration building, Columbus Board of Education, 270 East State-st.

The chairman is Mrs. Paul Dean, the program demonstration is the film "Preface To A Life." The topic is "Self-Confidence To Grow On."

Southwood PTA Board To Honor Teachers

Southwood School board members of the PTA will honor the teachers and room mothers Feb. 13 with a potluck luncheon served from 12 to 1.30, according to Mrs. H. E. Schneider, PTA publicity chairman.

The luncheon will be under the direction of the Parent Education Committee, with Mrs. Chester Metzler serving as chairman.

Following the luncheon there will be a Parent Education meeting with Mrs. Carl Jividen as chairman. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Emily Shaffer, who is the director of the South Side Day Nursery. Her topic will be "Antidotes for Anxiety," which will deal with the pre-school child in preparing him for school and the problems when he is in school. Mrs. Shaffer has done work in children's clinics in Chicago and Pittsburgh and is well equipped to discuss such problems, Mrs. Schneider said, and will welcome questions from the audience.

Parents of preschool children are eligible to attend this meeting it was announced.

Mrs. Charles Dayton, president of the PTA board, announces there will be a board meeting preceding the luncheon, at 10 a.m.

Lincoln Park PTA To Meet February 13

Mrs. William Conley, publicity chairman of Lincoln Park PTA, has announced that the second meeting of the Lincoln Park Parent and Family Life Study Discussion Group will be held Feb. 13 at 10 a.m. in the school auditorium. Large Attendance At Tuesday Meeting Brought Vigorous Opposition

Outspoken objection to the proposed "peak hour" elimination of parking on Parsons-av were registered by members of the South Side Business and Industrial Association when they met Tuesday evening.

City Traffic Director James Musick was present and stated that he will ask the Traffic Commission to eliminate parking on the west side of Parsons-av from 4 to 6 p.m. and on the east side from 7 to 9 a.m., and eliminate all left turns off Parsons at all signalized intersections. This would include the area from the viaduct to Broad-st.

Business people present stated they would organize to fight such action even to the extent of carrying it to city council

Musick stated that such changes have been put into effect in all other sections of the city and that Parsons-av is the last to be acted on.

Pedestrian cross walks will be installed at Reeb-av and Parsons according to Musick. The walks will be defined by plastic markers.

Surveys Being Made

Traffic surveys are now in progress to determine the feasibility of designating any more one-way streets on the South Side, Musick reported. "At this time we do not recommend any more one-way streets here because there are no pairs of streets with similar character," he stated.

One-way alleys on both sides of Parsons-av are also being studied. It was reported that a survey is being made to alleviate the "headache" now present in Kian alley.

That South Side merchants want parking available for their patrons was very much in evidence at the Tuesday meeting

"We are the first and only organization to come up with a concrete plan for solution of the parking problem. We want only what is right for the area so the business people may survive," stated President Tom Sharp.

Sharp and Robert Horowitz, attorney, made an appeal that all local business people be at city council on Feb. 17 to oppose proposed restrictions of parking.

Gave Details

Musick states that Parsons-av is 44 feet wide and has a capacity of 800 vehicles per hour when parking is allowed on both sides. If parking is restricted on both sides the vehicle capacity is 1,000 and with no parking at all the total climbs up to 1200. There are five hours a day when this total is exceeded by as much as 150 to 200 cars. His parking survey has shown by check of curb usage that vehicles are parked for three to four hours, and this is in the face of an ordinance restricting parking in any area for more than one hour.

According to this report, business people conclude that parking meters are the solution to keep parking spots turning over.

A motion was passed by the merchants stating "The South Side Business and Industrial Association goes on record as favoring the installation of parking meters from Marion-rd, on both sides of Parsons as far north as feasible."

New Principal At Barrett Jr. High

Principal Kenneth N. Olbert, who opened the new term at Barrett Junior High School, Monday, Feb. 3, was schooled at South High School and Denison University and did his graduate work at Ohio State University. He succeeded T. J. Quick, who resigned to accept a job with the county school system.

The new principal taught at North, Central, and Eastmoor high schools, and served as vice principal at Franklin and Starling Junior High Schools before coming to Barrett.

Principal Olbert served on Navy minesweepers during World War II and also at a later time during the Korean War, serving a total of seven years of active duty. He is now a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve

Mr. and Mrs. Olbert have a son and a daughter, Scott Olbert, eight years' old, and Julie Olbert, six years' old.

Chess Tourney At Schiller

Schiller Recreation Center will hold a chess tournament during the week of Mar. 17. This will be open to anyone in the community who wishes to enter.

Anybody can learn to play chess. It is not such a difficult game as most people think, it was stated at the center. One can learn the moves in 15 minutes, it was said and in another 15 minutes the idea of the game is learned, and anyone can be playing the game within the hour

Once chess was regarded as a game for men only. Today women and boys and girls are playing it, too. It is not a dull game that lasts for days; games can be made short, quick, and sparkling.

Anyone interested in entering this tournament or learning to play the game should contact any of the staff at Schiller Recreation Center, it was said.

Parent-Education Group To Meet

Mohawk School Parent Education meeting will be held Thursday, Feb 6, at 2 p.m. Miss Pauline Steele will answer any questions and hold discussions on the film "Conquering New Frontiers In Child Health," which will be shown. Mrs. William A. Potter, Jr., 461 E. Beck-st, is publicity chairman.

Quick Feted

On the evening of Thursday, Jan. 30, the men teachers of Barrett Junior High School gave a surprise party for their departing principal, Thomas Quick.

By a piece of what was happily described as "outrageous deception" by a trusted associate, the departing principal was brought to the appointed spot. There he was well dined and was gifted by his devoted friends, with an article appropriate to his interests and that of the group—a bowling ball.

Boy Scouts, on 48th Birthday, Begin National Safety Good Turn

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

More than 4,700,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, marking the 48th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Boy Scout Week sees the launching of a yearlong Safety Good Turn suggested by President Eisenhower, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America.

In cooperation with other organizations giving leadership in safety, the Scouts will promote traffic safety in March, April, and May; outdoor safety in June, July, and August; and home safety in September, October, and November.

Bible Comment:

Christ Didn't Try To Exploit His Miraculous Cures

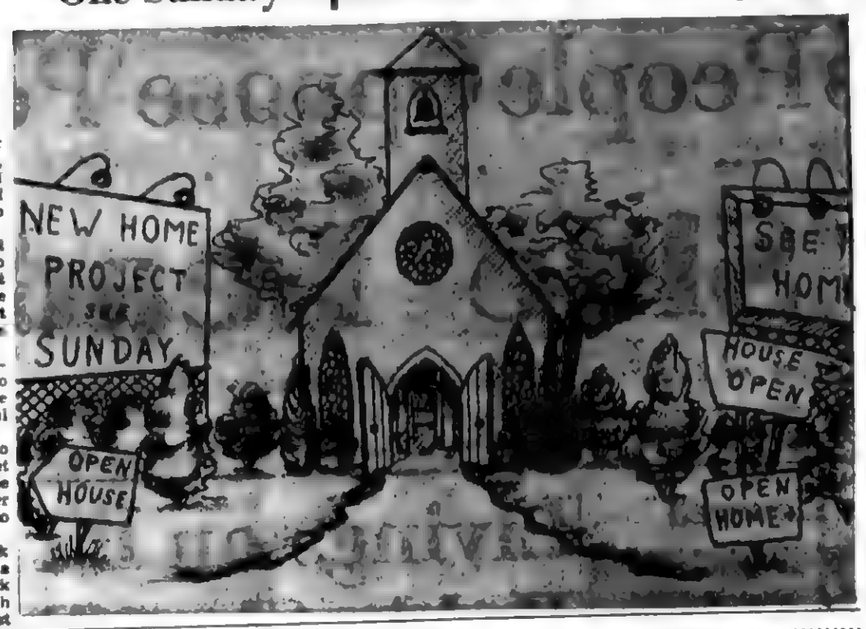
WHEN CHRIST healed a leper in a town near Capernaum, He told the man to show himself to the priest in fulfillment of Jewish law, but warned him to say nothing to anyone else.

But when the leper found that he was whole again, he began to "blaze abroad the matter" so that Christ couldn't enter the city. He tried to get away into the desert but the crowds surrounded Him there.

Once again Christ had emphasized that His mission was to heal souls, not bodies, that He found His work in spiritual rather than physical matters.

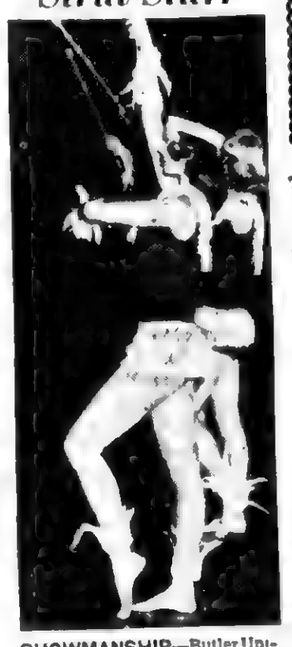
What healer has ever tried to avoid publicity or tried to get away from a crowd? On the contrary, the typical healer thrives on publicity and tries to exploit it.

When Christ did come back to Capernaum, there was such a mob around His door that a sick man had to be lowered through a hole in the roof. Christ must have been impressed that they took such measures, but His first words to the sick man were not ones of healing, but an assurance that his sins had been forgiven.



This was a distinct challenge to the conventional religious thought and attitude. Christ had asserted His unique place and mission.

Immediately many lost interest in the miraculous. They sensed something that was heretical according to their lights. In this case, they didn't appreciate His speaking as one with authority and "not as the scribes."



But the effect was just what Christ had intended—to guard against being regarded as a physical rather than spiritual healer. It is the salvation of the whole man that comes first in the work of Christ. The healing of the body was an incidental part.

If Christ had only been a great healer, His name and fame would have vanished long ago. It is because His Gospel is "the power of God unto salvation" that He is the same yesterday, today and forever.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Grapefruit, Florida Oranges, apples, canned pears.

Vegetables—Head lettuce, cabbage, carrots, Brussels sprouts, potatoes.

Protein Foods — Chuck roast, ground beef, whole ham, large eggs.

FEBRUARY — CHALLENGES FOOD SHOPPERS

Marketing this month will continue to challenge homemakers. Menus can be appealing and economical in spite of increased prices on many fresh fruits, vegetables and meats. One look at the market this morning and you are assured there is an abundance of food. You'll find it fun to accept the challenge of keeping the budget intact by doing sharp planning and shopping. Some tips on basic buys that may help you are:

Fruits and Vegetables — A continued easing of tight supplies of citrus fruits and vegetables is more apparent. You'll see more grapefruit on the market at slightly lower prices than last week, and the quality is good. Supplies of Florida oranges are increasing, too. More cabbage, carrots and celery are on the way.

Short supplies still remain for green peppers, green onions, radishes, green beans, broccoli. The tomatoes are mostly re-packs from Cuba and remain high in price with mediocre quality. There is a shorter supply of California naval oranges, with resulting higher price. Look for the larger size as your better orange buy.

In addition to the fresh fruits and vegetables already named lemons, endive, rutabagas, parsnips, turnips and dry onions remain good buys. Look for good values in some of the canned vegetables, particularly with corn, green beans, peas, beets and kidney beans. Canned peaches, pears and fruit cocktail remain as very reasonable buys. Don't overlook the many uses for inexpensive dried prunes.

Meats—There's little change in meat supply or prices. With storms in western areas of the U.S., less beef and pork were shipped to market. As long as beef continues in short supply, you can expect prices of other meats to remain at a fairly high level.

This week-end different markets will feature various specials in the meat line. Among them will be pork shoulder butt, ham shanks, and chuck roast. Lamb for stew will also be available at economical prices. Turkey, either fresh or frozen, is one of the lower priced choices. Thrifty shoppers will take advantage of such items as sausage-type meats, variety meats, and frozen fish. These are all "buy-a-pound, serve-a-pound" foods with no waste involved.

TRY THESE

Inexpensive liver with onions and baked apples.

Drain a can of hominy and brown it in the drippings after pan-broiling ground beef patties. Add one-half cup of light cream and let it simmer five minutes.

Fix a thrifty platter of ground beef hash or ham encircled with piping hot green peas and edged with hot fluffy rice.

Bacon and eggs are good for dinner on days the family has skipped them for breakfast.

An old-fashioned favorite dish was turnip cups . . . peeled white turnips with centers removed, cooked until just tender. . . . with peas to fill the cup. Good with either pork or beef.

Tom Sharp Writes About Coin Collector To Be At Hoermle's

By Tom Sharp

Andrew (Andy) Verbance who recently returned to Columbus from California, has a most pleasant avocation—collecting money. What's more, he does what a lot of us find difficult. He hangs on to it, for coins and currency are his particular hobby.

Numismatics means the study of coins and currency, but Andy studies all forms of legal tender, old and new. "Currency is my special weakness," Andy admits.

Andrew Vermance

Verbance will provide a special showing of his collection in Hoermle's Appliance Store, 1542 Parsons-av this coming Friday and Saturday, Feb. 7 and 8, from 12 noon until 6 p.m. Special insurance policies had to be applied for, as his collection runs into fabulous sums.

His collection of U. S. bank notes ranges through denominations from $1 to $20, including many rare bills dating back from the first issue of the U.S. Government. Most of them, of course, are those big king-sized greenbacks that circulated before the neater smaller bills of today were adopted in 1928.

In Interview

In a recent interview Andy explained, "The first national currency of this country was in the form of demand notes. These gave way in 1862 to greenbacks." Verbance also has a fine representative collection of "broken bank notes" which are notes issued by individual banks when such was the practice.

He also has a certificate of deposit worth 10 silver dollars with a portrait of Robert Morris, the man who financed the Revolutionary War, and who later was put in jail because he couldn't pay his bills.

Other rarities that he has are many, but some of them can be mentioned here and the others you may see at Hoermle's this week. A Sioux Indian chief who was wrongly accused of acts of violence on American military wagons was immortalized on the $5 silver certificate. His name was O-ne-pa-pa, or "one papa," who was sentenced to die and then granted executive clemency. He refused to sit for the engraving, so a treasury employe was used but he wore a Pawnee head bonnet—so says Verbance.

Other large size bills that Verbance has included all the one dollar bills of different types from 1862 through 1923. All the two dollar bills from 1862 through 1918, and most of the five, ten and 20-dollar certificates.

In silver certificates he has three that depict a series. The one dollar bill is shown with History instructing Youth on Education. This bill has the Constitution of the U.S. on a tablet inscribed on it. The two dollar bill has Science presenting Steam and Electricity to Commerce and Manufacturing depicted on it. The five dollar note shows agriculture and carries the date of 1896.

An interesting sidelight on currency is that the common dollar sign appears only on that issued in 1896 in a series based on historical events and again on a "two dollar bill issued in 1891." Otherwise you just don't find it.

One of the stories told by Verbance shows the "Acts of Providence" that prevail in making this hobby an interesting one. It seems that early in their history the Colonies were short of expert engravers needed for currency plates. So, some were imported from England. And, states Andy, "this is when the Englishmen got the last laugh on American engravers." As was the custom, employes of the mint would gather after work in a tap room where the relative merits of the two countries would often be debated.

"One of the Englishmen, having had enough joshing, made a boast that 'I can make a jackass out of your American Eagle anytime.' Then he proceeded to do so. With that, Verbance hands me a pocket file crammed with currency of all types and denominations, flicking the pages until he showed me a $10 note in its transparent plastic sheath. The proud national bird appeared at the bottom.

"Now turn it upside." Sure enough, the Eagle became the head and neck of an unmistakable jackass.

One of Many

This is only one of the many rarities that appear in his collection and Andy can give facts and figures about all of them. In the 10 years he has been pursuing his monetary hobby, Verbance has also built up a collection of coins of all denominations.

He has a complete set of the "Morgan dollars" ($1 silver coins); Liberty nickels, buffalo nickels, the Roosevelt 10-cent piece, the Franklin 50-cent piece, and Jefferson five-cent piece. In addition he has a set of all types of the gold coins minted, including 11 types of $1 $3 (that's right), $2½, $5, $10 and $20-dollar coins.

Proof Coins

His collection goes on to include U.S. "proof coins." These are highly polished pieces, better than the general run, which are touched by no hands until they come into those of the collector. Verbance, whose enthusiasm keeps growing right along with his collection, also has a complete set of certain uncirculated coins.

Half-Dollars

One of these sets is that of the Franklin half-dollars complete from 1948 to date. The Jefferson nickels are from 1938 to date. Roosevelt dimes from 1946 to date and the Walking Liberty half-dollars from 1916 to 1947 inclusive. All of these sets are complete and worth far more than the original value. Andy also has a complete set of buffalo nickels which are uncirculated and date from 1913 to 1938.

Another Board

Another interesting board of coins includes the "so-called half-dollars," which are coins depicting a pioneer event or era. They are titled "Pony Express Jubilee," "Minute Man," "Lindbergh," "Admiral Byrd," "Thomas Edison," "Daniel Boone,' and a Confederate replica and Confederate seal.

Other Coins

Some of the other coins that he will show tomorrow at Hoermle's will be a complete set of Liberty head nickels, which include two of the year 1883.. One of them is a coin "without cents." This was the racketeer nickel that used to be gold-plated and then passed off as a five-dollar gold piece. This set includes coins from 1883 to 1912.

Andy stated that if anyone has a Liberty Head nickel dated 1913 he would buy it and pay quite a sum for it, too. He says there are only five of them known in existence.

Another set to be shown will be the U.S. gold type set which includes $1, $2½, $3, $5, $10, $20 gold pieces of the St. Gaudens and Indian type, and the $1, $2½, $5 and $10 and $20 Liberty type.

Proof Sets

The collector's U.S. proof sets date from 1950 to now. Proof sets are coins the metal of which is polished and processed before being "struck" (minted). In this process single Flans or Planchets (pieces of metal prepared for striking) are fed into presses to get the mirror-like finish present on coins. Proof sets are good both for a hobby and also as good investment, increasing in value over the course of years. One such set cost approximately $2.50 when Andy bought it and is now worth $10 or more.

Andy says that "proof sets are a small investment which pay great dividends at later dates. "I will be glad to help start anyone desiring to collect coins, except I will not provide the coins, of course." I will be at Hoermle's these two days to show my collection and to talk to everyone. If you have any coins that you want appraised or sold I will take the time and advise you and/or buy them myself." For further information you can reach Andy by calling Hoermle's. They will give him a message. The number to call is HI. 4-2195 or you can talk to him in person Friday or Saturday of this week from 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Lockbourne Man Now In Germany

Army Pvt. James A. Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Berry, 1183 Lockbourne-rd, recently arrived in Bad Kreuznach, Germany, and is now a member of the 8th Infantry Division.

Berry, a switchboard operator in Company B of the Division's 8th Signal Battalion, entered the army last May and completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan.

The 20-year-old soldier was graduated from Central High School in 1955. He attended Ohio State University and was employed by Melegen Masonry Company in civilian life.

Schiller Director Tells Of Center's Weight Lifter

Way back in September Schiller opened its weight-lifting room and found there only a hand ful of weights and one very badly bent pipe bar absent the outside collars. Mel Wishon loaned us his exercise set along with Grady Marcum and a few of the other boys making contributions until we now have several exercise sets and a respectable amount of weights.

Good Gains

Schiller still doesn't have the cherished Olympic set that is used in competitive weight-lifting, yet some of the boys have made very good gains in just a few months.

One man out of 180,000 can press his own body weight. Schiller now has three who have reached this level. They are Gary Davis, weighing 120 pounds, pressed 135 pounds; Grady Marcum, weighing 135 pressed 170; Jim Allan, 145, pressed 155. Joe Taylor, Joe Woodall, Kenny Baker, Mel Wishon, Harlan Fredricks and Ray McDaniels can all clean and jerk their body weight or more.

Weight Lifter

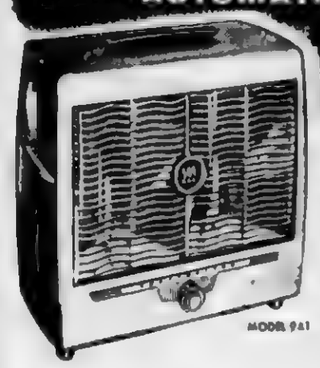
Juan Parker managed to deadlift over 300 pounds on the first try and his latest is 340. Juan does full squats with 250 pounds and has been working only about a month. Grady Marcum, with about six months' training, does full squats with over 300 pounds and has done four consecutive jerks with 200 pounds. Give him another six months and he will be ready for national competition. Gary Davis is another potential lifter of national caliber. Gary's best lift is his clean and jerk and he will soon reach the 200-pound mark.

The weight room is open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday in the evening. The director said that "If you want to gain or lose weight or just stay in condition, come in on these nights and we will help you get started. You should be 15 years or older. Any donations of plates, dumbbells, or apparatus of any kind will be appreciated.

Baseball Movies At Schiller Park

This Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. there will be a special showing of baseball movies at Schiller Recreation Center. The film includes "World Series Thrills," the "All Star" game of 1957, and the "World Series of 1957" director Crawshaw has announced.

The pictures, which were secured through the courtesy of the Columbus Jets, are partly in color and partly black and white and will include some of the greatest thrills of baseball history.



There will be no charge for admission and the affair is open to everybody according to director Crawshaw.

Retirement used to mean the end of the road, but now Americans happily anticipate many active and interesting years after they retire. Ask to see books discussing this vital subject at your Columbus Public Library.

Basketball for the South High Bulldogs this week finds them at Central on Feb. 7. On Feb. 11, South will host Eastmoor.

Three South Side woman will take part in the panel discussion which highlights the Columbus Council of PTA today at Central at 1:30. Panel members will tell how the formula "O plus P plus EP equals SEM." Mrs. William Hoptry, 280 Southwood-av, first vice president of the council, will serve as moderator. The two South area women who will take part in the panel are Mrs. Sheldon Cox, 331 E. Whittier, District 2 vice president and Mrs. Fred Grace, 737 Hanford-st, audio-visual education chairman.

Feb. 8 will be the wedding date for two young couples, so congratulations to them. Joyce Hackney, a teacher at office training school, will become the bride of Charles Williams, 503 Sycamore-st. The wedding will be read in St. Mary's Church. Rosalie Lemmon, 2050 Linwood-av, will exchange her vows with Franklin Needham, 483 Ogden-av. South Methodist Church will be the scene of the open church wedding.

The League of Women Voters are holding their Finance Drive this week, Feb. 3-8. Funds raised enable them to continue their public services, such as the Voter's Information Bulletin.

Lots of birthdays this week it seems, so we can't forget to send our best to Flora Colvill, Evelyn Davis, Ansline Ward, Betty Greene, Ruth Haas, and Priscilla Dicke. "Sis" as we call her, will attain that "sweet 16" year of life. It's with a note of sadness that we wish Evelyn Davis a happy birthday, for her next natal day won't be spent in good old Columbus town. A farewell potluck at Southwood Church of Christ will honor Rev. Willie Davis, as well as Evelyn and the four girls, on Feb. 7.

Get well wishes to Grace Brown, 374 E. Whittier-st, James Ritter, 336 E. Jenkins-av.

As we promised last week we are reminding you of, several local events that will be taking place in the immediate future. First, the Band and Orchestra Parents of South High will be having a rummage sale, Thurs., Feb. 13. All donations of rummage will be gratefully accepted. If you have anything to donate, won't you call Juanita Berger, CA. 4-1058, or Margie Speakmon, HI. 4-0632?

On Feb. 12 there will be a Hearts and Flowers Style Show and Card party at St. Leo's. The starting time is 8 p.m. Women of the parish will model the clothes, which will be furnished by Robinson's of the Great Southern Shopping Center. Shoes will be furnished by the Weiss Co., also of the center. One dollar admission will entitle you to a grand evening of fun, sounds like to me. In addition to the style show and cards, there will be loads of door prizes, favors, refreshments and table prizes. Mrs. Louis Dorn is the chairman of the event.

On Feb. 7, Siebert School PTA is sponsoring a Valentine Dance at the school from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Jim Wagner and his group will furnish the music, and beginners classes will be held for novices in the art of square dancing. Round and square dancing both will be available. Fifty cents is the nominal cost of the evening's entertainment. Chairmen are Mrs. Roland Essivein and Mrs. Robert Riffle.

Another birthdayite is Roger Brown, 559 Southwood-av, whose special day is the eleventh.

Golden wedding congratulations, trifle belatedly, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Figgins, 217 Morrill, whose big day was Jan. 16. A couple who attended the celebrants over 50 years ago were among the guests present at the buffet supper held at the Ft. Hayes hotel. The couple was Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Murphy, of Columbus. The Figgins have three children, five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Oakwood Methodist WSCS meetings scheduled for this week are Navajo, Feb. 6, 7:45 p.m.; hostess, Mrs. H. B. Black, 1150 Sycamore; Marcy, Feb. 12, 8 p.m., 1098 Sycamore-st, home of Mrs. Robert Grate; Jessie Lee, at the church, 1 p.m. on Feb. 12, Mrs. Edna McGarry, hostess; Ethel Harpst, Feb. 11, 7:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Jack Ross, 865 S. 22nd-st; Esther Hall, Feb. 11, 1 p.m., 799 S. Ohio, hostess, Mrs. R. J. Lechtner; Bennett, Feb. 11, 8 p.m., hostess, Mrs. C. H. Hannahs, 716 Sheridan and Bethlehem, Feb. 12, 1 p.m., 2765 Eastminster, home of Mrs. R. L. Grate.

Fourteen little girl friends helped Callie Sue Holmes, 51 Southwood-av to celebrate her Jan. 29 birthday. The guests were Stephanie Root, Christie Quickal, Christie Jackson, Lisa Tabor, Susan Onley, Susie and Iris Parhan, Vickie Fontaine, Margie Alvis, Ruth Heinmiller, Sandy Crogg, Pam Passenta, Kay Crego and Mary Rees.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schodorf, 284 Sheldon-av, who are the parents of a little girl, born last week in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Officers and chairmen of Columbus Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, will hold a potluck this evening at 6:30, in the Moose Hall. A meeting will follow the affair.

Stevie Baughman, grandson of Paul and Gerry Baughman, 1895 S. 6th-st, was five years old on Feb. 1. Steve's aunt, Edna Ann Baughman was hostess at a surprise birthday party for one of her classmates last Friday, Jan. 31. Eddie Ann and Karen Iddings were home for the weekend from Kentucky Christian College and Eddie Ann invited several of her Columbus friends to meet and honor Miss Iddings.

Mohaw School PTA Parent Education Study Group meets at 2 this afternoon. Miss Pauline Steele will lead a discussion on the film "Conquering New Frontiers in Child Health."

Cloverleaf 26 will meet Feb. 7 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Florence Southall, 1264 Parsons-av.

Trudeau Guild 25 met last night and the main business discussed with the big Trudeau Giuld Card party of which Guild 25 is one of the participating guilds. The affair will be held Feb. 18 at Veterans Memorial Hospital. There will also be a style show in connection with the card party. We'll add further details next week. Helen Souder, 1717 S. 3rd-st, was the hostess for Guild 25. Trudeau Guild 12 met for a brunch yesterday, and the hostess for the 9:30 a.m. meeting was Mrs. Fred Mason, 205 Hinman-av. Guild 17 will meet Feb. 10, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Claude J. Hall, Jr., 681 S. 22ndst. Guild 10 will meet on Feb. 11, 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Louis Whitacre, 158 Southwood-av.

Tho she's no longer a Buckeye we think it would be nice if her former South Side friends would remember to send a birthday card to Jane (Wycoff) Johnson, of Benton Harbor, Mich. Feb. 13 is Jane's birthdate and her address is 170 Kline-st.

Talking to Dorothy Jolly, active in Moose Women's affairs, we learned that there will be a steak dinner at the W. Sycamore hall on Feb. 12. The Moosehaven chairman and her committee are in charge of the 5 to 7 p.m. dinner. Tickets for adults are $1.25 and 75 cents will take care of the kiddies.

All items seem to have a checkmark on them, so that winds us up for this edition. Do give us your news, won't you? The number is HI. 4-1051, as always. Till next edition then, 'tis the — GADABOUT!

Mrs. Joanne Pope is chairman and Mrs. Clara Renner, co-chairman.

Barrett Lists 'Perfects'

By Barrett Reporter

The following listed students at Barrett Junior High School have records of perfect attendance for the first semester of the current school year, according to Barrett publicity department. They are the school citizens who have cooperated most fully with the school, the board of education, parents and taxpayers in the use of the opportunity and privilege of education. By the mere fact of regular presence they have saved the time and expense of attendance accounting at the school and of home calls by the visiting teachers. By their presence in the classroom they have made every teacher's task easier by easier checking of attendance and by less class time and teacher effort given to individual make-ups for lost time. Whatever their abilities as students they have given the school and public the greatest opportunity to realize the most from those abilities. Many of these names are certain to appear (and this is no mere accident) on other lists, for scholastic honors. The list follows:

Facing Facts, Subject At Roosevelt PTA Meeting

The second discussion program under the year's theme of "Facing Facts" will be presented when Roosevelt Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association meets Thursday, Feb. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium, according to an announcement by Mrs. H. D. Ellifritt, PTA publicity chairman.

"High Pressure Area," an American Theatre Wing Community play, will be given by players from the speech department of Ohio State University. The discussion will be led by E. F. Reichelderfer, assistant director of child study for the Columbus Public Schools.

Mrs. L. D. Thomson, president, will preside at the business session. Invocatino will be by Rev. Paul C. Kaefer and special music will be by Roosevelt Junior High School girls' ninth grade choir.

This program is in celebration of the 61st anniversary of the founding of the Parent-Teacher Organization. Past PTA presidents and retired teachers of Roosevelt Junior High School will be honored guests.

A birthday party will follow the meeting, Mrs. Ellifritt said.

Not Bad

It would not be a bad idea at that to put the designers of the bathing suits in charge of cutting governmental budgets. — Miami Herald.

White ink or showcard colors can be mixed in a moment if several toy jacks are kept in the bottles. When the bottle is shaken, the jacks dig into the pigment and blend it.

St. Paul Youth To Be Dominant Sunday, 9th

Rev. Paul C. Kaefer, pastor of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church, 251 E. Gates-st, has announced that this Sunday will be devoted to the youth of the church. It is to be Youth Sunday, said the pastor, in recognition of the importance of youth to church, home and community.

All youth organizations of the church will attend the services, the announcement indicated. These include Boy Scouts, Explorers, Cub Pack, Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds, Youth Fellowship Groups, Young People Sunday School classes.

Bruce Gischel, commencement speaker at South High School, and Marty Wilson, commencement speaker at Barrett Junior High School, will be the speakers, the announcement stated. Both are members of St. Paul.

The pastor will have charge of the Liturgy, it was announced, and the choir, under direction of Paul Berger, will sing, with Mrs. Claire Freeman at the organ.

Service time will be 10:30 a.m., according to the announcement.

Squirrels Are Foxy - - Instinct, Or Not?

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Bob Richards told me last fall that he had quite a time watching the progress of two squirrel nests being built in a sycamore tree in his front yard. The nests are close together, and one is larger than the other. It looks to me like a squirrel started one nest and abandoned it before it was completed, and then built the second larger nest.

Building nests for warmth in winter is an uncommon occurrence in the wild. Practically all animals, of course, prepare nests of some type for the coming of young. Some hibernate in dens which they line with dried grasses and leaves. Others spend the cold periods in dens or holes, but do not improve them with nesting materials.

Squirrels are almost an exception, in that they will construct a leaf nest to live in all winter if there are no dens available. They build leaf nests in the spring too, in which they rear their young. These nests are difficult to see because of the leaves on trees. The winter nests, however, are built in September and October, and are easily visible.

"Instinct" Baffles Scientists

In addition to building a house for the winter, squirrels are pretty foxy individuals in other respects. Scientists have found that squirrels raised in captivity that have never seen other squirrels bury acorns and nuts, will also bury food for a rainy day. Some scientists are reluctant to use the word "instinct," but they cannot explain this behavior.

It seems to me that they are fooling themselves when they refuse to recognize the fact that the desire to bury nuts is passed on from one squirrel generation to another. You can take a beagle pup that has never seen a rabbit, or that has never seen another dog chasing a rabbit, yet find that it has a keen desire to chase rabbits. This can be explained only by instinct in my book.

Another thing that the good doctors learned by examining what goes on in a fox squirrel's head, is that squirrels will not bury an unlimited amount of nuts or acorns. If they are supplied with an unlimited quantity, they will bury a lot of them and then stop. It appears that this food-saving instinct is in delicate balance—it provides for adequate food for the squirrel, but does not allow it to take all the food before other squirrels have a chance at it.

In any event, squirrels build their own houses and they lay in a food supply for the duration. And anyone who can do this in this day and age is a pretty foxy individual.

Mrs. Whalen Tells Of Girl Scouts, Their Activities

District No. 6

District No. 6 services four neighborhoods, Heyl-av neighborhood, Cumberland Trail neighborhood, Oakwood neighborhood and Trinity-Union Grove neighborhood. District chairman is Mrs. Arthur Foster and vice-chairman is Mrs. Vincent Meyer.

Heyl-av neighborhood has Mrs. Charles Davies as chairman and three vice-chairmen who service the following school areas: Mrs. Guy Cochran, Heyl Avenue School; Mrs. John Peer, Deshler Avenue School, and Mrs. Carmen Mininni, Corpus Christi School.

Oakwood neighborhood has Mrs. Louis Rehl serving as chairman, with Mrs. Evelyn Lee, vice chairman.

Cumberland Trail has Mrs. Robert Nicholson serving as chairman and Mrs. Lawrence Lane as vice chairman.

Trinity-Union Grove has Mrs. Odessa Allen as chairman and Mrs. Coy Alston, vice-chairman.

Activities

Mrs. Arthur Foster, District No. 6 chairman, presided at a recent neighborhood meeting held at Ohio Avenue EUB Church.

Discussion centered on "Family Night", which will be held at the church in the near future, with each troop participating. There are 10 troops in this neighborhood. Another subject was the annual International Friendship Dinner, which will be held at Whetstone Park Thursday, Feb. 20, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Workshop Memo

On Tuesday, Feb. 4, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., the monthly district workshop was held at Schiller Park, with Mrs. James Gatwood, arts and crafts director, presiding. Instruction was given on proficiency badge work and glass etching.

Area Juniors, Seniors Vie For TB Society's Prizes

A presentation of awards to the 11 winners in the Tuberculosis Society's 1957 School Press Project will be made at a "Blue Ribbon" party at the society headquarters, 503 Oak-st, Wednesday, Feb. 12, from 3:45 to 5 p.m.

Participants in the project are junior and senior high school students who drew an editorial cartoon or wrote an article on either "Your Future in a Health Career" or "Can We Wipe Out TB in Franklin County?"

All entries will be on display, and later discussed by Mrs. Barbara Schreiber, health educator, and Gerald D. Fry, executive director of the Society. A question and answer period will follow.

Guests

The guests will include all entrants and their teachers. They will be greeted by Dean Lewis, WBNS radio personality.

The awards will be presented by two of the judges, Ben Hayes, Columnist, the Columbus Citizen and Bob Stalley, cartoonist, Byer and Bowman Advertising Agency.

Each year the top winning entries from each county TB association are sent to the state association to compete on a statewide level. Announcements will be made Wednesday of any local winners who have won state recognition.

Pictures of the School Press award winners will be taken, and a social period with refreshments will conclude the program.

Finalists who will be present from the area are: Patricia Ann Stedman, 1297 S. Fourth-st, St. Mary's of the Springs; Judie Farley, 1059 Berkeley-rd; Sally Paulus, 68 E. Welch-av; Judy Sager, 1696 Whittier-st, South High School; Sandra Ashbaugh, 954 Linwood-av, Our Lady of Victory.

Oakwood Methodist Has Win Spot In Two Leagues

The South Side Branch YMCA Church Basketball Leagues progressed another week, ending with Oakwood Methodist in first place in the Junior League and Oakwood Methodist also leading the pack in the Intermediate League.

Junior League

Livingston Methodist opened up last week's Junior games by defeating the Frebis Avenue Church of God, 43-7. Mike Grayem used his height to advantage and poured in 21 points for Livingston. Roger Evans led the Church of God team with three points. Oakwood Methodist put a tighter hold on first place by defeating second place St. Paul United Church of Christ (E&R), 24-7. Oakwood's play was very good, but sportsmanship for the team said to be a little questionable. Bob Tidwell chucked eight points for the first-place teams, while Bob Boland scored four points for St. Paul. St. John United Church of Christ (E&R) stopped Central Community by a score of 37-9. Central's five men could not keep up with the manpower of St. John. "Lefty" Harris of St. John scored 17 points while "Butch" Mather led the entral Community team with seven points.

Intermediates

The Intermediate League saw Gates-Fourth Methodist win its first game by defeating Thurman Methodist, 22-10. Harvey Thompson scored 14 points for the winners. Fred Wolmandorff started a comeback for Thurman with seven points, but it was too late in the fourth quarter. Oakwood Methodist scored another victory by defeating Ohio EUB 39-11. Jon Fritz led the Oakwood team with 17 points. Steve Rounds was out in front for Ohio with five points. The last, and best, game played of the evening was between St. Paul United Church of Christ and South Methodist. St. Paul won by a 53-34 score, which was partly due to South Methodist having only four men. Both teams played excellent ball and had by far the best sportsmanship of the evening. "Tiny" Watters almost matched his size in points with 26 for St. Paul, while Jerry Cook popped in 13 for the losers.

M-F High School PTA Lists Armed Forces At Meeting

Members of the Armed Forces will be speaking guests of the Marion-Franklin High School PTA at the monthly meeting next Monday, according to Mrs. Joe Drake, PTA publicity chairman.

The meeting, Mrs. Drake said, will be of the question-and-answer style, with representatives of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and WACS explaining the features of each of the services. Students have been invited to attend, Mrs. Drake said.

The meeting will be held at the school building and will convene, the publicity chairman said, at 8 p.m.

GARY HARDY—Pictured is Gary Hardy, age seven, who at this evident early age made a reputation for himself. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hardy, 1712 Frebis-av. He began his driving career at six years of age, last summer, and is looking forward to additional success this year. He was winner in his race at the fairgrounds Saturday evening, Feb. 1. He races under the name "Little Outcast" and is looking forward to a big season.

Improvements Noted In Gray-Y Basketball Play

Another week of South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y basketball has produced many improvements in all teams, sportsmanship as well as skill, according to a report from the YMCA.

The Tuesday League has the Siebert Scorpions undefeated and in first place. They continued their streak by defeating the Beck Bulldozers, 16-18 last Tuesday. George Wellman and Walter Steffens played good ball for the losers, while Mike Rickard and Terry Romine led the way for the winners. The closest game of the evening was between the Reeb Musketeers and Southwood Atoms. Reeb finally won by the score of 8-5, with Steve Jackson leading the way by putting in four points. Tom Whitacre played a leading role in Southwood's "almost" win. Homer Bivens popped in seven points to lead the Southwood Floor Trotters to an 18-8 win over the Siebert Sputniks. Allan Cook played a good game off the backboards for the losers.

Thursday League

The Thursday League ended up last Thursday's games with four teams in first place. Both Lincoln Park teams and both Heyl teams have all won two games and lost one apiece. In last week's games, the Lincoln Park Scarlets beat the Heyl Satellites 11-8 to insure their part in the race. Joe Middendorf's leadership and team play helped bring the Scarlets back in the second half after a poor showing in the previous half. Charley Fyffe played a good game for the losers in the second half.

The Heyl Pork Chops kept their bid alive by overpowering the Stewart Bulldogs, 21-4. Heyl's height and team play was too much for the Stewart team to handle. John Bobo scored eight points for the winners, while the Bulldogs highest scorer was Ted Hoyt, with two points. The best game of the day was between the Lincoln Park Grays and Deshler Panthers, the Grays coming out on top, 9-4. Both teams showed good team play and very good sportsmanship throughout the contest. Gary Burford put in six points for the winners. Jim Westlake and Jerry Chace both scored two points for the Panthers.

Geo. C. Beery P.T.A. Plans 'Sweetheart Carnival' Feb. 14

The "Sweetheart Carnival" scheduled for Friday, Feb. 14, from 7 to 10:45 p.m., will be the highlight of PTA year at George C. Beery junior high school

A large variety of entertainment has been planned by the ways and means committee Among these are dancing, movies for the children and many fascinating and entertaining game booths. For instance, you can stroll down Primrose Path, stop over at Dodge City, and see What's Poppin.

You are welcome to leave your Excess Baggage and go on to enjoy Torrid Chihauahvans and Messey Bessy, from there to the Fountain of Youth and continue your journey to the many other features and attractions too numerous to mention, but equally as entertaining.

A door prize will be given to both a student and an adult person at the hours of 8, 9 and 10 p.m.

Also on Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 8 p.m. the PTA will observe "Founder's Day," Louis West will be chairman for the evening and there will be an address by Rev. Harold Davidson, chaplain, Juvenile Diagnostic Center.

OG's Notes

By OLIVER GEDEIST

The Wrong Way

The wrong way to go about getting a letter into any newspaper is to send it without signing the letter and giving the address. And that's what a "South Side Lady" did. She won't get her letter published, but because of the subject matter and so she will know we read the letter, we call attention to a rule which prevails in all newspapers . . . that is, that an unsigned letter is never published. Name and address are necessary (for the information of the editor) to "get into the paper" . . . whether it is the South Side Leader or any other reputable newspaper anywhere in the United States . . . The subject, however, is good for comment. The writer implies dishonesty by public officials and misquotes a city official's explanation of paper in burning garbage. We like to publish letters from our readers, but they must be signed, with the name and address readable. And they must not imply dishonesty among our public officials unless there is "unquestioned evidence" . . . and if there is unquestioned evidence, just remember that your newspaper is not a prosecuting attorney — it is a NEWSpaper.

Easter Nearly Here

Rev. John O. Lang, of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church has called the early coming of Easter to our attention with the result, a story on St. Paul's Easter program . . . an interesting program . . . I'm glad to get the good pastor into the pages of the Leader . . . and glad, too, to get him into the column . . . you see, we have a sort of vendetta . . . he's a man of strong convictions . . . and huge success through hard work and devotion to his responsibilities. May he and his church grow in strength and happiness . . . and may he continue to be my favorite combatant! . . and keep his copy coming Advance Easter programs will be welcomed

Graduation

Happy moments are those involving graduation . . . the thrill that comes once in a lifetime . . . Our congratulations to all graduates and may their lives be fruitful. Generally speaking, let me add, the fruitfulness of a life depends upon what the individual puts into his living . . . Here in the South Side we have many graduates from whom we will expect valuable accomplishments.

A new series of classes in square dancing will begin the first of February for people interested in learning the basic skills of square dancing. These classes sponsored by the Columbus Recreation Department are open to everyone interested, a spokesman said. There is a $5 per couple charge for the ten-week course. Classes start at 8 p.m. and will be held in the following locations:

Monday, Feb. 3—Schiller Recreation Center, Deshler and Jaeger-sts.

Wednesday, Feb. 19 — Shady Lane School, 1488 Shady-ln.

Persons interested in enrolling may do so the first evening of the class, the statement said.

Square dancing has become very popular in Columbus, according to the Columbus Recreation Department. Over 600 people attended a city-wide square dance at at the Ohio State Fairgrounds Youth Building, Jan. 24, with Ed Gilmore as guest caller, it was reported.

There are 12 square dance clubs in Columbus holding regular square dances for their members, it was stated, and others interested in joining clubs and dancing regularly or learning to dance in occasional square dances should attend these classes and learn the skills in order to have more fun square dancing, according to the recreation department.

Full information may be had by calling the Columbus Recreation Department, 124 City Hall, CA. 1-2211, Ext. 281, the spokesman said.

Actual dollar loss caused by cattle grubs in the United States is estimated by industry groups at between $100 and $300 million annually, say Ohio State University Extension entomologists.

Ohio Trefoil Council
District No. 6

District No. 6 services four neighborhoods, which include Heyl Avenue neighborhood, Cumberland Trail neighborhood, Oakwood neighborhood and Trinity-Union Grove neighborhood. District chairman is Mrs. Arthur Foster and vice chairman is Mrs. Vincent Meyer.

Heyl Avenue neighborhood has Mrs. Charles Davies as chairman and three vice-chairmen who service the following school areas: Mrs. Guy Cochran, Heyl Avenue School; Mrs. John Peer, Deshler Avenue School; Mrs. Carmeen Mininni, Corpus Christi School.

Oakwood neighborhood has Mrs. Louis Rehl serving as chairman, with Mrs. Evelyn Lee, vice chairman.

Cumberland Trail has Mrs. Robert Nicholson serving as chairman and Mrs. Lawrence Lane as vice-chairman.

Trinity-Union Grove has Mrs. Odessa Allen as chairman and Mrs. Coy Alston, vice chairman.

District No. 6

Mrs. Arthur Foster, District No. 6 chairman, presided at a recent neighborhood meeting held at the Ohio Avenue EUB Church. Eighteen members were present.

Discussion was held concerning "Family Night", which will be held in the near future at the church, with each troop participating. There are 10 troops in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Foster reminded those present of the annual "International Friendship Dinner" to be held at Whetstone Park on Thursday, Feb. 20, starting at 6:30 p.m. All registered adults are eligible to attend, bringing a foreign dish with the recipe.

Intermediate Troop 615
Leader, Mrs. Guy Cochran
Assistant Leaders, Mrs. George Reynolds

The members of this troop meet every Thursday after school at the Heyl Avenue School. There are 18 girls in this troop. President is Barbara McLaughlin; vice-president, Sue Fearing; secretary, Linda Bingham; treasurer, Barbara Reynolds. Members of the troop committee are Mrs. James West and Mrs. Harry Fearing, with Mrs. Allen Kline serving as troop committee chairman.

Recently the members of this troop celebrated the birthday anniversary of the troop with a special party and invited the members of Troop 754, whose leader is Mrs. Frederick Mauger. The party was planned by Mrs. Cochman's troop as one of its second-class requirements.

Serving on the purchasing committee were Sandra Hughes, Phyllis Harper, Patricia Woodmansee, Susan Weber, Eileen Frazier and Geneva Pendleton.

Hostesses were Barbara McLeigh, Barbara Reynolds, Carol Gurevits and Patricia Kirby. Serving on the entertainment committee were Sue Fearing, Karen Cochran, Marilyn Williams, Susan Kline, Phyllis McCloud, Linda Bingham, Judy West and Linda Gay.

Brownie Troop 261
Leader, Mrs. M. V. Sarchet

Leader, Mrs. M. V. Sarchet, assistant leaders, Mrs. Bertha Hinkle and Mrs. Opal Shannon, troop committee chairman, Mrs. Vincent Walker, and New Brownie Troop, whose leader is Mrs. Jack Miller, assistant leader, Mrs. I. Rubin, with Mrs. Glenn Ross serving as troop committee chairman, and Intermediate Troop 150, under the co-leadership of Mrs. Leah Fletcher and Mrs. Cyril Goldstein, with Mrs. James Fisher serving as troop committee chairman, held a combined "sing together" at the Deshler Avenue School under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Ross. Fifty-seven scouts participated. Plans have been made for another joint "sing together" in the very near future.

Brownie Troop 446
Heyl Avenue School
Leader, Mrs. Wiley Stein

The members of this troop took their first troop trip on Friday, and attended the Walt Disney picture, "Old Yeller". Assisting Mrs. Stein were Mrs. Harvey Akers, Mrs. Jack Vaughn and Mrs. Elsie Varley.

Carl J. Spehr To Tell Of New Guinea Missions

Carl J. Spehr, missionary to New Guinea, has been selected as guest speaker at the next meeting of the Martin Luther Ladies Aid of Martin Luther Church, at 585 E. Moler-st, Feb. 12, according to an announcement by Mrs. Richard J. Brown, publicity chairman. He will show films of the work in New Guinea, she said.

American Lutheran

The missionary is home here on furlough from New Guinea, where he represents the American Lutheran Church, Mrs. Brown said. He is a graduate of the University of Kansas and went to New Guinea in 1949. In 1950 he married Miss Marian McCabe, who had made the long trip to the mission field to join him in his work.

Seven Years

During his seven-year-term of service in New Guinea, Mr. Spehr served as electrical engineer and teacher at the Baitabag Industrial School at Madang. He has pioneered in the establishment of an effective program of radio and communication for the mission, which has given the remote mission stations regular contact with the rest of the mission field.

Mrs. Paul Schaible, New Guinea Missions chairman, will make announcement at this meeting of sewing plans for New Guinea Christmas cheer boxes.

Intermediate Troop 615
Leader, Mrs. Guy Cochran

Plans have been made for the members of this troop to go through the main postoffice building, 85 Marconi-blvd, Friday morning while school is not in session. Assisting Mrs. Cochran will be Mrs. George Reynolds and Mrs. Elmer Bingham.

Recognition Tea Report

Those honored from this area at the special recognition tea held Sunday, Jan. 26, at the St. John's Parish House, Worthington, were Miss Olive Wharton, who received her 25-year service pin, and Miss Alene Boyenton, who also received her 25-year service pin; Mrs. William Gerhard, 10-year pin, and the following were presented with five-year pins: Mrs. Louis Rehl, Mrs. Richard Zollman, Mrs. J. Curtiss Hodgens, Mrs. Emil Schmitz and Mrs. Vincent Meyer. The members of District No. 6 served as hostesses for this tea, and Mrs. Arthur Foster was chairman. Mrs. Leland Evans, also from this area, was responsible for the table decorations.

THREE AND ONE-HALF TONS OF SALT WATER TAFFY—

South-Side 'Y's' Plan World Service Sale

Pictured here are five Barrett Junior "Hi-Y" Club members as they complete the task of unloading 7,000 pounds of Salt Water Taffy at the South Side Branch YMCA, in preparation for the annual YMCA World Taffy Sale, to be held throughout the South Side and Franklin County, Feb. 14 through the 22nd. Working the stacks are members Dave Boye and Jim Buel, with Harley Latham, Louis Reid and Nate Noble keeping them well supplied.

Members of the 16 South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Clubs, five Jr. "Hi-Y" Clubs, two Jr. "Tri-Hi-Y" Clubs will comb the South Side in their annual world service project which, through the YMCA's of the United States and Canada help to keep YMCA's in action by helping people to help themselves in ten thousand YMCA's of the United States and in 76 countries and territories of the free world.

The salt water taffy will sell for sixty cents a pound and each sale aids in educating for democracy, training leaders, and demonstrating in thousands of practical ways that Christianity does offer practical solutions to the problems of our age, and does offer mankind its best hope for a world peace and brotherhood.

You too can do your share—"Be Doing While You're Chewing" YMCA World Service taffy.

'Speech And Hearing 'Talked' At St. Ladislaus P.T.A. Meeting

The next monthly meeting of St. Ladislaus School Parent Teacher Association will be held in the school hall Feb. 20 at 8 p.m. The program includes a talk by Dr. Sheila G. Morrison, assistant professor of speech from the Speech and Hearing Clinic. Her topic will be "Speech and Hearing Therapy at Ohio State University."

Classrooms will be open from 7:30 to 8 p.m. for parents wishing to visit the teachers, Mrs. Harold Hirschman, publicity chairman, announced.

Women Of 10 Churches In World Day Of Prayer

Clair Chapel Methodist Hosts South 'Y' Council

Members of the Clair Chapel Methodist Youth Fellowship will serve as host to the South Side Branch YMCA Young People's Inter-Church Council United Youth Program Sunday, Feb. 16, at 8 p.m.

The February program is based on "Brotherhood" and will feature the film "One God — The Ways We Worship" and the free will offering will go to YMCA World Service.

Diane Denney, South Methodist, is chairman of the committee planning the program. She is assisted by Bill Warren, St. John United Church of Christ; Joe Streaty, Clair Chapel Methodist; and Joyce Ferrell, South Methodist.

The featured film is based on the book "One God" by Florence Mary Fitch and engenders respect and tolerance in an objective presentation of forms of worship of the three major faiths in this country. Through excellent photography and narration, the most important characteristics of the symbolism, ceremonials, and beliefs of each faith is shown and explained, it was said.

The program is open to all young people of South Columbus and begins promptly at 8 p.m., at Clair Chapel Methodist Church, 295 Barthman-av.

Harry H. Vorrath, program director of the South Side Settlement, will be principal speaker this week when women of 10 South Side churches unite in a World Day of Prayer at Thurman Avenue Methodist Church. Mrs. John Hardwick, publicity chairman, announced that Rev. Everett Mosslander will present a "song program", and ladies from all the participating churches will share in the program.

This is the 72nd observance of World Day of Prayer, Mrs. Hardwick said. She explained: "On the first Friday in Lent thousands of Christians in the United States and around the world will be united in a service of prayer and thanksgiving."

Participating Churches

These listed South Side churches will participate in the World Day of Prayer, Mrs. John Hardwick said: Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed Church, St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church, South Congregational Church, Clair Chapel, South Church of Christ, Southwood Church of Christ, South Methodist, Thurman Avenue Methodist, Washington Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Ladies Taking Part

Mrs. Robert Nitschke, Mrs. Lewis Rankey, Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. James Colegrove, Mrs. John Komives, Mrs. Robert Streaty, Mrs. Arthur Early, Mrs. Morris Mitchell, Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Fred Erfurt, Mrs. Harry Hymrod, Mrs. Merl Kinney, Mrs. J. H. Davis.

In New Guinea

The principal speaker at the World Day of Prayer observance served in New Guinea as a lay missionary during 1946 through 1949, served in the Marine Corps 1950 to 1953, and in 1954 was in the Montana State Police Department. He graduated from Montana State University with a degree in psychology and philosophy. He was at Capital University through 1956 and

Rev. E. Mosslander

1957, where he hopes to complete his education.

As announced elsewhere in this week's South Side Leader, the speaker is to be married in June to an Ohio girl, and hopes to return to Capital University in the fall and complete his studies. He hopes to find service as chaplain in a correctional institution, he said.

Sponsor

Mrs. Hardwick explained that in the United States the World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ. She said the service for this year originated with a group of women in Australia. She added that each year the service comes from a different group.

The service will start at 1:30 p.m.

Leader Reporter Reports On Animal Aid Group

By Oliver Godeist

A recent interview with Mrs. H. C. Wetzel, 818 Carpenter-st, opened up a new world within our daily work-a-day world. Perhaps the unselfish spirit which actuated a group of Ohioans has something to do with the ease with which the writer's mind was directed to the purpose of the group. It IS unselfish, and that is why we went to see Mrs. Wetzell . . . and, of course, we couldn't — just couldn't pass up a pow wow (or is it a bow-wow?) with the handsome dog shown with this little story.

The story is that of a contingent of people banded to "prevent cruelty to all living things" while at the same time it serves "as an adoption center." That's one of the things Mrs. Wetzel told us about and asked that we mention.

Thank You? No, Thank You

The unselfish group asks no "thank-you's" for what they do. They seem to feel that by carrying out the purposes of their organization they are making a contribution to the happiness of people and the protection of animals.

Maybe at this point it is well that we bring in the name under which the group of Ohio people operate. It is the "Ohio Crusaders for Animal Protection."

Keeps Watch

The individual members of the organization keep watch on the "Lost" and "Found" columns in the newspapers, at kennels, whether public or private. For, you see, that's one of the virtues of this group—helping animals to get back to their owners—or helping owners to get to their pets, and Mrs. Wetzel assures us, there is a greater rush by an owner whose pet dog has been "lost" than people know. The Society seeks to bring lost pet and the owner of the pet together in a hurry.

Adoption Agency

The non-profit organization has many nice dogs, mostly mixed breeds, puppies, cats and kittens, for adoption, Mrs. Wetzel said. All females have been spayed and had their shots; also, in the case of dogs, their 1958 licenses. All males have been taken care of, and animals are not placed unless they are in good health.

Mrs. Wetzel's pet . . . a bushel of bounding energy and affection apparently glad because he is in a home where he is appreciated.

For further information about adopting a pet, call HI. 4-2554, or drop a card with your name, address and telephone number to Ohio Crusaders for Animal Protection, Inc., Post Office Box 6641, Columbus 9, Ohio.

Martin Luther Pastor Sets Lent Topic

Rev. Henry Oestreich, pastor of Martin Lutheran Evangelical Lutheran Church, has announced the "general theme" for Lenten services will be "Christ suffered and died for me." He stated that the services will be held on consecutive Wednesdays at 7:45 p.m.

The pastor said that the weekly themes are as follows: Feb. 19, "Warning In Regard To Temptations"; Feb. 26, "Knowing Man's Hour and Time"; Mar. 5, "Awaiting God's Hour and Day"; Mar. 12, "Humiliation Willingly Endured"; Mar. 19, "A Great Confession Is Given;" Mar. 26, "The Cross Is Borne"; Apr. 4, Good Friday, "Benefits of His Sacrifice."

Doughnut Sale Committee Is Announced

The Susanna Ladies Aid Society of The Hungarian E and R Church held its installation of officers and committees for the year. The new officers are listed:

Mrs. Andy Isakeby, president; Mrs. Bert Vargo, vice president; Mrs. John Poos, secretary; Mrs. Adam Kerekes, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Rosenaur, treasurer; Mrs. George Chiki, auditor; Mrs. Paul Leonard, telephone; Mrs. Martin Finta, Sr., and Mrs. Andrew Dobos, cheer up.

At the first meeting held following election, a doughnut sale was decided upon to be held at the church hall, 365 Woodrow-av Feb. 15. Mrs. Paul Leonard and Mrs. William Rosenaur are the doughnut sale chairmen.

Steak Dinner

The Uniform Units of Columbus Aerie No. 297 Fraternal Order of Eagles, 771 North High-st, are sponsoring a steak dinner Sunday, Feb. 16, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. with a full evening of entertainment to follow it was announced by Worthy President Harold W. Mathias.

Hobby Show To Be Free

A hobby show will be the feature attraction at Livingston-av PTA meeting Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 7:30 p.m.

Parents and children alike are displaying their hobbies such as crocheting, paints, sewing, quilting, woodwork, pets and collections such as flowers, stamps, salt and pepper shakers, dolls, model cars and airplanes, etc.

Admission is free and refreshments will be served by the social committee after the meeting. Mrs. Willard E. Miller publicity chairman, said.

Dr. Drake Attends Washington Talks

'Science And Math' Discussed At Educator's Conference

Dr. Leland N. Drake, principal of Mohawk School, will take part in two national conferences on math and science education this month, Superintendent of Columbus School System Harold H. Eibling has announced.

The Mohawk principal will go to Washington Feb. 10 and 11 at the invitation of the U.S. Commissioner of Education, and to Indianapolis, Ind. Feb. 15 to 19, to attend the 42nd annual convention of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Purpose Told

Approximately 35 leaders in science and education will take part in the Washington conference. The purpose of this conference is to assist state and local school systems develop guide-lines for appraising their science and mathematics programs and to evaluate the various proposals currently being made for changes in school programs.

At Indianapolis Dr. Drake will present a paper on the topic "The Place of Science and Mathematics in the Comprehensive Secondary Schools."

He lives at 195 Tibet-rd and is an alumnus of Ohio Northern University and Ohio State University. He taught at Strongsville, O., and served as principal of Berea, O., High School and superintendent of Chagrin Falls, O., schools before joining the Columbus public schools in 1921. He became principal of the old Mound Junior High in 1934 and has been principal of Mohawk since the school opened in 1953. Dr. Drake was president of the National Association of Secondary School Principals in 1955. The NASSP is the largest organization of school administrators in the world.

Heyl-Av PTA Founders Day

Heyl-av PTA will hold its annual Founders Day meeting Thursday, Feb. 20, at 1:30 p.m. at the school. Retired teachers and past presidents of Heyl-av School will be honored.

A television-type studio program with the pictures projected onto the screen, and the voices of the retired teachers and pupils doing the commentary, will be shown. The program will show highlights from the past 40 years of Heyl-av School.

Although this meeting is to celebrate Founders Day, it is also homecoming for Heyl and former students, PTA members, and teachers from Heyl-av have been invited to attend.

A social hour will follow the meeting and baby-sitter service will be provided for all preschool children, Mrs. Gene R. Morris, publicity chairman, said.

'Emotional Needs For Children' Is Topic For Group, Film Program Set

The Columbus Pre-School Association will hold its monthly meeting this Thursday, at 8 p. m., at the Health and Safety Building, 181 Washington-Blvd. Dr. Esther McGinnis, professor in Family Life and Child Development Education at Ohio State University, will show a film and discuss "Emotional Needs and Outlets for Children."

Mrs. Emily Shaffer, association publicity chairman, urges all interested persons to attend. Membership is open to any individual desiring to assist progress of the organization.

The purposes are to foster the advancement of good nursery education; provide professional stimulation; to exchange ideas among members; and to share common problems.

Although this organization is less than a year old, its membership represents more than 50 private (including Community Chest) and public nursery schools, day care centers, and after-school programs in Greater Columbus.

Association Officers

Officers of the Columbus preschool association are the following: Mrs. Ruby Mills, acting president, from Northside Day Nursery; Mrs. Ruth Van Wormer, second vice president and program committee chairman, from North Broadway Preschool; Mrs. Ruth Garrison, secretary, from Children's Playhouse; Mrs. Geneva Ward, treasurer, from Ohio-av Day Nursery; Mrs. Ann Hooks, membership chairman, from Childhood League Nursery; Mrs. Ross Thompson, publication chairman, from 569 E. Spring-st; Mrs. Emily Shaffer, publicity chairman, from South Side Day Nursery; Mrs. Orphy Gibson, membership notification chairman, from Sugar and Spice Preschool.

'The Pajama Game' . . . Big Broadway Musical Favorite Gets Local Showing

New Burner To Hit Market This Month

This residential paper burner approved by the Columbus Division of Smoke regulation went into production last week, Herbert C. Johnson, smoke regulation engineer, has announced. Several other models by local manufacturers are to be tested and set up for production. The approved burner should be available for retail stores this month, Johnson said.

The design was approved nearly two years ago by the city for trash burning but at that time there were no manufacturers willing to put it into production.

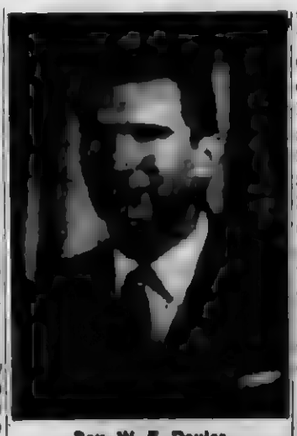
The unit consists of a 15 gallon steel drum, perforated with four to five rows of three-quarter-inch diameter holes. The drum will have three drain holes in the bottom and should be placed on three bricks or concrete blocks. It should be covered with a one-quarter inch mesh wire screen.

For those interested in making this burner the Smoke Regulation Department advised that other metal containers of 10 to 15-gallon capacity may be used. Larger drums are not permitted.

This burner, also approved by the Fire Department, is for residential use only and should be placed at least 15 feet from buildings, autos, trees and other combustibles.

Johnson released the following official instructions for burnings:

1. Burning is ONLY to be done from dawn until dusk. 2. Place only dry loose paper in unit—no rubbish, trash, magazines, catalogues, garbage, green or damp vegetation is to be burned, 3. Place wire screen across top while burning paper, 4. Leave ash in unit for several hours before emptying (preferably overnight), 5. Be a good neighbor—don't burn paper when ash particles will settle on a neighbor's laundry!



Pastor, Family Leaving For Cincinnati Church Post

Rev. Willie E. Davies, pastor of Southwood Church of Christ at Fourth-st and Bruck, leaves within a few days with his family for Cincinnati, where the pastor is to take charge of his recently accepted post. He assumes his new duties with the Madisonville Christian Church, Cincinnati, Sunday, Feb. 23. He has been at Southwood since June, 1953.

The Davies family came to the church here from Cincinnati, "and it will be like going back home," the minister said during his visit to the Leader office.

Many Additions

During the pastorate here Rev. Davies reports 400 additions to the church and the erection of a new edifice to take the place of the basement room in which services were then held. The new church was dedicated on the first Sunday in March, 1955. The cost was $85,000. The old building has been renovated to provide space for Bible School, church office, minister's study, junior church and nursery, Rev. Davies said.

Rev. W. E. Davies

Other Activities

Mr. Davies has been active in the South Side community life. He has worked with the Inter-Church Youth Council sponsored by the South Side "Y." He has spoken to a number of PTA groups; has appeared on a number of graduating programs at South High and Barrett Junior; has been the bacalaureate speaker at one of South's mid-term gradations, has served as vice-president (chairman) of the South Side minister's group. He goes to a church with better than 700 members and in his new field he will have the help of an assistant minister.

Mrs. Davies Active

Mrs. Davies in addition to many services for the church, has been active in PTA at Southwood Elementary School. For two years she has served as room mother—kindergarten and sixth grade. She has also been a member of a sewing guild at Mercy Hospital.

"Seven stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink."—(St. John 7, 37.)

Our Saviour also said He would be with us, even to the end of time. He is here on earth with us in spirit, every moment of every hour, just as He walked among men in olden days. As He healed the sick and distressed them, He will heal and help us today, when we open our contrite, devout hearts and let Him enter.

Dear Jason,

Well it finally happened! Your Paw's hunting dog, Franz, finally took a hunk out of the mailman's leg. Paw decided to get rid of the dog so he took Franz to town and when Paw came home he told me he got $1500.00 for him. I thought we made out for a while until he told me it wasn't cash he got but he had swapped Franz for three five hundred dollar cats.

Your brother Zeke was boasting about the girl he met last week as Pasturepile Flats. He kept telling us she was a real doll and called her Dreamboat. I got a good look at her and thought she may have been a dreamboat at one time, right now her anchor's dragging and her cargo has definitely shifted!

Your sister, Gangrene, is a cheerleader for the Chittlin' Switch High basketball team and last Saturday night they played Beaver Gulch High. The Swich team would have won except for one thing — Beaver Gulch showed up.

Guess I'll close now but before I do I've got to tell you more about those three cats your father brought home that he exchanged for the dog. We've named them Fluffy, Tuffy and Liberace. Fluffy is the Fluffiest, Tuffy is the toughest, and Liberace — he's the pianist.

Write soon,
Your loving,

Bible Comment:

Prayer Is the Great Discipline Of the Soul

IF Christ felt the need of prayer, how much more do we need prayer in our lives.

If we could sense the things that He prayed for in His all-night meditation and supplication, would we not understand better than we do the true place and function of prayer? Can we imagine for a moment that Christ prayed for material things? Did prayer mean for Him the earth-bound things that it has meant for so many of us?

Or, was not prayer for Him a great discipline in which He was seeking to discover His Father's will so that He could conform completely to it? This surely is the true place and function of prayer—not getting things in the ordinary mistaken notion of Christian prayer, but attaining to the supreme thing, which is unity of our wills with God.

Here also we can perceive and understand the true humanity of Christ. The devine revelation that He gave us was in an earthly life. He was subject to temptation, capable of enduring trial and sorrow. He needed the disciplines by which alone our lives and wills can be made strong.

We should constantly use this example of Christ when we have any tendency to lapse morally or to take things for granted. Prayer is a great discipline of the soul, leading man to God and bringing God's strength and power to men.

Then we have also the Beatitudes, the blessings which Christ pronounced which, quite as truly as His prayer, suggest how different the standards of right and character and success in the Kingdom of God are from the shallow standards set up in ordinary life.

To be worthy of these blessings is the supreme quest of the Christian.

What will the proposed change in phone rates mean to you?

Phil Gibbs of Ohio Bell says: "Even with an increase, Columbus telephone rates will remain one of the best telephone bargains in the United States."

Ohio Bell recently asked The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio for permission to raise the price of its service.

Here, Phil Gibbs, District Commercial Manager of the company, answers some questions from telephone customers about the effect of the change:

Q. HOW MUCH higher will the new rates be?

A. The basic charge for your home telephone service will go up 5¢ or less a day—between $1.15 and $1.50 a month, depending on the type of service you have.

The increase in basic rates for business lines will range between $1.60 and $2.85 a month.

In general, long distance station-to-station rates for calls under 54 miles within Ohio will go up 5¢ for the first three minutes. Increases are somewhat higher on most person-to-person calls within Ohio.

Q. WHEN will the new rates go into effect?

A. That's hard to say. We can't raise our prices any time we feel it necessary, as most other businesses can. We must get approval of the Utilities Commission first.

This means we must satisfy the Commission that we really need the increase before they'll OK it. All this takes time, but it makes sure that the telephone customer and the company both get a square deal.

Q. WHY is a rate increase necessary?

A. For the same reason other businesses have raised prices—RISING COSTS!

For example:

- Ohio Bell's annual tax bill has increased more than $15,000,000 since 1952. We paid over $52,000,000 in taxes last year.
- a telephone truck that cost $1,995 in 1953 now costs $2,370.
- Ohio Bell wages this year will cost $18,000,000 more than they did in 1952, when we last asked for a rate increase.

Q. WHAT will I get out of the rate change?

A. Some telephone charges are going down and others will be done away with entirely.

For instance:

- Columbus and the towns listed below will be combined into one local calling area. You will no longer pay toll charges when calling between any of these places:

ALTON	GROVE CITY	NEW ALBANY
CANAL WINCHESTER	GROVEPORT	REYNOLDSBURG
COLUMBUS	HARRISBURG	WESTERVILLE
DUBLIN	HILLIARDS	WORTHINGTON
GAHANNA		WEST JEFFERSON

Rural service will be dropped in Columbus and surrounding towns except in certain areas of Canal Winchester, Harrisburg and West Jefferson.

- We're eliminating the two rate zones around Columbus, which will benefit many customers.
- we'll eliminate the $3.00 charge for "spring" cords.
- you'll have lower rates on station-to-station calls over 54 miles within the state.
- there'll be a new $5.00 "visit charge" which will cover all work an installer does in one trip to your home. This will replace the $3.30 you now pay for each item you have installed or changed while he's there.
- we'll substitute a flat-rate charge for "mileage" charges on many business services.
- repair calls will continue to be free.

Q. HOW do Columbus telephone rates compare?

A. Since 1940 Ohio Bell has raised its rates only 27% while the cost of about everything else has doubled.

All in all the proposed changes in our rates will be reasonable. Even with some charges being increased, telephone rates in Columbus will still be among the best telephone bargains in the United States.

Red Devils . . Close - Out County League Play

Marion-Franklin's Red Devils move out of County League play . . . become a competitive neighbor to South High next year. All the versity returns except Boren. L. to R., back, Ron Dailey, Bob White, Don Dailey, Charles Boren, Front, Bob Dean, Steve Whitacre, David Santo, and Rod Buccilla.

Bad luck and "inexperience" in early season games often mars what is, in most ways, a successful basketball season.

The day of reckoning in county league play occurred somewhere along about the three-quarters mark this year for both Marion-Franklin and Groveport. M-F has a remote chance for tying; the Crusaders were out of it a couple of hundred baskets swished long ago.

They test each other again Friday night in a game that promises everything but a shot for the top spot.

Groveport can play a tough game on most any night. They are now 5-3. The Red Devils, who were disappointed after the Christmas holiday, are now just about the hottest club around. They've thumped Reynoldsburg 79-63, clobbered Hamilton Twp. 86-52, and are now 6-2 in county play.

They netted 51 per cent of their floor shots against Reynoldsburg, made 13 of 15 charity throws. "We can beat most of them," Glenn Mowery said this week. "On the other hand, there are a couple of teams which should—on record—whip us even on our good nights."

"At this point of the season, we'll work on doing the same things better . . . work on new things next year."

Mowery has one graduating senior (Boren) and moves into tough City League competition next year.

A veteran in local cage competition, Mowery believes caliber of all teams is "down just a bit this year." District tournament? "Tough—always tough," Mowery said.

CAPRETTA'S ORCHESTRA

Founder's Day Program Set

Siebert Elementry School will honor past teachers and PTA presidents during "Founders Day" program Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 7:30 p.m.

Invocation will be given by Mrs. Sheldon Cox, vice president, District 2. She is also past PTA president of Siebert School.

"After Siebert, What?" will be presented in the form of a panel discussion with Michael Rickard, Marcia Nixon, and Carol Laska, students at Siebert, and Diane Murday, Timothy Badgley, and James Dillon, students from Barrett Jr. High.

Eugene Kirby, principal at Siebert, and Paul James, sixth grade teacher at Siebert, will serve as moderators of the panel.

Theme For Meet Is Announced

"Greater Understanding Through Knowledge of Parenthood" is the theme for the Deshler Elementary PTA meeting Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, at 7:30.

After a short business meeting players from the Ohio State University Speech Department will present a play entitled, "What Did I Do?" Mrs. Norbert Wacker, president of the Franklin County PTA Suburban Council, will act as moderator in a discussion following the play.

Refreshments will be served at a social period after the close of the meeting. Supervision and special entertainment will be provided for children, Mrs. Fred Roeger, publicity chairman, said.

W. W. Miller To Be Speaker

W. W. Miller, superintendent of instruction of the Board of Education, will speak on "Trend In American Education Today" at the Feb. 19 meeting of the Beck St. Elementary School at 7:30 p.m.

Beck St. School Gra-Y induction will be conducted by Roger Dumaree from the staff of the South Side YMCA, assisted by the Beck-Gra-Y advisor, Mrs. Margaret Steffens. The following boys will be inducted: John Beamenderfer, Bill Beamenderfer, Glenn Blackburn, Leo Champlin, Larry Clifton, Larry Creamens, Harry Crabtree, Kenny Hedrick, David Hubbard, Garry Kinnard, Jim Kessler, Billy Klein, Arnold Lowe, Charles McKinster, Worthy Maynard, Lawrence Mayo, Billy Montgomery, Cylde Potter, Bobby Porter, Hilliard Price, Walter Steffens, Eddie Schell, John Strahl, Larry Van Hooten, Danny Wampler, George Wellman, Jimmy Wentz, and Danny Weber. Officers are Billy Montgomery, president; Walter Steffens, vice president; Jimmy Wentz, secretary; Glenn Blackburn, treasurer; Johnny Beamenderfer, chaplain.

There will be a celebration for Founder's Day.

IT IS PURE MAGIC . . . WHAT YOU CAN DO AND THE TIME YOU CAN SAVE WITH A

GENERAL ELECTRIC HIGH SPEED DRYER

Dries a typical load of clothes in less than 35 minutes

You get high-speed drying at safe, low temperatures in this new General Electric Clothes Conditioner. For example, a typical-size load of cottons (about 6 pounds) can be dried in less than 35 minutes when the Dryer is operated on a standard 230 volt circuit . . . synthetics in less than 8 minutes!

New easy-to-use Automatic Control

- D—for delicate silks and synthetics
- N—for cottons and linens
- H—for hard to dry loads (bedspreads, rugs, etc.)

Low - Low Down Payment

New Synthetic Suit De-Wrinkler

Just pop that suit or dress made of wash-and-wear synthetic fabric into the dryer after washing—set the Automatic Control to DE-WRINKLE and soon it comes out dry and wrinkle-free . . . ready to wear! For desired results synthetic garments should be properly tailored and contain a minimum of 75% synthetic blend. The De-Wrinkler operates only on 230 volts.

ALSO... Automatic Sprinkler that dampens clothes for ironing
- Air Freshener to give clothes that fresh "breezy-day" smell
- Magnetic Door with handy foot pedal opener
- Smooth Porcelain Drum that cannot snag buttons or fabrics.

Available in white or General Electric Mix-or-Match Colors.

The the weather is cold, a warm welcome to newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hayes, 1089 City Park-av. Mrs. Hayes, nee Kay White of 1831 Wilson-av, and her bridegroom, 33 Delray-rd, are graduates of Marion-Franklin High School. Their marriage took place on Jan. 4 and was followed by a trip to Florida.

Mary and Elizabeth WSCS of Thurman the Avenue Methodist Church, will meet today following the general meeting, which gets underway at 10 a.m. Susannah Circle will meet Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Dale Davy, 560 Frebis-av.

Get well wishes to Robert Ross, 19 W. Markison-av. Recently ailing were the Smith kiddies, 471 Gatesst, who had the measles.

Congratulations to Janet Nicholson of South High School who was one of 90 young musicians to participate in the All-Ohio high School Symphony concert last Sunday in Bexley High's auditorium. (Old Gaddy's getting old . . . she remembers when she was in those things years ago. We'd rehearse so long that us bass players would start nibbling our fesin! Of course, the trombonists always look like eating their instruments, don't you think?)

On Feb. 18, some of the Trudeau Guilds will join forces and sponsor a card party and style show at the Veterans' Memorial building. It costs $1.25 to attend the affair. Starting time is 8 p.m. Clothes will be modeled by Trudeau members. (Mae Dean of Guild 25, will be one of the models, incidentally.) Punch and cookies will be part of the evening's enjoyment, at no extra cost. Home made candy will be on sale too. Tickets can be purchased at the door, so, if next Tuesday is an open night for you, plan to "join the crowd" at Veteran's Memorial and you'll be helping the patients at Ben Franklin while you are having fun.

Men of the Fellowship Class Southwood C of C, will feed and entertain their wives at the Valentine party, Feb. 15. Babysitters will care for the small fry, so it will be a family affair.

Mid-February, so it's time to wish "Happy Birthdays" to . . . Steven Turner, 119 E. Morrill, on Valentine's Day, no less; Richard Oxley, 1272 S. Fourth-st, Feb. 17; Carol Owens, 1439 S. Wall-st, Feb. 17; Eugene Moore, 1574 S. Fourth-st, Feb. 15; Marsha Keeran, 1341 Bruckst, Feb. 18; Thomas Flocken, 360 Markison, also a Feb. 14 celebrant; Josephine Longbein, 1466 S. High, Feb. 8; Sally Paulus, 66 E. Welch, another "Valentine," as is Lorraine Itskin, 1712 S. Third-st, Virgil Eagon, of S. Ohio-av, had a Feb. 12 birthday, Sara Woodward, 107 Deshler-av, celebrated her Feb. 7 birthday with a "slumber" party.

Our sympathy this week to Carl Snedeker and Louise Fulton. Carl lost his wife and Louise had the sad trip to make to New Jersey to attend her father's funeral.

PTA news hereabouts . . . St. Mary's gfroup meets tonight at 8 to hear James Holleran of the Catholic Welfare League. Teachers will be in their classrooms at 7:30 p.m. The mothers of Mohawk school will present a skit when that school's PTA gets under way at 8 tonight. Ted Lee of the Southeast Conservation Club will show a film, Lincoln Park Parent and Family Life Study Group convenes this morning at 10 in the school auditorium. Topic will be "If Parents Annoy Us." A film will be shown, entitled, "From Sociable Six to Noisy Nine."

Southwood School PTA board members will be hostesses to the room mothers and teachers today at a pot-luck luncheon. The board meeting will precede the potluck. Following the luncheon the Parent Education Group will present Mrs. Emily Shaffer, director of the South Side Day Nursery, whose topic is "Antidotes for Anxiety." Capital University Mothers' Club will entertain husbands and members of the faculty at a tea Sunday, Feb. 16, at 3 p.m. in Troutman Hall.

Dr. Bop of WCOL will entertain from 7:30 to 9 Friday, Feb. 14, at the Sweetheart Carnival that will take place at George C. Beery, Jr. High School. The carnival starts at 7:30 and continues until 10:45 p.m. There will be dancing, movies and games.

Went to the Moose last Wednesday, and must report that the steak dinner was really "super." Dorothy Jolly, senior regent, promised us that she would keep us informed of the weekly doings at 36 W. Sycamore-st, and of course we'll pass the news along to our readers. On Feb. 19, the marching unit will serve a mushroom and steak dinner so if you're in the mood to eat out next Wednesday, try the Moose. Other news that we gleaned on our visit . . . daneing and floor show tomorrow night and men's regular meeting Monday the 17th. Women of the Moose, Chapter 206, meet tonight at 8 p.m.

Three weddings on Feb. 15 and one for Feb. 16 are part of our news for the week. Mary Schmidt, 2664 Eastman-av, and Wilbur Heise, 4671 E. Main, have chosen Feb. 15 as a wedding date. Miss Schmidt is a South High grad, and Mr. Heise received his education at Aquinas. Mary Blum, 902 S. Third-st, and James Pace, 2791 Powell-av, will exchange their vows in Bexley Methodist Church this Saturday.

Mary Lou Renz, 1339 Wilson-av, will become Mrs. Frederick Schumann at 10:30 in Corpus Christi Church this Saturday. The wedding will be an open church affair. Sunday, Feb. 16, will see Sondra Meinert, 656 Sheldon-av, and Leon Dye, 127 N. Roys-av, exchanging their vows in St. Paul's E&R Church. Sandra is an alumna of South and her bridegroom-to-be graduated from West High.

Two more folks who would appreciate cheery cards at this time are Herb Weisenberger, 284 Southwood-av and 11-year-old Jerry Robinson of Mt. Vernon, O., who is in Mercy Hositpal recovering from bad burns acquired when his clothing caught on fire. Jerry's room number is 346.

South's basketball team will entertain the West High Cowboys tomorrow night, and following the game, the Y-Teens will hold a dance, Feb. 18, the long and lankies will travel to East High for more basketballing.

Elizabeth Circle of the Thurman Avenue WSCS is holding a bake sale at Majestic Paint Store this Saturday, Feb. 15.

Wedding anniversaries are also Valentine Day celebrations for Jim and Isabelle Coslett, 504 Morrill-av, and Paul and Priscilla Lanox, 1411 S. Sixth-st. The amusing part is the fact that both Isabelle and we'uns are South Side Leader employes; Isabelle in the office, and yours truly as the Gadabout.

Judi Capehart, 603 E. Gates-st, has been hospitalized in St. Anthony's Hospital recently. Her home address is 603 E. Gates-

Well the long-legged bird finally arrived in Houston, Texas, with an 8-pound boy for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dersom. (Mrs. Dersom is the former Jacky Thompson, South High graduate). For Jackie's friends, their address is 7357 Fairway, Houston 17, Texas. "Grandma" Wilma Barton should be on her way by now, and she will be gone for two weeks. Move over, Glenna Edwards and Cleo Canter, you've got a new member in your "Grandma" Club.

Susannah Wesley Circle of Oakwood Methodist will meet at 7:45 tomorrow night in the home of Miss Irene Miller, 894 Wilson-av.

Jane and Harry Coder, 1724 Fairwood-av, celebrated their birthdays on Feb. 20 and 18, respectively.

How about eating out this Sunday? If you'd like a suggestion, there is going to be a ham and cabbage roll dinner at the St. Ladislaus Parish Hall Feb. 16 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tickets are available at the door, $1.25 for adults and 65c for kiddies. Carry-out service is available too, a real fine selling point we think. Ye Gadabout will be there and with a healthy appetite. Be seeing you, Ann, Clara, Gussie and all the women from St. Ladislaus.

No more news; keep it coming in and as usual the phone is HI. 4-1051. Till next week then, tis

Lively Auction To Help Group B OSU Mothers

The new home of Mrs. George Schleppi at 1489 Wilmore-dr, will be in a hubbub of excitement and hilarity when Group B of Ohio State University Mothers Club holds its annual auction sale Tuesday, Feb. 18, according to Mrs. Edward Bellman, publicity chairman.

A dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30, with Mrs. David Wilson of 646 Sheldon-av, Mrs. Anthony Saura of 1191 Haddon-rd, Mrs. Ray Horcher of 826 Stewart-av and Mrs. John Anthony assisting the hostess. Each member brings an article to be auctioned, the publicity chairman said.

Mrs. Bellman said this is the one project Group B has during the year to raise funds for scholarships at OSU. The group gives two scholarships in College of Medicine, two in the College of Music, one to the Belva Jones Memorial (arts and sciences) every year. There are numerous other important jobs done by Group B Mothers Club with funds realized from the auction, Mrs. Bellman said.

Valentine Ball At Central 'Y'

A Valentine ball is being sponsored by the Friday Social Dance of the Central YMCA, 40 W. Long-st, Feb. 14, from 9 to 12 p.m. Bob Rockey and his orchestra will provide the music.

The program will consist of mixers to get everyone acquainted, choosing of a queen, door prizes, and dancing. The program committee is led by Miss Charlene Pendergast and Miss Dee Johns. Miss Virginia Finsterwald is in charge of the decorations. Everyone over 17 is invited, it was said. The fee is 75 cents, according to the statement.

Parents Club At Nursery

The Parents Club of South Side Day Nursery will meet at 5 p.m. Tuesday evening, Feb. 18, at the Nursery, 255 Beebav, for dinner to be followed by a business meeting and discussion of possible plans for white elephant or bake sale to raise money for the club.

Mrs. Mary K. Trecht, kindergarten teacher at Reeb-av School, will be a guest and will discuss registration, meaning of grades as used at Reeb, Parent-School relationship, Reeb Avenue PTA and resources of the Board of Education.

Miss Kathleen Cleary Wins Honor Roll Spot

Miss Kathleen Cleary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Cleary, Jr., 557 S. Front-st, is on the first semester honor roll at Mount Saint Clare Academy, Clinton, Ia., where she is a senior. She is active in Mount Saint Clare Academy chorus, girls athletic association, Our Lady's Sodality, Third Order Teritary fraternity, and in academy players. She had a major role in the senior class drama "The Long Christmas Dinner" by Thornton Wilder.

Maree Social Club In Luncheon Meet

The Maree Social Club of Southern Way Chapter No. 467 OES, will meet at the South Gate Masonic Temple, 550 Studer-av, Thursday, Feb. 20, for a 12:30 luncheon meeting.

Mrs. Albert Weisheimer will be luncheon chairman and Mrs. John D. Tilton will preside at the business session at 1:30 p.m.

New South Side A&P Super Market To Open Tuesday

Above—New A&P supermarket, located just off Parsons-av and near Schottenstein's Department Store, being readied for grand opening at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 18. The new supermarket will afford South Siders greatly improved service, according to A&P officials. The store replaces an older outlet at 1776 Parsons-av which will close this Saturday night, Feb. 15. Parking space for 300 cars is featured at this newest Columbus A&P.

The interior temperature of a refrigerator should be 36-40 degrees Fahrenheit for safe keeping of food.

Tuesday, Feb. 18, has been set as grand opening day for the newest Columbus A&P super market, located at 346 Reeb-av, just off Parsons-av, and only a couple of blocks from the store it will replace, the one at 1776 Parsons-av.

The new store will be modern in every respect, indoors and out. Parking space for about 300 automobiles at one time.

Automatic checkouts, "magic carpet" exit, self-service meat department, huge produce and grocery departments, plus expanded dairy, coffee, bakery and housewares departments are expected to offer maximum in shopping ease and convenience.

A three-week "gift program" is being planned to salute the opening of A&P's newest outlet in the city of Columbus, and details are to be announced later, it was learned at the local headquarters office at 237 Dennison-av.

The store will also have air conditioning for warm weather comfort, it was also learned.

'Gay Nineties' Valentine Dance At Schiller

Schiller Recreation Center was the scene of much festivity last Friday evening with the advent of the "Gay Nineties Valentine Dance." The auditorium was decorated in red and white crepe paper with large double hearts adorning the walls. The stage was resplendent with a large seven-foot paper valentine and small white hearts which were fastened to the deep red stage curtain. The highlight of the evening was the variety show of entertainment produced by the local neighborhood. Especially interesting to the 300 attending teen agers and adults was the presence of the "Rhythym Rockers," a local rock and roll combo, under the leadership of Bob Urban. The tremendous response to this group has resulted in the promise to return this Friday evening, Feb. 21, to entertain at the regular Friday evening record dance.

An attractive refreshment booth gaily decorated with red and white streamers and balloons served punch and homemade cookies to the gala crowd.

St. Stephen's Community House Sets New Program

St. Stephen's Community House, 379 Barthman-av, announces that an extensive teen age program has been planned for South Side boys and girls. Enrollment for the various activities are being taken now, it was said.

The House provides a relaxed atmosphere where young people may spend their leisure time under the guidance of qualified supervisors. The evening program for boys highlights ping-pong, pool, and other games, besides free play in the gym.

Intermural basketball leagues are now being formed. Any boy between the ages of 13 and 17 and not a member of an outside team, either school or recreation center, is welcome to participate. A new training center for boxing is being installed with a new boxing ring. This will be under the direction of John R. Maloney, athletic director, and Officer Steve McDonald of the Columbus Police Department. Dick Kane and Tony Yoli are assisting Director Maloney.

Newcomer

Rita Duckworth, newcomer to the staff at St. Stephen's, is coaching the girls' basketball team and is looking for girls interested in forming a volley ball team. This is open to any girl between 13 and 17 it was stated. Barbara Kopral, senior in home economics at Ohio State University, will conduct a future homemakers' course Thursday nights. Sue Sullivan, student at the College of St. Mary's of the Springs, is conducting a group of modern dance fundamentals on Wednesday evenings. Instructions on dress making will be given Monday evenings by Judy Stattmiller. These groups are now being organized she said, and any teen-age boy or girl may participate without charge the statement said.

Honors To Mothers, Teachers

Board members of Southwood School honored teachers and room mothers Feb. 13 at a pot-luck Valentine luncheon. Mrs. Charles Metzler was chairman of the luncheon and the tables were decorated with Valentine favors. A Valentine floral centerpiece was presented to the room having the most parents in attendance at the meeting which followed the luncheon. Mrs. Colleen Jameson's kindergarten room won this centerpiece.

The meeting that followed was presented by the Parent Education Committtee with Mrs. Carl Jividen as chairman. Mrs. Emily Shaffer, director of the South Side Nursery, was guest speaker on the topic "Antidotes for Anxiety." A special guest at the luncheon was Oliver Gedeist of the South Side Leader.

Lent Series Announced

Mrs. Ruth Yahruns, secretary, Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lilley and Livingston-avs, has announced a series of Wednesday evening services to be conducted at 6:30 o'clock and 7:45 o'clock. Mrs. Yahrens said the early service is designed to appeal to families with smaller children.

Schedule

Messages during the Lenten season will center around the general theme, "The Fruit of Christ's Spirit In Lent," the statement said. Subjects for sermons are given as follows:

Feb. 26, "Faith in the Midst of Doubt"; Mar. 5, "Gentleness in the Midst of Violence"; Mar. 12, "Meekness in the Midst of Cruelty"; Mar. 19, "Temperance in the Midst of the Mob"; Mar. 26, "Goodness in the Midst of Grief"; Apr. 3, "Love in the Midst of Hatred"; Apr. 4, "Peace in the Presence of Death"; Apr. 6, "Joy from a Solemn Sepulchre."

Rev. Kaefer Sets Lenten Program

Rev. Paul C. Kaefer of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church (United Church of Christ) has announced the following program for Lenten services:

Feb. 21, World Day of Prayer, 1:30 p.m., Thurman Avenue Methodist Church.

Feb. 21, the Heidelberg College Choir, St. John E&R Church at 8 p.m.

Thursday Lent Services

Thurs. Lent Services—7:30 P.M.

Feb. 27, Rev. Ralph Schluer, pastor, St. John E. and R. Church; Mar. 6, Rev. Lee C. Moorehead, pastor, Indianola Methodist Church; Mar. 13, Rev. Weir Hartman, director, Columbus Area Council of Churches; Mar. 20, Rev. Kenneth Eaton, pastor, First Congregational Church; Mar. 27, Rev. Richard W. Hurdiss, pastor, Grace E. and R. Church, Cleveland.

Sunday Morning Lent Services

Sunday Lent Services 10:30 A.M.

Rev. Paul C. Kaefer will preach a series of sermons on Sunday morning on the theme, "Passion Pictures."

Feb. 23 Judas, the Hypocrite; Mar. 2—Peter, the Penitent; Mar. 9, Caiaphas, the Churchman; Mar. 16, Simon, the Cross Bearer; Mar. 23, Barabas, the Sinner.

C. L. Dumaree Reeb Speaker

Mrs. Robert McCalla, Parent and Family Life Education chairman, Reeb-av School, has announced that C. L. Dumaree of the Columbus Board of Education will be the speaker at the organization's meeting on Thursday, Feb. 27, at 9:45 a.m. The subject will be "Who Is Delinquent?"

World Famous Choir Director Here

Dr. Farris E. Ohl, professor of voice and chorus at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, O., will visit Columbus Friday to conduct a musical service for four South Side churches.

St. Paul, St. John, Wilson Avenue and The Hungarian Reformed Evangelical and Reformed Churches are sponsoring a concert to be given at St. John Church, 59 E. Mound-st. tomorrow, Friday, at 8 p.m. The Heidelberg Concert Choir under the direction of Dr. Ferris Ohl has achieved the distinction of being one of the leading choirs in the nation. Music critics throughout the eastern and midwestern states have repeatedly praised the precision and the quality of the choir's performances. The fact that the choir has been invited to tour Europe is evidence of its fine reputation, sponsors point out.

Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner Speaks Friday At YMCA "Right Angle" Installation

Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner will be the main speaker Friday for the annual installation banquet of the Right Angle Club, a service organization of the South Side YMCA.

Installing new officers at the Walnut Hills Country Club will be Municipal Judge Alan Schwarzwalder.

Officers for the Right Angle Club for 1958 are Ernie Alban, 1167 Ellsworth, president; Jack Wardlow, 1309 Lockbourne-rd, vice-president; Cliff Olson, 1075 Kelton-av, treasurer; and Dave Wilson, 1745 E. Frankfort-st, secretary.

Members of the Right Angle Club, celebrating more than 20 years of service to the YMCA Branch, build cabins as their top project. The group has constructed four cabins for the South Side YMCA on Rohr-rd, south of Columbus. The Right Anglers' latest project, recently dedicated, is the park's first year-round log cabin, complete with furnace, kitchen and sleeping accommodations.

Student From Japan Clair Chapel Speaker

Morinobu Kobayashi, of Yokonawa, Japan, will be guest speaker at Clair Chapel Methodist Church, 295 Barthman-av Sunday, according to an announcement by Rev. Robert H. Streaty, Clair Chapel pastor. The hour is 3:30 p.m.

The appointment for the address was the result of studies by the Intermediate Youth Fellowship of Japan and its people and their habits. Tied in with this was the fact Mr. Kobayashi has been in the United States for more than three years.

"What could be better?" was asked in the group, then an invitation, an acceptance, and so it is that this Sunday, 3:30 p.m. the intermediates, and others, will have opportunity to learn first-hand from a Japanese gentleman about Japan.

The Japanese man is an aeronautical engineering student at Ohio State University. He is also associated with the International Students Association at Ohio State.

A fellowship hour will follow the address by Mr. Kobayashi, Rev. Streaty said.

Mohawk Principal In Two Conferences

Dr. Drake

Dr. Leland N. Drake, principal of Mohawk school, has completed his recent task of attending two national education conferences. The first was in Washington, D.C., Feb. 10 and 11. The second meeting was in Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15 to 19. Mathematics and science were the items holding the spotlight at each conference.

Heyl Ave. Founders Day Set

Heyl Avenue PTA will hold its annual Founders' Day meeting Thursday, Feb. 20, at 1:30 p.m. in the school. Retired teachers and past presidents will be honored. The program will be in the form of a television show, both visual and audial. Miss Olive Wharton, Miss Elizabeth Sheridan, and Miss Dorothy Levengood will be the narrators and Mrs. Jerry Caldwell will be the announce. The program will cover the past 42 years at Heyl Avenue and all graduates and former members of the PTA are invited to attend.

The Pledge of Allegiance will be led by Karen Cochran, and Sue Ellen Faering, Girl Scouts of Troop 615, which meets at Heyl Avenue.

There will be a tea following the meeting, and baby-sitter service will be provided for pre-school children, Mrs. Gene R. Morris, publicity chairman, said.

Time For Association Plans To Be Adopted

Columbus Traffic Commission Tuesday deferred consideration of the car-parking program on lower Parsons-av previously suggested by Traffic Engineer James Musick. One of the commission's members was in attendance for the first time, while another was absent from the meeting.

When explanations had been made the Commission agreed on its own motion to defer the hearing for one week.

Members of the Southside Business and Industrial Association present were these: Tom Sharp, president of the group; Robert E. Horowitz, spokesman for the association; William Hoermle, Saul Schottenstein, Jack Shore.

Spokesman Horowitz outlined the reasons for his opposition to the plan to install parking meters or to ban parking entirely, or to ban parking on one side of the street mornings, and on the other side of the street in the afternoon.

Gave Reasons

The spokesman stated that the reasons he opposed the plan resided in the fact that the marchants and other business people of the street objected to parking bans. He outlined other reasons for opposing the parking ban. No. 1 reason, he stated, was that the business people rejected it. No. 2 reason: Lack of parking space on side streets due to the great number of people living in the area and the fact that in many instances there are two or three cars which they park in front of their own residences.

Reason No. 3, he said, was because A&P has recently opened a new store in this area and they will draw additional cars —great numbers of cars. This, the spokesman told the traffic commission, will still further accentuate the big problem which presently exists.

The fourth reason for opposing the parking ban as enumerated is the fact that the Southside Business and Industrial Association had previously made recommendations for the alleviation of the lower Parsons problem. The reference was to a program outlined by the business organization many months ago and reportedly submitted to the Traffic Commission or other city officials. The business group, according to Horowitz, has sought action, but "the program has been waylaid in city offices." According to Horowitz, "The Southside Business and Industrial Association has asked for a six-month delay in this parking ban, to enable "us to make further advances for assistance in a complete off-street parking program."

Musick Replies

Following the presentation by Horowitz, Traffic Engineer Musick made the following statement: "I feel that our commission should be allowed to assist

Church Goes 'Back Home'

The congregation of Lincoln Park Community Church will move from 1755 S. 20th-st to its new home at 1700 S. 20th-st, the former location of the Lincoln Park Nursery School, Sunday, Feb. 23.

The first service in the new home will be Sunday school at 10 a.m., followed by morning worship. The young people will meet at 6:30 p.m., with evening worship at 7:30 p.m.

A special service of dedication will be held at 2 p.m. this Sunday with Rev. Harry Green as guest speaker. Chester Wilson, who was one of the founders of the church, will give a short history of its beginning 15 years ago.

In leaving 1755 S. 20th-st and moving to 1700 S. 20th-st, the church is "going back home" since it was at this location that the church was established.

Special music and singing are scheduled and it is expected that many of the organizers and first members of the church will be present.

Two Leagues Near End; Oakwood Top

Gra-Y Basketball

The South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Leagues are finishing up the season. Only the Tuesday League remains, as the Thursday League finished up last Thursday with a tie between the Heyl Satellites and the Lincoln Park Scarlets.

The Scarlets came from behind to take the Heyl Port Chops, 21-14, and take a share of the title. Both teams played hard, clean ball, with Joe Middendorf and Jim Cook leading the way for the Scarlets. Ray Henderson and John Pharr played outstanding games for the losers.

Another thriller was between the Lincoln Park Grays and the Stewart Bulldogs, with the Grays finally winning by a three point margin, 12-9. Stewart's improvement in this last game was the most witnessed from there in two years. Their play was entirely of a teamwork nature with no individual stars. The third and last thriller of the evening was between the Heyl Satellites and the Deshler Panthers. This Satellite win also insured them a piece of the crown. David Downing played a good all-around game for the winners, while Fred Hamler was doing likewise for the losers.

Back to the Tuesday League, the closest game of the day was between the Beck Bulldozers and the Southwood Trotters, which ended with Southwood holding a 16-13 edge over the Bulldozers. Jim Hemmerley and Homer Bevins played outstanding games for the winner. Walter Steffens played a good all around game for Beck. In the other games, the Siebert Scorpions ran over the Beck Wildcats, 14-6, with Mike Rickard and Terry Romine playing good games for the victors. The Reeb Musketeers turned loose on the Siebert Sputniks to gain a 26-3 victory. Steve Jackson led the scoring with 8 points for Reeb.

Church Basketball

With four weeks of play left in the South Side Branch YMCA Church Basketball Leagues, Oakwood Methodist is looking forward to winning both leagues.

Oakwood of the Junior League continued on its victory path by defeating the Church of God, 42-3. Bob Tidwell and Harold Eads took turns taking passes the length of the floor to run up the score in the fourth quarter. Tidwell scored 16 and Eads 14 for the winners. St. John E&R took a thriller from St. Paul E&R 15 to 10, to keep possession of second place. Bill Warren and Bob Harris played fine ball for St. John. Bob Boland, Dave Mouser, and Wally Rueckel played an equally fine game for the losers. Central Community continued to improve, but not quite enough as Livingston Methodist defeated them 33-18. Livingston's height and scoring punch proved too much for the Central Community team. Mike Grayem and Dave Duerler led the Livingston team while Bill Zigler and Don Wray played good ball for the losers.

The Intermediate League is continuing to be led by Oakwood Methodist 56-21. Good team work was evident for the winners as the scoring was divided equally between players Jerry Woodyard, Steve Miller, and Jerry Daily totaled 12 points each for Oakwood. Frank Garnes only picked up 2 points for Thurman, but his floor play and defensive work made up for his lack of points. In the only other game of the evening, St. Paul E&R defeated Gates-Fourth Methodist, 53-25. Paul Watters again led the winners by scoring 18 points. "Tiny" was only 3 points over Gates-Fourth's leading scorer, Howey Thompson, who dropped in 16. The game between Ohio Avenue EUB, and South Methodist was forfeited to Ohio-av because of South Methodist's lack of personnel.

New Snow . . . Old Scene

Rock Mill Bridge In Mid-Winter

Picturesque Rock Mill bridge, Bloom Township in Fairfield County, draws camera fans no matter what the state of the weather. The constant stream of Sunday visitors slowed to a trickle this week . . . temperatures had tumbled to about 11 degrees. Yet they still came . . parked . . . snapped a shot or two of the mill and bridge . . exchanged a few words with the lady who lives on the overlooking hill — apparently guarding the view from "trespassers." Rock Mill was first built in 1796; rebuilt in 1824. The bridge was erected in 1849. The scene has been described as one of the most beautiful in Ohio . . . can be reached easily from U.S. Route 33.

Town Dumps Mose At 100!

Chittlin' Switch
Monday Afternoon

Dear Jason,

That parrot you sent me when you had overseas shore duty in Brooklyn sure uses bad language. He swears all the time. The preacher figured that if we put my parrot in with his parrot, maybe he'd be a better bird. As soon as we put him in with the Preacher's parrot, he screamed "Doll! How about some loving! The Preacher's parrot blinked her eyes and said "What do you think I've been praying for?"

DEAR SON:

I think the old maid school teacher, Sophie Sludge, is slightly off her rocker. Last week she came over to the house to visit and was in a very unhappy frame of mind. She told me her sister was thinking of having her committed to the county laughing academy all on account of Sophie's love for waffles. I told Sophie that wasn't any reason to be put in an insane asylum just because she liked waffles as I like them too. Sophie perked right up when I told her that and then she asked me over to her house. She had six trunks full of them.

Old Mose Tench is a tough old codger. He was still working 8 hours a day for the town when he reached his hundredth birthday. The town thought it high time he retired on a pension, but Mose didn't like the idea at all. When they presented Mose with a gold watch and asked him to say a few words, Mose said "This is a dirty trick. When I took this job in 1870, the town clerk gave me his solemn word, the job was PERMANENT."

Discipline Problem Of Eastern Schools Must Not Invade Local Communities

Some problems are not meant to be dealt with lightly. One of these problems is discipline in the school.

Such an incident occurred last week at Franklin Heights High School. Principal William F. Rogers stamped out the begining of a student "protection racket."

A boy mentioned to his mother at the breakfast table that he needed money for school. The money would be used to buy him safe passage through the halls of the public building.

The mother notified Rogers. The principal took immediate action. He rounded up the youths behind the so called racket and took the matter to juvenile court.

Rogers was surprised when certain people tended to treat the case lightly. He took objection to any "light treatment" and demanded a full investigation.

The case is now closed. Students at Franklin Heights will probably never have to worry about a "protection racket" again. They know their principal is looking after their safety.

An important action by a principal snuffed out the beginnings of student unrest before it could mushroom into such proportions as haunt eastern schools. The "eastern influence" cannot be allowed to extend into local schools.

But more important, it taught a lesson to the students at the grass roots level. One youth learned that others will take his part and help him with his problems. Five others learned that you cannot push anyone around for long.

The case at Franklin Heights is not isolated. Many incidents of a serious nature often occur in high school and sometimes are treated mistakenly "lightly."

But problems of young people are not always light matters. Their problems seem just as big to them as other worries seem to adults.

The responsibility of the school to provide an education does not include just books and papers. It should also include other intangible qualities that lead to good citizenship, character building, a sense of ethics and common sense.

Hats off to all school administrators who take a firm stand in demanding discipline and paint a true picture of responsible citizenship for the students.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

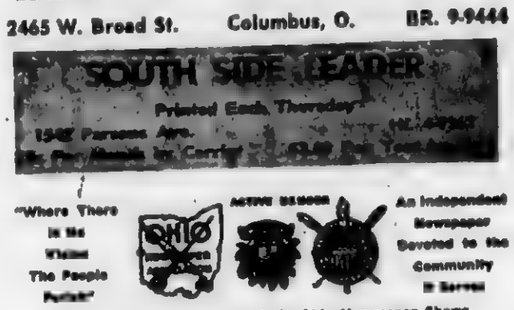
THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits — Grapefruit, apples, canned or frozen cherries.
Vegetables—Carrots, broccoli, potatoes, frozen limas.
Protein Foods—Pork loin cuts, beef rib roast, large eggs.

CHERRIES

Tasty — Tart — Tempting

A wedge of luscious cherry pie with crisp, flaky crust will tempt even the staunchest meat 'n potato man. At first thought you may think it's rushing the season a bit to think about cherry pie at this time of year. But, thanks to modern technical skill on the part of food processors the next best thing to tree-ripened cherries is available in mid-winter. Tradition has linked cherry trees and Washington's birthday, so let's go shopping for cherries and make a cherry pie.



Many Uses — The 1957 pack of canned sour cherries surpassed 1956 by 43%, and the canned sweet cherry pack is up 39% so you can be assured of plenty of cherries to brighten up winter-time meals. Your family will enjoy red cherries (either canned or frozen) in salads, muffins, breads, puddings, sauces.

Sweet cherries offer lots of variety in fruit cups, salads or in molded gelatin. Sweet cherries served with crisp cookies are an easy dessert. Flaming sweet cherries served over ice cream make a glamorous dessert. (Soak a sugar cube in lemon extract to make the flame.)

In Shopping for Cherries, as with most canned or frozen foods, you will want to study the package labels. In the case of cherries, the labels will show whether the fruit is "red sour" or "red tart," "red sweet" or "light sweet." They will state whether the cherries are pitted or not, whether they are packed in water or some kind of syrup, and if syrup, what kind. Usually the quantity to buy for different uses is given.

For a quick and easy dessert you may be interested in the cherry pie fillings that are pie-ready as they come from the can—all the work has been done for you. One can of pie filling makes an eight-inch pie.

Parables Written Plainly

CHRIST'S parables were not devoted merely to moral precepts or instructions but were designed to make plain and emphasize the deepest spiritual truth. They are not analogies because analogies are apt to fail at some point and become actually misleading.

But Christ's stories were selected and told with a precision that made their meaning accurate. For example, the parable of the Prodigal Son is not merely the story of an earthly father who was like our Heavenly Father. For here is a story that so accurately tells the nature and significance of God's grace that no question is left and there is no sense of discrepancy.

The "parables by the sea" are five stories illustrating the nature of the kingdom of heaven or different phases of the kingdom. Christ likens it to, first of all, seed which a man sows upon the earth. The casting of the seed does not insure a crop. The power of God in nature must work with man to make possible the harvest. Can there be any finer example of how God works with men, and of how man may cooperate with God?

The parable of the mustard seed shows what we so often see—the growth of great and mighty things from insignificant beginnings. The best example of this is Christianity itself.

Cherry Recipes Are Dandy In February

Spicy Cherry Sauce

Especially tasty as a meat sauce or served over ice cream.

1 cup sugar
¼ tsp. salt
1 No. 2 can cherries or 1 20-ounce can frozen cherries may be subetituted for canned cherries.
½ tsp. lemon rind
¼ tsp. red food coloring
¼ cup cornstarch
1 cup water
1/8 tsp. ground cloves
1/8 tsp. cinnamon
2 Tb. lemon juice

Mix cornstarch, sugar and salt. Add remaining ingredients. Blend. Cook, stirring constantly until it boils and is transparent. Serve hot or cold with ham, poultry, cold cuts, fish or as a topping for cake, ice cream or other desserts.

Quick Cherry Muffins

1 can (1 pound) red or sour pitted cherries (water pack)
1 package (8½ ounces) plain muffin mix
½ tsp. lemon rind
2 tablespoons sugar

Drain cherries; pat dry on absorbent paper. Prepare muffin mix according to package directions. Fold in well drained cherries. Fill greased muffin pans ⅔ full. Mix together lemon rind and sugar. Sprinkle about ¼ teaspoon over each muffin. Bake according to package directions. Yield: 12 muffins.

The two recipes this week were contributed by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks, of the Franklin County Extension Service.

Guild Asks For Sewing Machine

Mrs. Joseph Spiker, publicity chairman for Guild No. 8 of Guilds Of Mercy Hospital, has announced a meeting of No. 8 for Wednesday, Feb. 26, in the Conference Room of the hospital.

The announcement also listed another event, the reception of new members by Mrs. Harold Brunton, Guild 8 chairman. The announcement also included an appeal for a good used sewing machine so the work of the Guild may be kept up. Mrs. Brunton said that any one having a usable used sewing machine which will be donated should call Mrs. Robert Baker, CA. 4-4677, or Mrs. Joseph Spiker, HI. 4-4593.

Hostesses Are Named

An Asset In The Food Laboratory

A&P's "Homemaking Queen"

To tell the world its feelings about homemakers, A&P Food Stores today opened a new super market on Reeb-ax, just off Parsons, by crowning Miss Susan Dean "Homemaking Queen." The ceremony saluted all homemakers but particularly those of tomorrow who are studying Home Ec at South High School where Queen Susan is a senior, having specialized in foods ever since her seventh grade.

Susan was chosen an outstanding student at South High. Her teacher is Miss Elsie Friebel who called her "always willing, highly cooperative and a distinct asset in the Foods Laboratory." From Vice Principal Elsie Grove, it was learned that Susan has not been tardy since she was in the sixth grade. Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Dean of 644 Georgian Way where she likes to whip up dishes of chili and Spanish macaroni and other spiced meals to please her parents, but usually holds back a bit because her five-, nine- and 11-year-old brothers are a trifle cool on the hot stuff.

Queen Susan plans to enter business college after graduation from high school, but expects to make good use of her Home Ec experience "one of these days."

She was crowned "Homemaking Queen" with a jewelled tiari by H. B. Freeland of Columbus, vice-president of the central division of A&P Food Stores. He explained that A&P, which will observe its centennial in 1959, has a century-long tradition of saluting and serving homemakers and chose the coronation as a "fitting way to open our new store." Store Manager Jack Skinner and his staff observed the coronation, then launched a three-week Grand Opening Program of gifts and features.

South Gate Optimists In Election

The South Gate Optimist Club members elected new officers for this year at the January meeting. Elected officers to be installed are, president, Mrs. Victor Clark, 3630 Mountview; vice-president, Mrs Harry La Vine, 1126 Bulen-av; secretary, Mrs. Herschel Davis, 108 Weberhr; treasurer, Mrs. John Thompson, 1414 S. Champion-av; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul Eisnaugle, 1779 Oakwood-av. Other officers include the trustees, Mrs. L. J. Reutsch, 1972 Spangler-rd, Groveport; Mrs. Edward Montoney, 3511 Alkire-rd, Grove City; Mrs. George Leelein, 3936 Chevington.

The installation will take place Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the YMCA, Front and Spring-st. Luncheon begins at 12:30, followed by a business meeting, officials stated.

The chairman of this meeting, Mrs. Harry Montoney, will have as her assistant, Mrs. Edward Montoney.

Mrs. Herbert Eichhorn will show a film on California and Hawaii as part of the entertainment.

Goodwill Aux Plan Tea, Tour

The Goodwill Auxiliary to the Columbus Goodwill Industries will have an antique display Feb. 25 at 1331 Edgehill-rd, followed by a Friendship Tea from 1:30 to 3 o'clock.

There will be a tour of the building. Mrs. Howard Meyer, 455 Piedmont-rd, of Linden Heights Methodist Church, will be in charge of the tea. Mrs. Charles Ray, 1260 Deliwood-av, of Eastview Methodist Church, will be in charge of the decorating. It is open to the public, Mrs. Pearl Cooperider, publicity chairman, said.

Mothers Club Goes On Tour

Members of the Wilson-av Christian Church Mother's Club will celebrate their eighth anniversary Wednesday, Feb. 26, according to Mrs. LeRoy Underwood, publicity chairman. She announced that members will meet at the church at 7:15 p.m. and go from there on a tour of the local telephone company. Refreshments are to be served by the company, Mrs. Underwood said.

Lots of activity in the PTA's of the area this week, so we'll report those items first. St. Ladislaus PTA will meet at 8 o'clock tonight. Dr. Sheila G. Morrison, from OSU, will discuss "Speech and Hearing Therapy at Ohio State." Classrooms will be open from 7:30 to 8, so that the parents may visit the teachers. (And before we pass on to the next school's activities, we must mention St. Ladislaus' ham and cabbage roll dinner was excellent last Sunday.) Barrett Junior High meets at 1:30 today, and past presidents will be honored. Mrs. Sheldon Cox, southeast district vice-president, will speak on "The Positive Approach to PTA." The dramatics department will present a skit. A tea and reception will honor the new principal, Kenneth Olbert. We've been meaning to write a word of welcome to Barrett's new principal, so this is as good a time as any. We remember him mostly as the boy who lived "down the street" from us. Welcome, Kenny. St. Leo's PTA will hold its annual chicken dinner this Sunday, Feb. 23, from noon to 6 p.m. The dinner is open to the public. Representatives from the armed services will be present for conferences tonight at South High's PTA meeting, scheduled for 7:30 in the school auditorium. Theme of the meeting is "Gateway to Service."

Our sick list for the week includes John Warner, who is in Mt. Carmel Hospital; Virginia Keeling, 404 Deshler-av; Mrs. Charles Grunkemeyer, daughter of Sarah Hughes and a South High graduate who now lives at 968 Rose-pl. She was hospitalized in Doctor's Hospital. Jake Feil, 447 Stanley-av, is currently in Room 709, Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Two late January birthdays we overlooked were those of Dianne Schodorf, 284 Sheldon-av, and Joan Crabtree, 148 E. Welch-av. An early February birthday in the same category was that of Trudy Green, 599 Stanley-av.

The Young Women's Circle of Gates-Fourth Methodist is sponsoring a smorgasbord supper at the church tonight from 6 to 7:30.

It was with a great deal of sadness that we heard of the death of Phil Matheny, well-known South Side lad. Young Phil was just two months away from his 20th birthday. Our sympathy to his relatives. Also our sympathy to the Gusa family, who lost their father.

The instrumental department will hold a dance in the school gym at South High immediately following the South-Aquinas basketball game tomorrow, Feb. 21. This winds up the basketball season for the Bulldogs, until the tournament gets under way.

Birthdays for the younger folks of Leaderland include these: Arthur Hayes, 70 E. Welch, Feb. 19; Theresa Page, 25 W. Innis, Feb. 26; Beverly Chattos, 1618 S. Eighth-st; Judith Coleman, 304 Morrill, Feb. 22; David Sullivan, 1951 Gantz-rd, Feb. 24; Elmer Mills, 43 Innis, Feb. 24; John Moore, 1305 City Park, Feb. 22; Paula Knepper, Feb. 20; Martin Mitchell, 192 E. Gates-st, Feb. 22; Dixie Darst, Feb. 21.

A young South Side couple who have traveled extensively in this hemisphere will be in Ohio for eight months, so would enjoy seeing and hearing from their friends. The young folks are Otto and Donna (Huntley) Schmidt. Pupils at Barrett and South were among the viewers of the Schmidts' acrobatic talents last week. Donna and Otto have been in Central and South America and the British West Indies. After their eight-month stay in Ohio, they will return to the East Coast. They are currently living in a trailer, but their friends can reach them by contacting Mrs. Huntley (Donna's mother) at HI. 4-4579. She lives at 754 Hanford-st.

Joyce Crary is a year older today, Feb. 20. Joyce's home is at 256 Deshler-av, but not for long, eh Joyce? (Some name-changing is in the offing for Joyce, to give you a clue.)

Members of the League of Women Voters, South unit, will meet in the home of Mrs. Richard K. Smith, 1072 Berkeley-rd, Tuesday, Feb. 25, 6:15 p.m. "Metropolitan Planning" is the subject to be discussed and to lead the discussion is Mrs. Edwin Bornshine. Resource person is Mrs. Henry Samuels. Any interested women are invited to contact the Gadabout, who is membership chairman, at HI. 4-1051.

Barbecued chicken, um yum! To complete the job of making your mouth water, think of buttered whole corn, home-fried potatoes, cole slaw, hard rolls and butter and orange sherbet to top it off. The place is the Moose Hall at 36 W. Sycamore-st, the time is Wednesday, Feb. 26, from 5 to 7 p.m. One of the nice things about dining at the Moose Hall is the friendly, congenial atmosphere. The homemaking unit is sponsoring the dinner.

Club meetings in this area include two Cloverleaf groups, Leaf 2 and Leaf 20. Leaf 2 will meet Feb. 25, 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Walter Holden, 1295 Studer-av. There will be dessert and cards. Mrs. Charles Eberly, 569 Fairwood-av, will be hostess to Leaf 20 for a noon luncheon, Feb. 20.

Congratulations are in order for one couple and will be appropriate for four more young folks very shortly. Ann Yvonne Gehauf, 2406 Indianola-av, became the bride of George Wachinger, 338 E. Moler-st, Saturday, Feb. 15, in Holy Name Church. On Feb. 22, in Lockbourne Road Baptist Church, Mary Margaret Swisher, 883 Studer-av, and John Guitner, 1398 Minnesota-av, will exchange their vows in an open church ceremony. Lauretha Thompson, 1264 Jaeger-st, and Thomas Getz, Lancaster, will be wedded in the home of Miss Thompson's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradfute, Millersport, at 7 p.m., Feb. 23.

Tommy Wilson, son of Tom and Julia Wilson, 1624 S. 8th, is now a resident of California, residing in Huntington Park. He visited the Ely home in Long Beach, Calif., when he first arrived in the "Sunny State." Friends of the former Columbusites will be glad to know that all are fine and dandy in the Ely household.

Here's an S.O.S. we hope will bring some response. Has anyone got a lion suit, size 12 or 14, that could be used in a PTA playlet? Stewart PTA plans to have a presentation, based on "The Wizard of Oz" for its Founders' Day program next week, and all costumes are on hand, excepting the lion suit. Perhaps someone has a lion Halloween costume or was in a play and would have one available. If this is the case, won't you contact Betty Gall, HI. 4-5833? Thanks a heap.

No more news . . . thanks for listening. Do call us at HI. 4-1051, huh? Till next edition then, tis

Hello
A custom pleasing to every wife is that of sending a bouquet of flowers in celebration of wedding anniversaries. Sometimes this is done by sending a rose for every year of marriage. But any lovely flower lets her know that the sender remembers and treasures the years of happy married life. Flowers play a big role on the wedding day and should be a part of every anniversary.
Our best wishes to Mr. & Mrs. Frank Distelzweig, Sr., who have just had an anniversary, also to Mr. & Mrs. Elbert Pack, Jr., and Mr. & Mrs. John W. Zoulevich . . . birthday greetings to Mrs. Ann McCarthy, and to Mrs. Louis Hoffman . . . a speedy recovery to Mary Miller, Mrs. Hannah Russell, Ann Matthews, Walter Clickinger, Ruth Lewis, Jim Burt, Yvonne Casto and Norman Hall. Also to Margie Rader, Margaret Dunn, Mrs. Frank Horvath, Mrs. Herbert Loechler, Jr., Mrs. Barbara Lindsey, Irene Comerford, Mrs. James Rothwell, and Mrs. Dorothy Weakley.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Take Care Of Your Guns

I'm sort of a sentimental cuss, and I've come to regard my favorite guns as hunting companions. I window-shop the new ones every year, but they just don't feel right. My excuses do not hold much water, for the new guns are engineering marvels. I guess the real reason I do not change is that I'm perfectly happy with the guns I have, and I fully expect to use them the rest of my life.

I took a lot of kidding, mostly from my wife, the first year I used my present 12-gauge shotgun. She took the pains to figure out that every rabbit I shot that year cost me in the vicinity of $10 to $11. I hastened to explain the cost of a gun could not be written off in a single year, and that my "pride and joy" would be shooting rabbits for two generations.

Good Time for Repairs

All this is true if you take good care of your guns. If repairs are needed, this is the time of year when arms companies can give you the best service. Pete Thacker, Route 1, Galloway, tells me that gunsmiths would also rather do work now His gun shop gets a little hectic the two weeks before hunting season every year.

Even if your guns are in good repair, you should clean them and ready them for storage. The first step is to see that each gun is unloaded.

The best cleaning patches are canton flannel. They are inexpensive and are available for every caliber or gauge. Cleaning rods come in sections or single lengths. The sectional rods are a little handier, but either type is suitable. You should have a cleaning rod of the proper diameter for each gun for best results.

Most guns are so constructed that you can clean the bore from the breech or chamber end. This is the recommended way. Some guns, however, have solid construction and must be cleaned from the muzzle end. In this case you should exercise care to not damage the muzzle with the cleaning rod.

Bores are fairly easy to keep in good shape. A cleaning patch dipped in powder solvent should be run through first. If the bore then looks shiny, give it a light coating of oil. If your shotgun tube is leaded, run through it some extra fine steel wool that has been dipped in solvent. Use slow, even strokes until the lead is gone. Do not use a steel brush on any gun.

Cleaning, Oiling Important

The working parts of your gun should also be cleaned with powder solvent or kerosene and lightly oiled. If your gun is not easy to take down, then the job can be done with a small paint brush.

The stock and outside parts of your guns should also be lightly wiped with an oiled or treated cloth. A small brass brush will clean up rust spots that may have appeared during the hunting season.

The ideal place to store a gun is in a rack. A gun should not be put away in its case. Nor should the muzzle be plugged with an oily rag, or anything else for that matter.

Shooting does not ordinarily wear out a gun. This is especially true with low velocity rifles and shotguns. If you take care of your sporting firearms they will last throughout your lifetime and you will pass them on to your children.

Handloaders Take Notice

For those of you who spread shooting enjoyment all through the year by handloading your own shells, a new handbook has just come out. It's called, THE COMPLETE HANDBOOK OF METHODS AND DATA FOR RELOADING RIFLE, PISTOL AND SHOTGUN SHELLS.

This 253-page compendium of shooting information is published by Herter's, Inc., Waseca, Minn. Bill Riviere called me the other day full of enthusiasm about this book, and stated flatly that it will settle many a mid-winter fireside argument about shooting — all for $1.25

Mohawk Parents To See Film

Mrs. William A. Potter, publicity chairman, Mohawk School, has announced that the Parent Education Study Group will have Miss Joy Garrison on the program at the Feb. 26 meeting of the group.

Miss Garrison, who is assistant director of physical health, will present a film entitled "Sex Education," with a discussion following, Mrs. Potter said.

Parsons Ave. Parking—in the off-street parking question, since off-street parking and traffic movement both deal with the same question." He followed with this: "I feel that some of the $125,000 that is derived from parking meters should be used to assist the neighborhood areas to provide a parking area."

Next Week

Association members are to attend City Council meeting next week in an effort, it was announced, to try to secure assistance from Council in completing their plans for off-street parking, "so that merchants of the area would be assisted instead of strangled by increased competition and curtailment of their one and only available parking site" as President Tom Sharp expressed it.

Tests have shown that a good windbreak of trees around the farm home can reduce winter fuel bills as much as 22 per cent by diverting winds over and around the house.

Committee Works Busily On St. Leo's Annual Dinner

Members of St. Leo's PTA are busy making plans for their annual chicken dinner which is scheduled for Sunday, Feb. 23 the chairman, Mrs. Erika Moeller, said in the school hall at Hanford and Bruck-sts. Dinner will be served from 12 noon until 6 p.m., the committee announced. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Mrs. Karl Moeller is chairman of the affair, assisted by the following: Mrs. Joseph Zubovich, co-chairman; Mrs. Robert Burkey, dining room; Mrs. Anthony Ebelberger, coffee; Mrs. James McGinnis, salad; Thomas Cahill, dishwashing and refreshments.

Parents, Children, Asked To Armed Forces Talk

Mrs. Donald C. Fischer, president, South High School PTA, will open the Feb. 20 PTA meeting promptly at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. The theme, "Gateway to Service," will be followed for the evening, according to Mrs. Paul Mason, publicity chairman.

The South High School band will give a 20-minute concert under the direction of Randell Near at the Feb. 20 meeting of South High School PTA, at 7:30 p.m. The business meeting will be held, then Sgt. First Class Robert C. Phillips, representing the U.S. Army, will talk to the group. He will introduce the representatives from the other armed services. They will be: representing the U.S. Navy, Machinist Mate First Class Samuel P. Smith; representing the U.S. Air Force, Master Sergeant Ray A. Seidel; representing the U.S. Marine Corps, Master Sergeant Glenn M. Dunston and Technical Sergean George E. Rader; representing the U.S. Women's Division, Master Sergeant Crystal O'Mahon of the WACS.

The representatives will be given designated rooms for their two conference sessions, which will follow.

Students are especially invited to come with their parents and along with their parents will be given the opportunity to attend the two conference sessions of their choice of the U.S. armed services. The representatives will explain the merits and programs offered by their respective branch of the armed services and then there will be a time for questions and answers.

After the two conference sessions there will be a social hour, with refreshments served.

Dr. Gove To Be Speaker

Feb. 25 will be meeting night for the Mother's Club of Southwood Church of Christ, according to Mrs. O. Siebert, publicity chairman.

Dr. Roger Gove will be guest speaker. His talk will be about "Emotional Problems of Children." The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

The hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Jack Alton, Mrs. Roland Esswein, Mrs. Robert Tyler.

Broiler producers now can grow 40 to 46 pounds of broiler meat on 100 pounds of feed.

Columbus Leads The Way With New Rental Units — Washington Chiefs Visit

Groundbreaking ceremonies for Columbus' trail-blazing Southgate Manor apartment development, formerly known as Terrace Gardens — will be at 2 p.m. Friday, Feb. 21. The 374-unit development on Alum Creek-dr south of Benjamin Franklin Hospital will be the nation's first rental housing to be financed under provisions of the Federal Housing Administration Section 221 to provide homes for persons displaced by public projects.

Assistance by the Development Committee in using this financing as an effective means of meeting the city's relocation problem was recommended by the Slum Clearance and Rehabilitation Committee in its February, 1957, report on relocation problems. Plans for the Terrace Gardens development at another location were announced on Feb. 22, 1957, by developer Harold Zieg. When nearby residents objected to rezoning for the apartments, the Development Committee assisted in obtaining the present site on Alum Creek-dr. After proper zoning had been granted, the Federal Housing Administration on Dec. 10, 1957, issued its commitment on the loan.

In addition to Southgate Manor, the 180-unit Eastgate Apartments, Inc., on Maryland-av near Nelson-rd, will give Columbus two of the first of these rental projects in the nation. Others are to be located in Youngstown and Pittsburgh. The Columbus area has been allocated 1,667 rental units and 545 sale units.

Because of the national significance of the occasion, FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason and U.S. Representative John M. Vorys will participate in the ceremonies. Sponsors and members of the Development Committee are invited to attend, since the Development Committee has been active in supporting Southgate Manor and other projects under the Section 221 program.

To Be Honored

The second meeting of the Parent and Family Life Study Education Group was held in the school auditorium Feb. 13, at 10 a.m. The topic was "Why Parents Annoy Us." A film "From Sociable Six to Noisy Nine", was shown.

The February meeting of the Lincoln Park PTA will be held Feb. 27, at 1:30 p.m. It will honor our past presidents, and a skit by the PTA members will be presented illustrating some of the fine work they have helped to start in our school. The skit is under the direction of Mrs. Richard Brown, Founders Day chairman.

Stewart-Av Founder's Day To Have Program

Rev. E. E. Mosslander, pastor, Thurman-av Methodist Church, will give the invocation at the Feb. 27 meeting of the Stewart-av PTA, which will be Founder's Day, Mrs. W. K. McDonald, publicity chairman, has announced.

The program is this: Pledge of Allegiance by Terry Faulke; music by Mrs. Clarice Brady; program honoring past presidents and retired teachers; honoring Paul Lindquist, past principal of Stewart-av School.

Founder's Day chairman, Mrs. Neil Hummel.

A children's play will be presented entitled "In the Land Of Us," based upon "The Wizard Of Oz." The following students will have part in the play: Debbie Hummel, Judy Kinser, Timmy Gail, Mike Hause, Eddie Speakman.

At the end of the program there will be an informal social hour, Mrs. McDonald said.

Services For Pat J. Weldon

Funeral services were held for Patrick J. Weldon of 210 E. Mithoff-st, last Friday at St. Leo Catholic Church with a Requiem High Mass. He died Monday, Feb. 10, at St. Anthony Hospital, where the Rosary was recited at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. He was the father-in-law of Robert M. McNamara of the McNamara Funeral Home.

A conductor for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad for 40 years, prior to retiring several years ago, he was a member of St. Leo Catholic Church and the Holy Name Society, Carmelite Seminary Society, Knights of St. Raphael, Eagles Aerie No. 297, and the Order of Railroad Conductors.

Also surviving are his wife, Emma; four daughters, Mrs. Robert M. McNamara, Miss Alice Weldon, Mrs. John G. Lynch, all of Columbus, and Mrs. George Evans of Cincinnati; three sons, Clarence E., William F., and Patrick C.; a sister, Mrs. P. C. Southworth; a brother, Joseph, all of Columbus, and 26 grandchildren.

Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery by McNamara Funeral Home.

Got a new car? Just because you have more horsepower now, don't be a speed demon. GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Corpus Christi

Brownie Troop 665: leader, Mrs. Carmen Mininni; assistants, Mrs. Forest Evans, Mrs. Raymond Hysell. The members of this troop have just completed tray favors for the State School. Also assisting in this service project was Troop 456 leader Mrs. Wilbur Liddil and assistants Mrs. Thelma Haughn, Mrs. William Frank.

Troop 664 also collected comic books and old Christmas cards for the State Hospital. These are used for therapy purposes. This troop just recently received into its membership Karen Harold, who has transferred here from Gulf Breeze, Fla.

Intermediate Troop 663, leader, Mrs. Robert Mumma; assistants, Mrs. William Morbitzer, Mrs. Helen Kumler. As their service project, the members of this troop have made tray favors for the Saint Raphael's Home for the Aged.

Dashier

Brownie Troop 261, leader, Mrs. W. V. Sarchet; assistants, Mrs. Bertha Hinkle, Mrs. Opal Shannon. The members of this troop took their first troop trip Wednesday, Feb. 5, through the Farm Crest Bakeries on Livingston-av. The leader and assistants accompanied the troop.

Intermediate Troop 150: Co-leaders, Mrs. Leah Fletcher and Mrs. Cyril Goldston. The members of this troop pieced and knotted a quilt. This was done as a requirement on their Needlecraft Badge. As a service project the troop then presented the quilt to a worthy family.

Hoyt

Brownie Troop 754: Leader, Mrs. Frederick Mauger, assistants, Mrs. Raymond Leslein, Mrs. Rodney Tobias, committee chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Sheets. The members of this troop held an election of officers. Those selected were president, Jean Cox; vice president, Nancy Leslein; secretary, Ruth Sheets; treasurer, Linda Mauger.

Intermediate Troop 615: leader, Mrs. Guy Cochran; assistant leader, Mrs. Elmer Bingham. The members of this troop are working on their skating badge. As a requirement the troop made Pom-poms for their shows.

Troop 615 recently had a vacancy in the office of treasurer and members of this troop elected Phyllis Harper to serve as treasurer for the remainder of the year.

Barrett Half-Year 'All A' Honor Roll Is Announced

Barrett Junior High School announced an "All-A" honor list this week. Students honored received the highest possible grades in every class from every teacher.

"Grades are awarded only for the work and success in subject matter," the school reported. "But records such as these are also a reflection of faithful attendance, industry, intelligence, and other qualities most desirable in every student," they said.

Memorizing songs and verses are fun for Dale Bryan, just as they are for other children. He is showing his teacher, Mrs. Eugenia Woodyard at the School for Retarded Children, one of his favorites.

Dale Bryan is a retarded child. "When he was in public school, Dale fought a continual losing battle to keep up with the other students," his mother recalls. "As he began to realize his failure to keep up, he just became more mixed up than ever. We finally had to withdraw him."

Then in February, 1957, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan, 1226 Ann-st, enrolled their ten-year-old son in the Mt. Vernon Avenue School operated by the Council for Retarded Children.

Hopeful

Now that he attends classes with other children of similar learning ability, his parents hope the specially trained teachers will be able to help him find a niche in his world of tomorrow. As with all slow-learners, his progress is slow but deliberate. The school will develop Dale's potential, teach him self care, make him socially adept, and, if possible, self-supporting.

"Years ago," Mrs. Bryan explained, "retarded children were sheltered by their parents, but we know now that these youngsters need social experience and many can eventually lead useful lives."

Mrs. Bryan feels that with continued special training her boy may some day become self-supporting if given supervision in his future employment.

She says as parents, she and her husband found they were able to help Dale more after they discovered the pattern which constituted their child's behavior. "We learned to watch him carefully and let him guide us in our efforts to help him," she said.

Favorite

Learning songs and verses is a favorite accomplishment for Dale. At Thanksgiving time, one of his class projects was to make a booklet of Bible verses and memorize them. "And we are still hearing Christmas carols," she added.

Dale's schooling was threatened Jan. 6, when the old Mt. Vernon-av school caught fire and was condemned. The Columbus Board of Education, which had loaned the 70-year-old building to the Council, has decided not to rehabilitate the school.

New Location

Until the end of this school year, Dale will attend his CRS classes at the Indianola Presbyterian Church. Officers there opened their doors to six classrooms of the school-less youngsters, but permanent facilities will be needed soon.

Dale's mother is concerned about Dale's future schooling and the hundreds of other children like him who need special training. She says the Council has never been able to care for more than about one-fourth of the "trainable" school-aged retardates in Franklin County.

Understanding Begins

Mrs. Bryan believes the general public is beginning to understand mental retardation a little better and is more sympathetic to the needs of its victims. She thinks people are beginning to realize that retardates like her son need an education geared to their level, just as normal children require schooling.

Having a retarded child of her own—one she loves very much—she hopes everyone understands at least this much.

"Retarded children can be helped,' she says. "They deserve a chance too."

Golden Age Rally Plans Progress

Quite a number of ladies of the Schiller Golden Age Club have been busily sewing aprons and ties for the club members to wear at the Golden Age rally Wednesday, Feb. 26, at Whetstone Recreation Center, an announcement stated. It was decided at the last club meeting to identify themselves with aprons and ties that have "Schiller" written across them.

A carnival midway at the county fair with cake walks, entertainment, sunbonnets, overalls, games of skill, pink lemonade, and many other features will be duplicated. The rally will start at 7 p.m. and last until 10 p.m. Admission is free, it was said.

The Schiller Golden Agers will man two booths. One will be a bow-and-arrow shoot; the other will be a ring toss. It was said that a good attendance is expected.

Special Mass At St. Ladislaus

Announcement has been made of a special mass for women to be said at St. Ladislaus Church Tuesday, Feb. 25, at 12 noon, honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mrs. Charles Erdoes, Altar-Rosary Society publicity chairman, said the Mass is for all the women of the parish. Mrs. Erdoes also stated that the mass will commemorate the centenary of the apparitions at Lourdes, France.

Luncheon will be served after the services, it was stated.

Deshler Patrol Given High Praise For Work

Deshler patrol boys are doing a fine job if we listen a mere moment to Mrs. Fred Roeger, Deshler publicity chairman.

Much credit should go to the Deshler patrol boys she says, and to all patrol boys for that matter, for, regardless of the weather, they stand at their posts to assist the school children across the streets.

In appreciation of their splendid efforts about every six weeks they have been given the opportunity for unusual entertainment, such as a tour to Lockbourne Air Force Base at the beginning of the school year, which was for all patrol boys, the Ohio State-Texas Christian football game at the Ohio Stadium, a tour of WBNS-TV, attending some of the local programs, and in January they saw the South-East high school basketball game. On extremely cold mornings, upon their return from their posts, they are served hot chocolate and graham crackers. Plans are being made for a pancake breakfast Feb. 28 for the boys, and a wiener roast will follow later, including fifth grade Safety Guides.

Miss Patsy Laudermilk, Deshler sixth-grade teacher, is the school's safety chairman, and Mrs. John Westlake is chairman of the Deshler PTA committee.

St. Leo's PTA Meets Feb. 20

The regular monthly meeting of St. Leo's PTA will be held Thursday evening, Feb. 20, at 8 p.m. Classrooms will be open at 7:30 p.m. for the parents to visit with the teachers

St. Leo's Boy Scout Troop, under the supervision of John Riat, will furnish the entertainment.

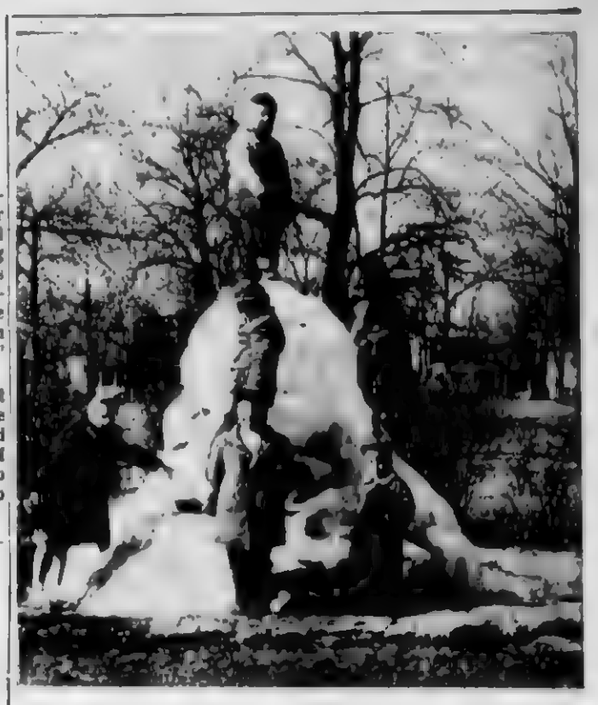
Schiller Band Shell To Be Ready In Summer

Park Department Ready To Start Work As Soon As Weather Will Permit

Schiller Park will have a new and enlarged and modern band shell, according to statements first made at the recent meeting of the Council of South Side Organizations. Ray S. Dietz of the Park Department made the announcement.

According to the commissioner, the work will start during the spring, with the schedule calling for completion of the work about mid-summer, allowing a substantial period of this year when the new band shell will provide the setting for summer music and other programs, it was said.



"Open Air Theater"

The new band shell is, in effect, officials said, an open air theater which will be patronized by thousands of people during the summer months. Use, it was said, will include plays, operettas, and other features suitable for the new "stage". It will, in effect, be an "outdoor theater."

Personnel To Build

This year, as previously, it was said, the replacing of the old and inadequate "shell" had to face the problem of lack of money. "But, since there was no way to get enough money to go

Parking Plan Given To City Council

Hearing Leads To Hope For Ultimate Solution

A committee representing the South Side Business and Industrial Association attended a meeting of Columbus City Council Monday evening in connection with the organization's plan for establishing off-street parking in the Steelton area. This subject has been growing in importance to the business people and to private homes in the area, it was said.

The visit of the committee to Council was to present to Council a concrete plan to somewhat ameliorate conditions which now are described by many of the area as "Impossible."

Private Room

Council assigned a committee room for the hearing, with President Tom Sharp presenting Attorney Robert Horowitz, who gave the organization's recommendations to the Council committee, which took the subject under advisement for further study.

The Suggestion

The suggestion of the group was that the city appropriate two half blocks of land east of Parsons, between Marion - rd and Innis-av and to raze 18 dwellings now occupying the area. Merchants along this area would be canvassed to pay appropriate shares to repay the city over a period of 20 years. Horowitz said that the merchants would be unable to buy land there because the property owners would raise prices. He suggested that the city use its power of eminent domain.

Some of the sentiment expressed for this proposal was "This area can be salvaged, but only if you do something fast" Horowitz said.

A Similar Plan

M. D. Portman, the mayor's executive assistant, said he investigated a smiliar plan in Cleveland about 18 months ago. Councilman W. Ralston Westlake said the city would first have to find out if the proposal is legal and then decide if the city should undertake such a project, and then set up a priority list.

City Traffic Commission, led by Chairman Otto Meier, last week delayed Traffic Engineer Musick's recommendation to Council concerning banning of parking on Parsons-av so the merchants would have time to present their plan to City Council.

Councilman William Hicks said he liked the idea because this group is presenting a plan and not just another request for help."

City Council asked Attorney Leach to check the legality of the proposition, while the overall picture was referred to City Planning Commission for

Rev. O. W. Smith Rites Today

Rev. Ottie W. Smith, 1540 S. Fourth-st, a retired EUB minister, died Monday in Mt. Carmel Hospital. He had been pastor at East Linden EUB Church for seven years and previous to that time had held pastorates in Ironton, Guysville, Bremen, Crooksville, Baltimore and Ashville.

Survivors are his wife, Helen a daughter, Mrs. Frances Grant of Ashville; a son, John H.; a step-son, William Douglas, both of Columbus; two grandchildren.

Funeral services were scheduled for 1:30 today, Thursday, in East Linden Church. Burial was to be in Reber Hill Cemetery, Ashville, by Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

Barrett's Seventh Grade Leads Friday Program

The seventh grade of Barrett Junior High School prepared and presented the assembly program of Friday, Feb. 21, "Around Ohio in Eighty Years." The show had six scenes as follows: "The Pioneer Family," "The Ohio Seal," "Education in 1837," "the Election of 1840 (the Log-Cabin campaign)," "Early Presidents from Ohio," "The Civil War."

Scenes were presented on the south half of the auditorium stage and narrators Diane Murday and Elaine Charles worked from a balloon basket in the center stage, and Mrs. Emma J. Secrest, chorus, and piano were on the north half. The seventh-grade band worked part time in the pit and part time on stage. Authors, actors, scene-painters, property managers, scene shifters, and house movers (for the log cabin) came from the seventh grade.

Principal Kenneth N. Olbert welcomed the assembly audience and gave the invocation. Jim Livingston led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Richard Coverdale introduced the program as a seventh-grade production. Barrett's vocal teacher, Andrew Denman, led the assembly for the National Anthem. H. L. Germain directed the seventh grade band.

The following classroom teachers assisted their pupils in the project: Miss Joyce Brown, Mrs. Nancy Hammond, R. A. Leichty, Mrs. Margaret Marsluf, Miss Mary C. Richter and Mrs. Emma J. Secrest.

South Side Settlement House Has Half-Century History; Asks 'How Can We Serve?'

Columbus' South Side Settlement House, Reeb-av, will join next week with a national settlement representative and committees from each of its six other settlements to ask: "How can we serve our community better?"

They will pool the results of a series of planned studies each has made within recent weeks.

John McDowell, Resource Director of Study, and president of the National Federation of Settlements will arrive in Columbus Friday for a series of conferences with the city's seven settlement houses.

He will visit with the South Side group on Tuesday.

Representatives to a Friday conference will include Mrs. C. P. Harrison, president, and Miss Martha Buck, director of the South Side House.

The combined committee group will look at the current trends-changes in national settlement house work, will seek ways in which they "can serve better."

"We will look at ourselves . . . ask where we are going," Miss Buck said this week. "We hope to do more where we can, hope to improve community relations."

The study—now completed—takes into consideration location of the houses, the playground and park facilities, the work of social agencies and health services, Miss Buck said.

Heart Fund Up In Drive

More than $3,834.41 was contributed by South Side residents to the Heart Fund in the Heart Sunday door-to-door canvass Sunday afternoon, (Feb. 23), according to a report from the association.

Of the total, $539.57 was collected in Ward 1, $619.06 in Ward 2, $1,332.28 in Ward 3, $500.34 in Ward 28A, and $843.16 in Ward 29.

Fair Spring-like weather attracted as many as half of the local residents to the highways, with the result that volunteers often found no one at home.

Although not-at-home envelopes addressed to the Central Ohio Heart Association were left at unoccupied residences, the need sometimes exceeeded the supply. "Some people here may not have received such an envelope to mail in their contribution," said Mrs. Arthur Miller, 1198 Miller-av, South area chairman. "Contributions should then be addressed to the Central Ohio Heart Association, 50 E. Broad-st, Columbus."

She added that all mail-in contributions will be credited to the South Side area goal.

The campaign for Heart Fund dollars will continue through Feb. 28. Funds are used to support heart research, community service, and educational programs in Ohio.

Kimble Has New Plant For Oxygen

Kimble Glass Co. has announced the installation of a new oxygen production plant which will step up the total production capacity by two million feet per month. The new plant is near Kimble's factory. The previous production was seven million cubic feet monthly, it was stated.

A spokesman told the Leader that the new plant will make available a capacity of nine million cubic feet of gas per month.

One of the safety features in the new equipment is a built-in alarm which will notify key persons in the event of anything going wrong with the almost-automatic oxygen plant.

Camera Catches Pupils, Teachers At Work During Tour Of Schools

Watching, ever so briefly, as youngsters participate in the details of learning is a happy task, and the visit to three area schools a few days ago was not an exception. From the kindergarten up through the grades it seemed they all wanted to make the camera happy. Pictures are taken in the schools only with approval of Columbus Board of Education, and, of course, of the principal, which was graciously given.

Pictured above is Miss Martha J. Pile, 438 Reinhard-av, receiving a commemorative pin in honor of "10 years of faithful service" from S. S. Davis, president of the Corrugated Container Co. of 640 Shoemaker-st. Miss Pile is in the art department of the corporation.

Nineteen others received pins in commemoration of five years each in the employ of the company.

Foresters Of U.S., Canada Coming

Members of the Catholic Order of Foresters of Columbus will join other members of the order throughout the United States and Canada in celebrating the 75th anniversary year of the order, which was organized May 23, 1883. The first affair will be a joint initiation class of all courts in the city of Columbus and Franklin County, and is sponsored by the Columbus Central Chapter.

This class, to be known as the Father Kessler Class, will honor Rev. Albert V. Kessler, pastor of Corpus Christi Church. Father Kessler is the spiritual director and a charter member of Corpus Christi Court No. 1986, which was instituted May 2, 1943. The court has enjoyed a rapid growth.

Father Kessler was ordained Mar. 11, 1933, and became pastor of Corpus Christi Church Oct. 21, 1938. He will celebrate his 25th anniversary in the priesthood on Mar. 11 of this year. During these many years of spiritual leadership he has endeared himself in the hearts of many, above all, in the hearts of the members of the Catholic Order of Foresters, for his spiritual guidance and untiring efforts, according to Louis F. Dimel, state juvenile director.

Approves School Site

Official approval has been given by the Columbus Board of Education for construction of a new elementary school on a site just south of the Benjamin Franklin Hospital. The school will serve a planned housing project to be located nearby.

Barrett's Revue Cast Announced

The big news at Barrett Junior High School for the next two weeks is the Barrett spring revue, "Circus on Parade," to be given for the community in the Barrett auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday, Mar. 13 and 14.

The cast includes the skating Hoeflich sisters, the singing Highland sisters, and Martha Rader, dancing Larry Carroll, tumbling Sharon Ramey and Sally Poeschel; snake-charming Sharon Hahn, westerners Bonnie Husse and Joan Crabtree, rope-walking Helma Reinke and Barbara Druggan, animal trainer Linda Tapia, aerialist Linda Barton, and many others in orchestra, chorus and dramatics.

Tickets, at 50 cents, will be on sale at the school and in the community. Barrett Student Council will make the distribution.

Fluorine Issue Goes To Voters

The subject of adding fluorine to city water as a move to combat tooth decay will be renewed in Columbus on May 6, when voters will be asked to mark a "yes" or "no" ballot.

Columbus city council voted against the proposal on April 16, 1956, but re-opened the issue early this year. Monday night they voted 6-1 to allow voters to decide on the May 6 ballot. It will be voted as a charter amendment.

The ordinance calls for the addition of one part fluoride to one million parts of water—an amount "which is safe and comparatively sure to reduce new caries in children's teeth," health officials claim.

Among those favoring fluoridation are Dr. Ollie M. Goodloe, Columbus health commissioner; the Columbus Dental Society, Dr. O. M. Fillinger, retired president of city council; Dr. Hamilton B. G. Robinson, assistant dean of the College of Dentistry, OSU; and most of council's current members.

The lone dissenter on city council was W. Ralston Westlake, who urged that the issue be turned over to the voters. He also questioned the "morality" of selling fluoridated water to surrounding areas.

"That would be fluoridation without representation," Westlake said.

The South Side Leader went "on the street" last week, and asked "Do you favor the addition of fluorine to your children's drinking water?"

Question: "What is your opinion of flouridation of the city water?

Mrs. Patrick Canty, 263 E. Stewart-av . . . "I think that something that is good for you is good to have. This flouridation is good and so we should have it."

Mrs. Roy C. Stout, 296 E. Stewart-av . . . "I'm not in favor of it. With all the prices going up like they are I don't feel that we can afford to vote something extra in." (Money for the addition of floride has been payed by the health departments in other cities).

Mrs. Edward Stammler, 318 Siebert . . . "I don't approve of it. I think we have enough stuff in the water as it is now. Sometimes I wonder what we are drinking. There's enough stuff in there to purify it and all, so I feel that we should not have it."

Mrs. Robert Dykes, 671 E. Whittier . . . "I don't think it'd be a good thing. I feel that if kids brushed their teeth like they should it would be enough."

Mrs. Franklin McComas, 1633 S. Third . . . "I think it is a good thing. When my two children get old enough to use toothpaste and worry about their teeth, I think it will help a lot. I would vote for it if it came up."

STATE GOVERNMENT EXPLAINED

Law Making Purpose Of General Assembly

Archer E. Reilly, Jr., Member State Legislature

This is the first of a series of seven articles concerning our state and local government. They will appear regularly for the next seven weeks and will include in order, a consideration of the General Assembly, the Governor, the State Supreme Court and the major county offices.

A. E. Reilly Jr.

The General Assembly is considered first because it is the oldest regular branch of State Government dating back to the beginnings of Ohio as a state, at Chillicothe, March 1, 1803, and its function is essential to the conduct of state government.

This is the law-making agency of Ohio government. It derives its power from the State Constitution. Its object is the framing of policy and the assertion of it in the form of laws.

There are two Houses in the Ohio Legislature; the Senate and the House of Representatives. The members are citizens of the district which they represent. They receive $5,000 per year for their services.

Members are elected at the regular election on the first Tuesday in November in even numbered years. The terms for the House are two years: and— under a recent constitutional amendment— four years for the Senate.

Regular sessions begin on the first Monday in January following the election. They are of approximately six months duration. After the regular session, the Governor may call special sessions, but they are confined to the subjects included in his call. And, as a matter of practice, in normal times governors tend to be hesitant about calling special sessions at all.

The first order of business for both Houses is the election of officers. The Senate elects a president pro tempore; the House a speaker and speaker pro tempore (major leader) This election is actually a mere formality, as the selections are agreed upon in advance by the caucus of the majority party.

Shortly after the selection of officers and the disposal of preliminary matters, the actual business of law making begins.

In Ohio a bill is started on the road to becoming a law through its introduction by a member in his own House. And whenever a member introduces a bill, he is considered its sponsor.

After its introduction, a bill is sent to a regular committee, where its fate is determined. It is often said that the real work of the Legislature is in committee, and this is close to the truth.

Each committee has a chairman who determines which bills will be acted upon and discussed at committee meetings. If a bill has a hearing, both its proponents and opponents are given an opportunity to be heard.

Generally if a committee recommends a bill for passage it has a good chance for a favorable vote in that House. Ultimately, to become law, it must pass both Houses. This is part of the system of checks and balances built into the American form of government.

The General Assembly itself is one of three coordinate branches of state government, each of which has separate functions, among them to serve as a balance wheel for the other.

Next week we shall consider the Governor, who administers the laws the Legislature enacts.

The Squeeze Play

Peter, Paul Agree On Moral Virtues

ST. PETER and St. Paul might disagree about certain matters of attitude and strategy concerning acute problems that arose in the early church. Paul has left the record of how on one occasion he stood with Peter "face to face."

But, when it came to the rich elemental experiences of faith and life in Christ, and counseling and guiding Christians as to how they might experience the rich things of Christ, they were so much in agreement that their very words are similar.

Peter makes it plain that faith is the foundation of Christian life and the beginning of all growth. To faith, he says, must be added virtue, and to virtue, knowledge; to knowledge, self-control; to self-control, patience; to patience, godliness; to godliness, brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness, love.

These are closely related qualities of the Christian life which cannot be separated from one another.

Paul's description or catalogue of the fruits of the spirit is found in Galatians 5:22-23. "The fruit of the spirit," Paul says, "is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, self-control." Against these things, Paul says, there is no law—a comment very much like one of Peter's, where he says that if the things he has listed are possessed by disciples who abound in them, their lives will not be idle or unfruitful.

These virtues emphasized by Paul and Peter are so specific, so understandable and so practicable that the only question is whether or not we have the will to make them our own.

Hey, I Found A Fossil!

That's worth shouting about, young fella!

Those strange patterns in the rock are pages out of the past in Nature's notebook. They tell the story of life as it was, millions of years ago, when huge quantities of natural gas were formed and buried deep beneath the earth's surface.

Today, fossils serve as important signposts in man's quest for more reserves of natural gas throughout the entire Appalachian area, for they often provide the clue to new supplies.

The search for this "wonder fuel" continues at an intensive rate, to keep pace with your increasing demands for modern homes and industry. Millions of dollars yearly are spent to discover new reserves, drill new wells, deliver a steady flow of dependable, economical natural gas to you.

These efforts are well repaid because natural gas is the modern, efficient fuel. And it serves you best when you use it with modern, automatic gas appliances.

Churchman To Speak

Rev. Carl E. Hicks, pastor of Oakwood-av Methodist Church, has announced the coming next Monday of Dr. Harry Denman, executive secretary, Board of Evangelism, Nashville, Tenn., to Oakwood Methodist Church. The church is located at Oakwood and Newton.

Dr. Denman is a lay official of the Methodist Church, the Oakwood Methodist pastor told the Leader writer. The visiting speaker will speak at the services Monday and Tuesday evenings, and Rev. Hicks will continue the meetings Wednesday through Sunday nights. Services begin at 7:30 p.m., the pastor said.

There has been much illness this winter. Among those on our "best wishes for a speedy recovery" list are Mrs. David Eitel, Bernice Price, Anton Engberg, Philip Smith, Mrs. Mary James, Carl Clarkson, Mrs. Ada See, Mr. John Fleckner and Judy Capehart. A beautiful bouquet of cut flowers or a lovely plant will cheer the convalescent and brighten the long, dreary days. We will deliver a beautifully designed arrangement of cut flowers at prices starting at $3.50. Many of the flowers are freshly cut from our own greenhouses. The fragrant Hyacinth plants are now in bloom ($3.50 per large pot), we also have Azalea, Cyclamen and Mum plants.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. & Mrs. Chuck Toth ... proud new parents are Mr. & Mrs. James Karnes, Mr. & Mrs. Earl Joiner, Mr. & Mrs. Donald Henry, Mr. & Mrs. William O'Brien. Friends of Dorothy Carrigan, who is now Mrs. David Rueger of Evansville, Indiana, will be pleased to know that she is now lullabying a brand new, nine-pound baby boy. Congratulations to all these couples.

One Way? Problems Are Many

How much chance is there that the South Side, the Parsons-av and Steelton areas, will have one way streets? That question has been posed by many and recently was talked at a meeting of the Council of South Side Organizations.

The South Side Business and Industrial Association has also projected the problem into its regular meetings.

A speaker said the South Side needs one-way streets. Another said the layout of north and south streets which could be used straight-through the city are few. So many of the streets are "jogged" or terminated at dead ends, it was said. These obstacles to through-traffic also are a barrier frequently mentioned when alternate routes are periodically discussed. They seem to stand in the way when alternate "one-ways" are considered.

When a Leader man asked a number of people on the street, 95 percent offered no solution . . . no opinions.

Yet there is agitation right now for relief from congested parking and driving conditions in the Steelton area.

"Relief" can come only from "arbitrary decisions," one authority said.

Drama At Marion-Franklin High

When the photographer came upon the scene pictured above at Marion-Franklin High School, he thought briefly that he was in Congress what with all the formality he heard. Waiting paid off and it was learned that they were rehearsing for a series of three plays. It is, as you will have guessed now, the Drama Club. Paul Wiess is speech advisor. In the cast, left to right, are Ann Funk, Patty Skinner, Hazel Kennedy, Charles Boren, K. Masioci, Dianne Nippert, Peggy Glenn.

Central High To Host PTA Council March 6

The regular meeting of the Columbus Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will be held Thursday, Mar. 6, 1:30 p.m. at Central High School, according to Mrs. Jack Kirby. Miss Florence B. Johnston, supervisor of school nurses, is to explain the pre-school registration system and the school health check-ups. Her subject title is "Expanding Horizons in Student Health."

A special invitation is being issued to the pre-school and health chairmen of the local units to attend this meeting.

The invocation will be given by Ray W. Kessler, principal, Eleventh Avenue School. H. Delbert Swain, second vice-president will lead the pledge of allegiance.

Nephrosis Foundation Campaign March 4

The Central Ohio Chapter of the National Foundation, Inc., will conduct its second annual fund-raising campaign on Mar. 4, with a house-to-house solicitation throughout Franklin County. The 1958 campaign goal is $20,000.

Funds will go mainly for medical research in childhood nephrosis, the kidney disease that is fatal to one-half of its victims, most of them between the ages of six months and ten years, a statement emphasized.

The cause of nephrosis is not known and there is no known cure.

As a result of its first campaign last year, in which more than 3,000 men and women took part, the chapter gave $12,000 to Ohio State University to support research in nephrosis, nephritis, and allied kidney diseases.

Visitor To Speak At Wilson-av Nazarene

The Wilson Avenue Church of the Nazarene, 1650 Wilson-av, announces that Rev. Dale Galloway, a youth speaker and ministerial student at Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill., and the college male quartet will conduct week-end services at the church on Mar. 7, 8, 9.

Rev. Galloway is the son of Dr. Harvey S. Galloway, the district superintendent of the Central Ohio District.

This will climax a week of activity for the youth of the local church, the minister, Rev. D. E. Clay announced. Some of the other activities planned by the Young People's Society are these:

Tuesday evening, the young people will attend en-masse, the annual district Sunday school convention.

Wednesday evening, the youth will participate in the mid-week prayer meeting of the church, and Thursday evening, there will be an indoor wiener roast at the Southview Shelter House.

Health Heads Urge New Home

A new 850-bed building to be built attached or close to Alum Crest Hospital was recommended to County Commissioners Friday.

It would replace the 90-year-old Franklin County Home.

The recommendation was made in a 25-page report by the Metropolitan Health Council after a study in cooperation with the Columbus Academy of Medicine, the Columbus Hospital Federation and the Department of Services to older People of the Council of Social Agencies.

A decision by the commissioners is pending study of the report. A new County home must be approved by voters.

'Fashion Show Of Shoes'

A "Fashion Show of Shoes" will be held at Weiss Shoe Store in Great Southern Shopping Center on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 27, 28 and Mar. 1.

Mrs. Don Mortensen of Lockbourne AFB will model; shoes will be by "Vitality." W. J. Harney, a factory-representative, will also be present to talk and show the new shoes.

Visitors are invited to order from the many new Spring and Summer styles—or just look.

Models will be provided by Waltz Styles of GSSC.

Local Nazarenes In Convention

Local area Nazarene pastors and leaders in Sunday school work are scheduled to attend the annual Central Ohio District Sunday school convention at First Nazarene Church, King and Hunter-sts, Tuesday, Mar. 4. Three general sessions will be at 9:30 a.m., and 2 and 7 p.m.

Speakers will be the Rev. and Mrs. Lyle K. Potter, Kansas City, Mo. He is director of youth caravan and camp work in the denomination church school department. Rev. Ernest B. Marsh, Columbus, is district church school chairman.

The central Ohio district includes 123 Nazarene churches in a 35-county area from Lake Erie to the Ohio River, it was said.

Luncheon

A chicken noodle luncheon, sponsored by the Mary Circle, Gates-Fourth Methodist Church will be served Wednesday, Mar. 5, from 11 to 1 at the church. Chairmen are Mrs. C. E. Bosworth, Mrs. Chester Metzler, and Mrs. John R. Wilson. Tickets, Misses Flora and Alma Heiserman, also available at the door.

Oakwood Methodists Look Like '58 Champs

The South Side Branch YMCA Church Basketball Leagues continued on with some good games in both leagues. The Intermediate League looks to have Oakwood Methodist as this year's champion, as they beat second place St. Paul E. and R.

Junior League play started the evening with first place Oakwood Methodist defeating last place Central Community 41-2. Gary Martin led the onslaught for Oakwood with 15 points. St. John E. and R. pulled a close one away from Livingston Methodist, by an 18-15 score. Livingston's poor shooting percentage gave St. John the green light to winning the game.

Mike Grayem of Livingston led both teams, scoring with 11 points while Bob Harris of St. John racked up eight points. St. Paul E. and R. played to a 16-9 win over Frebis Avenue Church of God. Wally Rueckel led the way with his domination of the backboard and eight points. Darrel Branham continued to lead the Church of God, scoring with four points.

The Intermediate League began the evening with first place Oakwood Methodist defeating St. Paul E. and R., 40-26, to just about wrap up first place. St. Paul's very poor percentage of shots made hurt their chances for winning a lot. Tim Woodyard scored 15 points for the winners while Dave Spanner was high man for St. Paul with nine points.

Gates-Fourth Methodist defeated South Methodist by forfeit and by points scored. South Methodist played with an ineligible man to lose the game in spite of the points. Dick Peiplow of Gates-Fourth led both teams' scoring with 16 points. Ohio Avenue EUB turned the heat on Thurman Methodist to win by a 49-11 score. The scoring was divided equally between the Ohio team as their height and speed were too much for Thurman.

Golden Age Club Meet

The Schiller Park Golden Age Club will hold its regular meeting this coming Tuesday, Mar. 4, at Schiller Recreation Center. At that time the group plans to make a visit to the Ohio State Archeological Museum on the Ohio State University campus. All members who are interested in making this trip should be at the recreation center by 12:30 p.m., it was stated. Bus transportation will be furnished, according to the Center announcement.

Men's Glee Club Here

The Men's Glee Club of Otterbein College in Westerville will be guests of Washington Avenue Church, Sunday evening, Mar. 2, according to an announcement by Rev. Boyd C. Rife, pastor. The hour: 7:30 p.m.

The Glee Club is making several appearances in Columbus.

Thirty-five men form the club and are selected by try-out from all departments of college.

Minister Mixes Song and Sermon

The Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, 1234 S. Fourth-st, is holding revival services each evening through Mar. 2 at 7:30. Rev. Joseph Hampton is conducting the meetings.

The minister is a member of the Holston Conference. He is now pastor of First Methodist Church, Servierville, Tenn. Rev. Hampton has served as district superintendent in the Holston Conference two five-year terms. He is evangelistic in his preaching, and sings many times in connection with his message.

Graduates

Announcement is being made of the graduation of Mrs. Louise Ruh of 1227 S. High-st from the Columbus Marinello Beauty School, 199½ S. High-st, Columbus.

Mrs. Ruh completed her training with a high average in a class of 125 students, and is considering employment in the Columbus area. The training Mrs. Ruh received was of eight months' duration and covered all technical phases of the subjects required by the Ohio State Board of Cosmetology.

The Gusa family, 412 Jenkins-av, should certainly be experts about broken bones by now, and the hard way at that. Janet, a pupil at Southwood School, is the most recent member of the family to be wearing a splint. She slipped on the ice a week ago yesterday and broke her arm. In November her grandmother, Mrs. McDaniel, 91 Woodrow-av, broke her arm and hip. In December her mother fell and broke her wrist. A cheery card would be a nice gesture to help reconcile a little girl to a less active life, don't you agree?

Bead 24 of Our Lady of Mercy School will meet Feb. 27 at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Marshall, 512 Southwood-av.

PTA doings in the area: Lincoln Park meets at 1:30 today in the school auditorium. A skit entitled "The Viewing of PTA Pictures" will honor the past presidents of the school. Southwood School will hold its meeting at 1:30 this afternoon. The Founders Day program will be in charge of Mrs. Frank Szuk. Stewart Avenue PTA will convene this evening at 7:30. Children of the school will present a play, "In the Land of Us", in honor of past presidents, teachers and principals.

Mrs. C. L. Dumaree will be the guest speaker for the Reeb Avenue Parent and Family Life Education Group at 9:45 a.m. today. Topic for discussion is "Who Is Delinquent?"

Since Juanita Berger is interested in things musical (she's president of the Band and Orchestra Parents at South High), we'll just dedicate a little song to her; um, oh "Darling, You Are Growing Older." Yep, she's having a birthday tomorrow.

A little past the date, but a happy, healthy year of wedded life is wished for Mary Ann and Jim Whalen, 224 Frebis-av.

The Veterans' Memorial building is now the permanent meeting place of the East unit of Blue Star Mothers, and the move brings a change in meeting time as well. The third Wednesday of the month we'll find Mrs. Ed Lemmon, Sr., presiding as chairman of the unit. Mrs. Lemmon, a resident of 1049 Jackson-pk, was installed on Feb. 19. Other South Side residents on her executive board are as follows: Mrs. Frances Weber 406 S. Ohio, vice-chairman; Mrs. Robert Casto, 625 Whittier-st secretary; Mrs. Edna Byers, Jackson-pk chaplain; Mrs. C. O. Huffman, Kossuth-st, historian.

Birthday time for the younger generation: Rita Kochenderfer, 158 Hinman, Mar. 4; Jimmy McKenzie 219 Welch, Feb 28; Jimmy Taylor, 1528 S. Fourth-st Feb 28; Robert Schneider, 356 Frebis Mar. 5; Ronnie Taylor, 1528 S High-st, Mar. 2; Eileen Bailor, 401 Jenkins, Mar. 1; Melvin Penrod, 1665 S. High-st, Mar. 1; Beverly Lambert, 80 E. Woodrow, Mar. 5; Bill Ringhiser, 34 W. Moler, Mar. 3; Karen Edinger, 43 E. Welch, Feb. 28; Michael Howell, 88 Innis, Feb. 29 (a Leap Year celebrant); Paula Clark, 245 Morrill, Mar. 1; Donna Combs, 72 Woodrow, Mar. 2; Sandra Binder, 139 Hinman, Mar. 4; Connie Ringhiser, 32 W. Moler, Mar. 3; Janet Brown, 559 Southwood-av, Mar. 2

Ruth Welker, 976 Carpenter-st, can now add a fifth charm to her "grandmother" bracelet, as of Feb. 22. Daughter Barbara Heilman is the brand-new mother and proud papa is Frederick. Both Heilmans are South High graduates. Their residence now is at 3904 Bolton-av. Vital statistics for the youngest Heilman include his name, Steven Welker, and his "weighing in" at 7 pounds, 8½ ozs. The fourth "charm" was a fairly recent one, so belated congratulations to Charles and Anna Marie Robbins for the November addition to their family. The youngster was named Charlesa Ruth, honoring her daddy and grandmother. The Robbins' reside at 2848 12th-av.

Trudeau Guild 25 will meet Mar 5 in the home of Mrs. Lorraine Itskin, 1713 S. Third-st.

Mercy Hospital is the temporary home of two fine people and we're hoping both of them have a speedy return to health. The ailing ones are Dorothy Weakley, 1440 Champion-av, who is in Room 111, and Lawrence McNutt, 380 E. Whittier-st, in Room 225. Our next gentleman isn't a South Side resident, but his wife is a member of Trudeau 25, so perhaps the Guild members would want to send cards to him. Leland Smoke is the man, and he is in Grant Hospital. Leland's brother-in-law and sister-in-law are "Doc" and Maxine Crary of Deshler-av. Mrs. James Rothwell, 1370 S. Fifth-st, is convalescing at the hospital.

Feb. 28 will be the wedding day for Susan Jane Boquist, 1191 E. Whittier-st, and Jackie Rex Cheek, 461 S. 18th-st. Both are South High School graduates.

With the Lenten season of the year, thoughts of Easter are also uppermost in our minds. Margie Speckmon, 820 S. Third-st, has a worthwhile project and she asks our help in reaching her goal. She fills cottage-cheese cartons with Easter candies and cookies for Orient, and in order to do this she needs lots of cartons. Won't you save yours for her? Her phone is HI. 4-0832. She didn't ask me to mention that the "fillings" would be appreciated too, but I know that many more patients would be remembered if she had help in this direction.

Th civic committee of the Moose, 36 W. Sycamore-st, will be in charge of the Mar. 5 dinner held at the hall. A phone call to Dorothy Jolly, senior regent, gave us the menu for the 5-7 p.m. dinner: Roast pork and dressing, sweet potatoes, buttered lima beans, tossed salad, home-made pie, rolls and coffee. The price for adults is $1.25 and 75c for kiddies. The Irishman and the Gadabout, with two healthy appetites, are usually eating at the Moose on Wednesday nights, so how about joining us?

Priscilla Ann Dicke and Tommy Lenox were two of the ailing younger generation this week. Both had tonsilitis.

Seem to be fresh out of news so will go our merry way, after reminding you that the phone number, to give us news, is HI. 4-1051. Do call. Till next week then, 'tis

Albert Pflaums To Have Reception Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Pflaum of 557 Jenkins-av will reach the fiftieth year of married life this coming Sunday, according to Mrs. Esther Wright, 501 Morrill-st, a daughter. She said her parents were married Mar. 7, 1908. They are the parents of four children and the grandparents of six. Mr. Wright continues in the plumbing business with his son.

The couple have been lifelong residents of the South Side, Mrs. Wright said. The reception in their honor will be held Sunday, Mar. 2, from 2 to 5 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of South Church of Christ, Woodrow at Bruck-st.

Burma Eastern Star Has Mar. 6 Date

Announcement has been made that Burma Chapter Eastern Stars will meet Thursday, Mar. 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the K of P Hall, 697 S. High-st. Presiding officer will be Worthy Matron Ruth Kaltenbach, it was stated.

Circle Dates Announced

The Oakwood Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the church Mar. 5 with a program at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Elmer Jauch, literary secretary, has announced. Mrs. Vance Leonard and Mrs. Murrell Malloy will present the Christ Crusaders Girls Group of Oakwood Church in "March of Youth in Missions."

Other Circles will meet as follows:

Bennett will meet Mar. 11, at 8 p.m. at the home of Miss Evelyn Cassidy, 863 Lockbourne-rd.

Bethlehem will meet Mar. 12, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Scofield, 1359 Oakwood-av.

Esther Hall will meet Mar. 11, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Carl Hicks, 698 Oakwood-av.

Ethel Harpst will meet Mar. 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. L. H. Hampshire, 440 Chatham-rd.

Jessie Lee will meet Mar. 13, at 12 noon with a potluck luncheon at the church.

Mercy will meet Mar. 12 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Newell, 750 Oakwood-av.

Navajo will meet Mar. 6 at 9 p.m. at the home of Miss Mary Horn, 715 S. Ohio-av.

Susannah Wesley will meet Mar. 14 at 7:45 p.m., at the home of Mrs. J. R. Beard, 969 Kelton-av.

Circles Set Meet Date

The Woman's Society of Christian Service, Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, announces the following meetings for March.

The Young Women's Circle at the home of Mrs. Ralph Rouse, 4572 Rodney-st, Monday Mar. 3, at 7:30 p.m.

The Ruth Circle, Tuesday, Mar. 11, 7:30 p.m., at the church. Hostesses, Mrs. George Stertzer and Mrs. J. C. Mellor.

The Mary and Martha Circles Thursday, Mar. 13, 10:30 a.m., at the church. Sack luncheon at noon, followed by the general society meeting at 1 p.m. Mrs. John R. Wilson will offer devotions and Mrs. Raymond Kuehner will show the film "Methodist Women, World-Wide Friends."

Barrett Spring Review Date: March 13, 14

Thursday and Friday, Mar. 13 and 14, will be circus days in the school auditorium at Barrett Junior High School, a reporter announces. The annual Spring Revue is being planned and programmed around a circus theme, with ringmaster, clowns, acrobats, and other performers. Each year at Barrett there is a talent search, with tryouts and auditions. The acts and talent groups are organized into a progam and drilled, rehearsed, and stage-managed into a fast-paced show, ready for its public.

Costumes, trained animals, and properties are being sought for. Any offer of loan of these items will be most gratefully responded to, the Barrett spokesman said.

Tickets, at 50 cents, will be available in the community in the immediate future and at the school, was the final promise.

'THANKS'

. . . for a job well done!

Upon completion of an extensive remodeling program by Maeder-Quint Funeral Parlors, 1068 South High St., it was the privilege of Hartley Newspapers to make the announcement in its advertising and editorial columns. Use of these newspapers — The South Side Leader, South East Rural-Urban News and Hilltop Record — and the outstanding job performed by each, prompted the letter which appears below.

CORPUS CHRISTI NEWS

Brownie Troop 664, Mrs. Carmen Mininni, leader; Mrs. Forrest Evans and Mrs. Raymond Ilyseil, assistants, and Brownie Troop 455, Mrs. Wilbur Liddil, leader and Mrs. Velma Haughn and Mrs. William Frank, assistants, combined their efforts to make Valentine tray favors for the State School as their joint community service project.

Troop 664 also collected comic books and old Christmas cards for the State School which will be used for theraputic purposes.

A new member recently welcomed into Troop 664 is Karen Harold, who has transferred here from Gulf Breeze, Fla.

Intermediate Troop 653

Mrs. Robert Mumma, leader.

Troop 653 made Valentine tray favors for the patients of St. Raphaels Home for the Aged as their community service project. Assistant leaders are Mrs. William Morbitzer and Mrs. Helen Kumler

DESHLER SCHOOL NEWS

On Feb. 5, the members of Brownie Troop 281 took their first trip. They visited the Farmcrest Bakery on Livingston-av. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. W. V. Sarchet and assistants, Mrs. Opal Shannon and Mrs. Bertha Hingle

Recently Intermediate Troop 150 pieced and knotted a quilt as a requirement on their needlecraft badge. When the work on the quilt was completed they presented it to a needy family as part of their community service project. Co-leaders of the group are Mrs. Leah Fletcher and Mrs. Cyril Goldston.

HEYL AVENUE SCHOOL

Recently an election of officers was held in Brownie Troop 754. Elected were: president, Jean Cox; vice president, Nancy Leslein; secretary, Ruth Sheets, and treasurer, Linda Mauger Mrs. Frederick Mauger is troop leader with Mrs. Raymond Leslein and Mrs. Rodney Tobias, assisting. Mrs. Gilbert Sheets is committee chairman.

The members of Intermediate Troop 615 have been busy working on their skating badge as a requirement, made pompons to wear on their skates.

A new treasurer was elected, Phyllis Harper. The troop is led by Mrs. Guy Cochran, and assistant, Mrs. Elmer Gingham.

CUMBERLAND TRAIL NEWS

Mrs. Robert Nicholson, chairman

Members of this neighborhood held an International Friendship rally on Saturday, Feb. 22, at 2 p.m. at the First English Lutheran Church, Main-st, at 22nd-st. There were 12 troops taking part. Mrs. Robert Nicholson is chairman.

International Dinner

The annual International Dinner was held at the Whetstone Recreation Center, 3298 N. High-st on Feb. 20.

All those who attended took a covered dish containing a favorite foreign recipe, a copy of the recipe wrapped in plastic wrap, an individual complete table service, including water glass and proper serving piece or pieces, and "one slim dime" to cover necessary expenses.

Hostesses provided the coffee, rolls and butter. Those planning to attend should arrive between 6 and 6:20 p.m. Buffet tables should be ready for serving by 6:30 p.m.

The neighborhood monthly meeting for District 6 will be held on Thursday, Feb. 27, at 7 p.m. at the Ohio Avenue EUB Church in Friendship Hall.

HEYL AVE. NEIGHBORHOOD
Meeting Scheduled

On Thursday, Feb. 27, the monthly meeting of the Hely-av neighborhood will be held at the Ohio Avenue EUB Church, starting at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Foster, chairman of District No. 6, will preside.

All registered adults are urged to attend this meeting during which reports will be made by the different committee chairmen.

Mrs. George Reynolds, camping chairman, will distribute camping folders and report on her recent meeting with the camping committee.

Also reporting will be Mrs. James Fisher, neighborhood cookie chairman. She will have cookie packets to distribute. Plans will be discussed concerning the forth-coming cookie sale.

WORKSHOP

There will be a second class and proficiency workshop for registered adults in this area at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Lane, 1818 Kent-st, on Thursday, Mar. 6, from 7 to 10 p.m. Registration should be placed with Mrs. Arthur Foster, chairman of District No. 6, at HI. 4-0641 at the earliest possible date.

CUMBERLAND TRAIL

Members of this neighborhood held an International Friendship Rally Feb. 22, at the First English Lutheran Church with 12 troops taking part.

DISTRICT WORKSHOP

On Tuesday, Mar. 4, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. there will be a district workshop at Schiller Park for all registered adults. Presiding will be Mrs. James Gatwood, arts and crafts director, at Schiller Park.

Swedish weaving and dogwood fibre flowers will be covered in this meeting. Plan to attend this creative session.

NEWS OF HEYL AVENUE SCHOOL NEIGHBORHOOD
Intermediate Troop 615
Leader—Mrs. Guy Cochran
Assistant Leader—Mrs. Elmer Bingham

This troop met Feb. 20 at Heyl Avenue School after school and held a Valentine party. Members had a Valentine exchange and refreshments of special Valentine cookies. A surprise experienced by the troop members was the presentation of their white gloves which will complete their uniforms. Troop members recently sold greeting cards and stationery to raise additional funds which made the glove purchase possible.

HEYL SCHOOL
Friendship Day Observed

Four local troops participated in the observance of International Friendship Day at Heyl Avenue School Feb. 20. The units were:

Brownie Troop 754 — Mrs. Frederick Mauger, leader. The members displayed a flag of a foreign country and identified the type of meal and beverage which would be served in that country. Countries represented were Germany, Japan, France, Italy, England, Portugal, Ireland, Sweden, Norway, China and Hungary

Brownie Troop 446 — Mrs. Wiley Stein, leader. This troop also had flags of foreign countries. Since they are a newly registered Brownie troop they told what the Brownies are called in the different countries represented by the displayed flags

Intermedite Troop 615—Mrs. Guy Cochran, leader. The 18 members of Troop 615 presented a dance "Hey, Little Lassie" of Swedish origin, and closing the program was Brownie Troop 974 whose leader is Mrs. Gene Morris. Members sang the closing song and formed the "London Bridge" under which all troops passed and returned to their respective class rooms.

Also featured on this program was Mrs. Adena Moffat, first grade teacher at Heyl Avenue School. Mrs. Moffat showed color slides of Japan where she had been a teacher and told about her stay in Japan. Mrs. Moffat explained the clothing and shoes worn by the Japanese, told of their markets, and showed pictures of these as well as rice paddies, nearby temples and neighboring mountains. She also discussed China. Mrs. Moffat will teach a year in this country and then one year abroad.

'all the way', we decided to accomplish the task by using what we had and having park personnel do the work, or a large part of it." It was stated that the electrical work, as a result of its nature, will have to be done by contract while the other work is done by park personnel.

With an allocation of $15,000 waiting, and with the work authorized, authorities decided to go ahead on the basis of contracting the electrical work and using park personnel on the rest of the work. And this, it was said, will be considerable.

Changes To Be Made

There will be a number of changes in the general "shaping" of the "shell." The present rear wall is considered too high for the desired purpose. Plans call for lowering the rear wall, or its replacement, considerably. This is one of the "look better" tasks associated with the proposed work.

Changes, it was said, will include shortening the great depth, front to rear, and changing the sloping arrangements which have characterized the present "shell". This means a shortening at front and rear, it was pointed out by an architect. It was also pointed out that the new wing-walls will provide better sound, contributing to the pleasure of those who are in the audience

Practical

Architects and others in the park system point out that everything to be done with this long-desired improvement is based on utility and more comfort for those who attend the many presentations expected immediately following completion, and then on through the open weather period. There is to be more sloping to the south, it was shown. This, it is understood, is a part of the over-all plan for achieving a comfortable place "where the public may see and hear theatricals, children and grown-ups, an outdoor stage placed at the use of the citizens of the South Side," a member of the Council of South Side Organizations described it.

$1,466 To S-E Heart Fund

Over $1,466 was contributed to the Heart Fund by residents in the southeast suburban area in the Heart Sunday door-to-door canvass Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23

Of the total, $368.79 was collected in Canal Winchester, $477.40 in Madison Township, $233.83 in Groveport, $241.56 in Hamilton Township, $125.28 in Obetz and $19.45 in Lockbourne

Fair, spring-like weather attracted as many as half of the local residents to the highways, with the result that volunteers often found no one at home.

Although not-at-home envelopes addressed to the Central Ohio Heart Association were left at unoccupied residences, the need sometimes exceeded the supply." Some people here may not have received such an envelope to mail in their contribution," said Mrs. Alfred Schirm, 152 Washington, Canal Winchester, south suburban chairman. "Contributions should then be addressed to the Central Ohio Heart Association, 50 E. Broad-st, Columbus.

She added that all mail in contributions will be credited to the southeast suburban goal.

Funds will be used to support heart research, community service and educational programs in Ohio.

Dr. K. Urell Opens Office

Dr. Herbert E. Urell, a graduate of Ohio State College of Dentistry, has recently opened an office for the general practice of dentistry at 1318 Parsons-av. Dr. Urell, a former native of New York City, and his wife, Gloria, formerly of Williamson, W. Va., have a three-month-old son named Jerry.

Dr. Urell has been practicing in the South Side for six months in association with Dr. Kenneth Uretsky before opening his new office last week.

Ex-Jap Residents To Show Films

The initial meeting of the Unified Society of World Service, the new organization for all church women of Ohio-av EUB Church, will be held Tuesday, Mar. 4 at 8 p.m., in Fellowship Hall. Election of officers will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. Glendon Herbert The devotions with a Japanese theme will be given by Mrs. Nela Martin, 823 Siebert-st.

Prof. and Mrs. R. A. Oetjen, who lived in Japan for two years, will show pictures of their experiences. Preceding this meeting, there will be a fellowship of Prayer at the altar of the sanctuary at 7.30 p.m.

South Side Settlement—

Also talked will be the history of the area, and the history of the agency. South Side was established in 1899 by the Methodist Union, and moved to Reeb-av in 1911.

It was owned by the Columbus Church Extension and Missionary Society of the Methodist Church until three years ago; and now belongs to the Women's Group of that organization

"Our work is extended—offered to nearly all age groups," Miss Buck said.

A pre-school kindergarten for three and four-year-olds is conducted each week-day morning. Cooking, sewing, woodshop, gym, etc., is available for six to 12-year-olds after normal school hours; and organized teen-age groups meet at the house for such things as basketball, wrestling, ceramics, crafts and photography.

"We have an adult sewing group and a Mothers' Breakfast Club," Miss Buck said. "Also have a Well Baby Clinic conducted each Monday morning by the city health service."

South Side Settlement house registers about 650 to 700 youths each year. They have had 533 actively participating since new registration was started last October.

Adult leaders are mostly volunteers; some students from Capital University work part time. A volunteer has recently enlisted from Ft. Hayes.

"Our work is well-rounded, planned and patterned according to the things our people like and need," Miss Buck said. "But we shall 'look at ourselves . . . see where we are going' just the same."

Clip 'N Save — New Names Listed Here For Old - Marion

With the annexation of the old Marion Franklin Township came the changing of some street names. These changes came about because of conflict with street names in Columbus proper.

The following changes were made: Kaan-av to Kail-av, Terrace-av to Thorndale-av, Lakeview-blvd to Landus-av, Lakedr to Loxley-dr, Chase-av to Chase-rd, Dexter-rd to Delray-rd, Scotwood-rd to Stockbridge-rd, Rosewood-rd to Roskwell-rd, Collingwood-rd to Colton-rd, Robinwood-rd to Rumsey-rd, Maplewood-rd to Marilla-rd, Beechwood-rd to Barcher-rd, Caroline-av to Cochrane-rd, and Bank-st to Baltz-rd. Lewis-av, between Groveport and Wilson-rd has been changed to Locke-av, and Lewis-av between Alum Creek-dr and the western boundaries was named Liston-av.

Parking Plan—

study and a recommendation.

Lack of policy on this type proposal was cited by members of the Council as one reason for using caution on the proposal, since other neighborhood business centers might want similar advantages.

The mayor's executive assistant called Council's attention to a policy already established when the city bought property on Fourth-st and at Mound and Third-sts, expressly for off-street parking for merchants in the area.

In closing, the group asked that it be remembered that their group was the first to enter Council chambers with a definite plan through which the funds needed would be returned to the city.

It's all too easy to drive automatically, without being alert to danger. When you're driving, don't get carried away with distracting sights or thoughts—or you may be carried away!

License Plates Vendors Told

For the convenience of the people in the South Side Leader area in securing license plates next month, the following names have been listed by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles:

Joseph E. Powell, 1086 Oakwood-av, dispensing passenger car plates, truck plates, operator licenses.

Harry T. Sells, at Teal Service Station, 1572 S. Parsons-av, passenger car plates. Mail, residence, 674 Frebis-av.

Richard W. Davey, Short Cleaners, 256 E. Whittier-st, passenger plates only.

Robert Mallory, 800 S. High-st, passenger car plates only.

For a family of four, a gas water heater should be 30 to 50 gallons capacity, an electric one of 50 to 80 gallons. Fast recovery heaters (gas or electric) will make it possible to use the smaller size tank

Paint Can Do Wonders For The Appearance Of A Home

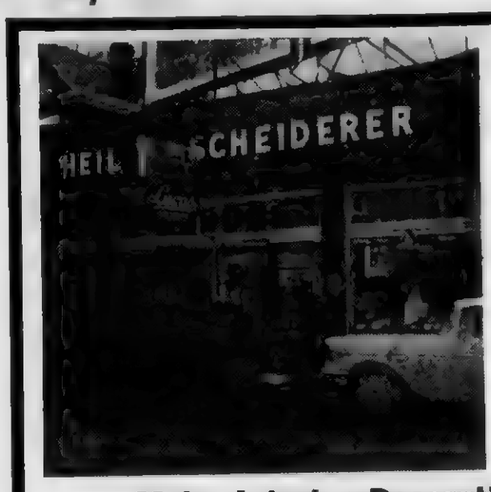
A little paint can give an old home a completely new look. With the use of the proper tones, a small room may be made to appear larger, a large room smaller, a dark room brighter.

Room too small? It will appear spacious when walls are painted in pastels or pale neutral tones. Pale blue, especially, makes any room appear much larger.

Room too large? It will look smaller and look more comfortable and friendly with walls painted a dark shade.

Room too dark? Try painting it with bright light tones and see how much more cheerful it will look.

Ceiling too low? Use a color that is much paler than the walls (even a near white) and you can add inches to its visual height.



By painting two opposing walls of a square room a light shade and the other two a darker tone of the same color, you can give the room dramatic interest.

The colors in your home should be the ones that you enjoy living with. However, you will usually be influenced by some shade which you already have . . . probably in a rug or draperies. The idea is to build your new color scheme around this existing shade.

When making the choice of color for a room, bear in mind its exposure. Rooms with warm exposures, southern for example, call for cool walls of green blue, or gray. Northern exposures, on the other hand, look their best when decorated in pinks, reds, yellows and other warm tones.

Even trim can make a big difference. A simple way to achieve a formal effect in a living room is the use of very light woodwork with dark walls.

Family Comfort Keynote Of Officials; Plan For Some Use This Summer

By Staff Writer

Right now one strolling through the woods on the east side of Fairwood opposite the point where Deschler-av pays its respects could not by a great stretch of the imagination decide what is to happen to those lovely trees and that undergrowth which occurs in some places.

Mentioned Here

True, of course, recently it was announced in this newspaper that the woods on the east side of Fairwood, 26 acres of it, are to become home to a park—a park where the homefolks will play—a community park where the family may go for a bit of quiet diversion on Sunday or on that holiday, or at the end of a hot summer day.

And that "quiet" diversion will literally be true. For this park is not to be a metropolitan affair, pulling people from the extreme distances which form Columbus. That is what I learned when I went to visit Ray S. Dietz, superintendent of the Division of Parks and Forestry. There I learned what kind of a park this is going to be. It is to be a community park, a park where the neighbors can take a brief stroll, and perhaps take a nap on the inviting green blanket covering the ground.

Happy Thought

We talked about simple things—things which mean so much to a tired mother, perhaps, whose little ones have plenty of energy. And I learned that Ray Dietz has the same sort of attitude toward things and people which I have cultivated in my mind and spirit. He wants things that will make little people feel at home and yet have them feel as welcome as the sun they need to play in.

Tot Lot

There's to be a tot lot, considerable size too. Ray Dietz and his associates in developing this program have put much of their energy and enthusiasm into planning—planning things like the swings and teeters, a strong lure for the little tots. Then there's the confidence walk on a "wall" made to fit the child's need, as youngsters acquire confidence in their ability to walk safely on the wall. This is an idea which has come from back in the superintendent's childhood experience. And, too, there will be a piece of railroad "rail" on which tots and older children have great delight in walking—a builder of confidence in effort.

Much Work

Much work has to be done, of course, and completion cannot be had this year, the superintendent pointed out. There's a great deal of under-brush to be cut out. Where there is a growth of new forest the cutters will beware, for, the superintendent told the Leader writer, this is to be a natural—NATURAL—park, where family life will be natural, with no "make-believe"—a spot for diversion and to give mama a chance to nap while youngsters are happily and safely engaged in great discoveries.

Whole Family at Play

Many families, of course, want to enjoy their outing by playing games available to all. And this has been taken into consideration, the superintendent said. That's why games like horseshoes are available. Then there will be croquet courts—just to itemize a few games. There will be others. For, since the thought recurs over and over in talking with the park official there must be facilities for playing and resting for all the family.

This Summer

As previously stated, the total plan cannot be completed this year. But Superintendent Dietz pointed out that much undercutting must be done, veling off accomplished, leveling down and made useful. Yes, a very great deal of work is to be done; in fact, cleaning out, leveling, planting, installing a toilet, provided sewer connections can be provided, all require time. It is no secret that Superintendent Ray S. Dietz and his associates hope and want to make the park a going concern just as quickly as possible as a point of recreation for families in the area.

Pilgrim Bell Choir To 'Ring Out At Community Church

The Pilgrim Bell Choir of the First Congregational Church will "ring" the hymns of the church this Sunday in the regular morning service of the Central Community Church, 72 E Mound st, the pastor Rev. Rudy H Thomas has announced Time of the service is 10.30 a.m. Miss Carol Helm will direct the bell choir.

This group of Junior and Senior High young people is one of the few English handbell ringing groups in the country, the minister announced. The choir rings a 25 note set of bells which were cast by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry of London, England. The bells are cast of special "bell metal," 75 percent copper and 25 percent tin. They are laboriously turned and then filed down to obtain the exact musical pitch desired. This work is done by Ernest Oliver, a man whose family monopolized this art of bell turning since 1760.

The Pilgrim Bell Choir has appeared in several churches and on television. It also participated in the American Handbell Festival at Ipswich, Mass., last year, where they received enthusiastic acclaim for the excellence of their work.

Lincoln Park School Observes Founder's Day

Lincoln Park School PTA held its annual Founder's Day program on Feb. 27. The invocation was given by Mrs. William O'Connor and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mrs. Beatrice Stewart.

A play, "Viewing PTA Pictures," was presented by PTA board members and school children. Members of the cast included Mrs. Richard J Brown, Mrs. Harry Osborn, Mrs Irvin Parsons, Mrs. Jack Davies, Mrs. Harvey Bland, Mrs Lawrence Dodridge, Mrs. Jack Kirby, Mrs William Conley, Mrs. Roy Hawkins, Mrs. Norman Carroll, Mrs Dwight Rife, Mrs. W. L. McGinnis, Mrs. Leroy Gleich, Mrs. Dale Davy, Mrs. Beatrice Stewart, Mrs. Vernon Nicholson, Mrs. Robert Steffens, Mrs. Irvin Rollison, Mrs. Donald Moore, Mrs. Patricia Caston, Brenda Allen, Betty Goines, Robert Miles, and Robert Bohn

Mrs. Richard J Brown presented a gift of appreciation to the following past presidents attending this meeting: Mrs. Burton Sayre, Mrs. Ray Bachtel, Mrs. C. T. Bluff, and Mrs. Jack Kirby Guests from the Columbus Council were Mrs. William F Hoptry, first vice-president, and Mrs. Robert Karrer, recording secretary. Mrs. Richard J. Brown was Founder's Day chairman.

Maennenchor Views St. Patrick's Day

Singers Join In Evangelistic Church Services

Rev. Jacob Swisher pastor of Oakland Pilgrim Holiness Church, has announced the coming of Rev. B A Awe district superintendent of Pilgrim Holiness Churches of Eastern Ohio, to speak at revival services in Oakwood Church, Mar. 10, through Mar. 16

Music and special singing will be in charge of the Gospel Singers, the pastor said. Then, there will be Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Fultz, who will sing each evening Rev. Fultz will preach each evening from Mar. 17 through Mar. 23.

Pastor Swisher said the meetings will begin promptly at 7:30 each evening.

He's In Business

Someone telephoned to Leroy Pflaum, a plumber, a few days ago and had quite a shock. A customer of the Pflaums called him to say she was sorry he had retired. It all came about because of an item in the Leader telling of the wedding anniversary.

Mr. Leroy Pflaum is still in the public at the same address. His father is interested in the business.

'Phone Pioneers In State Celebration

E. (Ernie) H. Blyth

Extensive plans for dinners, hobby and window displays, and special meetings during Telephone Pioneer Week designated by Gov. O'Neill for Mar 3 to 9, have been made by local members of the Telephone Pioneers of America Active among these folk is E (Ernie) H. Blyth, 902 Kelton-av

The Association, with a total roster of 190,000, has 7 000 Ohio members and is comprised of persons having 21 or more years of service in the telephone industry. There are life member clubs for retirees. Welfare and historical committees function efficiently.

Blyth, who retired after 50 years service, is also a member of Humbolt Lodge, F&AM, and the Grotto Chorus as well as being a Knights Templar

Barrett Spring Revue 13th, 14th

The big news at Barrett Junior High School for the next week is the Barrett Spring Revue "Circus On Parade," to be given for the community in the Barrett auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday, Mar. 13 and 14.

The cast includes the skating Hoeflich Sisters, the singing Highland Sisters, and Martha Rader, dancing Larry Carroll, tumbling Sharon Ramey, and Sally Poeschel, snake charming Sharon Hahn, westerners Bonnie Husse and Joan Crabtree, rope-walking Helma Reinke and Barbara Druggan, animal trainer Linda Tapia, aerialist Linda Barton, and others in orchestra, chorus, and dramatics.

Tickets at 50 cents each are on sale at the school and in the community. Barrett Student Council has charge of the ticket distribution.

Fluoride On Ballot May 6

City Clerk Russell Drake announced that the issue of fluoridation will be put before the voters at the May 6 balloting. This announcement resulted from a formal request to the Franklin County Board of Elections to place the issue on the ballot. City Council passed the measure 6 to 1 a week ago.

Confirming previous statements a spokesman in the Board of Elections told the South Side Leader the question definitely will be on the ballot.

Pictures Of Olympics To Be Here

Official films of the 1956 Olympic games have been obtained by the Columbus Recreation Department for showing during the week of Mar; 10, at various recreation centers located in five areas of the city.

For the South Side the films will be shown at Schiller Recreation Center at 8 p m, Thursday, Mar. 13.

These films contain the opening day ceremonies in the Melbourne Stadium with some 110,000 people in attendance, practically all track and field competition, including women's events, some swimming, two boxing bouts, and the basketball game between United States and Russia.

There is no charge for showing these films, it was stated, and special invitation is extended to all high school and college athletes and particularly to all others interested in Olympic competition.

Gray-Y Leagues End Season In Good Games

The South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Leagues ended last week. The Tuesday League finished with a tie between the Reeb Musketeers and the Siebert Scorpions Heyle's Satellites captured the tournament in the Thursday League.

Reeb finished up the season last Tuesday by defeating the Beck Bulldozers, 18 7. Napoleon Hagwood sparked the Musketeers with 14 points to finish the league in a first place tie with Siebert Scorpions The second game of the evening found the Beck Wildcats overcome by the Southwood Trotters, 30 3 Homer Bevins and Gary Holmes led the way for the Trotters with 10 and 15 points respectively. The best game of the evening was between the Siebert Sputniks and Southwood Atoms, with South wood winning 12 6. Bob Truax topped the scorers with four points for Southwood Alan Cook played an excellent game for the Sputniks.

Two Good Games

The tournament in the Thursday League finished up with two good games. Deshler defeated the Stewart Bulldog's 12-3 with a second half splurge Jim Westlake and Roger Peer played outstanding ball for the winners, while Art Parfitt did likewise for the loosers. The big game of the day was a thriller between the Lincoln Park Scarlets and Heyl Satellites. Heyl finally won the see-saw battle, 12 11, with neither team being ahead more than three points at any time Ricky Anderson played an outstanding game for the Satellites as he stalled a great portion of the fourth quarter. Jim Cook and Frank Davis played equally good ball for Lincoln Park.

Now that the actual play is over, all participants are look-

Danger Told From Gas Heaters

The coming of warm weather, with its irregularity, is a source of concern to some city officials, since it is a period in which more deaths from carbon monoxide are expected, according to Assistant Safety Director William I. Lehman The reason advanced is that March and April wet weather causes heavier air and flues are likely to draw inefficiently.

Many people turn off furnaces, the Assistant Safety Director maintains, which is all right, he thinks, but when the furnace goes off and the gas room heaters go to work—that is the time when improperly vented gas heaters may kill

There is a pamphlet setting forth safety requirements, and Assistant Safety Director Lehman has been seeking distribution of the pamphlet. The pamphlet is available at City Hall and, also, from building department inspectors as they make their rounds

Group Meets March 10

The Parent and Family Life Education Study Discussion Group of the Columbus Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will meet Monday, Mar. 10, at 1:15 p.m. at the Board of Education Building.

The topic is "Confidentially Yours . . . Parent to Teacher, Teacher to Parent." Mrs. George Franey is the demonstration chairman and Miss Bernice Setterlin, principal of James Road School, will serve as resource person. Her assistant will be Miss Ann Freeman, cadet principal. The form of the demonstration to be used is the round table.

Parking Plans Said Boon To Business

Property values in the Steelton area will be increased and business flow will be improved with the realization of the parking program promoted by the South Side Business and Industrial Association.

As part of this program, the following proposition was made to the Columbus City Council recently, by Robert E. Horowitz, chairman, Off Street Parking Committee, President Tom Sharp of the South Side Business and Industrial Association, said

The Proposition

This area is one of the oldest retail commercial areas in the city of Columbus and in recent years has expanded, but, of course, parking has not kept pace with the needs of the merchants in the area With the imminence of the parking ban on Parsons av during certain hours of the day the parking problem will become more acute even than it is now Much important industry is located in this area, and the nearness of Lockbourne Army Air Force Base adds to the traffic

Off street parking in this area will help to speed traffic through this congested area as well as provide parking for the customers of merchants

The following plan has been proposed by the South Side Business and Industrial Association and has the approval of the Council of South Side Agencies

The city of Columbus should acquire by appropriation the real estate bounded on the north by Innis-av, on the east by Wager-st, on the south by Marion-rd, on the west by an alley. This area should then be cleared and paved and properly lighted. The cost can be met by the city of Columbus passing a bond issue within the 10 mill limitation or by special bonds. (This cost can then be repaid by an arrangement with merchants or owners of buildings nearby entering into leases with the city of Columbus or by the installation of parking meters by the city.)

It is the considered opinion of the South Side Business and Industrial Association's Parking Committee that a major oil company would be anxious to lease enough of this space provided in the off-street parking for a gasoline station and that the oil company would pay between $350 and $400 per month for this lease This amount of money could also be used to pay for the costs.

The owners of real estate directly north of Hoermle's Appliance Store on the east side of Parsons av have indicated that they will tear down buildings situated thereon and black-top a drive connecting with the parking area Many merchants on the east side of Parsons-av have indicated that they would provide rear entrances to their stores and beautify the rear portions of their buildings In effect, a shopping center in an old established section of the city can be had with the help of parking

By saving an old established commercial and residential area of the city, the city of Columbus

Miss Koch At Funeral, Washington

Miss Marjorie Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs E. J. Koch of 3160 Fair-av, and Mrs Koch went to College Heights Park Md, the first of the week to attend the funeral of Lt George M Riley, who was killed in the crash of a Jet bomber near Lancaster, O, Wednesday of last week. He was assigned to Lockbourne Air Base The funeral was in Arlington Cemetery, Washington, D C

The accident and the Lieutenant's death cancelled arrangements for the marriage of Miss Koch and the Lieutenant which had been set for Apr 19 The couple had made all arrangements for setting up housekeeping following their marriage.

Helping Hand By Cleaners And 2500 Women—

'Thrift Shop' Is Boon To Both The 'Needy' And To Children's Hospital

Mrs R. J Woodward, publicity chairman of Children's Hospital Guild's "Thrift Shop" has called attention to the effectiveness of the Thrifty Shop and the support given by various segments of the business community.

Right now, Mrs. Woodward said, many dry cleaning establishments are cooperating in a program expected to be of "very great help" to the Children's Hospital Mrs Woodward was referring to a plan whereby certain dry cleaning concerns are cleaning, "absolutely free" clothing and other items deposited with the cleaners for sale by the Children's Hospital Twigs at the Thrift Shop, 174 S Fourth st

Mrs Woodward says the hospital reaps the benefit of the financial returns, "while many needy people of the community are provided with good used merchandise which they otherwise would be unable to buy."

The speaker stressed the point that the thrift shop is operated by Twigs, with whatever "profits there may be going into the Children's Hospital

Another Point

"Another point Mrs Woodward has stressed The Children's Hospital Twigs are women devoted to the welfare of patients in Children's Hospital to the supplying of "out of the-ordinary needs." The Twigs are composed of 2500 women divided into 127 Twigs," she said

The Thrift Shop, Mrs Woodward stated, was organized in 1920, and ever since has made its contributions to human needs as arise in Children's Hospital

Local Cleaners

The Cleaners Guild of Columbus has offered to clean free from Feb 17 through Mar 18, any article donated to Children's Hospital Thrift Shop. Donations may be placed in marked boxes in the 44 stores operated by the Cleaners Guild, located in all parts of the City.

Bedding, draperies, slip covers and clothing of all kinds are needed. After cleaning, this merchandise will be delivered to the Thrift Shop, Mrs. Woodward said. The cooperating cleaners in this area are:

Ralph DeVany, DeVany Cleaners, 1281 Parsons-av; Ora DeWeese, DeWeese Cleaners, 831 E Gates-st; C Shield, Shield's Cleaners, 378 E. Sycamore-av; A Weber, Weber Cleaners, 782 E. Whittier, John Hancock, Hancock Cleaners, 189 Thurman-av.

Personal Conduct Effective

PERSONAL bad habits and anti-social practices go back a long way in human history. Man is a very perverse creature, not totally depraved but subject to weaknesses and resentful of restraint and discipline. He is not always willing to do what is for his own good, let alone what is good for others.

Personal conduct is bound up with social results. The strength and character of a people or a nation are determined by the sort of lives the individuals are leading.

The virtues of the good and well-disciplined may offset the weakening effect of the careless, the evil-minded, the self-indulgent. But the weakening effect is there. It lowers a nation's morale and impairs its actual strength.

The corrupt or dissolute man may say that his actions and habits are his own affair, that they concern nobody but himself. But in evil as in good, no man is an island. We are members one of another.

Personal conduct may have far-reaching and incalculable results. Even in times of perplexity, when vision is not always clear, if a man's heart is in the right place and his actions in the right direction, he cannot know how much he may achieve.

The famous passage from Amos and the equally famous passage in which St. Paul, a champion of personal liberty, commends consideration for others are enforced by a dare to stand up for what is right.

St. Peter's injunction to follow the example of Christ is accompanied by the warning that we shall surely give account of our lives to "Him that is ready to judge the living and the dead."

There is plenty of material here to keep us thinking, and plenty that applies to our own [illegible].

State's Official Host

Ohio's Governor Wears Many Hats

by Archer E. Reilly, Jr., Member State Legislature

The Governor of Ohio wears many hats. He is the symbol of state government, the leader of state policy and the chief state executive officer. Any one of these functions constitutes a full time assignment. And he is expected to do all of them well.

Reilly

As the symbol of state government, the Governor is the ceremonial chieftain of the State of Ohio. In this role he is in effect the public representative of the people of the state. This ranges from greeting visiting dignitaries to presiding over public ceremonies, to entertaining various groups at the Governor's mansion.

The state constitution places upon the Governor responsibility for general governmental policy. This broad authority is reinforced by the many laws enacted by the General Assembly involving administrative agencies and departments. It is also broadened by the executive budget system under which the Governor is responsible for the financial plan for the entire state operation. However, it should be noted that he has little or no authority over the legislative and judicial departments; or over the five other state executive officers, who are elected directly by the people.

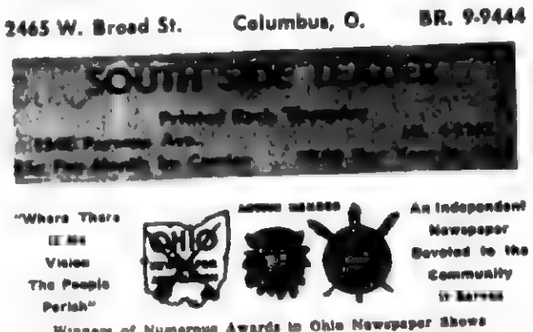
The Governor, as chief executive officer, is responsible for the administration of the Departments under his jurisdiction. They include: Finance, Commerce, Highways, Public Works, Agriculture, Health, Industrial Relations, Education, Public Welfare, Unemployment Compensation, Liquor Control, Taxation, Natural Resources, Highway Safety, Mental Hygiene and the Adjutant General. He appoints the major officials in these departments and thereby assumes responsibility for their performance.

He is a definite force in the enactment of legislation. The Constitution requires that he "communicate at every session by message to the General Assembly the condition of the state and recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient."

This represents the Governor's message to the Legislature, which he usually implements through administration-sponsored bills. He also has the power to veto legislation passed by the General Assembly. However, the bill may be passed over his veto by a vote of three-fifths of the membership of each house.

The Governor also has judicial power. He has responsibility for granting reprieves, pardons and commutations for persons convicted of crimes. Although he works through a member of his office staff, and usually accepts recommendations of the Pardon and Parole Commission, this is among the most arduous of the Governor's responsibilities.

Clearly, the Governorship of Ohio is not constituted as an easy job. However, it is nearly always avidly sought by a number of contenders. The prize usually goes to the one who is able to win his party's primary in a year when that party is in the ascendancy; or to a popular figure running for re-election.



Beginning in 1958 the term will be four years rather than the traditional two; and there will be limitations of two consecutive terms. The position pays $20,000 per year, along with living quarters, transportation and an allowance for entertainment.

However, the office is attractive to aspirants for reasons other than compensation. They include its challenge, honor and opportunity for personal fulfillment.

Salads Take Spotlight As Lenten Meal Aid

Norway salad, featuring kippers and beets, makes a substantial main course for a Lenten lunch.

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

FOR a Lenten luncheon combine kippers, beets and other salad ingredients and top with hard-cooked egg. This salad makes a substantial main dish.

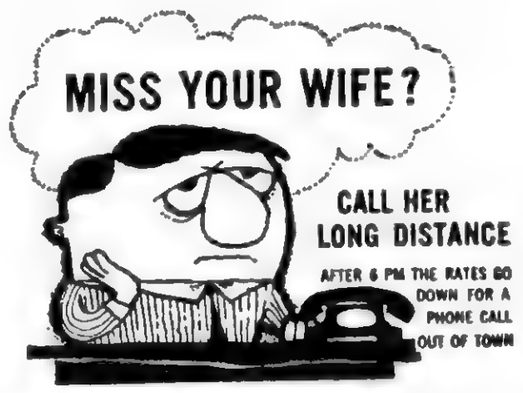
Beet and Kipper Luncheon Salad
(4-5 servings)

Two (3¼-ounce) cans Norway kippers, 1 cup whole midget beets, ¼ cup French dressing, 2 tablespoons commercial sour cream, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 medium apple, pecled and cubed, 1 cup chopped celery, chopped onion and lettuce.

Place beets in bowl and pour dressing over them. Marinate in refrigerator for 2 hours. In separate bowl, combine cream, mayonnaise, lemon juice, salt and pepper.

Peel and cube apple and add immediately to sour cream mixture. Add celery, onion and flaked kippers. Chill.

On each plate make a bed of lettuce. Place 4 beets on the lettuce and spoon the kipper mixture on top. Garnish with slice of hard-cooked egg topped with slice of stuffed olive.



Sardine and Celery Salad
(4-5 servings)

One (3¼-ounce) can Norway sardines, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, ¼ cup mayonnaise, 2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced, 1 cup finely chopped celery, 1 cup drained cooked or canned peas, 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion, crisp lettuce leaves, 1 tomato sliced, salt and pepper to taste, parsley.

Drain sardines, reserving half for use later. Mash first half. Add lemon juice and mayonnaise. Add celery, onion and peas, season, and toss all together lightly.

Arrange in mounds on lettuce leaves. Garnish with egg slices, tomato slices and parsley. Top with remaining whole sardines. Chill. Serve with mayonnaise or salad dressing on the side.

ISSUE SAFETY RULES ON VENTED HEATERS

The recent up-swing in deaths in the city caused by carbon-monoxide poisoning has moved the city's Department of Public Safety to issue a list of rules to follow to insure the safe use of approved vented heaters. They are as follows:

1. The heater, connected with a stove pipe, should be vented to a good chimney.
2. Make sure that the chimney is clean and is drawing as well as it should be.
3. See that the vent pipe goes up hill from the heater to the chimney.
4. Use a safety thimble to keep the pipe from going too far into the chimney. Seal around the pipe where it enters the chimney with cement or plaster.
5. See that there is a cleanout opening with a tight-fitting cap in the chimney located under the vent pipe.
6. There should be some outside air available to the space where the heater is located.
7. Have a qualified licensed installer connect and adjust your heater. This may cost a few dollars, but it may save many dollars in lower fuel bills and MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.

WHAT'S FOR LUNCH?

Are the lunch box carriers in your family beginning to complain about sandwich monotony? Nothing gets more monotonous than opening one's lunch box day after day and finding the same thing in it—especially if the same thing lacks appetite appeal in the first place.

Packing lunches for school children or for the man of the house is a challenging task any time, but becomes even more so at this time of year. In fact, lunches eaten at home may fail to meet basic needs. The problem of providing the child enough of the right foods in a fashion that makes eating a pleasure is not limited to packed lunches.

A Good Lunch, nutritionists say, should include one-half pint of milk, two servings of vegetables and fruits, one main dish serving such as meat, cheese, eggs, fish, fowl, dried beans or peanut butter, and a serving of bread and butter.

Some Suggestions—You might include carrot, celery, or turnip sticks, stuffed celery, cauliflowerets, potato salad in a jar, vegetable soup in a thermos, tomato juice, applesauce or baked apple, any fresh fruit that is easy to eat out-of-hand, canned or dried fruits in a jar, pineapple chunks strung on toothpicks, or a small sack of raisins.

In creating sandwiches, imagination is about the only limiting factor. Here the main dish and the bread and butter may be combined. Some other ideas are hard cooked or deviled egg, fried chicken, chili con carne in thermos, baked beans in a jar, and cheese cubes. By varying the form in which the meat, cheese, eggs and so on are prepared from day to day, you can give your youngster food that is not only nutritious, but fun to eat.

Tuck In A Surprise — A good general rule for planning lunch box meals is: Pack something hearty, something sweet, something good to drink, and something for a surprise.

LET YOUR FREEZER HELP

Shorten the lunch packing ritual by making sandwiches in quantity and freezing.

*Combinations That Freeze Well

1. Combine 3 cups ground cooked ham, ⅓ cup salad dressing, 1 cup pickle relish, 2 tsp. horseradish. Mix well and chill. Makes 3½ cups — enough for 16 sandwiches.
2. Chop hard cooked egg yolks. Add small amounts of chopped cheese or cooked ham, drained pickle relish, and just enough soft creamed butter to make it spread easily. (This is a good way to use extra egg yolks you may have on hand).
3. Nippy cheese spread — 2 tbl. butter, ½ pound soft American cheese, finely ground; 2 tbl. thin cream, 3 tbl. lemon juice, 1 tsp. dry mustard, ½ tsp. salt; few grains Cayenne. Cream the butter, add other ingredients and mix until smooth. Makes 1½ cups of filling for 6-8 sandwiches.

*Spread both sides of the bread generously with butter or margarine to avoid sogginess.

Well developed river systems drained the land before the glaciers came into Ohio. These rivers had broad flood plains formed from alluvium, the sediment washed down from the watershed above.

Columbus Council Looks At Bus Service And Sewers

Columbus City Council Monday night took action on two measures aimed at improving service to the South and Southeast areas of the city.

The first gave permission to Columbus Transit Co. to break-off separate the Arlington-W. Mound-st transit line and the Frebis and W. Fifth line. The two lines will be reformed into (1) the Frebis-Arlington line and (2) the W. Mound-W. Fifth line.

In another action, Council authorized re-advertising for bids on a section of the Alum Creek trunk sewer south of Fair-av.

Bids were taken on Oct. 17, 1955, but easements could not be obtained and no contract was let.

Judge Nixes Police Pay

A Common Pleas Court decision Tuesday by Judge George B. Marshall ruled out any additional pay for four Marion Township constables for the period between the dissolution of the township by annexation and the expiration of their contracts.

The four officers maintained they had a contract with township trustees which ran to Dec. 31, 1967, but that their pay was halted when Marion Township lines were co-ordinated with Montgomery Township (Columbus) on Oct. 28, 1957.

The officers, William R. Bowman, John W. Branson, Allen D. Courtright and Arthur E. Morrison, asked the court to award them $3805.50 in amounts ranging from $941 to $963 for pay between Oct. 28 and Dec. 31.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Columnist Wins Opportunity To Be 'Arkansas Traveler'

Rod Cochran

Columbusite Erwin A. Bauer made my mouth water last Spring telling me about the exquisite bass fishing in the Chain-Of-Lakes around Hot Springs, Ark.

He had just returned from a week's fishing and competing in the annual fishing derby down there. Even with his phenominal catches, he didn't win a prize. At the time, I made a mental note to myself that if I lived long enough I, too, would sample the fishing in Hot Springs National Park.

Imagine my pleasant surprise then, at my winning such a trip at the last meeting of The Outdoor Writers of Ohio. I never won anything before, but I sure started off with a dandy.

Joe Spinar had graciously given a week's stay at Knollwood Lodge, on the shore of Lake Hamilton, as a door prize. Last year's "big prize" was won by Charlie McClellan, Ironton outdoor writer, and he went to International Falls for a fine trip. I figured many a ticket would be drawn before mine came up — but I was wrong.

Two Derbies Slated

I wasted little time in letting Mr. Spinar at Knollwood Lodge know that I would come during part of the fishing derby. Actually, there are two derbies. The Amateur Derby runs from Apr. 10 through the 19. Fishermen with a little more confidence in their skill enter the Professional Derby on Apr. 23 through 25.

Local fishermen do not have an advantage over visiting fishermen, since there are two divisions and the two groups do not compete against each other. Sensational prizes are awarded at these derbies, and the event is one of the most celebrated fishing festivities on inland waters.

The mountain scenery in the upland of Arkansas, I am told, will be rather spectacular in April. The lakes and park are quite near Hot Springs, which has many attractions of its own for vacationers. I'm getting anxious to feel a little of that southern sunshine, and soak in the mineral baths at Hot Springs.

Even though the trip is over a month away, I've accumulated enough road maps to start a gas station. I know of more routes across the Mississippi River than Daniel Boone ever discovered.

Joe has written me that a cabin will be waiting whenever I get there. He has promised that a boat will be tied up at the dock, and an outboard warmed up and ready to go.

It's enough to make a fellow start to limber up and get the cobwebs out of his casting arm.

Walt Lauffer, Entertainment Chairman for The Central Ohio Anglers' and Hunters' Club, told me that a couple of extremely interesting meetings are coming up. On Mar. 11 J. E. Von Maur, of Sports, Inc., along with Jimmy Crum and Barney Oldfield will present the exciting film "Big Bear Hunt."

On Apr. 8 Ralph Seaman of The Carling Conservation Club will show and narrate four outstanding hunting and fishing films made under his direction. Seaman is known throughout the country for his work in promoting conservation.

Paul Hanley, president of the club, reports that all members and guests should be certain to circle these two dates on their calendars. Visitors are also invited to these meetings. They will be held on the clubgrounds on Little Darby Creek.

Gold Star Mothers To Chillicothe

Columbus Chapter 1, American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, Mar. 6, at 7:45 p.m., in the Veterans Memorial building, Room 201.

On Mar. 10 members will help with a ward party at Chillicothe Hospital. This will be under the direction of Mrs. Frank F. Distelzweig, Sr., president of the chapter and VAVS representative at the hospital for the Department of Ohio of Gold Star Mothers. Mrs. Distelzweig will also entertain members of the chapter at the home of her son, Frank Jr., 809 Heyl-av, on Mar 20. This will be a social with games honoring members who have birthdays in March, according to Mrs. C. May, publicity chairman.

We have been very busy with funeral work. It makes us sad to have customers and friends lose loved ones, but we are glad we can do our part to soften the blow by making their floral offerings as beautiful and fresh as possible. Flowers express the love and sympathy you have for the bereaved — say for you that which we all find so hard to put into words.

New parents are Mr. & Mrs. John Nesser, Jr., who have added a little daughter to their family of boys, and Mr. & Mrs. David McQuade. Mr. & Mrs. Al Alibrando and Mr. & Mrs. Paul Hartley, who have new baby daughters . . . our congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Albert Pflaum who have just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary . . . birthday greeting to Mrs. Ethel Edwards and our own Mary Beth . . . get well wishes to Walter Poenisch, Henry Barry, Mrs. Estelle Pugh, Jeff Feil and James Mobley.

Call us the next time you need flowers for any occasion. We will do our best to please you.

Congratulations will be the order of the day on Mar. 9 for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Anderson, 1091 Ellsworth-av. The Andersons will be celebrating their 50th year of wedded life on that date, and an open house, 2 to 5 p.m., will mark the event. Two daughters, one grandson, and one great-grand daughter round out the family circle

March 2 and 3 were big days for Johnny McGrew, 219 E. Whittier-st. On the second, he became a year older and on the third, he entered the Army. Good luck in your new way of life, Johnny.

Didn't think of it sooner, but belated congratulations go with the South Side Leader that's mailed to 6261 N. Golden West-av, Temple City, Calif. residence of Lu Davis. Hope the day was a good one, Lu.

Get well cards are appropriate at this time for Scott Buller, 326 Frebis-av, who has been in University Hospital. Many of the "gentle" readers know Scott's mom, Essie, as she's quite active in many South Side affairs.

Twig Benders CCL will meet in the home of Mrs. Jack Stevens, 758 Heyl-av, Mar. 6 at 8 p.m. There will be a speaker and a film shown on Cancer.

Mrs. Charles G. Brockmeyer, 886 Oakwood-av, is the South area chairman for the Easter Seal Drive this year Nine churches and 24 organizations are assisting with the project.

Our sympathy to the families of Mrs. Zoe Harlas, Elbert Craven, Bob Benjamin, and William Edward Hicks.

Congratulations to Ken Fowler for being named All-City basketball guard and to Waldo Drake and James Marshall, for achieving second team and honorable mention on the same mythical team.

Circle 12, St. Francis School of Nursing, will meet in the home of Mrs. James Duckworth 1369 S. 5th on Mar. 9 at 5:30 p.m. There will be a dinner and euchre party for members and their husbands.

A postal card from Houston, Tex. gave us the information that Wilma Barton, 341 Innisav, made it to Texas alright, but after much delay. Engine trouble made the trip 17 hours longer than necessary. Oh yes the baby is darling.

"Secretary of the Year" is the honor bestowed on Lucille Stegmiller, 437 Deshler, by her sister members of the Columbus Chapter, National Secretaries Association. She is one of 14 certified professional secretaries in the Columbus area. Selection is made on the basis of experience, poise, appearance, and participation. She will be a competitor in the national convention to be held in July at Minneapolis.

A happy birthday on Mar. 7 to Clifford Berger, 615 S. 6th-st.

The third anniversary of the First Organic African Violet Society of Columbus will be celebrated with a Mar. 6 meeting and luncheon at Kuenning's Suburban Restaurant. President of the group is Mrs. Lewis Kah, 1010 S. 22nd-st.

Dorothy Weakley, 1440 Champion-av, asked that we pass along her thanks to all the fine folks who made her hospital visit more pleasant with cards, flowers, and visits so we'll do just that.

An added year is celebrated this week by these youngsters . . . Claudia Dover, 56 Jenkins, Mar. 12; Clarence Travis, 1951 Gantz-rd, Mar. 10; Linda Ross, 1617 S. 6th-st, Mar. 6; Frank Szuk, 360 Hanford, Mar. 7; William Reed, 20 W. Hinman, Mar. 10; Marcy Goodfleisch, 3224 S. High-st, Mar. 11; Mary Beth Whitacre, 158 Southwood-av, Mar. 6; Priscilla Fricke, Mar. 3.

Ruth Circle, Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, will meet Mar. 11, 7:30 p.m., at the church. Mrs. George Stertzer and Mrs. J. O. Mellar will be the hostesses.

Being a hospital patient is now part of Ann Whalen's experience. Little Ann, 11, of 224 Frebis-av, was in Mt. Carmel Hospital earlier in the week for surgery. The oldest daughter of Jim and Mary Ann Whalen is a pupil at St. Leo's.

Trudeau Guild 10 will celebrate its anniversary meeting with a dinner at the Southern Hotel, Wednesday, Mar. 12, at 6:30 p.m.

Oakwood Methodist Church WSCS meetings for the immediate future are as follows: Bennett, hostess, Miss Evelyn Cassidy, 863 Lockbourne-rd, 8 p.m., on Mar. 11; Bethlehem, Mar. 12, 1 p.m., home of Mrs. William Scofield, 1359 Oakwood-av; Esther Hall, Mar. 11, 1 p.m., hostess, Mrs. Carl Hicks, 698 Oakwood-av; Ethel Harpst, Mar. 11, 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. L. H. Hampshire, 440 Chatham-rd; Marcy, Mar. 12, 8 p.m., 750 Oakwood-av, home of Mrs. Richard Newell.

Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, has a fine menu on tap for the Mar. 12 dinner. Cast your eyes on this list of food: Steak and mushrooms, mashed potatoes and gravy, Harvard beets, cottage cheese, bread, butter and coffee. The marching unit of the chapter is in charge of the dinner. The place? 36 W. Sycamore-st.

Seems like we've used all our items, so we'll be getting along. The phone, as per usual, is HI. 4-1051, so do call us, won't you? Till next edition then, 'tis

GIRL SCOUT SUNDAY, MAR. 9

Rev. Glendon Herbert of the Ohio Avenue EUB Church has extended an invitation to the Girl Scouts to attend the 10:30 a.m. worship service on Girl Scout Sunday, Mar. 9. Five troops from this area plan to attend. They are: Intermediate Troop 150, co-leaders Mrs. Leah Fletcher and Mrs. Cyril Goldston; Intermediate Troop 615, leader Mrs. Guy A. Cochran, and Mrs. Elmer Bingham, assistant leader; Brownie troop 754, leader, Mrs. Frederick Mauger, and assistant leader, Mrs. Rodney Tobias; Brownie Troop 446, leader Mrs. Wiley Stein and assistant leader, Mrs. Harvey Akers, and Brownie Troop 974, Leader, Mrs. Gene Morris and assistant leader, Mrs. William Thomas. Fifty scouts are expected to attend. All Girl Scouts are urged to attend the church of their choice, in uniform, on Girl Scout Sunday.

INTERMEDIATE TROOP 615

Mrs. Guy A. Cochran, leader, Mrs. Elmer Bingham, assistant leader.

The members of this troop are working on their second class rank requirements. In keeping with International Friendship month they chose the program field of International Friendship.

On Feb. 27, Mrs. Robert Noggle told the troop about her country. Mrs. Noggle was born, raised, and schooled in Guatemala. She told about the country's clothing and inhabitants and also showed items of handmade clothing and jewelry. Mrs. Noggle showed a hand-woven shopping bag made of natural hemp and a black evening bag interwoven with gold. She told of the Indians and the mountains in which they live and their adobe dwellings. The principal language is Spanish.

S. Hi Acts At Mohawk

Mohawk Junior High School is sponsoring a variety show, Thursday, Mar. 13, in the school auditorium. Randal W Near, instrumental music director at South High School, is in charge of the show, which will be composed entirely of acts from South.

The SHS dance band will be featured and will supply the background for the acts which include vocalists, singing groups, skits, and dancers. There will be an afternoon performance for the students at Mohawk and an evening performance is open to the public.

Tickets for the show are 50 cents and may be bought at the door. The show starts at 8 p.m. and will last approximately an hour and a half, the publicity department wrote.

Robert Painter's Research Aired By World Scientists

Interest and diligence in science have paid off for a 1942 West High graduate.

Robert Painter, 33-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Painter who live in the South Side at 1067 Studer-av, is gaining acclaim on both sides of the Atlantic for his work in cancer research.

His paper bearing the awe-inspiring title, "Inhibition of HeLa Cell Growth by Intranuclear Tridit-", is soon to be published in an English magazine, "The English Journal of Nature," and an American publication "Science Magazine." It will also be read in Switzerland to a prominent group of scientists.

Painter is now doing research at the Brookhaven National Laboratories in Brookhaven, N. Y., under the auspices of the

Robert Painter

Atomic Energy Commission. About his research, Dr. Painter has stated that "it is still in the test tube stage."

Was Graduated at 16

While at West High, Painter was interested in all sports, although his preference ran to baseball and basketball. While too small to make the teams, he distinguished himself in the classroom, graduating at the age of 16.

He entered Ohio State's college of pharmacy the following fall where he studied until enlisting in the army for a two-year tour. He returned to the university for his Master's and then went to Maryland for research.

He returned to State for his Ph.D in bacteriology which he received in 1955. He has been employed at Brookhaven since. He and Mrs. Painter have two children.

A Minister Gone South

Local People, Florida Sun, Wreck, Bring Memories

By Oliver Gedeist

The real news part of this story is that Mrs. E. C. Miller, 681 Gates-st. is able to be up and around, although still bearing the burden of some of the many hurts which came to her a few weeks ago while she was riding in a friend's car near Deland, Fla. Like nearly all automobile smash-ups, the one which came Mrs. Miller's way left its mark—and she is still partly in cast. Not even the boasted Florida climate could relieve her of the burdens of the hurts.

Promises

Right here, now, is a good time to slip in the name of Ray Huff—that is the man so many of us loved, the pastor of Thurman Methodist Church, who went, with Mrs. Huff, to Florida last year to live, He was retiring.

Before he went away Rev. Huff promised me and I promised him to keep a word on a post card, at the least, traveling between us. We meant well. For him, there's no excuse. For me, why, of course, there's excuse—where would I get that much money?

Get 'em Together

But let's get back to Mrs. Miller, and Mr. Miller, too. Mrs. Miller went on her journey to Florida without Mr. Miller—he just did not see why people would get worked up over a simple thing like climate. Well, he had to go to Florida after Mrs. Miller had been there three or four weeks. Mrs. Miller was in the hospital.

It was somewhere right along here that I raised a point upon which we just can't agree. I asked him if he didn't find it entrancing to ride down St. John's River with a wire screen overhead to ward off snakes dropping from overhanging limbs. He simply couldn't find a thing in such a circumstance to get a thrill about. He thought the fireplace at home a happy substitute for Florida. Well, there seemed to be a little note of . . . well, of course, there are some alluring things there . . . and I'm guessin' that Mr. Miller will be going again . . . and not because his wife has had another accident. Incidentally, she was not driving at the time of the accident.

No Alligators

Because I remember vividly my first trip on the St. John's River, I brought up the question of alligators which we used to fight off from time to time in our trips down the river out of Jacksonville. Mr. Miller thought that "my" alligators could go and join the rattlesnakes and moccasins—he didn't want any of them.

Back To Pain

But we left Mrs. Miller in pain—in the hospital. Of course she's out now, bless her. When I began to talk about Rev. Ray Huff, Mrs. Miller found it interesting . . . We have the same affection for the former local pastor . . . a man's man and devoted to his calling.

Doubling Up

Rev. and Mrs. Huff are residents of Orange City, Fla. They are about six miles south of Deland, where oranges grow (sometimes), and where the sun is warm . . . well, really, now, I mean, the sun shines — sometimes. However, in my 'teen years I was in Deland where for three days and nights the thermometer stood at 20 above. It was rough. I had no overcoat. I understand Rev. Ray Huff's lot is much better than mine was back there . . . I had no overcoat and could find no one giving them away . . . O, well, I've outgrown the situation . . . got one when no one was looking!

Full Time

When the Huffs left Columbus they expected to have only a part time activity in the new small church in their little town. But . . . wouldn't you just know he would do it . . . he (Ray, that is) has a growing church on his hands, enlargement of the property is reported as necessary . . . a lovely home for the pastor and his wife . . . Ray radiated affection and drew people to him, and he seems to have the same influence over people down there in Orange City and Deland area.

Twill Get To Him

This massive giving you a picture of one of our former fellow townsmen will reach Ray and Mrs. Huff by the indirect route of Mrs. Miller, who will send it down to our good friends who retired into service and see little chance to ever get out from under . . . they're that kind of people!

Links Busy In Annual Project

The 1958 Links Propect is "again in full swing" according to Miss Charlotte Reed, publicity chairman. Links is the annual Y-Teen Service Project which gives Y-Teen girls the opportunity to work 10 hours between Feb. 15 and Mar. 22 as a volunteer in nurseries, hospitals, settlement houses, the Red Cross, and many other social agencies in the community. Through a personal interview at the YWCA each girl chose the place where she wished to work, out of about 30 participating agencies, according to her interests and skills.

Through her service in Links the Y-Teen is "linked" to her community, to new ideas, and to new friends. The 10 hours of service which she contributes to the agency, multiplied by the approximately 200 girls participating, add up to many extra hours which the hospital or Red Cross or nursery could not otherwise perform.

Provides Experience

In return, the work gives the Y-Teen a chance to branch out into places she might never otherwise see, and the satisfaction of knowing she has helped people who need her help, and the appreciation of those she has served. On Sunday, Mar. 23, every Y-Teen girl in the city who has participated will be recognized at a special recognition service and tea, when she will receive a Links merit certificate for a job well done.

may be able to secure funds from the federal government in the future in the course of urban redevelopment planning which will assume more importance in the immediate future. A campaign can and will be waged by the South Side Business and Industrial Association urging building owners to modernize and preserve buildings as well as residences in the area.

An estimate of acquisition by the Omar Realty Co. made by Sam Skunza, who is a member of the South Side Business and Industrial Association, is made a part of this proposal and is attached. (He also includes additional real estate which would be desirable but more costly at this time.)

It is estimated that 300 autos could be parked in the proposed

At this time the south side of the city of Columbus is in the midst of an expansion of both business and residential building which will continue in the future as this area is the last to be recognized by the builders and commercial interests of the city as having a potential. Therefore it is apparent that off-street parking is vitally necessary if this old commercial area is to survive. This parking plan can set the precedent for other old established business and residential areas of the city.

HonorSouthwood Past Presidents

Southwood School PTA had its Founders' Day program Feb. 27 at 1:30 p.m. A short business meeting was followed by the "surprise" program.

The program was based on the T-V program "It Could Be You." Excerpts were read from the lives of five members who had been on the board five years or more and had never been an officer, but "an ever-faithful helping hand whenever it was needed." Each honored member was given a PTA membership pin.

Mrs. Carl Weber, PTA past president, honored Mrs. Herbert Hampton and Mrs. Robert Franz. Mrs. Elmer Martee honored Mrs. Samuel Kleinline and Mrs. Charles Dayton presented Mrs. D. J. Dreizigacker with her pin. Mrs. Ray Conkle, vice-president, honored Mrs. Ralph Denney

Past presidents of Southwood PTA were also honored. They included Mrs. Glenn Buller, '52-'53, '53-54; Mrs. Carl Weber, '54-'55, '55-'56; Mrs. Elmer Martee, '56-57; Mrs. Charles Dayton, '57-'58.

Mrs. Sheldon Cox was the special guest of the occasion and gave the invocation. Refreshments were served in the form of cake decorated with blue and yellow flowers. Mrs. Frank Szuk was chairman of the program.

Bulldogs' Victory To Lead To Arena

By Turk DeVicter

South High School earned a trip to St. John's Arena by lacerating the cords with which Linden bound the Bulldogs during the season, with a 58-53 overtime vein-strainer.

South dropped the knife with 2:40 left in the extra period in the form of Larry Western's long jumpshot from outside to blast South into a 55-53 lead. Ken Fowler then splashed three charity tosses through, the last two falling in with 8 seconds remaining, to secure victory.

The Bulldogs jumped to a 6-4 advantage in the opening quarter and moved to a 12-5 lead on Jim Marshall's set and two free tosses. Mike Vance's drive-in lifted the Panthers within one mark of South at the first buzzer, 12-11.

Took Over Lead

The Pesky Panthers took over the lead on Jack Strapp's jump shot at second quarter opening and waded to a 27-22 lead before Roder Foltz's pair of free throws pulled South within three points of Linden, 27-24, at the half's close.

Jim Bowman's foul shots at 5:38 remaining in the third round heaped up Linden's loftiest lead 38-35, but South answered back as Foltz finessed in three deuces to direct the Southenders to a 42-42 argument with Linden at the quarter's close.

In the fourth section Drake, Marshall and Fowler, who sat out the second and third quarter because of three personals, mounted up in the first quarter, collaborated to bruise to a 49-46 lead with 4:14 remaining.

Tip-In Did It

Gary Staat's free throw and jamming Jim Bowman's tip in balanced the ledgers 49-49. Linden's Staat again strapped the Bulldogs as he bombed in a one-hander from 30 feet out to put Linden up 50-49 at the 3:20 timing.

Linden was dealt a titanic blow when 6'5" Jim Bowman, who was a bear on the boards and Linden's leading threat, fouled out with three minutes ticking off on the clock.

After Bowman's exit the crippled Lindenites froze the ball, but to no avail, as set-shot artist Ray McDaniel tied up Linden's William Elkins and tipped the jump ball into friendly arms.

Drake drilled point number 53-51 for Linden at 2:10 was left in regulation play.

Poise Misplaced

Both teams lost their poise in the final seconds as five turnovers were called in 50 seconds. Despite such shoddy play Elkins threw Linden's tieing two through with 15 seconds on the lights and set up the storybook ending which sent South down the tourney trail to St. John's arena, only to be chastised by a frenzied flock of "kids" from Westerville Monday night to end their season.

Death Ends Local Jewelers Long Career

Death last week removed a long-time local business man from South Side activities. Ephraim J. Schottenstein died Wednesday of last week at his home of a heart attack. He lived at 1019 Geers-av and was the owner of Steelton Jewelers, 1860 Parsons-av.

The deceased founded the jewelry business bearing his name in 1928. The business has continued without interruption until his death.

Survivors are his wife, Beatrice; a sister, Mrs. Esther Robbins of Columbus; a brother, William H. Shott of New York City.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Snider Memorial Chapel, 3230 E. Main-st, with Dr. Jerome D. Folkman officiating. Burial was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Junior Cleric Preaches At St. Paul's Lutheran

W. Eric Rauch

Eric Rauch, 986 Jaeger-st, a son of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and a junior in the Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary of Capital University, will speak Sunday, Mar. 16, at 8 and 10:30 a.m. at St. Paul's Church on the theme, "Friend or Foe of the Cross." Mr. Rauch is a South Side boy and a graduate of South High School. This will be his first sermon before his home congregation. He has two more years of study and a year of internship before him before being ordained to the Lutheran ministry.. The young man is the son of Mrs. Rozika Rauch with whom he makes his home.

Former Principal Is S. High PTA Speaker

"Career Night" is the announced subject for the Mar. 19 meeting of the PTA of South High School. This information was made public when the group's president, Mrs. Donald C. Fischer, announced through Mrs. Paul Mason, publicity chairman, that one of the city's leading educators will be the speaker at the Mar. 19 meeting.

Theme Set

The theme for the evening is to be "Gateway to Vocational Opportunity," according to Mrs. Robert Karrer, program chairman, who will introduce the speaker of the evening. "South High PTA," said Mrs. Karrer, "has gone to a man who is of the South High School. He was its principal and was lifted out and set in the higher councils of the school system."

The Speaker

"The speaker for the evening will be a former principal of South High School, and it is expected that a record audience will be present to hear former Principal C. L. Dumaree, now assistant superintendent of administration at the board of education, Mrs. Karrer said.

Other Leaders

Mrs. Karrer will introduce the other conference leaders as follows: Professor Charles B. Hicks from Ohio State University, department of business organization, will conduct the conference on secretarial and commercial work; Kenneth Friscoe from the American Airlines, Inc., will lead the conference on pilot and airline hostesses; a representative from Battelle Memorial Institute will conduct the conference on engineering, science and chemistry; Mrs. H. L. Nighman, head of the Columbus Practical Nurses School, will conduct the conference on nurses; Sergeant Richard Griffiths, from the Columbus Police Department, and Officer Henry Albrecht, from the juvenile bureau, will conduct the conference on police work. The conference leaders will be given designated rooms for their session. The conference period will last for 30 minutes.

Following the conference session there will be a social hour, Mrs. Paul Mason, publicity chairman, told the Leader.

Long-St 'Y' St. Pat Dance

On Mar. 14 the Friday Social Dance of the YMCA, 40 W. Long-st, will sponsor a St. Patrick Day dance. The music for dancing, interspersed with a large selection of old Irish tunes, will be furnished by Bob Rockey and his orchestra and the audience will be led in singing of the old favorite songs by "Michele".

Gra-Y Basketball Party Is Huge Success

The South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Award Party ended as a success last Thursday, according to Jim Wagner of the "Y". John Colmery, head basketball coach at South High School, spoke to the boys on the value of good sportsmanship in their play now as well as later on in life. Colmery presented the awards to the two top sportsmanship teams, Lincoln Park Scarlets and Siebert Sputniks and then to the individual sportsman from each club.

Receiving Awards

Accepting these awards were Walter Steffens, Beck Bulldozers; Bill Beamenderfer, Beck Wildcats; Tom Ballinger, Deshler Panthers; Roy Russell, Heyl Port Chops; Sonny Hunt, Heyl Satellites; Darrell Sowers, Lincoln Park Grays; Scott Brown, Lincoln Park Scarlets; Larry Anderson, Reeb Musketeers; Mike Rickard, Siebert Scorpions; Alan Cook, Siebert Sputniks; Tom Flockin, Southwood Atoms; Jack Grubb, Southwood Floor Trotters; Sam Shannon, Stewart Bulldogs.

Individual Sales

Taffy Sales awards were also presented during the program. E. P. Becker, member of the World Service Committee of the Board of Management of the South Side Branch YMCA, made these presentations to the top club seller, Beck Gra-Y.

Top individual salesmen from the different clubs were Walter Steffens, Beck; Dave Wiechers, Southwood; Paul Hunt, Heyl; Eugene Adams, Lincoln Park; Rodney Miller, Deshler; Arthur Parfitt, Stewart; Scotty Snyder, Siebert; James Reinhardt, Reeb; and Roger Liming, Reeb.

Southwood's Bob Truax

Bob Truax of Southwood Gra-Y Club spoke in behalf of the combined Gra-Y Clubs in appreciation to the club advisors, South Side YMCA, and all of the volunteer help that went together to make the league and party possible.

Entertainment supplied by Tom Patterson of the Big Brothers Association was a magic show that the crowd of 150 boys will never forget, a spokesman said. The laughs were just as numerous as the tricks as Mr. Patterson used the spectator participation to advantage. The party closed with toastmaster advisor Philip Courtad of Heyl Elementary announcing that refreshments were ready to be served. The party was subsidized by the Amerigo Sr. Club of the South Side Branch YMCA.

Golden Age Club Meets Tuesday

There will be coffee and tea and soft drinks and milk for the kiddies.

The evening will hold plenty of activity with a pie and cake walk, games of all kinds, movies for the children, and a bazaar and white elephant table for the ladies. Country store will supply the family shelves with an assortment of food at bargain prices, and Tom Mills, young North High magician and cartoonist will entertain with his magic acts and drawings.

An advence ticket sale for the benefit of the school children, is planned. Tickets will also be on sale at the school the night of the affair.

'Y' Park Supper Honors Barrett Cager Squad

The Barrett Junior High basketball squad was honored recently with a supper at "Y" Park. Following the supper, letters were distributed to the following boys: Kenneth Lee, Kenneth Merriman, Ferd Gaulke, Ronald Bell, Albert Wilson, and Joe Reynolds and Managers Tom Lewis and Larry Hancock.

Following the presentation of letters, John Shelton, reserve basketball coach at South High School, made a brief address following which a movie was shown presenting highlights of South High games.

The supper was attended by the principal and several members of the Barrett staff. The supper and the entire program was a joint effort of the Barrett PTA and the Barrett faculty.

Siebert PTA Meets 18th

Siebert School PTA meeting will be held Tuesday, Mar. 18, at 7:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Donald Salser, publicity chairman. Invocation will be given by Rev. Everett Mosslander of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church.

The fifth and sixth grade students will sing a few selections under the direction of Alan Trottman.

Siebert is honored to have as its guest speaker on "TV or Not TV" the director of the department of education and audio-visual services, John H. Sittig. Open discussion will follow.

Refreshments will be served by the social committee, Mrs. Salser said.

Composed Of Seven Justices

Supreme Court's Main Duty Is Administration Of Justice

By State Representative, Archer E. Reilly Jr.

The Ohio Supreme Court is the highest court in the state. It is established by the state constitution which also provides for its membership.

Reilly

The court is composed of a chief justice and six associate judges. It hears all cases as a group. The members include Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt, Lakewood; and Judges William L. Hart, Alliance; Charles B. Zimmerman, Springfield; James Garfield Stewart, Cincinnati; John M. Mathias, Columbus, and James F. Bell, London. Cases are heard Tuesday through Friday each week, beginning promptly at 9 a. m.

Supreme Court hearings are impressive. Just before Court opens the judges file in together and take their chairs on a dais, which is raised about a foot above the rest of the room.

The courtroom itself is steeped in dignity and history, with its high ceilings, deep maroon rug, marble decorations and heavy brass chandeliers.

The bailiff opens court with the traditional chant, "Hear ye, hear ye, the honorable Supreme Court of the State of Ohio is now in session." The Chief Justice reads the title of the case and calls on the attorney for the party bringing the action to state his case.

What kind of case will it be? Generally, it will be an appeal from one of the lower courts. It may be a motion asking the Court to hear an appeal, or it may be a hearing on "the merits" — the actual appeal of a case.

However, it may be the first hearing of a case. If so, it will likely be a matter involving a public official in the conduct of some phases of his duties (known in legal language as mandamus, quo warranto, prohibition or habeas corpus.

Whatever the nature of the case, oral argument will be controlled by a time limit — 15 minutes on motions to certify or leave to appeal, 30 minutes for hearings on the merits — and will be uninterrupted except for occasional questions by one of the judges from the bench.

Both sides will have filed briefs which include detailed analyses of the law relative to their respective legal positions.

Cases are decided at the Court's regular conferences held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

After a decision is made one judge is assigned the task of writing the opinion by the Chief Justice. The opinion sets forth the reasons for the Court's decision.

Another judge may, on his own volition, write a concurring opinion; and another may write a dissenting opinion. However, the opinion represents the official position of the Court on the issue or issues in question. After a decision is handed down, if a party is dissatisfied, he may file an application for rehearing.

A majority of the members of the Supreme Court is necessary to constitute a quorum, or to pronounce a decision, except as otherwise provided in the constitution. If there is an equal division of judges in any case under review in the Supreme Court, the judgement of the lower court is approved. Moreover, the constitution provides that "no law shall be held unconstitutional and void by the Supreme Court without the concurrence of at least all but one of the judges, except in the affirmance of a judgement of the Court of Appeals declaring a law unconstitutional and void."

HARDY PERENNIAL

Self Interests May Often Conflict With Virtues

WHEN we speak today of insanity, it is not in terms of possession by devils. There are forms of insanity not related to sin and evil temper.

We would not, in terms of modern science, speak of demons leaving a demented man and taking possession of a herd of pigs so that they would run down a steep place into the sea and destroy themselves. Obviously, a story like this has difficulties for the scientific mind. It is short-sighted or foolish not to recognize that.

But when it comes to the moral and spiritual values, the story is clear cut and definite.

Apart from the healing of the two men possessed with demons, it presents a picture of that moral delinquency and hypocrisy so prevalent in life where self-interest and greed conflict with right principles.

It is a story of swine and we must remember that hogs were unclean and taboo in the Jewish religion. These Gadarenes, whose religion forbade them to eat hog flesh, were willing to raise swine for the profit they would make from sale to others. Moreover, they were far more concerned about these swine than they were about the restoration to sanity and health of the two formerly afflicted brother men.

What a picture of narrowness and sordiness in a "whole city," coming out to meet Christ, the wonder worker and the one pure and undefiled.

They asked Him to depart out of their coasts because some hypocritical people had lost a herd of swine. How typical of unregenerate and selfish men in every age.

Dear Jason:

I don't know what to think of your sister Bessie's new boy friend. He was over for some of my polecat stew the other night and since we're trying to get Bessie married off, I just happened to mention that she was a nicely reared girl. He told me that she wasn't too bad from the front either.

The girl you used to go with from Pasture Flats, Morphine Loung Sludge, went up to Brooklyn to visit some friends and came home with a haircut that looked as though she was wearing a scallop with fringes. She said it was supposed to make her look like an Italian boy. It sure does to . . . Rocky Marciano.

It's getting pretty bad with your sister Ocarina. She was living in constant fear the baby would fall out of the crib and she wouldn't hear it so she went to the psycharist for a cure. I don't go along with these modern doctors. He told her all she had to do was take the rug off the floor.

Grandpaw Tooker, from the Four Corners, is an optimistic one. He just turned 87 and will be getting married to a spry lady of 86. Right now he's hunting for a place to live close to a school.

Cooked prunes rate well in iron, if you use the liquid along with the fruit. There's practically no less in nutritive value from standing or reheating.

When the pause comes in the day's occupations, be ready with some delightful records or good books from the Columbus Public Library.

Prunes can serve as a confection when glazed in sirup or stuffed with nuts and rolled in sugar or coconut. They're nutritious for a luncheon salad when stuffed with cream or cottage cheese.

District Camp Fire Girls In 48th Anniversary Observance

Camp Fire Girls of all ages are celebrating the organization's 48th birthday next week, starting Sunday, Mar. 16, according to Mrs. Edward Barber, district chairman for the Southeast District. Founded in 1910 by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Gulick and other leading educators, Camp Fire today includes 480,000 members in 3,000 communities throughout the country. During the past 48 years, more than 4,000,000 girls have shared in its program emphasizing home and family life.

Big List

The Columbus and Franklin County Council has a membership of over 4,000, Mrs. Barber said. A part of local community life since 1925, Camp Fire provides a well-balanced program of fun, creative expression, and social development for girls, seven to 18 years of age.

This year, in keeping with the national theme "Meet the People," members have made a photographic study of Columbus designed to introduce this community to a contemporary group of young people overseas. Pictorial results of the study are being prepared now for exhibit locally before being sent abroad, it was stated.

"The theme, 'Meet the People', has given the girls a rewarding inspiration to learn about the interesting and vital—and too little known — facts about Turkey," Mrs. Barber said. "They have made many wonderful new friends through their efforts to know their community, and also to share with others the pleasure and sense of purpost they derive from the Camp Fire program."

Uncounted Hours

Such a program requires uncounted hours of volunteer preparation, guidance, and help from adults, Mrs. Barber pointed out. Women who serve as leaders, and both men and women who are sponsors and council and commitee members, are giving immessurable service to Columbus—and they're "meeting the people" who will be the leading citizens of tomorrow. More volunteers are needed each day to help Camp Fire provide its program for the growing numbers of girls who wish to belong, the district chairman said.

Age Groups

"Camp Fire serves three age groups," it was stated. "Blue Birds." Seven-to-10-year-olds, enjoy games, group activities, and responsibilities that are especially suited to their taste and age. Camp Fire Girls, 10-to-15-year-olds, give enthusiastic expression to their individual interests and talents through a program based on the seven crafts: homemaking, creative arts, outdoors, frontiers (of science), business, sports and games, and citizenship. Horizon Club members, girls who are 16 to 18 years old or in senior high school, take a further step in preparing for their future roles as homemakers, career women, and responsible citizens through a lively program of service projects, vocational explorations, and social events.

Full Schedule

Camp Fire Girls celebrate their birthday with a week of activities. The girls have planned special religious services for their groups at their own churches or synagogues on Saturday or Sunday, Mar. 15 and 16.

Monday, Mar. 17, the girls are preparing displays at school and in store windows, telling about Camp Fire Girls' activities.

Tuesday is a surprise day for their leaders. Special "thank you's are planned for their volunteer leader who works hard all year to make their program possible," the chairman said.

Wednesday they wear their service costume of red, white and blue to school to celebrate their 48th birthday. Thursday, they take a party to some one. Since service is an important part of the program, the girls feel they can celebrate best by sharing a party with shut-ins or giving a party for prospective new members.

Friday, the 21st, is service-at-home day and each girl is to help her mother by preparing dinner or doing special chores or by planning a program of fun for the evening.

The Camp Fire Girls organization is a service of the Community Chest and United Appeal.

Smith-Rd Teacher Uses Home For Parent Meets

A new approach to Parent-Teacher conferences was tried recently by Verma Mills, second-grade teacher at Smith Road School, reports indicate. Parents were invited in groups of 12, by personalized letters. Six consecutive meetings were held in her home, Feb. 20 through Feb. 28. Forty-six parents, of whom 17 were fathers, participated in the meetings.

Children's Progress

The discussions centered around the progress which the children had made in the various areas of learning, and the goals to be achieved during the balance of the year. The process of grouping was explained.

Each parent was given a packet of many helpful pamphlets centered around child growth and development. The packets also contained a mailing list of sources where additional help could be obtained. Parents were happy to know that a two-penny postcard would put their name on the mailing list, it was said.

The meetings were also planned and discussed with the children in their classroom. They made favors for their parents, and stapled the information packets. The boys and girls helped prepare other materials for the conferences.

Shared Experiences

These conferences stimulated much discussion relative to the work now being done in the classroom, and the plans for the balance of the year. Over the coffee cup parents shared experiences. Helpful ideas were exchanged as parent talked with parent. It was noted that the informality encouraged more father participation than former conference attempts. Many parents came who were otherwise out of contact with school activities.

This experience was a step toward building better home and school relations, Miss Mills said. This is only one of the several types of conferences used by the Smith Road teachers, it was emphasized.

College Students Help At Schiller

Two college students are participating in the basketball officiating program at Schiller Recreation Center.

Two sophomore physical education majors from Ohio State University have been volunteering their services each Monday evening as officials for the girls' basketball league games. The two whistle-tooters are Sylvia Shrider of Thornville and Emily Blosser of Springfield.

The girls have combined a community service and their studies as they have arranged to have their experience at the center count toward class work, under the watchful eye of Miss Martha Dendy, instructor in the Women's Department of Physical education at the university, and Jean Williams, director of girls' athletics at Schiller.

Nina Padilla

Nina Padilla of Nina's Hair Fashions was guest artist at the convention of the Columbus Hairdressers Guild this past Feb. 15, 16 and 17.

Nina represented the Master Guild of Hair Styling of Ohio. She presented a new hair style created especially to be worn with the new chemise line. It was modeled by Mrs. Theresa Disabato of 708 E. Moler-st.

Nina is educational chairman of the Ohio Guild. She has won many trophies since coming to Columbus from Detroit two years ago. She is the first and only person in Ohio to win three first prize trophies in the same year.

Nina's Hair Fashions is located at 901 S. High-st at Whittier. Mr. Marsh of Detroit is associated with Nina's.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Protein Foods — Beef rib roasts, seven-rib pork roasts, cheddar cheese, large eggs

Vegetables—Carrots, lettuce, processed corn, peas, beans.

Fruits — Bananas, apples, grapefruit, pineapple.

EGGS—Nature's Prepackaged Food

Because eggs always fit so beautifully whatever the meal, it's a smart homemaker who gets to know the best egg buys, to know shell color, quality or grade, and size or weight.

Be a Choosy Buyer — If possible from a dealer who keeps eggs in refrigerated display cases. Heat lowers egg quality rapidly. For example, eggs left four days in a warm store or kitchen (70-80 degrees F.) lose as much freshness as those kept several weeks in a refrigerator. And come warmer weather, such losses occur even more rapidly.

Egg Quality Guides—Egg buying is one of the difficult tasks of food buying. Interior quality cannot be determined by looking at the outside of the egg. But you are not without a guide to interior egg quality. Federal-state grade standards indicated by a shield on the egg carton with the letters "U.S.D.A." and the grade classification "A," "B" or "C" are a sign of interior quality.

U.S. Grade A are top quality and are excellent for all purposes, but their delicate flavor and fine appearance make them especially good for frying, poaching, and cooking in the shell. Grade B and C eggs may answer just as well for baking and similar uses.

Which Size is the Best Buy?

Egg size is determined by minimum weight per dozen:

Extra large	27 ounces
Large	24 ounces
Medium	21 ounces
Small	18 ounces

A good rule-of-thumb to follow when buying eggs of the same grade is; if there is less than eight cents difference between large and medium eggs or between medium and small eggs, the larger eggs are the best value.

Some sizes are a better value at certain times of the year than others. Large eggs are a good value in late winter and early spring, while small and medium eggs hold the spotlight in late summer and early fall. At the present time large and extra large sizes give you more protein for your money.

Field Trials Coming Up Are Colorful Things To See

This is the time of year when field trials seem to spring up everywhere. The very attractive grounds at the Delaware Dam Wildlife Area have almost become headquarters for trials in this area. Important trials will be held there each week-end for the next three weeks:

Fourth Regional Shooting Dog Trial—Mar. 15 and 16.

National Amateur Pheasant Shooting Dog Championship — March 22.

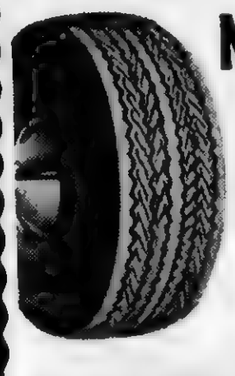
Weimaraner Club of America—Mar. 29 and 30.

Only the Weimaraner trial will be a shoot-to-kill trial, which means that birds will be bought from commercial game farms and will be shot before the dogs. At the other two trials the dogs will be expected to find game, and hold steady to shot and wing. This means that a blank pistol will be fired as the birds flush.

If you've never seen a bird dog trial, then you have an experience in store. The gallery usually follows each brace of dogs on horseback. Handlers sing to their dogs, more of a shout to my ears, and whistles pierce the air. It's a very colorful picture, and quite exciting if you know or follow certain dogs or handlers.

Often, an entourage of automobiles follows the dogs as closely as it can by creeping along back roads. Spectators from cars use binoculars, but usually have to satisfy themselves with brief glances at the dogs.

Trial, Gun Dogs Differ



A good trial dog seldom makes a good gun dog. It goes too fast and too wide. These characteristics are needed in a shooting dog, but not developed to such an advanced degree. You need a horse to keep up with a field champion, and such racing around does not make for pleasant hunting. In breeding and developing these "superdogs" many many class shooting dogs appear on the scene.

All of these trials promise to be interesting. If you like to hunt with dogs you may want to see what kind of canine it takes to win the National Amateur Pheasant Shooting Dog Championship. Shot-to-kill trials are always interesting too. You'll see some fancy wing shooting, for the birds are expensive and they don't miss many. Weimaraners are still new enough in this country to be a novelty, and this trial will be a showcase for the best of the "gray ghosts."

Public Libraries Have A 'Week'; Invite New Patrons

Eyes of the community will focus on Parsons Branch Library, 845 Parsons-av, Mar. 16-22, as all America observes the first National Library Week.

Miss Margaret Bausch, librarian in charge and reading adviser to the 8,100 card carrying patrons at Parsons Branch, expressed the hope that many non patrons would visit the library during the week. She invites all to accept the advantages afforded by a free public library card and to use their share of the 16,860 volumes stocked by the branch, as of Mar. 1.

The same library card, Miss Bausch pointed out, is honored at all agencies of the Columbus Public Library system and may be used for borrowing such non-book materials as films and phonograph records at the main Library.

"Ex Modo Praescripto"

It isn't necessary for you to understand the meaning of "Ex Modo Praescripto." It is important that the South Side has a number of people who do; an ample number of registered pharmacists who are qualified to read the written language of the physician when he prescribes compounded medicine for you. It should give us all a feeling of security to know that we are blessed with good doctors and good reliable pharmacists who guard the health of our community. When you take your doctor's prescription to one of these drug stores, you can rest assured that it will be filled properly whether you understand the doctor's "Language" or not.

PTA doings for the immediate future . . . Roosevelt Jr. High members meet at 7:45 tonight. "The Problems of Adolescense" will be discussed by Dr. Florence Robbins of OSU. An audience participation discussion will follow. Richard Van Meter will direct the orchestra in a musical program. Livingston-av will have a "Fun and Frolic" Friday, Mar. 14. The festivities get under way with a 5:30 supper. Feature attractions will be Tom Mills, who will entertain with magic and cartoon drawings, bazaar, cake and pie walk, game room, movies and country store. Mohawk School is sponsoring a variety show tonight at 8 o'clock. Members of South High's band will present the entertainment. St. Mary's PTA meets at 8 tonight in the school hall. Dr. A. H. Imhoff, chief of the division of dental health, will speak on "Dental Health for Young America." Mrs. Louise Kanmacher will give a short talk on the relation of good nutrition to healthy teeth. Reeb-av PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m., Mar. 18. Sgt. Steve McDonald, of the police force, will narrate the film "Dangerous Strangers." The school patrol and Gra-Y boys will be given recognition. Tonight at 8, Southwood School's Fathers and Sons will meet for a night of fellowship at the school. Refreshments are on the agenda.

On Mar. 19, the East Unit of the Blue Star Mothers will meet in the new Memorial Room, 308, at 7:30 p.m. Hostesses for the meetings are Nellie Mielke and Mabel Thompson.

Three birthdays to acknowledge at this time are those of Lynn and Dick Chambers, 121 E. Whittier-st, and Ruth Martin, 224 E. Moler-st. Lynn, the daughter of Dick, will attain a new year on Mar. 16. We're not real sure of Dick's natal day, through we know it's near his daughter's. Ruth, of course, is a St. Patrick Day celebrant.

Meeting times for various groups . . . Guild 21, Livingston Methodist Church, Mar. 13. Henderson Hall; Trudeau Guild 19, Mar. 18, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. James Fenneman, 1330 Gilbert-st. General meeting of WSCS of Thurman-av Methodist at 10 a.m. today at the church. Following this meeting, Mary and Elizabeth Circles will convene. Hostesses are Alma Irion, Mable Christ, Lucille Hussey, and Mary Woodgeard. Susannah Circle of Thurman will meet Mar. 18 at 8 p.m. at the church for a business meeting and box luncheon. St. Francis School of Nursing Circle 13 will meet Mar. 20, 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Raymond Fischer, 1042 Linwood-av.

Trudeau Guild 17 has a project that should appeal to all good Irishmen, and here it is . . . they will be holding their annual carnation sale Monday, Mar. 17, and can be found from Town to Gay-sts, on High-st. They will be making an appearance on Jeanne Shea's TV program today, so look for them.

Happy birthday to these youngsters . . . Richard Blakeman, 88 Woodrow-av, Mar. 17; Donald Richardson, 175 Markison-av, Mar. 15; Carol Fitzpatrick, 149 E. Woodrow-av, Mar. 14; Kathy Heinlein, 1444 S. 3rd-st, Mar. 15; Linda Kristoff, 59 Innis-av, Mar. 13; Roger Crites, 404 Welch, Mar. 18; Harold Pressley, 1284 S. 4th-st, Mar. 14; Rebecca Brown, 215 Markison-av, Mar. 17; John Iams, 1632 S. 3rd-st, Mar. 18; Sharon Dunkle, 98 Frebis-av, Mar. 19; Stephen Mills, 33 E. Innis, Mar. 19; Gary Ruh, 1227 S. High-st, Mar. 14; Dixie Leigh, 1586½ S. High-st, Mar. 15.

Mar. 15 will be the wedding date for two young South Siders, Judith Ann Hill and Alson E. Green. Miss Hill, 985 Miller-av, will exchange her vows with Mr. Green, 980 Ellsworth-av, in the Ohio-Av. EUB Church.

Girl Scout week was celebrated in the Gates Fourth Church in a nice fashion. Girl Scouts from Troop 66 and Brownies from Troop 614, took up the morning collection last Sunday.

News from South High School . . . the Backward Ball takes place at the school tomorrow night, Mar. 14. On Mar. 15, nine instrumental ensembles and six soloists will participate in the district contest at Capital University, and our best wishes go with them. South High's PTA will meet on Wednesday, Mar. 19, at 7:30 p.m. "Gateway to Vocational Opportunities" will be the theme of the meeting, which is spotlighting the subject of careers. C. L. Dumaree, a former principal of South High School, will be the main speaker.

Further birthdays to add to our list: Isabelle Coslett, 504 E. Morrill-av, Mar. 16; Ethel Messer, Mar. 10; Francis (Buddy) Merriman, 1717 S. 3rd-st, Mar. 14, and his brother, Pvt. Richard A. Merriman, Co. "B," 44th Tank Bn, Fort Bragg, N.C., Mar. 20. It would be nice of Dick's friends to surprise him with cards, we think.

A reminder to all interested folks about the Scout-O-Rama, to be held this week-end at the Merchants, Manufacturers, and Agricultural Buildings, Ohio State Fairgrounds. In addition to defraying the Scout-O-Rama costs, the 50 cents admission charge is helping to develop Green Hills, a 1136-acre campsite near Logan, in Hocking County. Don't forget — the Scout-O-Rama is to be held this Saturday and Sunday.

The South Side was wonderfully represented in a recent essay contest. Julianne Warner, 1182 Kelton-av, South High senior, and Shirley Bushman, 1349 S. 3rd-st, of St. Mary's High School, were first and second place winners respectively in the "Franklin County Employ the Physically Handicapped Essay" contest. Julianne received a $100 savings bond from Mayor Sensenbrenner, and $50 was Shirley's award. Prizes were donated by the Rotary Club. Ann Schwochaw, 1091 Reinhard-av, of Holy Family School, received an honorable mention of $10, so that gave the area three winners out of five. Real fine!

Belated anniversary greetings to John and Mary Leist, former South Side residents, who still read the Leader.

Mrs. S. J. Telersky, 1441 Linwood-av, has been appointed an organizer for St. Ann's Guild by Miss Mary Shover, president of the group.

Mary and Martha Circles, Gates-Fourth Methodist, meet at 10.30 today at the church. The general society meets at 1 p.m. this afternoon.

We hope to get more information from Mrs. Skobrak to pass along in the two weeks coming, but we will tell you that the Campfire Girls of this area are planning a "Meet the People" meeting on Mar. 29 at South Methodist Church. The meeting will be in the form of a carnival, with all sorts of "fun" things planned. If you have a daughter in any of the three age groups of Campfire, do plan to attend, won't you?

We had every intention of attending the party planned for the Senior Citizens of the Moose this Friday, but complications set in. (A usual state of affairs, with four young 'uns!) So-o, we hope they'll give us a rain check for next month's affair. Round and square dancing, floor show and refreshments will be available to the Senior Citizens 7:30 to 9:30 tomorrow night, compliments of the Moose.

Further Moose news tells us that the Alumni Committee will have charge of the Mar. 19 dinner, 5 to 7 p.m., and a partial menu reveals roast turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy. There will be a salad and dessert, too, naturally. $1.25 pays for an adult and 75 cents takes care of a kiddy. The Irishman and I can testify that the food is tasty and plentiful. And, too, on Mar 20, there will be an openhouse at 36 W. Sycamore-st. All interested folks are invited to attend.

Past executive board of South (PEBS) will meet Tuesday, Mar. 18, for a noon potluck in the home of Mrs. Charles Hammons, 1190 Wilson-av. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Merle Kenny and Mrs. Otto Menzer.

Columbus Chapter 1, American Gold Star Mothers, will meet at 800 Heyl-av, Mar. 20. Mrs. Distelzweig will be the hostess.

Everything seems to be checked off for this time. Do call us at HI. 4-1051, won't you? We'd like to print YOUR news. 'Til next time then, 'tis

THE GADABOUT

The number of milk cows on Ohio farms has declined each year from 1945 to 1957 except for 1952 to 1953. In 1957 there were 85 percent as many cows in the state as in 1940.

HI THERE!

My name is Billy. I'm one of thousands of boys and girls who are walking today because you gave to Easter Seals. Because of the training and help I received from the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children, I'll be able to enter first grade this fall.

Right now I can't say more than thanks for myself. It's for some of the other boys and girls who are not yet as far along that I want to ask you to give generously to Easter Seals this year. They need all sorts of help .... treatments, equipment, educational opportunities and ultimate independence . . . Easter Seals make all these things possible.

Only through your gifts can hundreds of crippled children in Franklin County look forward to a future that will let them walk, run and play like other kids.

We're counting on you. Thanks again.

Parking Solution Thought On Way To Achievement

At last Monday's meeting of City Council the South Side Business and Industrial Association was represented by a group of merchants led by attorney Bob Horowitz and President Tom Sharp, in requesting a delay in execution of parking restrictions for Parsons-av.

At a committee meeting of the council the Traffic and Safety Committee referred the problem to the entire Council. Meeting in special session in the anteroom at the rear of Council Chambers, the problem and request were outlined by Horowitz and other merchants attending.

Council agreed to prepare legislation banning parking on Parsons from 7 to 9 a.m. on the east side and to request meters from Innis to Hosack and ban left-hand turns from Parsons at signalized intersections. These restrictions will take effect 30 days from passage, which is expected next Monday.

The phase including parking restrictions from 4 to 6 p.m. on the west side will not take affect for six months. It was brought out at the meeting that the association was planning a trip to Cleveland to study the parking lot that is financed by the City of Cleveland.

Due to the progress made by the association, the Council agreed to this delay with the request that further plans for off-street parking be formulated and prepared for action prior to the six-months' deadline.

Sermon Topics

Rev. Arthur R. Detweiler, St. John's Evangelical Protestant Church, has announced that the topic for his sermon Sunday at the 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services will be "The Divine In Human Life."

Following the 1 o'clock services burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery by Woodyard.

St. Patrick's Dance Is Set At Schiller

Schiller Recreation Center will celebrate the annual St. Patrick's dance this Friday evening, Mar. 14, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., it is announced. The unusual features of this dance will be the opening of doors for "couples only," and it is to be a strictly "Drag—NOT—Stag" affair. Since this will be a dress-up dance, the girls will be expected to wear dresses or skirts and blouses and the boys to wear dress pants and shirts. No blue jeans or levis.

The Golden Age Club of the Center will be special guests of the evening, with the selection of a "Mr. and Mrs. Patrick" from the membership.

Refreshments will be served and a special program of entertainment will round out the evening.

Your Columbus Public Library offers you in organized form the recorded experiences of mankind. All this costs you no more than the effort of obtaining a library card and then making use of it.

Night Visit To Y-Park Pays Off Even Though Hilltop Scouts Monopolized The Happy Spa

Troop No. 79, Burgess Avenue EUB Church: Mearl Weaver, assistant chairman; Horace Elliott, assistant scoutmaster; Evan Morgan, scoutmaster; James Sharkey, assistant scoutmaster; Melvin Allard, senior patrol leader; John Mauldin, patrol leader; Terry Elliott, scribe; Craig Weaver, bugler; Paul Morgan, quartermaster; Ronnie Blythe, Don Jones, Philip Caldwell, Donald Hoskinson, James McCann, Dick Houser, Rickey Thompson, Brian Horne, David Worrell, Gary Walker, librarian; Harry Mack, chaplain.

The Editor

Ever since a daylight trip to Y-Park a couple of years ago there has been an unsilenced demand by my Other Self that the trip to "Ideal Land" be made again, and at night. It happened last Saturday night. Cold and dark blended to make the evening less than ideal—or, that's what we thought as we drove through the murk of the early evening to make the long-desired inventory of the spot where so much has been accomplished for the young people associated with the Y-Park and others who are send to the spot every summer.

Curiosity

Y-Park pops up so often in the newspaper work here in South Side that we wanted to see people for the night calling one of the Y-Park buildings home. We arrived (my wife is the "we" in this story) considerably after dark, stopped at the caretaker's attractive cottage, and he guided us to one of the kitchen-cabins. There we waited for a group of Scouts spending the weekend there to return from a hunt . . . ever go on a "Snipe" hunt? Well, two or three of these boys went on a Snipe hunt while the others made pretense and "ditched" the young hunters out where it was dark, wild, and without Snipes. But they had fun — and, unknown to them, they were under official eyes while they thought they were alone in the darkness of a very dark night.

Our purpose was to see how boys and young people spent the time at Y-Park after the shades of night fell. Let it be said that they have fun as well as guidance, and seldom is there one who doesn't wish for another night or a week . . . well, maybe a month more on these grounds.

Inventory Wanted

Just as an item of knowledge, there arose in our minds the wonder: how many buildings here? What are they? Then, there are other questions which will be answered with answers to those asked. So, we found out, although we may not include all the figures here. There are 18 "Back Home Cabins"; Hoover Haven Cabin; "Optimist Lodge" with sleeping quarters for 50; and, then, there are more — many more. This will suffice. One reason why we stopped counting was that the hunters had arrived, and the two Snipe catchers (without Snipes, of course) were to be observed and honored in proportion to their catches, which naturally were at zero.

Happy Hours

When we began our trip we were looking for a group of South Side Scouts whom we thought were to be on the grounds. Instead we met a group from Hilltop and photographed them. One remembering we had asked if they were from the South Side, ventured the thought that they were, perhaps, as good looking as the South Side boys . . . Well, we had to agree that the group could not be surpassed.

At Home

Y-Camp is not available to individuals and all use of the park must have previous permission, and even then it is available only to organized groups —like, for instance, the Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts. Rules and regulations are such the reasonable-minded people approve, which is good, some one remarked, because without them it would not be the desirable place it is.

Take a Drive

It is recommended that whoever may want a happy Sunday afternoon jaunt should drive to Y-Park. It's a nice trip.

Treatment Center Aids Cerebral-Palsied Tots

The treatment center for preschool cerebral-palsied children is one of the facilities of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children, financed by contributions to the annual Easter Seal campaign.

Staffed by a highly trained and skilled professional team of doctors and physical, occupational and speech therapists, medical and psychiatric case workers, crippled children in the center receive the specialized care and treatment that will prepare them to become independent and happy citizens.

Special Equipment

Specialized equipment at the treatment center, 553 E. Town-st, includes parallel bars, climbing bars, portable steps, weighted doll buggies, a vast array of specialized toys, appliances and recreational devices, all designed to further the rehabilitation of crippled youngsters.

Seventy-two children are now on the program of the center. Several will "graduate" to first grade at the Neil Avenue Open Air School in the fall.

Other Services

Other services provided by the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children are health camping for crippled children, wheel chair and equipment loan for as long as needed; purchase of braces, shoes, crutches, special medical examination and medication, and education toward better understanding the crippled.

The number of persons served in 1957 was 447. The number served and the number of services have increased each year (10 per cent more service was given this past year) and will continue to the limit of the budget.

The 1958 Easter Seal campaign, which opened Mar. 6, continues through Easter Sunday, Apr. 6.

Street Work In 'Planning'

Two South Side streets were moved into an improvement "planning stage" this week and may be included in the city's $2.8 million 1958 program.

Gates-st, from Lockbourne to Fairwood-avs and Fairwood-av to McCloud-rd.

Frebis-av, from Lockbourne-av to Norfolk and Western Railroad.

The streets enjoy no special priority at this time; work will be undertaken, presumably, following that on 10 other streets set for early spring improvement and 13 others on a "priority" list.

Costs for the work will be financed by the city and private developers. The total amount is about the same as spent last year. Robert F. Werner, the city's chief engineer, said

Adolescence Problems To Be Subject

Dr. Florence Robbins of the sociology department, Ohio State University, has been selected as the speaker at the next meeting of Roosevelt Junior High School PTA Thursday, Mar. 13, at the school building. The hour as announced by PTA President Mrs. L. D. Thompson is 7:45 p.m., according to Mrs. Harold Ellifritt, publicity chairman.

The school orchestra will present a musical program under the direction of Richard Van Meter, it was stated.

Following the address by Dr. Robbins, whose subject will be "Problems of Adolescence," there will be an audience participation," it was announced. Rev. Glendon Herbert will give the invocation.

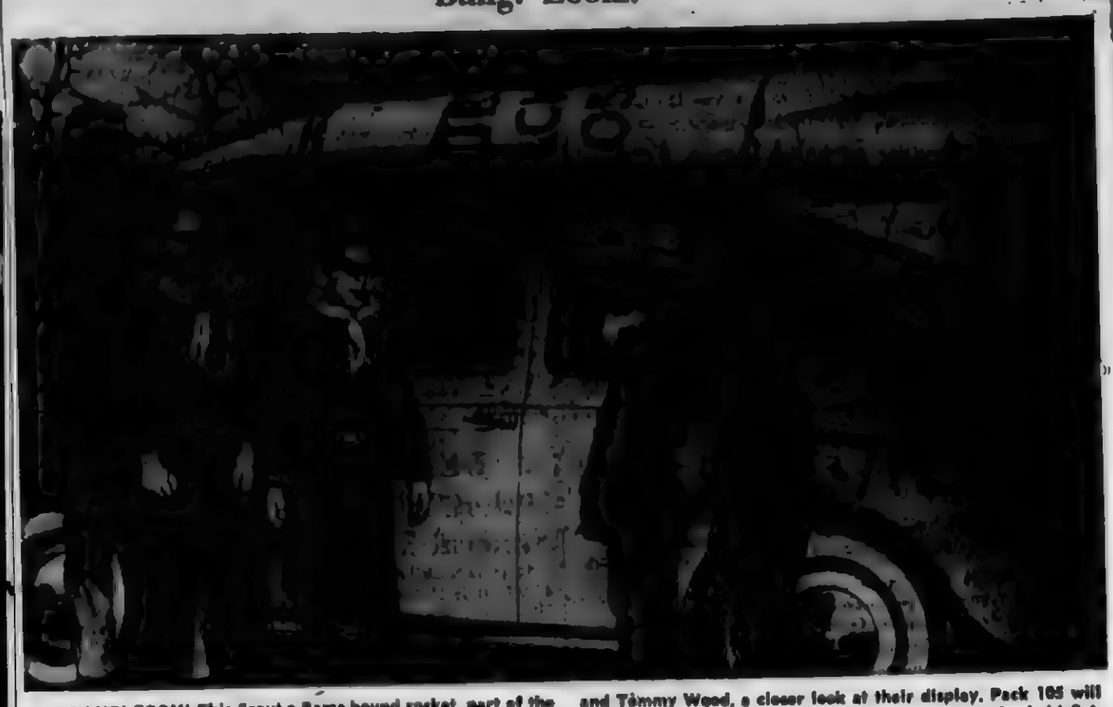
Vie In $500,000 Awards Contest

Nearly 285,000 General Motors employes are competing for $500,000 in prizes the company is offering in its "Golden Milestone" letter-writing contest, a final tabulation of entries disclosed Wednesday.

Judging is being supervised by a panel of five nationally known persons not associated with General Motors. The top 45 winners will be announced at an awards banquet in Detroit about Mar. 27.

Subject of the letters was "The Golden Milestone — what it means to me, my family and my community." At Ternstedt Division 69.4 percent of the employes participated in the contest.

Ex-S. High Boy Is Promoted



Charles L. Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Long, 2736 McGuffey, recently was promoted to private first class at Fort Gordon, Ga., where he is a member of the U.S. Army Signal Training Center.

Long entered the army last May and received basic training at Fort Polk, La.

The 19-year-old soldier attended South High School.

Bang! Zoom!

Bliss College Retires Cage Jerseys; Lead Nation's Teams In Total Victories

The recent Bliss College basketball homecoming dance, held in the Knights of Columbus Club ballroom, was the site of the retirement of basketball jerseys worn by Jack Hilt and Bill McCullum and the presentation of American blankets to the duo. The ceremonies were conducted by Jim Redman, Bliss College coach.

Hilt is a former South High cager and captain of this year's Bliss College team, while McCullum, sixth in the nation in scoring last year with 908 points, is a product of Louisville Male. The pair was named honorable mention All-Americans last year by "Basketball Yearbook" in a poll of 6,000 of the nation's sportswriters, sportscasters, coaches, and other sports authorities.

Hilt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hilt, Jr., 1067 S. 22nd-st, and resides with his wife, Patty, and children, Jackie and Tommy, at 1097 S. Ohio-av.

Bliss is currently leading the nation's collegiate teams in the number of wins, having posted 35 victories in their 40 games at date. They closed their regular season with two games in Detroit last week-end.

Chess Tourny For Next Week

Schiller Recreation Center will hold its first chess tournament next week. The tournament will be held for various age groups, with both male and female classes.

The age grouping is as follows: junior boys and girls, 12 years of age and under; intermediate boys and girls, 13 years through 15 years of age; senior boys and girls, 16 through 18 years of age. There will also be an adult section in the tournament.

Registration is being taken now at the center. Anyone interested should call Schiller HI. 4-7262, or register at the center by applying to any of the staff members.

The classifications and drawings will be made and then participants will be posted as to the time and day they will play.

Jim Meagher In Arizona

Specialist Second Class James Meagher, son of Mrs. Helene Blum, 181 Frebis-av, recently participated in a communications field training exercise with the 16th Signal Battalion near Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

Specialist Meagher, a pole lineman in the battalion's Company A, entered the army in August, 1956, and received basic training at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

Children's Hospital Will Benefit From Theatrical

Pleasure Guild of Childen's Hospital will present children's play, Hansel and Gretel, on Feb. 28 and Mar. 1 at the Columbus Art Gallery Theater. There will be three performances of the play, one on Friday, Feb. 28, at 7:30 p.m., and two on Saturday, Mar. 1, at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. The play, adapted by Frances Franklin is being directed and staged by Mrs. John Zahn, 2603 Brentwood-rd, a member of Pleasure Guild and a well-known figure in local theater groups. The cast will include Mrs. Norris Olson,. 35 W. Jeffery-pl, as Gretel; Joe Herron, 1210 Oakwood-st as Hansel; Bob Rathburn, 2425 N. High-st as the father; Mrs. James Briers, 2491 Shrewsbury-rd, as the mother; Roger Allen, 43 Jefferson-av, as Lucifer the Cat; Miss Virginia Donavan, 505 S. Huron-av as the Witch.

All members of the cast also have been active in Columbus theater groups. Special features of the play include almost real icing, macaroon cookies, gum drops, and chocolate that will decorate that scrawny witch's house in the woods, and real honest to goodness gingerbread boys and girls that will suddenly turn alive and dance with happiness. Gingerbread men cookies will be sold after each performance.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Edward Wambold, HU. 6-2908, and Mrs. Thomas Sours, HU. 8-9823, or from any Pleas- Guild member. The tickets are 50 cents for children and 75 cents for adults, with all proceeds going to Children's Hospital. Mrs. Robert Turton, 1670 Doone-rd, is project chairman. President of Pleasure Guild is Mrs. W. Frank Pryor, 117 N. Waverly-rd.

Hello

Perhaps you would like a green carnation to wear on St. Patrick's Day — Monday, March 17th. We have men's boutonnaires at 40c and good-looking tailored nosegays for the women priced at $1.00 (Cash and Carry prices). If you are having a party, a centerpiece carrying out the true Irish traditions or symbols will be a real conversation piece. These range in price from $4.00 up.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anderson on their 50th, and to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bodkin on their 19th . . . get well wishes to Ethel Early, Mary Shumaker, Mrs. May Hannon, Mrs. Pearl Terry, Amelia Kleeli, A. T. Wirth, Ray Phillips, James Mobley, Mrs Leonard Salmons. Monty Middleworth, Barbara Roberts, Mary Ballour, Julia Yokum, Mrs. Sadie Benjamin, Thomas Carter and Albert Upton . . . the Uptons also have a new baby daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schmidt are lullabying their new little son . . . birthday greetings to Mrs. Walter Peters, Ruth Bastian, Mrs. Phyllis Snyder, Don Moore and young Floyd Lemmon.

GEORGE BOBB
Founder of Bobb Chevrolet

The best buys available, fair dealing, and customer satisfaction . . . these are among the sound business policies that have kept Bobb Chevrolet among the leading Franklin County new car dealers throughout its 34-year history. A recent flurry of price-cutting on new Chevrolets resulted in Bobb coming out with an anniversary special . . . $1877 for a 1958 six-passenger sedan. This offer is a good example of Bobb's determination not to be undersold . . . to offer the finest values on the exciting new Chevrolet. Drive in today . . . drive home the $1877 anniversary special.

Since 1924 BOBB Has Offered More!

And the proof is in the pudding. Bobb Chevrolet has maintained the loyalty of its old customers down through the years.

Our customers keep coming back time after time. Try for yourself... talk to the people at Bobb's.

You'll see that our greatest pride comes in making additional friends by giving the finest service and the best deals on the unbeatable new Chevrolet.

Traveler, Slides

The Heyl Avenue PTA will hold its March meeting Thursday, Mar 20, at 1:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Adena Moffat, a teacher of Heyl Avenue School. Her topic will be "Highlights of my Travels in Europe." Mrs. Moffat has taught school in Germany and Japan as well as in the United States. She will show slides of her travels in Germany, Switzerland, and various European countries she has visited.

An election of officers for the Heyl-Avenue PTA for next year will be held during the business meeting.

Tea and a social hour will follow the meeting, and there will be baby-sitter service provided for the pre-school children.

The GIRL SCOUT DISTRICT DIARY

Girl Scout Week, Mar. 9-15, will be celebrated throughout the United States. The Girl Scouts were founded Mar. 12, 1912, when Juliette Gordon Low organized the first troop of 12 girls in Savannah, Ga.

This year's theme is "You Can Count on Her." During the anniversary celebration, Scouts will demonstrate girl-size citizenship by carrying out community service projects.

Total scout membership is 3,115,000 in the United States. Ohio Trefoil Council includes 11,200 girls and 4,400 volunteer adult workers, covering Franklin, Fayette, Union, Madison, Pickaway and Delaware Counties.

WORKSHOP ATTENDANCE

Attending the recent district workshop held at Schiller Park were Mrs. Guy A. Cochran, Mrs. Wiley Stein and Mrs. Harvey Akers. Mrs. James Gatwood presided. Instruction was given in Swedish weaving and construction of wood-fibre dogwood flowers.

DESHLER SCHOOL NEIGHBORHOOD
Intermediate Troop 150
Co-leaders, Mrs. Leah Fletcher and Mrs. Cyril Goldston

This troop is working on its Homemaker Badges. On Mar. 5, the members went to Lazarus, where they heard a talk by the wedding consultant.

BROWNIE TROOP 526
Mrs. J. Rubin, Leader
Mrs. Jack A. Miller, Assistant Leader

There are 22 members in this troop and the committee chairman is Mrs. Glenn T. Ross, with Mrs. Martin Wardlow and Mrs. James Harrison serving on the committee.

On Mar. 5 an investiture ceremony was held and the girls were pinned. Members of the committee were pinned by their daughters.

A color guard and troop songs were part of the program. The meeting was closed with taps.

CORPUS CHRISTI NEIGHBORHOOD BROWNIE TROOP 455
Mrs. Wilbur Liddil, Leader

A new girl entered the troop. She is Diana Willnitz, who transferred from St. Christopher.

HEYL AVENUE SCHOOL BROWNIE TROOP 446
Mrs. Wiley Stein, Leader
Mrs. Harvey Ackers, Assistant

An election of officers was held Mar. 5. The new officers are: president, Sherry Hoskinson; vice-president, Cheryl Burke; treasurer, Gwen Marcum. Since this is a new troop, Mrs. Akers is acting as secretary.

DESHLER AVENUE BROWNIE TROOP 261
Mrs. W. V. Sarchet, Leader
Mrs. Bertha Hinkle, Assistant Leader
Mrs. Vivien Smith, Troop Committee Chairman

Officers elected at the last meeting were: president, Annette Heisel, who will succeed Sally Shannon; vice-president, Patty Watson, succeeding Sue Cooper; treasurer, Brenda Sarchet, succeeding Vicky Bennett, and secretary, Lynne Miller, who succeeds Janet Walker.

The troop meets Wednesday after school at the Deshler Avenue School.

The first troops for girls with handicaps were started in 1917, when two troops for blind and one for deaf were established. Today there are more than 10,000 handicapped girls in scouting.

The Girl Scout and Girl Guide organizations in 46 countries work together through the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. Regardless of differences, members of these organizations observe the same scout laws and use the trefoil emblem.

Did you know that the first Girl Scout uniforms were dark blue? The girls requested that the color be changed to khaki so they could work outdoors without looking dusty and dirty.

There are two international friendship centers for Girl Scouts and their Girl Guide friends. One, called "Our Chalet", is in the Alps near Adelboden, Switzerland, and the other, just completed this year in the mountains of Mexico, is called "Our Cabana".

SCHILLER GIRL SCOUTS

Schiller neighborhood Girl Scout leaders of District VII held their monthly meeting at the Thurman Avenue Methodist Church, Mar. 10, 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ralph Golden and Mrs. Orland Sells presided over our workshop this month. The art of making long-stemmed roses of wood fibre was our craft.

Mrs. Ivan Huston taught ceramics at our last month's meeting. The adults enjoyed the craft very much and were pleased with their first work of art.

Refreshments were served by Troop 43 of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church. Hostesses were Mrs. John King, Mrs Isaac Kinser, Mrs. Donald Beals and Mrs. Adrein Valentine, committee members, and Mrs. Ralph Golden and Mrs. Donald Salser, leaders. —By Mrs. Donald Salser.

Intermediate Troop

Leaders, Mrs. Leah Fletcher and Mrs. Cyril Goldston.

The members of this troop participated in a Valentine party. They are working on their Hospitality Badge, and as a requirement made and carried out all the plans. They made lovely table favors, heart shaped cakes, and heart shaped sandwiches, to carry out their Valentine theme. The following girls acted as hostesses: Joy Crook, Tanya Alban, Barbara Eddy, Barbara Heskett, Karen Lambert, Jane Matthews, Carol Spiro, Saundra Thompson, Karen Zeallear, Jeanne Kierman and Shirley Nincehelser.

Heyl Avenue

Brownie Troop 446: leader, Mrs. Wiley Stein; assistants, Mrs. Harvey Akers and Mrs. Jack Vaughn. The members of this troop celebrated their first troop party. They made their own invitations and gave them to their parents. The party was to acquaint their parents and leaders, as well as to have an enjoyable time. The troop made candy favors for their parents and served the refreshments. They entertained their parents, singing Scout songs and showing a few dances which they have learned in their troop. During the refreshment period there was a "Question and Answer" session in which parents and troop both took part. It was a fine opportunity for all to become well acquainted.

From Forest To Public Park On Fairwood

(Editor's note: A crew of "park makers" from the Ray S. Dietz city parks and forestry office moved into the wooded area east of Fairwood-av, near the junction of Deshler-av, a few weeks ago. Their purpose is cleaning and improving. A new recreational park is to be created. A South Side Leader staff writer visited the area last week.)

The pictured forest on Fairwood-av, soon is to become a point for restful relaxation for members of the surrounding area. This is indicated by the "stumps" of small trees which had already yielded to the "park-makers ax" as may be seen in the photograph. The picture was taken by the South Side Leader photographer from a point just south of the point where Deshler joins purpose with Lockbourne-rd. The view penetrates the woods and discloses the plant of the Wesleyan University Press, a couple of blocks north of the spot where Deshler-av entered the north and south highway . . . and notice the leaves burning . . . the ground is carpeted with leaves, as is usual in the woods . . and this is leafy woods. We were attracted to a small ancient house, now called the utility house, but really without a name. Some old-timers say that 'way back a family lived in the utility house, but moved away, and for a number of years it has been without a legitimate tenant. We wondered how the men could rake the leaves on such a cold day . . . the photographer had to work fast so his fingers would turn loose of the camera when he wanted to disengage from the instrument. . . . This spot is to be a community park, for people who live in the community, according to Ray S. Dietz, superintendent of the Division of Parks and Forestry, who says the "local people" should have the use of the park without interference from long distances . . . better for local use than for somebody from the other end of town . . . and, carrying out the thought, he indicated that a tot-lot and confidence builders will rank high in the property of the park which is to be brought into existence.

At the present time no statement has been made concerning the final disposition of the utility house, although some have expressed the thought that it is old enough to be a permanent fixture in the park, connecting the long-ago with the present.

Just when will the park be ready for use by the neighbors? Well, that's uncertain, but it is expected that the area will be available for just lounging when the summer's days urge neighbors to share in the shade of the trees to be left standing. Although the day was cold when the pictures were taken it was still easy to visualize the park-that's-to-be and the comfort it will bring to many when summer has warmed things up a bit.

School Board Announces Added Facilities Here

Educational facilities in the South Side will soon get a "hitch" upwards. New class rooms and the remodeling of present facilities is to get quick priority, the Columbus Board of Education announced Tuesday.

The fast increasing enrollment is responsible, they said. Three area schools are involved in the plans.

Expansion Demanded

At the time of the release of the announcement, there was also issued an analysis of future requirements for space in school buildings. Figures released indicated that there will be an estimated 74,034 pupils in attendance in the Columbus schools in the 1958-59 school year.

This, it is indicated, means a jump-up of 2,831 above the present school year total. As explained by a school board official recently, the future, near future, and moderately distant future, has only large increases in view in the school population and no hope for relief, except the building of necessary structures to house the educational processes.

Part Of Program

This anounced building program is the result of the quick increase of school population ages, demanding more and more space and more and more teachers.

Barrett Plans

For Barrett, plans call for an addition housing two new science rooms, with facilities for laboratory experiments; a girls' gymnasium and shower room will be built immediately to the south of the 1954 addition to the building.

Remodel

The announcement stated that on the third floor of the original Barrett structure the girls' gymnasium and shower room will be remodeled and converted into four academic classrooms. It is understood that increased enrollment is expected to continue its increase, year after year. The additional academic classrooms will be a boon to students and teachers, it was said.

Ask For Bids

Because of the increased enrollment for the next school year, haste is necessary in getting the work underway, with the result that request for bids on the Barrett work will begin on Apr. 2. It was stated that the deadline for bids will be May 1. The responsible officials say that the new and remodeled facilities are scheduled for occupancy in September, this year.

Deshler, Elementary

Deshler is an illustration of how even the newest school facilities quickly become overrun by the children of an increasing population. Deshler will have a six-classroom addition, according to the plans. This will be attached to the northernmost portion of the existing building. Bids for this project are required by Apr. 8, according to the announcement. It is the purpose to have these new quarters occupied by pupils on Sept. 1, 1958.

Six More Rooms at Beck

At Beck there will be a six-classroom addition. This will be attached to the west side of the present structure, according to the plans. The addition is to parallel Briggs-st, it was said. Mar. 21 is the deadline for bids on the Beck job. Sept. 1 has been set as the time for occupancy by pupils.

Plans for improvement will be published soon.

Study Group At Deshler

Deshler PE Study Group will meet Wednesday, Mar. 26, at 1:30 p.m. A panel consisting of Rev. Carl E. Hicks, pastor of Oakwood Methodist Church; Miss Florence Johnson, head school nurse; Mrs. Armenette Rau, visiting teacher; Mrs. Marvin Lewis, past Deshler PTA president, will discuss "A Line On Children's Problems." Mrs. Glenna Palmer, principal of Deshler School, will serve as moderator. Mrs. Fred Roeger, Deshler PTA publicity chairman said.

Barrett Science Goes On Exhibit

Barrett Junior High School's Diane Gehl, Rolf Tischler, Bill Bugh, Carol Hahn, Joe Streaty, Larry Mallory and Ernest Bean, with teachers Howard Nicklaus and J. H. Shevlin will take science projects to the Central Ohio District Science Day exhibit in the Buckeye Building on the Ohio State Fairgrounds on Saturday, Mar. 22. The exhibit will be free and open to the public from 12 to 3 p.m. Exhibitions from public, parochial, and private schools of the eight central Ohio counties will be in view and on display.

New Minister At Southwood

Rev. Ellis E. Wesner was scheduled to arrive in Columbus yesterday, Wednesday, to begin work as minister of the Southwood Church of Christ. His most recent ministry was at Rising Sun, Ind., where he has ministered two and a half years. Prior to that time he ministered to Syria Church, Orleans, Ind., for eight years. Mr. Wesner's home was originally near Salem, Ind., and his wife, Vonda, was reared near Mitchell, Ind. The Wesners have two children, Mark, five, and Marla three years old. The Cincinnati Bible Seminary provided the educational background for both Mr. and Mrs. Wesner. He received his bachelor's degree there in 1950 and completed residence work for a master's degree in 1951. Mrs. Wesner graduated in 1951. Their new home will be at 308 Southwood-av, a residence just recently purchased by the Church for the minister's residence.

Two Basketball Championships Are Won By Oakwood Methodist's Teams

The South Side Branch YMCA and Intermediate Church Leagues drew to a close last week. As was expected all season, both Oakwood Methodist teams came through to win their respective championships. Neither team lost a game all year to mar their won-and-lost record. However, their records will have to withstand one more trial, as the Junior and Intermediate All-Star games were played Mar. 18.

The Junior League ended with three games of non-thrilling capacities. Oakwood cinched their championship by defeating St. John E. & R., 36-19. The champs displayed nice teamwork throughout the game, while undermanned St. John fought back in a losing cause.

Central Community got back on the winning road by beating Frebis-av. Church of God, 18-9. Bill Zigler was high point man for Central Community with 10 points. Livingston Methodist scored 23 points in the second half to pull away from St. Paul E. & R. to win by a 35-23 score. Dave Pence of Livingston led the scoring with 15 points.

Wins on Forfeit

Oakwood won the Intermediate League by resting last Wednesday as South Methodist was forced to forfeit because of a lack of players. St. Paul E. & R. finished the season with a win over Thurman Methodist, 42-25. Dave Kamer and Dave Spanner scored 22 points each for St. Paul to insure the victory. Gates-Fourth won a forfeit over Ohio Ave. E.U.B. because of Ohio playing with an ineligible man.

This week's play consisted of the all-star games of each league. Oakwood of the Junior League played an all-star team made up of Bob Harris, Bill Warren and Butch Campbell of St. John E. & R., Darrell Branham and John Evans of Frebis-av. Church of God, Bill Zigler of Central Community, Mike Grayem and Dave Pence of Livingston Methodist, and Wally Rueckel and Dave Mouser of St. Paul E. & R. Oakwood of the Intermediate League will play an Intermediate all-star team made up of Steve Rounds, Larry Badger and Dan Mitchell of Ohio-av. E.U.B., Tom Bolen, Doug Childers, Paul Watters and Dave Spanner of St. Paul E. & R., Harvey Thompson of Gates-Fourth Methodist, and Gordon Ball from South Methodist. (Pictures in an early issue.)

Mrs. Shaffer Is Speaker

Mrs. Emily Shaffer, director of the South Side Day Nursery, will be the guest speaker at Reeb Avenue School Parent and Family Life Education meeting Thursday of next week, at 9:45 a.m., according to report by Mrs. Robert McCalla, Parent-Family Life education chairman. Mrs. Shaffer will lead the discussion.

S.S. Branch 'Y' Reports Salt Water Taffy Sale: $246.40

The South Side Branch YMCA Marion District Gra-Y Clubs recently completed a salt-water taffy sale which distributed 2,466 pounds throught the community, according to a report from the South Side Branch.

Eight clubs from five school districts will benefit from the sale, it was stated. YMCA World Service Fund will net $246.40 from the sale and a like amount has been set aside for service projects of the different clubs.

Some of the discussed projects are tape recorders, earphone sets for tape recorders, F. M. radios, Christian Flags for school, encyclopedia sets, three dimensional maps, etc.

James Gartin of Smith-rd, Four Ships Chapter was top salesman in the district, with a total of 103 sales. Mike Hanrahan, Fornof Christian Way Chapter, was second with 72 pounds sold. Other prize winners were Carol Bacus, Fornof Triangle Chapter; Glenn Hickman, Clarfield Young Citizens Chapter; Tommy Francis, Clarfield Triple Y Chapter; Sandra Neal, Smith-rd Good Deed Chapter; Larry Jones, Heimandale; Judy Hane, Scioto Trail; Gregory DeWeese, Smith-rd Four Ships Chapter; Judy Mayer, Clarfield Young Citizens Chapter; John Held, Smith-rd Good Deed Chapter; Gary Smith, Smith-rd Good Deed Chapter; Sandra Neal, Smith-rd Good Deed Chapter; Delores Mathews, Fornof Christian Way Chapter; John Jackson, Heimandale.

Smith-rd Four Ships Chapter was the top club in sales with 409. Scioto Trail Club was second with 403 pounds sold.

Graumlich Rites Held Wednesday

Private funeral services for Theodore Graumlich, 48, of 36 W. Neff-av, who reportedly took his own life last Sunday, Mar. 16, were held at Norris Funeral Home, Grove City, Wednesday. Interment was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

The deceased was found dead in his car in his garage by a neighbor and his death was called suicide by officials.

Survivors are his wife, Wanda; a son, August K. Graumlich; a sister, Mrs. Mary Mason, and several nieces and nephews.

'A Great Day'

'Twas a great day! The reason: Mrs. E. H. Cavendish, 535 Frebis-av, called the Leader office, placed a "for sale" classified advertisement . . . and . . . you know what? There were 28 calls, 26 of them were AFTER the advertised rugs and rug pads had been sold. Yes, they were ALL sold on the second call! Happy? Yes, just like you'll be when you use a Hartley Newspaper for your classified advertising.

Birthday

The South Side Leader is celebrating a birthday with this issue. The staff and publisher, C. C. Hartley, join with the merchants of the South Side to extend appreciation for having been permitted to share the social activities of our community.

Today begins the seventh year. Pictures of Mr. Gedeist, Jack Schluep, Tom Sharp and Isabelle Coslett are an page 3.

Students From India To Speak

Mrs. Pawar

Mr. Pawar

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin Pawar, of Kahandwa, India, will be guest speakers at the Lincoln Park Elementary School PTA meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Mar. 27, in the school auditorium. The Pawars are the parents of a three-year-old son. The family's home is in Kahandwa, India. They are in the United States for study, Pawar, Sr., taking his doctor's work at Ohio State University. He is majoring in education.

Spring Concert

The annual spring concert of the South High Band and Orchestra will be held in the South High auditorium tomorrow, Friday evening, Mar. 21, at 8, under the direction of Randal Near. Various types of music, ranging from the classics to contemporary music will be performed.

Proceeds from the concert will be used to help the work of the Instrumental Music Department at South High. Admission is 50 cents, including the concert and the traditional dance after the concert to music by the South High Dance Band, directed by John Justus.

Lent Topic

The fifth Sunday in Lent is also known as "Passion Sunday" and will thus be observed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av. On This Sunday, the Lenten topic will be carried into the morning service and the pastor, Rev. John O. Lang, will speak at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m Sunday, Mar. 23, on "Behold Your King!"

Pigeons Joyfully Await Breakfast From Friend

Pictured is Miss Alameda White, known to a multitude of friends—human and pigeon—as a gentle lover of birds. Pigeons are her particular love. The reporter knows that from first hand since he got up early enough one morning to see Miss White and her friends, the pigeons as she approached their common "breakfast table."

Upon Miss White's arrival at the southwest corner of State and High-sts, a flock of pigeons descended to receive their morning meal. Surprising and interesting, when the car was parked a block away and Miss White and the reporter alighted. The pigeons quickly formed an escort for their friend. Upon arrival at the usual "table," the pigeons, shown in the picture in flight, quickly "laid in" to the morning's repast. Upon conclusion, the group of birds flew away to the day's program.

Miss White has fed "her pigeons" at the same spot for years, using time between bus transfer to Southwood Elementary School where she is a teacher. She lives in the house of her birth, at 974 Mt. Pleasant, with her sister.

Egg Drive Is To Aid Four Groups

Four groups of people and organizations will benefit from the annual St. Mary's Parish "egg drive," it was announced by Miss Teresa Eyerman, co-chairman, of 445 Whittier-st, and Miss Kathleen Nogawick, chairman, 751 City Park-av. The two leaders said the eggs will be given to St. Ann's Orphanage, St. Vincent's Orphange, Good Shepherd Convent, Sisters of the Sick Poor.

Chairman Miss Nogawick said all donations will be picked up if donors will call either of the ladies named above.

Junior Choir On Palm Sunday

The Junior Choir of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church will participate in the Palm Sunday service of the adult church service, according to an announcement by Mrs. Donald Salser, publicity chairman.

Commissioners Rule In County

The Board of County Commissioners has many different administrative and semi-judicial functions.

The Franklin County Board includes Henry A. Koontz, Fred C. Berkhemer, Harry T. Vigor. Every year one is selected as president. Vigor is current Board president.

Reilly

The Board's administrative jurisdiction is far-reaching. First, it is responsible for most major county appropriations. It is also in charge of the Courthouse, the Detention Home, the Children's Home and the old and new Memorial Halls. Further, it supervises county welfare institutions.

The Board is, by law, a three-member body; each member elected to a four-year term. The members of the Board are on an equal basis. Each has one vote at hearings and each has equal administrative responsibilities. Formal decisions are made on a majority basis.

The commissioners' most difficult functions are in their semi-judicial capacity, involving matters of zoning and annexation.

To change a zoning classification one must first apply to the Rural Zoning Commission. Such application is sent to the Regional Planning Commission which passes upon it and sends it back. The Rural Zoning Commission then has an open hearing, after it has advertised the matter for 30 days. Subsequently, it makes a decision and sertifies it to the commissioners.

The commissioners, after 30 days of further advertising, hold a public hearing and render the final decision short of the courts. Thus, the commissioners occupy the key position in zoning matters.

Annexation is the commissioners' second semi-judicial responsibility. This is another foreground issue as a result of community growth and expansion. It, too, requires a step-by-step legal procedure.

The first step is the filing of a petition with the Board. Then, the description of the area to be annexed is checked by the county engineer's office. And the matter is properly advertised and set down for hearing before the commissioners at a date not less than 60 days from the time the petition is filed.

The Board makes a decision, which is final unless appeals are made to the court.

Among its other functions, the Board has administrative jurisdiction over the sanitary engineers's office and is also charged with responsibility for county sewer and water lines.

This represents another general area of county government now in the foreground because of the present huge population growth.

Gelatin Molds Make Attractive Dish

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

COMBINE tomato aspic and hard-boiled eggs in a gelatin loaf or ring for Lenten meatless menus. Add vegetables and mayonnaise and you really have something to eat.

Tomato Egg Loaf (8 servings)

Part I: One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1¾ cups tomato juice, divided into 2 parts, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon lemon or lime juice.

Sprinkle gelatin on cold tomato juice in saucepan to soften. Place over low heat, stirring constantly until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat; add salt and lemon juice. Pour into loaf pan and chill until almost firm.

Part II: One envelope unflavored gelatin, ½ cup cold water, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, dash cayenne pepper, ¾ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, 1½ teaspoons grated onion, ½ cup finely diced celery, ¼ cup finely diced green pepper, ¼ cup chopped pimento, 4 hard-boiled eggs, chopped.

Sprinkle gelatin on cold water in saucepan to soften. Remove from heat; add salt and lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce and pepper. Cool. Gradually add gelatin mixture to mayonnaise; mix in remaining ingredients.

Turn on top of tomato loaf in loaf pan. Unmold and garnish with ripe olives and salad greens. Serve with French dressing or mayonnaise.

Note: 1 cup flaked tuna or salmon can be used in place of the eggs.

Gelatin molds of tomato aspic filled with shrimp or fish make attractive and delicious entrees for a meatless Lenten table.

Belief Means Little Without Taking Root

WHY did Christ forbid His Apostles to tell others that He was the Messiah whose coming had been prophesied?

Probably because it was of little value that men should have a sort of second-hand knowledge of His true role. It means nothing to believe that Christ is the Messiah unless the belief has taken root and has reality in our hearts and lives. It can't be just hearsay that we have adopted from someone else.

Since they perceived His nature and mission, Christ told them how His mission was to be fulfilled, in ways that must have startled the disciples and challenged their faith.

Many passages of scripture make it clear that they thought He was going to set up an earthly kingdom; yet here He made it plain that He was to fulfill His mission through persecution and death. It is true that He spoke of the resurrection, but this must have seemed a far-off thing in the disappointment of their immediate hopes.

There was a struggle going on in Christ's own soul, a struggle which reached its climax in the agony and prayer in the Garden of Olives almost to the very moment of the crucifixion.

We think perhaps of Christ as having mastered temptation at the beginning of His public life but we forget that He was in all points tempted just as we are. We fail to realize the intensity of that temptation to turn from the way of the cross and to renounce a mission that meant His death. But the triumph was found in the clear word of decision and faith: "Not my will but thine be done."

Here Christ enunciates the great truth that it is only in spending and giving life that we can save it.

OTHER LENTEN RECIPES

by Estelle B. Franks

Baked Prune Whip

2 cups cooked prunes
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
4 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
4 stiff-beaten egg whites

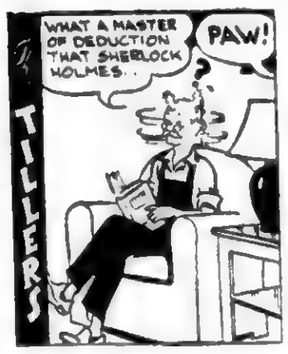
Remove pits from prunes and mash to a pulp. Add lemon juice, peel, and 2 tablespoons sugar; blend well.

Add remaining 2 tablespoons sugar to egg whites; beat until stiff. Fold prune mixture slowly into egg whites.

Pile lightly into greased baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 20 to 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Prune Salad

1 cup chopped, cooked prunes
2 cups chopped carrots
• ¼ cup chopped peanuts
¼ cup salad dressing
1 large orange, diced



1. Toss prunes together lightly with the carrots, orange and peanuts.
2. Moisten with salad dressing.
3. Serve plain or on lettuce or chopped cabbage. Serves 6.

• The peanuts may be omitted and ¼ cup peanut butter mixed with the salad dressing.

Cheese Souffle

3 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup scalded milk
1 to 1½ cups cheese, cut in pieces
3 egg yolks
3 egg whites
Paprika

Melt butter, add flour and seasonings. Add scalded milk gradually and stir until thick and smooth. Add cheese and stir until melted. Add slowly to yolks of eggs which have been beaten. Cool mixture slightly and cut and fold in whites beaten until stiff. Pour into one buttered baking dish or individual ones and bake 20 to 30 minutes in a slow oven (325° F.). Place the dish in a larger pan of hot water. When set, serve at once. Approximate yield: 6 servings, ⅓ cup each.

A 'Thank You' From Leader Staff

The regular staff of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av, extend a simple "thank you" to the families, social and cultural groups, our churches and schools, for their support during the past, friendly, six years.

We begin today our seventh year, and hope to continue to serve the interests of our neighbors.

Oliver Gedeist

North Carolina farm boy Oliver Gedeist has traveled a long and colorful road from humble beginnings to typical American success in accordance with traditions that speak from deep in the pages of rugged American history.

His father was a Protestant Methodist "circuit rider" and cotton farmer. Young Oliver worked in a cotton mill when only 10 years old (12 hours a day, 77 hours a week, for $1.10); made the important transition to opportunity in a print shop when only 11½.

"My Sunday school teacher became interested in me," Gedeist recalled this week.

He was a print shop foreman at 14 years, and soon after made the long trek to New York, where he became a printer on the old "World" and trained for a time on the "New York Times."

His career has been nailed to a strict regimen of hard work, constant study, association with people and social activities. After a lifetime of publishing, traveling and manufacturing, Gedeist said this week: "A young man must want an education 'with all his soul' . . . and he must know how to get it."

"The good that has come to me, came through 'absorption in social activities'," he said. "Opportunity came through the work of men 'who picked me up'."

Gedeist has traveled extensively—Africa, Asia, and all of the United States. He has a Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of Cincinnati; has been a lecturer in psychology and philosophy at Stanford University. He attended college in South Carolina; also Yale and Princeton.

"A happy life," he calls it.

He was in the voluntary air service in France during World War I (he learned to fly in 1910).

Mr. Gedeist has two children, a son attending the University of Wisconsin, and a daughter at Ohio State University. Mrs. Gedeist is a teacher in Columbus Public Schools.

Oliver Gedeist, dean of suburban Columbus newspaper editors, poses with things necessary to all editorial offices—the paste pot, the typewriter, and stacks of papers which roll out endlessly week after week. Gedeist began print shop work in North Carolina 58 years ago; he was 11½ years old and earned $3 per week. Since then he has been a newspaper broker—buying and selling and writing and printing — a business consultant and former managing head of the Coleric warm air furnace firm in Cincinnati. He joined the Hartley papers about two and a half years ago.

Tom Sharp

Thomas W. Sharp, display advertising department is starting his fifth year with the South Side Leader.

Tom came to the Leader after working for a weekly paper in Washington, D.C. and Denton, Md. He was born in Philadelphia, Pa. in 1929. After serving four years in the US Marine Corps he joined the fourth estate some seven years ago as a printer's devil in the back shop. The natural course of events took him into advertising.

Tom is president of the South Side Business and Industrial Association in his second term. He is also a member of the South East Lions Club, the Council of South Side Organizations, Southway Post of American Legion, Southeast Conservation Club and the United Business Associations.

Isabelle Coslett

Mrs. Isabelle Coslett is the newest member of the South Side Leader organization.

Born in Columbus, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Driscoll of the South Side. She is married and the couple has a daughter attending Barrett Jr. High School.

Mr. Coslett is associated with a dry cleaning company. Mrs. Coslett took over the classified advertising last fall, succeeding Mrs. Henrietta Sabine, retired, last November.

Jack Schluep

Jack Schluep, Circulation Manager for the South Side Leader, has been with Hartley Newspapers for nearly three years.

Jack came to the South Side after working for the Columbus Citizen for 14-years. He is a graduate of OSU's College of Business Administration and West High School.

He belongs to the Optimists Club, the Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus; is past president of St. Aloysius fund raising committee, a member of their Booster Club and church band, a member of St. Vincent de Paul Church.

He is a former warden and guard of Knights of Columbus Council 2898.

Jack served with the Navy for four years during World War II; is married to Mary Smith, a Long Beach, Calif. girl. They have five children.

He converted the South Side Leader from distribution by men to carrier boys in 1957.

"Super Duper" Opens On Parsons Ave. Very Soon

REMODELING ON THE BUILDING at 1776 Parsons-av is nearing completion and as soon as this extensive revamping job is completed a brand new super supermarket will open, says Manager Parsen of Ironton, O., who will be in charge. New fixtures and modern up-to-date accessories will be added to provide a clean, efficient grocery store for the people of the South Side, stated Chester Welford, also of Ironton, who will be the assistant manager. Opening is scheduled early in April.

PTA news for the current week . . . Heyl-av PTA meets at 1:30 this afternoon. Mrs. Adena Moffat, second-grade teacher, will tell about the highlights of her travels in Europe and will show slides as a part of the talk. New officers will be elected. A baby sitter will be available for pre-school children. Msgr. Bennett C. Applegate, diocesan superintendent of the Catholic Schools, will discuss "Your Child And The High School Curriculum" when St. Ladislaus PTA members convene for their 8 p.m. meeting today. "The Positive Approach To Health" will be discussed at Barrett Jr. High's 7:30 meeting tonight. Norman R. Gutry, of the Mental Health Association of Franklin County, will deliver the address. The Parent Education Study Group of Southwood School will present the program at the school at 1:30 this afternoon. Topic "Help For The Parent When The Child Asks About Sex," wil lbe discussed by Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Turner.

Our sympathy to Francis Rose who lost her sister last week. (The sister, Thelma Johnson Rothget had been a South Side resident for several years, so many of the readers would have known her.)

A bad fall is the unpleasant experience of Ruth Cherryholms Markison-av.

Cloverleaf Club meetings scheduled for the area this week are those of Leaf 2, Leaf 5, and Leaf 9. Leaf 2 will meet for cards and dessert in the home of Mrs. Herman Kaiser, 1399 Studer-av, at 8 p.m. on Mar. 25. Leaf 5 will meet on Mar. 25, at 8:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Paul Theado, 860 S. 17th-st. Leaf 9 will have a casserole dinner on Mar. 29 at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Elmer Stehle, 247 Sycamore-st.

Birthday wishes go to these South Siders at this time: Scott Buller, 326 Frebis-av; M. Oakley 333 Frebis-av; Herb Hampton, 190 Jenkins-av, who had a natal day Mar. 16; Dorothy Weakley, 1440 Champion-av, who will have a birthday Mar. 26.

The South Unit of the Columbus League of Voters will be meeting on Tuesday, Mar. 25, in the home of Mrs. Earl A. Todt, 644 Napoleon-av. Current federal administration of water resources and recommendations for change in the government machinery made by groups studying this problem will be discussed. Miss Arline Zonder will be the discussion leader and Mrs. Robert J. Duffy will be the resource person. Meeting time is 8:15 p.m.

Get-well wishes to these ailing folks: Shirley Bronson, who underwent surgery in Mt. Carmel Hospital; Twlya McCain, 1547 S. Champion-av, who had mumps; Ray Phillips, 1336 Bruck-st, who underwent surgery in St. Anthony's Hospital; Carl Crissinger, active in Cub Scouts, at St. Leo's, now recuperating at home after an auto accident necessitated a hospital stay; Mrs. Eddie Maxwell (formerly Helen Heil), a former South Sider, underwent surgery last week in Chillicothe. Columbus friends could cheer her convalescence by sending cards to her home address, 844 Sherman, Chillicothe. Maurine Ruden, 901 Heyl-av, has also been on the ailing list, as has Marie Cook, of 1413 S. 6th-st.

The instrumental department of South High School will present a concert tomorrow night. Following the program a dance will be held in the school gymnasium.

Our greatest sympathy to the Graumlich family at this sad time.

Birthdays will be celebrated by these youngsters in the near future . . . Sandra Kimball, 1515½ Parsons-av, Mar. 24; Karen Keeney, 429 Hanford-st, Mar. 26; Barbara Johnson, 241 E. Moler-st, Mar. 23; James Harrow, 17 E. Jenkins, Mar. 24; Beverlee Wells, 1677 S. High-st, Mar. 24.

The Membership Campaign Committee will have charge of the weekly dinner, next Wednesday, Mar. 26, at the Moose Hall, 36 W. Sycamore-st. The menu consists of baked ham, baked potato, apple sauce, tossed salad, ice cream and cookies, bread, butter and coffee. There will be open house held on Mar. 20, so keep that in mind, too. (This Sunday, 100 Legions will be watching programs from Mooseheart and Moosehaven on a closed circuit network).

Two of the gals at Snedeker's have birthdays in the first quarter of the year, so belated greeting to Vica Drake, 1732 S. 6th-st, who had a late February "special" day and to Gladys Stewart, 1636 S. 4th-st, whose birthday occured yesterday.

Get well cards would be appropriate at this time for the father of a well known South Sider. Oscar Workman, father of Marge Hoptry, has been hospitalized, though we don't know if that is his status now. His home address is 411 Oakwood-av.

Sorry to say, illness has been no stranger to the Hoptry family recently. First Bill (and the dog!), then Marge, now her dad. And another item anent Mr. Workman. His birthday will occur on Mar. 27. Get-well wishes to Don Thomas, 757 Deshler-av, who partook of hospital hospitality last week.

We'll remind you again that Margie Speakmon, 820 S. 3rd-st would appreciate your cottage cheese cartons, to be used as Easter baskets for patients at Orient and State Hospital. Her phone is HI. 4-0832 should you care to call her. If you have no cottage cheese cartons, but would like to help with the project, Margie suggests candy as a big item. Mar. 29 is her deadline, incidentally.

Mar. 29 at South Methodist Church, the Campfire Girls' of this area will be holding a "Meet the People" party, and will be open to all. The affair will last from 7 to 9 p.m. We hope to see you there, hmm?

A former South Sider ran an ice pick through a finger, so perhaps her erstwhile Thurman-av neighbors would like to send a card to her. Wonna Eberts is the unfortunate gal and her address is 338 John-st, Springfield, O.

Don't think we forgot any of the items, so will say adieu for another week. Do call us at HI. 4-1051, won't you? We'll be waiting. Till next week then, tis — The Gadabout.

South Gate Optimists Meet 25th

The South Gate Optimist Club will meet Wednesday, Mar. 26, at the home of Mrs. Fred Krauss, 174 N. Cassingham-rd. At 12:30 a potluck dinner will be served. Assisting Mrs. Krauss are Edith and Dorothy Krauss.

After the dinner, a business meeting will be held, presided over by Mrs. Helen Clark, president, who will also give a book review on "Cross and Crises in Japan," written by Charles Iglehart. Mrs. Mildred Elsnaugle publicity chairman, said.

Thurman Jr. Choir To Sing 'The Palms'

The Junior Church Choir of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church will sing "The Palms" on Palm Sunday at 10:30 worship service. The director of the choir is Mrs. Paul White; assistant pianist, Miss Elaine Hardwick; and special music consultant for the Easter program, Mrs. Carl Jones.

TENSHUN, KITE PILOTS!

Keep 'em flying...safely!

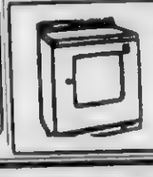
March winds are fine for kite-flying, but may we suggest some sensible directions to keep in mind?

Keep kites away from utility lines. If your kite does become entangled in a line, call the Electric Company to have a lineman remove it. Only he can remove it safely. Use only wooden crossbars. Use only dry string.



We ask your cooperation in following these common sense rules. Have fun . . . but fly 'em safely!

South Side Citizens Fight For New YMCA

A group of the South Side YMCA Special Gifts Division eagerly scans the list of prospects at a prospect selection meeting in Barrett Junior High School. Flexible Fingers Forged Beautiful Flowers While A Skeptic Looked On

Ardene and an assistant at work

Staff Writer

Somewhere, at some time, I have heard of "wood flowers" —heard of it in a passing sort of way. Recently I heard about it again, and it happened that I could go and see for myself that flowers from wood are real and pretty and may even have appropriate fragrance if desired. Enlightment desired, I went to see Ardene at the flower shop bearing her name, at 859 City Park-av.

"Yes," she said, "wood flowers are real—beautiful, too, and you may have any fragrance you desire." Then Ardene was joined by a co-worker and photographed while she produced a wood flower. I still know little, but am glad I had a chance to see the impossible—roses and other flowers made from wood fibers instead of growing in the flower garden.

Ardene also maintains classes in the art of making wood fiber into flowers.

Baseball Coach Optimistic About 'Bulldogs' In 1958

By Judie Farley

With the advent of spring comes the cry "Play ball" as the South High Bulldog nine take to the field for the 1958 season.

Bob Fearing, South's baseball coach, says that he is optimistic about this year's team and thinks it will fare better than last year's squad, which had a season record of two wins and 13 losses. Seven of these losses, however, were by one run and this points out two of the real needs this year: harder hitting and faster base running.

"We also need another good pitcher to back up Chris Scheiderer," Coach Fearing said.

The coach is building his team around the returning lettermen, among whom are four seniors, Chris Scheiderer, pitcher; Alan Weinberg, catcher; Mike Bordy, infielder; Don Dreher, infielder. Returning junior lettermen are Don Zauderer, first baseman; Doug Childers, pitcher-outfielder; Tom Noble, catcher; and George Jones, outfielder.

The boys have been working out in the gym for about three weeks because of the weather, and didn't have their first real practice on the field until Mar. 20. Although this session was kept brief by sudden snow flurries, at least they will have a field of their own to practice on when it gets warmer. Last year's team did all its practicing and played all "home" games at Greenlawn Field due to the construction of the new instrumental room at South.

Coach Fearing hasn't as yet selected his starting nine but he hopes to have that job out of the way today. South's first game will be Apr. 8 at Aquinas. The first home game of the season will be with West High on Apr. 11.

Gulf, Not Golf Is The Word

Our mistake! Last week in an advertisement in the South Side Leader we spelled the name of Adkins Gulf Service wrong, using "Golf" instead of Gulf. This was a printer's error. J. Garland Adkins is known to many South Siders and we apologize to his many friends and to Garland. The address of his new service station is 2193 S. High-st.

Forest Lawn's Easter Service

An Easter service will be held again this year at 8 o'clock Easter morning in the Christus Garden of Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens, 5600 East Broad-st.

Rev. Eugene Frazer, pastor of Eastview Methodist Church, will be in charge of the service. Mrs. Jerry Culberston, noted choir leader, will conduct the choir.

Playground

Approximately six additional acres of ground adjacent to Deshler School property have been purchased for recreational purposes.

The property was purchased because other land recently purchased in the Fairwood-rd area is swampy and the cost of drainage would be prohibitive, it was reported.

In Columbus City Council

Fire Houses

Columbus City Council appropriated $30,000 for the hiring of engineers to prepare plans and specifications for two new fire engine houses Monday night.

One of the two structures is to be located at Livingston-av and Hamilton-rd. Site of the other is at Southgate and Parsons-avs and/or Lockbourne and Refugee-rds.

Fluoridation

Councilmen earmarked $4700 for the printing and mailing of postcards announcing the charter amendment on fluoridation.

Schiller Theater

Parks and Forestry Division will soon be able to begin work on the $15,000 Schiller Park open-air theater, Council authorized the buying of materials for the installation.

Calendar Of Church Groups' Meetings

The Oakwood Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the church Apr. 2, with business at 9:30 a.m. Lunch will be served at 12 noon. Mrs. Ruth Harper will conduct an open discussion meeting. The subject will be "Ye Are My Witness." Mrs. Earl Tolle will give devotions. Circles will meet as follows:

Son-In-Law To Preach Sunday

Rev. R. W. Hurdiss

Rev. Richard W. Hurdiss, of Cleveland will be the speaker at the Thursday night Lenten service on Mar. 27, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Rev. Hurdiss is pastor of the Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church, Cleveland, and is the son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Kaefer, pastor of St. Paul. There will be a coffee hour after the services.

Easter Egg Hunt Gets OK For '58

The Council of South Side Organizations voted at its March meeting to again participate in the Journal Easter Egg Hunt.

The Council discussed the fact that too often the number of eggs is inadequate and many youngsters are disappointed. It was thought that this should be corrected.

The Council purchased and donated a case of eggs for the "hunt." (The case totals 30 dozen or 360 eggs). Area school home economic classes will prepare the eggs.

Final plans will be made this evening, when the executive committee holds its monthly meeting at the South Side YMCA.

Scioto Trail PTA Events Slated

Committee for the Scioto Trail PTA bake sale to be held Saturday, Mar. 29, in Kresge's GSSC store, are Mrs. Betty Harris, Mrs. Alma Morris and Mrs. Barbara Grier.

The sale begins at 10:30 a.m.

The PTA will meet at the school on Tuesday, Apr. 1, for a regular business meeting to be followed by a talent show.

Crucifixion

South Methodist Church Choir will present Stainer's "The Crucifixion" on Palm Sunday night at 7:30. Robert Kessler will direct the choir and Mrs. Wavelyn Selby will be at the organ.

During Holy Week, services will be held each evening with the minister speaking on "Jesus and Discipleship." The annual candlelight Communion Service will be held Thursday evening.

Entertainment At Schiller

Leathercraft

Adult classes in leathercraft meet every Tuesday evening from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at Schiller Recreation Center. These classes are designed to instruct carving, lacing, and all phases of leathercraft. Beginners should register either at the Center or by phone HI. 4-7262. Advanced students may continue instruction by same method. Children who have had basic leather work may attend only when accompanied by an adult student.

Want To Play Volleyball?

The volleyball season is getting underway this week at Schiller Recreation Center. The volleyball program at Schiller is set up for both boys and girls in three age groups, junior, 12 and under; intermediate, 13 to 15; seniors, 16 through 18. There will also be an adult league if a sufficient number are interested. Any person interested as an individual or as a team should contact LeRoy Wise or Jeanne Williams at the Center by appearing in person or calling HI. 4-7262 and reserving a place.

Busy Bunny

The Easter Bunny has already started to prepare for the big egg hunt at Schiller on Apr. 5. Last week he stopped at the center to tell the staff that all boys and girls eight years old and younger will be welcome to take part in this activity. While visiting the Center, he also made arrangements with the Schiller Park Golden Age Club to color approximately 2,000 eggs, which will be hidden throughout the park.

"How I Made My Chinese Abacus"

Science Future Seems To Be Assured At Ohio Science Fair

TWO THIRDS OF WHAT IT TAKES to make automobiles start on cold mornings: South High's Bob Chamberlain, 1452 S. Champion-av, knows ignition systems first hand. He explains the finer points of both magneto and battery systems to Marion-Franklin's Roger Donely, 974 Lawrence-dr. Roger collected carburetors: a racing manifold (Edelbrock), and an old Chevy up-draft, a new Mercury four-barrel, a side-draft model. Both boys picked up their hobbies from their fathers.

A visitor to the Buckeye Building on Ohio State Fairgrounds Saturday might be amazed at how scientific-smart the modern school youth has become.

And they are not alarmed at all by deficiencies in democracy's contest with communism for scientific supremacy.

More than 400 students from central Ohio high schools, and a few from junior highs, convened there for a friendly companionable contest sponsored by the Ohio Academy of Sciences.

The Buckeye Building was filled to overflowing. Long benches were set up; all sorts of intriguing demonstrations and displays brought in from home workshops and schools.

The day-long crowd of exhibitors, teachers, friends and school mates visited and talked science, exchanged bits of classroom gossip.

There was rivalry to be sure, but it was companionable too.

The new exciting fields of rocketry and electronics were well demonstrated. The old standbys of basic chemistry and physics also were demonstrated. And the peaceful and healthful things, such as the study of heart and pancreas, were everywhere (proportionately more of the latter it seemed).

Two of the most intriguing were: "How I made my slide rule" and "The history of the Chinese Abacus."

The students arrived at the fairgrounds Saturday in school buses, station wagon and the family car. Each brought his own special project.

Some were simple and illustrative — a poster, samples, a thesis or explanation.

Others were elaborate devices: lights lighted; colored fluids bubbled in bent glass tubes; there were "pickled" animal specimens.

The boys and girls (research laboratories will be staffed increasingly by the ladies, it seems), by their displays, showed "sound principles already learned."

Rev. E. Hundley At Groveport Church Of Christ

Rev. E. J. Hundley

The Groveport Church of Christ in Christian Union, on S. Center-st, will sponsor a special series of Easter season services Apr. 1 through 13, at 7:30 each evening. The guest speaker will be Rev. E. J. Hundley.

All services will include special singing. Easter will be observed with a sunrise service at 6 a.m. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Skate Spot Is Allotted At Schiller

Skating as a popular outdoor pastime has been recognized by several departments of city government.

The Council of South Side Organizations said this week that joint action by the Columbus Recreation Department, Parks and Forestry, and Engineering Department, has set aside an area approximately 300 feet by approximately 15 feet to be developed for skating on Schiller grounds.

Date for the completion of the development program was not announced. However, the program may be realized during the summer.

School Guardians . . . Of Their Mates

Deshler Avenue Elementary School thinks highly of its Safety Patrol members. Much information had come to the South Side Leader about this school group of guardians of the "little" tots. The photographer for the Hartley Newspapers, which includes The South Side Leader, accompanied the editor to the school and "shot the bunch." Reading from left to right, members of the Safety Patrol, are, front row, Richard Hammond, Mike Douridas, Tommy Hauck, Eddie Bostic, Freddie Hamler, Bruce Reed, Jimmy Westlake, Bobby Matthew, Tommy Ballinger, Mike Smith. In second row: Roger Peer, Jerry Chase, Kenny Smith, Phil Lee, Allen Glickler, Miss Loudermilk, Larry Dunning, Rodney Miller, Paul Wine, Bill Crozier, Robert Teeters.

'Y' Church Leagues End 1958 Season; Awards Made

The South Side Branch YMCA Church Basketball Party was held at Gates-Fourth Methodist Church last Tuesday night. Awards were presented to the teams winning the most games, teams from each league who displayed good sportsmanship, and the individual sportsmen from each team of the Junior and Intermediate Leagues.

Coach Duncan Speaks

Headlining the program was Robert Duncan, head football coach at South High School, who talked to the boys on the meaning of sportsmanship and its relation to athletics and community life. Bruce Gischel of St. Paul United Church of Christ spoke in behalf of the players in expressing his appreciation to the Y and managers who made this year's leagues possible. Recognized during the course of the program was John Kramer and Bob Bateman, past leaders in the inter-church athletic program for the past 12 years. Entertainment was provided by Otto and Harold Gall of St. Paul United Church of Christ. Herbert Germain, who led the group in song, and also a film of the highlights of last year's Ohio State football team.

Boys accepting awards for individual sportsmanship from the Junior League were Don Wray, Central Community; Ernie Vance, Frebis Avenue Church of God; Dave Pence, Livingston Methodist; Jerry Wigfield, Oakwood Methodist; Bill Warren, St. John United Church of Christ; and Wally Ruecke, St. Paul United Church of Christ.

Intermediate boys who earned the award were Bob Druggan, Gates-Fourth Methodist; Steve Miller, Oakwood Methodist; Steve Rounds, Ohio Avenue

Friday Night Dance For Couples Only

Success with the St. Patrick's Day dance at Schiller Recreation Center has resulted in making Friday evening dances for couples only — ages 13 to 18 years. Girls will wear dresses or skirts and blouses. The boys will wear dress pants and dress or sport shirts, the Schiller folks say.

Refreshments will be served.

Auditor, Treasurer Hold Important Offices

First Of A Series . . .

YMCA, YWCA SPRANG FROM NEEDS OF TIMES

This is one of a series of topics by distinguished citizens of Columbus, bearing on the purposes, programs, and the activities of the YMCA and the YWCA.

Harrison M. Sayre, Civic Leader and Churchman

On a January day in 1855, forty men, representing several creeds, gathered in the old First Presbyterian Church — where the Hartman Theatre Building now stands — and adopted a constitution for the Young Men's Christian Association of Columbus.

They elected a young attorney — an elder in the Presbyterian Church and superintendent of its Sunday School — as the first president.

In this same church the Women's Christian Association was formed in 1893 as a branch of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union. A year later the charter was amended to read YWCA instead of WCA and in 1910 the YWCA absorbed the W.E.I.U.

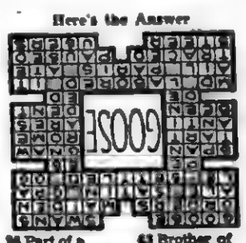
Thus both organizations were the seed of the church, deriving their creative impulses and their initial energies from church members. From the outset, however, both institutions sought to serve the entire community. With passing years, they have earned and won widespread community support.

Both organizations sprung from the needs of the times — needs that the churches could not supply: wholesome boarding homes for young men and women, classes in the industrial arts, homemaking courses, classes in physical culture and health education, personal and job counseling, all essential in the transposition from a rural to an urban industrial civilization.

With their wide range of programs, adapted to virtually all ages, their dedicated professional staffs, supplemented by hundreds of devoted volunteers, the YMCA and the YWCA continue to demonstrate their Christian faith through countless activities designed to provide young people with opportunities for growth in a complex world.

The truths that older generations believed eternal are being challenged. All truths are under fire. The youth of today are flooded with new scientific discoveries, conflicting opinions, and violent controversies. They need such organizations as the YMCA and the YWCA, which believe that the future is conditioned by our faith in it; that faith is essential as a working hypothesis.

The end of our civilization is not threatened by anything the universe may do to us, but only by what man may do to himself.



Boys and girls, and men and women, seeking fellowship, participation, education, and recreation find these two Associations eager to share their resources to make a better community and a better world.

In this effort, men of good will of all faiths have an opportunity to sustain and extend these faithful arms of service.

Dear Son

Meeting Delayed A Week

Chittlin Switch
Sunday Afternoon

Dear Jason:

Well, the Sewer Worker's Convention was called off at the last moment until next week. We leave next Friday. However, I hate the thought of that long ride up there. Last year it took an awful long time as the bus stopped at every post. It was a greyhound you see. (That's a joke son!).

Things around the Switch have been rather quiet since I wrote last week. However, your sister Morphine brought home a painting of herself that the visiting artist from New York painted of her. I nearly fainted when I saw it as she didn't have a stitch of clothes on. I told her I didn't like the idea of her posing like that but she told me not to worry. She didn't have to pose at all as he did it from memory.

You may remember old Clem Gooch. He died last week and a crowd of us went over to Polecat Ridge to the funeral parlor to pay our last respects. As we were leaving the home, the undertaker noticed old Maude Tench shuffleing away and he asked Maude how old she was. Maude proudly boasted that she was one hundred and one. He told her it was hardly worth her while to go home.

Your Paw and I went to the Gem Theater the other night and during the picture your Paw got down on his hands and knees feeling around under the seat for about five minutes. Finally when he got back in his seat I asked him what he had lost and he told me he dropped some caramels he was chewing. I couldn't understand anyone going to all that trouble. He told me it was not the caramel but his teeth was stuck in it.

Write soon,
Your loving,
MOM

Some men are fired with imagination and others receive the usual, brief notice.

County Financial affairs are administered by two separate offices, that of the Auditor and of the Treasurer. The Auditor's office is responsible for tax administration while the Treasurer handles the county purse.

Reilly

The Auditor's functions begin early in each year when his office makes an estimate of the income for each taxing subdivision (village, city, school district, township) in the county. Whereupon he issues to each a certificate of estimated income for the year. This is important as none of the subdivisions can pass any appropriation ordinance or resolution until such certificate is received.

The Auditor's office, within the provisions of the state and state laws, also determines the tax rate for each taxing subdivision. Such rate is set after the respective budgets are received. It should be noted, incidentally, that any tax above the flat ten mill limitation cannot, under the constitution of Ohio, be levied without at least a majority vote of the people.

This office, under the general supervision and direction of the State Board of Tax Appeals, is also the appraiser for taxation purposes for all real estate in the county. In addition, the Auditor acts as agent for the State Department of Taxation in the handling of all personal and classified taxes for the county.

The Auditor's office has an essential role in the administration of estates. For the Auditor, as agent for the Department of Taxation, must take an inventory of all safety deposit boxes for inheritance tax purposes.

The big issue from an executor's or an heir's viewpoint is that the contents cannot be removed from the box until they have been checked by an agent of the Auditor's office.

The County Treasurer is responsible for collecting and depositing tax revenues. It is quite a collection —amounting to about $50,000,000 a year. The two largest collections are the real estate tax ($25,000,000) and sales taxes ($12,000,000).

The Treasurer's office is organized into four departments. They include real-estate and personal and classified taxes; sales tax; cashier; and delinquent taxes.

The real estate department is charged with recording tax payments and tax billing. The latter is a full time, year around job for six people, for there are 180,000 pieces of real estate alone in the county which must have a tax payers address. Each of these tax payers is then billed for taxes.

It Should be noted that approximately 30,000 of Franklin County properties have mortgages. Consequently, such tax bills are distributed among 85 financial institutions in the county. It is also part of this department's work to keep records of property transfers and changes in tax payer's mailing addresses. There are about 100 transfers a day, averaging around 30,000 per day.

The sales tax department represents a major financial operation. Under Ohio law merchants must purchase sales tax stamps from recognized agencies. And the treasurer's office is the major sales tax agency in the county. In fact, the office sells about $10,000,000 of sales tax stamps each year, representing $33,000,000 of retail sales.

The cashier's department, as its name implies, receives county tax payments along with various types of fees from other county offices. This department does an etxensive pay window business, as around 50,000 tax payers come in personally twice each year to pay their real estate tax.

The delinquent tax department, in conjunction with the prosecutor's office, keeps in touch with all delinquent real estate taxes in the county. This function is controlled by law. The law provides that after these taxes are due and unpaid for one year they are certified as delinquent. After that, at least two more years must elapse before property may be sold for taxes.

These two offices are administered by elective officials who serve four year terms. Fred C. Dunn is the County Auditor. Newton Thatcher is County Treasurer.

The financial administration of a county with over 600,000 inhabitants is a major undertaking which affects the welfare of every one in the county. Consequently, these two offices represent an important phase of county government.

Daily Duty Holds Key To Virtue

IN the story of the transfiguration, Christ did not take all the apostles into the mountain with Him, but only Peter, James and John. Perhaps the experience was one for which the rest were not fitted. Yet Peter, James and John would not seem to have been particularly prepared for the experience, for we are told that during it their eyes were heavy with sleep.

Perhaps the vision which the story records came to them in the form of a dream on the mountaintop. But it was real and unforgettable. Christ appeared in a glorified form with Moses and Elias.

The apostles were astounded. They didn't know what to say. But Peter, always ready to say something in his impulsiveness, burst out with, "Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles."

Just then a cloud overshadowed them and a voice was heard, saying, "This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased. Hear him."

With the voice, the vision disappeared, and Christ was standing alone. Deeply impressed and holding their peace, the apostles came down with Him from the mountaintop and returned to the sufferings and needs of the people.

There is the story of a demented child and of the healing that Christ brought to him and comfort to his distressed parents. "And they were all astonished at the majesty of God."

We cannot have such an experience unless we go to the mountain with the Master. And such experiences are worthless unless they bring us back, as Christ and the three apostles, to daily duty and service.

He Does Something About The Weather!

When severe cold weather strikes, more people want more natural gas. This man, with his complicated gauges and control devices, sees that you get it.

The gauges tell him instantly — and automatically — the signs of increased consumption. In many places, by merely pushing a few buttons, he sends more gas on its way. To meet demands he draws on pipeline gas and his gas storage "bank account" — the vast reserves of natural gas that were stored underground during warm weather by the Columbia Gas System.

This accurate control of your natural gas supply under changing weather conditions is one more reason why this "wonder fuel" is the most dependable you can use. And modern, efficient natural gas serves you best when you use it with modern, automatic gas appliances.

advisor at Marion-Franklin, was secretary.

Hupp explained the large registration as "down this year . . . fewer entries . . . but perhaps better ones." Many schools carried out their own eliminations, Hupp said.

Despite this, West High School had more than a hundred entries.

During the afternoon all displays were evaluated by a panel of educator judges and rated "good, excellent or superior." About 150 to 200 students who won superior ratings will make a trek to Akron University on Apr. 11 for "finals."

South High School entered six boys, Marion-Franklin entered four.

Representing South High were Robert Seman, plastics and fibers (excellent); Rheinhold Tischler, sub-atomic particles (superior); Ralph Walls, Van de Graaff generator (superior); Richard Mosely, minerals (superior); Robert Chamberlain, ignition system (excellent); Bruce Papier, application of photoelectric effect (superior).

From Marion-Franklin were Roger Donely, carburetion (superior); David Nippert, explosives (good); Clovis Butterworth, fossils (superior); John Ferrell, explosives (good).

School studies in general, under the guidance of their teachers (chemistry, physics, biology and general science) contributed much to the youths' applied learning. The boys gave quick credit.

But several admitted that "Dad" had a part in the achievement — first answers, inspiration and encouragement. "Reading" was another first impression listed.

The future of science seems to be in good, young hands.

FOSSILS STILL HAVE THEIR PLACE IN modern education: Marion-Franklin's Clovis Butterworth, 1057 Lawrence-dr, explains his collection for schoolmate David Nippert, 1615 Berkley-rd. Clovis began collection trips throughout Ohio last year after "reading" about fossils.

Plan Project For Private Recreation

A private recreation area — with swimming pool and typical three-season sports facilities — will be built soon on a 1¾ acre tract at Waverly and Fulton-sts.

The project will cost approximately $50,000, to be known as "The Hampton Towers Club," and have facilities for tennis, badminton, horseshoes, volleyball, shuffle-board, and two pools.

It is expected to be in operation by June 1.

The center will be incorporated "not for profit." Promoters hope to limit the membership to 200 families who can join by purchasing a $250 bond, which may be budgeted at $12.08 per month. The $250 is returned if membership is ever withdrawn.

Nine trustees will control the club. Three have been named to one-year terms. They include: Paul Goss, 1109 S. Hampton-rd; Ernest Winnestaffer, 1140 Hampton-rd; and Ben Clark, 3300 Towers-ct, S.

According to Winnestaffer, 125 families already have applied for membership in the center. The present plans call for a swimming pool 35 by 75 feet for adults and a children's pool, 10 by 35 feet.

Plans are being presented to the zoning commission. Construction is expected to get underway soon after.

The ingredients in salad oil or dressing influence the price. Those products containing olive oil, for example, will be priced one-fourth to one-third higher than those with other oils.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Fish Reported Biting

I'll have to admit that I have not been fishing yet this spring, but it won't be long before I go. Cecil Forrest, proprietor of Forrest Lake near West Jefferson, told me a few days ago that fishermen have been catching bullheads and channel catfish out of his place for about two weeks. He said the crappies hadn't started hitting yet, but they should at any moment.

Don Veth caught his first smallmouth of the year in Big Darby Creek a week ago. It weighed a pound and a half, and he had another larger one hooked that got away.

The early spring fishing season is particularly exciting to most anglers, because they haven't wet a line since last September — and that is a long time. It's all right to start fishing as soon as the ice is out, if you know how to fish in frigid water. Even though the day may be bright and sunny, do not expect the action you would in late April and May. There are exceptions, but as a rule you won't fill your stringer with bluegills and bass until the water temperature reaches 60 degrees.

It's Bullheads, Crappies Now

The prime targets for early fishing excursions are bullheads and crappies. For bullheads you should use worms or minnows for bait, and fish them on the bottom. Its slow, lazy fishing, but that is what you need for your first case of spring fever. Lounging along a bank in the warm sunshine is what most doctors order; the string of bullheads is an added bonus.

Crappies go for minnows and small silver spinners. Fish around snags and brushpiles. When you catch one, you will usually catch a few more because they travel in schools. Most fishermen use a small bobber when fishing minnows, so that they can enjoy the scenery until the bobber starts dancing.

If the temptation to fish for bass is just too hard to resist, don't fight it. You should, however, fish your baits near the bottom and work them very slowly. Artificials should be allowed to sink, and then worked in short hops. Live baits should be drifted slowly as possible too. When fishing for largemouth bass in farm ponds this time of year, try the shallow, weedy edges. The sun warms the shallow water first, and that's where the fish like to lie and thaw out.

Fishing on the surface for bass and bluegills in early spring is practically a waste of time.

Well, I'm happy to report that the fishing rush is on. Good fishing — and don't forget to buy your new fishing license. The new tag became effective on Mar. 1.

College Students Help At Schiller

Two college students are participating in the basketball officiating program at Schiller Recreation Center.

Two sophomore physical education majors from Ohio State University are volunteering their services each Monday evening as officials for the girls' basketball league games. The two whistle-tooters are Sylvia Shrider of Thornville, and Emily Bloser of Springfield.

The girls have combined a community service and their studies as they have arranged to have their experience at the center count toward class work under the watchful eye of Miss Martha Dendy, instructor in the Women's Department of Physical Education at the university, and Jean Williams, director of girls' athletics at Schiller.

St. Leo Dinner Being Planned

Members of St. Leo's PTA are busy making plans for their annual spaghetti dinner, to be held Sunday, Mar. 30, in the school hall, Hanford and Bruckst. Dinner will be served from 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Schneider is chairman of the affair, assisted by the following: Mrs. Robert Burkey, co-chairman; Mrs. Ralph Emerick, salad; Mrs. Frank McGarvey, dessert; Mrs. Anthony Ebelberger, coffee; Andrew Theado and James Sergie, refreshments; Charles Schneider, tickets; John Riat, kitchen help.

Bulletins

SCIOTO TRAIL PTA

A bake sale will be held in Kresge's Great Southern Shopping Center Saturday, Mar. 29, starting at 10:30 a.m.; the Scioto Trail Elementary School PTA will sponsor. All kinds of home baked goods will be sold.

Death Ruled Natural In Collision

Death following a minor traffic accident Sunday afternoon was attributed to natural causes by Deputy Coroner Dr. Carl E. Tetirick following examination of the body of Mrs. Helen Watson, 56, of 619 Siebert-st. She was pronounced dead upon arrival at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Near Grove City

State highway patrolmen said the accident occurred on Grove-City-rd, a mile west of Grove City, when her 61-year-old husband, Morton, became ill and lost control of his car.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Betty Irwin of Columbus; a son, Morton W. of Amarillo, Tex., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services are being held at 10:30 a.m. this morning, Thursday, in the Held Funeral Home. Burial in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Robert Ring At Fort Lewis

Army Sergeant First Class Robert L. Ring, 38, son of Mrs. Robert L. Ring, 1870 S. High, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 4th Infantry Division at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The exercise was designed to test the division's combat readiness.

Sergeant Ring, assigned to the division's Headquarters Company, entered the Army in 1951 and has served in the Far East.

The sergeant, whose wife, Barbara, lives in Olympia Wash., is a 1946 graduate of St. Ignatius High School and a 1951 graduate of John Carroll University. He is a former employe of the Boeing Airplane Co., in Seattle.

Lutherans Plan Union Good Friday Services

Columbus' first joint noonday Good Friday Lenten Services, sponsored by the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, will be held at Zion Lutheran Church, 766 S. High-st.

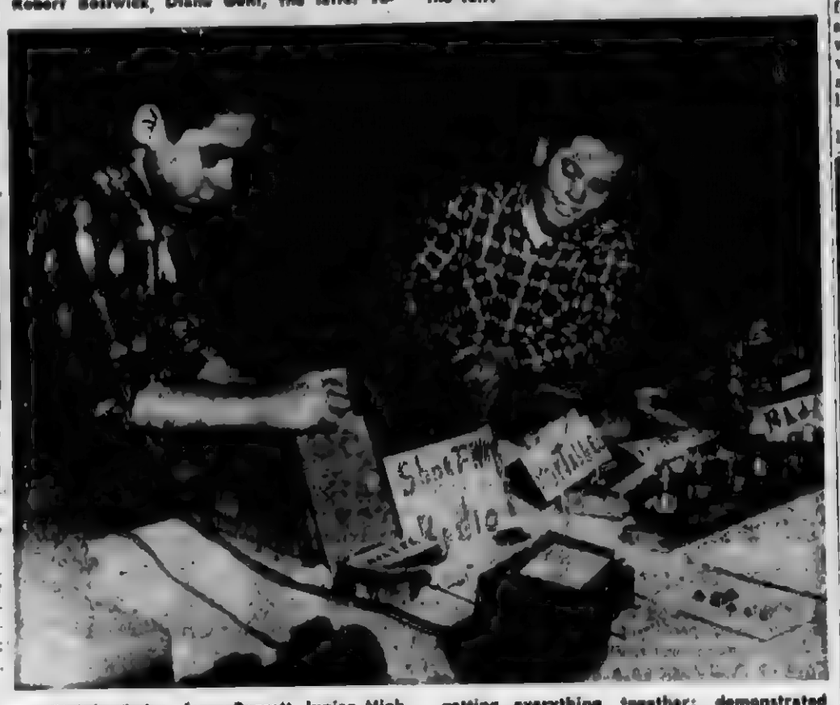
Seven cooperating congregations are St. John Lutheran Church, Amlin; Holy Cross Lutheran Church for the Deaf, 153 E. Lane-av; Concordia Lutheran Church, 45 S. Brinker-av; St. James Lutheran Church 1683 Rome-Hilliards-rd; Zion Lutheran Church, 766 S. High-st; University Lutheran Church 45 E. 13th-av, and Worthington Lutheran Church, 35 E. Stanton-av.

Services will be continuous from noon until 3 p.m. in six 25 minute periods. The six sermons will have a unified theme constrasting the hearts of five outstanding characters of the Passion Story with the heart of Christ.

Musical arrangements are under the direction of Rev. Edward A. Rauff, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Mackensen, organist of Worthington Lutheran. Vocal soloists will include Curtis N. Lindberg, 3731 Eisenhower-rd; Mrs. Richard Wohlman, 62 W. Tulane-rd; Fred Ingerham, 837 Mark-pl, and Mrs. Eltora Bowers, 270 W. Main-st, Groveport.

Program arrangements are under the direction of Rev. O. F. Stolzenburg, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church. Rev. E. H. Joost of St. John Lutheran, Amlin, will serve as liturgist.

During the first period, noon to 12:25, "Judas, The Backslidden Heart" will be discussed by Rev. Herbert Drachenburg, Holy Cross Lutheran Church for the Deaf.



Second period, topic, 12:30 to 12:55, will be on "Peter, the Wavering Heart," by Rev. Paul F. Hutchinson, Concordia Lutheran Church; third period, 1 to 1:25 p.m., "Caiaphas, The Hardened Heart" by Rev. E. C. Grugel, St. James Lutheran Church.

Fourth period, 1:30 to 1:55, "Pilate, The Selfish Heart," by Rev. O. F. Stolzenburg, Zion Lutheran Church; fifth period, 2 to 2:25, "Mary, The Submissive Heart" by Rev. Kenneth Frerking, University Lutheran Student Chapel; sixth period, 2:30 to 3:00, "Jesus, The Heart of Love" by Rev. Edward A. Rauff, Worthington Lutheran Church.

Barrett Exhibitors Win High Awards at Science Fair

Barrett Junior High School was represented in the Science Fair at the Fair Grounds last Saturday by Joe Streaty, Ralf Tischler, Carol Hahn, Ernest Bean, Larry Mallory, Robert Bostwick, Diane Gohl, the latter receiving a "Superior" rating. Others in the group rated "Excellent." All exhibitors received certificates of appreciation from the Ohio Academy of Science, which sponsored the fair.

Eighth graders from Barrett Junior High School share a radio and Hi-Fi project. Ernest Bean, 1353 City Park, is responsible for condensers; Larry Mallory, 800 S. High-st, specializes on speakers. Boys were three weeks getting everything together; demonstrated different parts, different radios . . . told the judges what they could do. Boys also know Morse Code. Display attracted a crowd of music fans all afternoon.

Revenue Office States Income Tax Regulations

There has been little change in Federal income tax filing requirements from last year, according to District Director Nathaniel Looker of the Internal Revenue Service. Minor changes in the forms and instruction booklets recently received by Ohio taxpayers should help them in the preparation of their 1957 returns, he indicated.

Those under 65 who had a gross income of $600 or more during 1956 must file. If over 65, the income base for filing rises to $1,200. In joint filings, where one person is under, the other over 65, and for questions of birthdays during the year, the instruction booklet is clear and detailed, Mr. Looker says. If both are over 65, the base income becomes $2,400 before filing is required.

Self-employed individuals whose net earnings were $400 or more must file. Persons whose incomes were less than $600—$1,200 for those 65 or over — should file quickly to obtain refunds. There are believed to be several thousand students who worked during vacation or on weekends or before of after school, to whom this would very likely apply.

Returns must be made no later than Apr. 15.

Fertilizer delivered in winter for spring use should be stored on a dry floor and kept away from livestock.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lease
HI. 4-1851

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings, Mar. 9, celebrated four March birthdays in the Jones family of 317 E. Moler-st. Three of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Jones and one grandchild, were the celebrants. The four are Marjorie Gribbee, Mar. 7; Jean Romonsky, Mar. 12; Richard Jones Mar. 18; little Ronnie Romonsky, who will be one year old tomorrow, Mar. 28. In addition to the parents and celebrants, these members of the family were also present: Pauline Winters and children, Bob, George, Charlene and Beverly Ann; Charles Gribble and children, Sharon, Linda, Joy, Arlene, Kenneth and Michael; John Romonsky and children, Roxanna and little Ronnie Mrs. Richard Jones and Eleanor Jones.

The dinner was held early in the month so that Mr. Romonsky could be present. He is a professional ball player in Charlotte, N.C., and is now in training in Florida.

Spending a birthday in the hospital does not seem the right way to celebrate, but that is how Oscar Workman seemed destined to celebrate his natal day. Oscar, who is Marge Hoptry's father, underwent surgery in Grant Hospital last Friday. If you have a spare get well card, his home address is 411 Oakwood-av. Another recent Grant Hospital patient was young Frank Knore, of 499 Gates-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagelbarger, 206 E. Moler-st, are forsaking our fair town for the rural way of life. Our best wishes go with them to their Brinkhaven home.

Cake and candle day is soon for these youngsters . . . Stella Walker, 285 Jenkins, Apr. 1; Janice Morgan, 138 Woodrow, Mar. 31; Carol Culp, 1387 City Park, Mar. 22; Jean Truax, 67 Hanford, Mar. 28; Clara Carsey, 36 W. Welch, Mar. 31; Deanna Brewer, 523 Sheldon, Mar. 29.

A reminder for those saving cottage cheese cartons for Margie Speakman, 820 S. 3rd-st. Her deadline is Mar. 29. She uses the cartons as little Easter baskets for some of the patients at Orient Hospital.

The "News Letter" that we received from Orient asks that interested folk send the medium size Ivory Soap wrappers to PVA, Box J; Orient. These wrappers enable the PVA to secure compacts for some of the girls. Also, the star from the unwinding band of Folger's coffee cans will enable the PVA to provide the cottages with 50 cup coffee percolators. (It takes 300 tapes for one percolator, so the group needs LOTS of help).

Visiting Mr. Workman in Grant last week, we discovered one of his felow room-mates was South Sider Joseph Benyi. We believe his address is 218 Woodrow-av, so he's another candidate for a get-well card.

Two of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Bush, 2041 Studer-av, have March birthdays, so belated greetings to Jerry Lee and Linda Sue, whose birthdates were the 20th and 22nd.

Our sympathy to Silas Smith, 28 W. Markison-av, who lost his sister in Harrisville, W. Va.

Birthday greetings to Kay Frances Wolford, 1311 Parsons-av, and to Ralph Macioci of Moler-rd.

Though neither of the soon-to-be married young folks are South Siders, we certainly want to wish a happily married life for Barbara Ann Young and Paul Snyder. Their wedding will take place Mar. 29. Paul was the captain of Capital University's basketball team, where our own "long and lanky" attends. Lots of happiness, kids!

PTA news hereabouts: Southwood School wil honor mothers and daughters with a tea at 3:30 this afternoon. The entertainment chairman, Mrs. Paul Clark, has lined up "Magic moments for mother and daughter." Stewart PTA will have a Family Night tonight at 7:30. Guest speaker will be North American test pilot Fred Hanson. Mrs. Emily Shaffer of the South Side Day Nursery will only have to cross the street to lead the discussion at Reeb's Parent and Family Life Education Group this morning at 9:45 a'clock. The topic is "Without Love, What Luster?" At Heyl-av today at 1:30 Mrs. Glen Belcher will show the film "From Sociable Six to Noisy Nine" to the members of the Parent Education Group.

St. Leo's PTA is sponsoring its annual spaghetti dinner this Sunday, noon to 6 p.m.

Originally, the profits from the Apr. 2 dinner at the Moose, 36 W. Sycamore-st, was to have been spent for an Easter treat for children at the Blind Institute. These plans were changed when it was discovered that the youngsters would be home for the Easter vacation. However, some equally worthy group will benefit from the dinner. The dinner is open to the public, 5 to 7 p.m.; $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children.

On Friday, Mar. 28, members of the Southwood Church of Christ will welcome their new minister and his family with a reception dinner at the church. The new minister is Ellis Wesner. Bob Ross will be the master of ceremonies. Mrs. Frances Colegrove is the food chairman and Eleanor Jones is in charge of decorations. The speaker of the evening will be Louis Detro, of Beechwold Church of Christ. The dinner will be potluck style. Another note from Southwood tells us that Louise Davis, daughter of the former minister, is ill with scarlet fever at her home in Cincinnati. If any of her Nitle school friends would like to send cards, her address is 4515 Hector-st, Cincinnati 27, O.

Mary Leist, Rose DeMatteo, Nellie Kaufman, and Mary Turner will get "happy birthdays" from this corner, as all four celebrate birthdays this week. And to Virginia Leonard, a specially devised greeting, sort of Bronx-cheerish, you know! (Hello, Virginia!)

If you want to find us Friday evening why just come down to St. Ladislaus' fish dinner. Here are vital statistics: cost is $1.25 for adults and 65 cents for kiddies. Time is Friday, Mar. 28, from 5 to 8 p.m. Carry-out service is available. The menu is fish, french-fried potatoes, cole slaw, green beans, bread, butter, coffee, and home-made pie. St. Ladislaus is located at 277 Reeb-av. Chairmen for the event are Mrs. Bernard A. Karner and Mrs. William Hoffman, chairman and co-chairman; Mrs. Albert Macioci, kitchen; Mrs. Sam Skunza and Mrs. Gyuri, fish-frying; Mrs. Donald Ruh, tables Mrs. Homer Hardy, publicity; Mrs. John Warden, Mrs. Jerry Pignatelli, carry-out.

Don't know the date, but a belated birthday hello to "Dixie" Howell, 88 E. Innis-av.

Guild 22, Thurman Methodist Church, meets today at 10 a.m. in Henderson Hall. Per usual it's a "running" type week for ye old Gadabout, but don't we love it! This Saturday, from 7:30 to 9, most of the family can be found at South Methodist Church, where the Southeast District Campfire Girls will be celebrating the 48th birthday of the organization. The party is non-profit making, but a 25 cent admission charge will be made so that the ice-cream and cookies available can be paid for. The admission also enables a little fishing in the perennially favorite fish pond. Games will be played, too, so the whole evening sounds like lots of fun. Exhibit booths will effectively show what the Bluebirds, Camp Fire, and Horizon groups are doing in their seven crafts. The scribbler of these notes will tell other people what their writing means, in case you're interested. The Camp Fire leaders hope to have a nice big crowd and we hope they're not disappointed.

Oakwood Methodist Church was the Mar. 22 setting for the wedding of South High grads Mary Webster, 1065 Deshler-av and Robert Zanes, 2787 Tudor-rd.

Notes everywhere, but all seem to be checked off, so we will check "out" for this week. The number, per usual, is HI. 4-1051, so do call us, won't you? Till next time then, tis —

Auction

Women of the Moose, Chapter 206, has announced a rummage sale at 686 Parsons-av, Friday and Saturday of this week. It was said that funds received from the auction sale will be used for defraying the expenses of a nurse in training.

Local Woman Joins Group

Mrs. James Schrader, 1720 Frebis-av, as chairman of the membership committee of the Columbus Chapter of the Society of Women Accountants, announces that the following professional local women have been accepted by the national association as regular members of the Columbus Chapter: Mrs. Marguerite Biegler, 1479 Wilson-av, associated with David Davies, Inc.; Miss Margaret Boros, 1765 Bruck-st, with Dunhill, Inc.

Before women can become regular members of this organization, it was said, it is necessary for them to be actively engaged in accounting work and to have had at least two years' accounting experience.

Ann-St Boy In 'Action'

Army Pfc. William W. Courtright, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Courtright, 878 Ann-st, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 4th Armored Division in Erlangen, Germany.

Courtright, an aidman in Headquarters Company of the division's 50th Infantry, entered the Army last May and completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex.

SOUTH SIDE'S PROPOSED NEW YMCA
AT JENKINS AVENUE AND SIXTH STREET

The South Side needs this new Community YMCA for these reasons:

Old "Y" building on S. Third is old and inadequate.

Branch activities extend from Livingston Avenue into Marion Township.

New location, near Southwood School is convenient to more families.

Gymnasium or pool, club and craft rooms are essential to the full YMCA program.

To prevent delinquency facilities must be adequate for leisure time activities.

South Side needs a community building of this type for civic organizations and service clubs.

The YMCA will serve the whole family, boys, girls, and adults.

Growing Pains Keep Barrett Building Booming

From 1900 to now is the time period in the history of Barrett Junior High School. As indicated in the 'South Side Leader story last week, increasing population has compelled two major additions to the Barrett structure. In 1954 a major improvement was made as shown on the pictured drawing. Requirements continued to balloon and now Barrett will soon acquire a new addition. Apparently conscious of the rapidly growing population, the "reservation" for the next enlargement is prepared, for the necessary ground area is available. Other schools having major additions this year are Beck Street Elementary School and Deshler Elementary School.

Local Ladies Have Share In Nephrosis Campaign

The recent Nephrosis Fund Drive, sponsored by the Central Ohio Chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation, Inc., was highly successful according to Mrs. Stanley Klein of Bexley, chairman for this year's fund drive.

This was the second annual fund drive for the local chapter.

Mrs. Klein said that contributions from all participating areas now total approximately $18,628. Contributions from the south and southeast Columbus area totaled $2,890.18.

Mrs. Klein said, "I would like to express my sincere thanks to the people of this area for their generous contributions, which wil help make further research possible at Children's and University Hospitals on nephrosis, nephritis, and allied kidney diseases. A part of the funds collected will assist with necessary medication in the care of children afflicted with nephrosis and nephritis."

Mrs. E. W. Thomas, 2940 E. Livingston-av, was district chairman for the entire southeast Columbus area. Mrs. B. W. Curlis, 511 Southwood, was an area chairman for the South Columbus area. Other area chairmen who assisted Mrs. Thomas were Mrs. F. W. Brown, Mrs. James F. Henry, Mrs. Charles Sachs, Mrs. James Sergi, Mrs. Rowland Esswein, Mrs. Winel, Mrs. Clifford Voss, Jr., Mrs. Peggy Kleinstine, Mrs. Jack Lehman, Mrs. E. W. Norton, Mrs. J. W. Slatter, Mrs. Marie Welch, Mrs. Forrest Lanfear, Mrs. Kenneth Lee, Mrs. Freda Roeger, Mrs. Bernard Decker and Mrs. Paul Loeffler.

Junior Badges Give Kids A Cost-Break At Jet Games

Demenstrations John Lubovich, 13, of 172 Hinman-ave, of Catholic Youth Organization, shows Sharon Meyer, 14, of 774 Fairwood-av, of Girl Scout Troop No. 774, how a Columbus Jet pitcher throws a curve. Both are selling Jet Badges for 50 cents each which entitle wearer to see most Jet week-day games free when accompanied by an adult.

The approaching Columbus Jet baseball season promises lots of week-day fun for Columbus youngsters.

Another big pre-season ticket sale is now underway; and once again the Junior and Jet Badge Sales Campaign has been included in the activity. Last year, 25,000 badges were sold. This year, the youth leaders hope to sell 5,000 more.

The big kick-off is on April 1; Columbus and vicinity youth organizations are in charge of sales; the all-season badges are just 50 cents.

Benfield Church Of Christ To Hold Special Services

Benfield Avenue Church

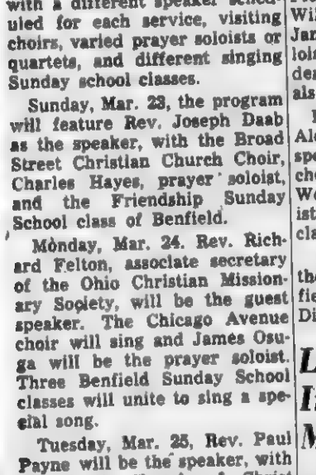
The Benfield Avenue Church of Christ's Disciples will hold special evangelistic services, starting Sunday, Mar. 23, at 7:30 p.m. and ending Mar. 28.

Many other churches are taking part in these services, with a different speaker scheduled for each service, visiting choirs, varied prayer soloists or quartets, and different singing Sunday school classes.

Sunday, Mar. 23, the program will feature Rev. Joseph Daab as the speaker, with the Broad Street Christian Church Choir, Charles Hayes, prayer soloist, and the Friendship Sunday School class of Benfield.

Monday, Mar. 24. Rev. Richard Felton, associate secretary of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society, will be the guest speaker. The Chicago Avenue choir will sing and James Osuga will be the prayer soloist. Three Benfield Sunday School classes will unite to sing a special song.

Tuesday, Mar. 25, Rev. Paul Payne will be the speaker, with the South Church of Christ choir singing. Sara Storts will be prayer soloist, with the Junior Boys and Willing Workers Sunday school classes the guest singers.



Wednesday, Mar. 26, Rev. A. O. Kean will bring the evangelistic message. The choir of the Hilltop Christian Church and a Benfield quartet will sing. Two Benfield Sunday school classes will unite for a hymn.

Thursday, Mar. 27, Rev Floyd Faust will speak and the Wilson Avenue choir will sing. Janet Duvall will be prayer soloist for the evening. The Golden Rule class of Benfield will also sing.

Friday, Mar. 28, Rev. George Alexander will be the final speaker. The Monroe Avenue choir will sing and Marilyn Wolfe will be the prayer soloist. The Progressive Leaders class of Benfield will also sing.

Rev. Karl Henry Dawson is the present paster of the Benfield Avenue Church of Christ's Disciples.

Mr. and Mrs. David Miller visited in Logan with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Goodlive and son, J. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boren of Colton-rd entertained guests from Portsmouth on Tuesday, Mar. 18.

David Boren spent the past week visiting with his grandparents in Portsmouth.

"Twas a very nice St. Patricks Day Tea" that the Home Economic department of Marion-Franklin High School served for the PTA Council, room representative and Executive Board. The "wearin of the green' was very much the motif of the party. It was a very nice way for the room mothers to meet and also an expression of thanks from the Executive Board for the very fine cooperation of the mothers for the past year.

Do hate to have to put so much sadness in my column this week, but seems as the death has entered four of the homes of families in our community this past week.

Joseph Drake and Donald Drake lost their mother through death this past Tuesday. She was Mrs. Flora A. (Drake) Weidner of 637 City Park-av. Funeral was Friday at 1 p.m. at the Held Funeral Home with burial in Maple Hill Cemetery, Stoutsville.

John Ball of 235 Southwood-av, the father of Mrs. Maridell Hoppes, S. Parsons-av, died on Thursday. The funeral was at 1:30 p.m. on Monday at the Washington Ave. EUB Church with interment at Obetz by Woodyard.

The father of Mrs. Roscoe Lindsey of Ramsey-rd passed away Saturday. Funeral was 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Darfus Funeral Home, Groveport, with a second service at 2 p.m. at Londonderry.

Bob Canter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Canter of S. High-st is in serious condition in University Hospital.

Mrs. Alice Gray of Colton-rd is very ill in University Hospital.

Our prayers and cards, will do much to cheer all these folk at this time.

My column last week reported 116 reservations for the mother-daughter banquet but by Tuesday night and the close of the banquet 154 had been served. The speaker was Mrs.

Guests Speakers Tonight At Lincoln Pk. PTA

At the Lincoln Park PTA meeting this Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium, guest speakers will be Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin Pawar, who are students from Kahandwa, India, studying at Ohio State University.

These students were contacted by Mrs. Annabelle Schott, first grade teacher at Lincoln Park School. The invocation for this evening will be given by Mrs Sheldon Cox, district vice-president, and the pledge will be led by Mrs. Robert Steffans.

The next meeting of the Lincoln Park Parent and Family Life Study Discussion Group will be held April 10 at 10 a.m. in the school auditorium.

This meeting was originally scheduled for May 8. The topic for the meeting will be "Answers to questions about reading."

W. C. Bendum, who gave us a very nice talk and had many interesting articles from Japan.

Sharon Beechler was absent from school all last week, at home. ill with the flu.

Judy Huffman also had a bout with the flu bug last week. We hope that these girls will both be able to be back in school this week.

A surprise turkey dinner was held for Emil Rice on Sunday, Mar. 23, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Smith of Marilla-rd. Those present were Mrs. Margaret Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Purcy Haymond and daughter' Marie and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and daughters Susie and Margaret.

Phyllis Lattimer celebrated her 16th birthday on Friday night with a slumber party for a group of her friends. Happy birthday, Phyllis.

Girl Scout Troop 113 has re-registered for another year with 13 girls registering. I am the leader with Marjorie Foreman as the assistant leader. The committee members are Mrs. Walter Reese, chairman, Mrs. Henry Scheiderer and Mrs. Steve Ruch.

The troop had its awards party on Wednesday evening at the Youth Center. Jane Reese received 11 badges and her First Class Award. Diana Gaffin one badge and First Class. Rosemary Gutridge two badges, Campcraft and Adventure.

Sharon Pearrell received Adventurer and Homemaker; Brenda Evers, Child Care Badge; Judy Bush, received a Homemaker Badge; Susan Beechler, Camperaft; and Cheryl Bibler, the Adventurer Badge.

The troop attended the 4:30 party of the Lazarus Tea party on Saturday, and I felt very proud being able to present the Curved Bar Award to Jane Reese. This is the highest award in Girl Scouting and quite an honor to receive.

Diane Nippert and Pat Smith went to Groveport on Friday evening to hear the County Band Concert. Diane had played in All-County for four years, and since Marion-Franklin is now in the Columbus School System, she went this time to just sit in the audience and enjoy the concert.

At the Ohio Music Education Competition at Capital University on Saturday, Mar. 15, Diane Nippert and Pat Smith came through with a superior rating on their oboe and piano presentation.

David McGrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGrew of Marilla-rd, suffered an eye injury while playing baseball at the school. He returned to school today after missing 12 days, but he is still under close watch by his physician. We certainly hope that David comes through this without any serious after effects of the injury.

James Casto, son of Mrs Emily Casto, and Henry Scheiderer jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheiderer, left Saturday morning for three months Air Force Reserve training in Texas.

Jimmy Pabst, son of Barbara and John Pabst celebrated his birthday on Wednesday, Mar. 19.

HOERMLE'S looks ahead to another banner year . . . confident that South Side Leader and S. E. Rural-Urban News will continue to do an outstanding job of presenting its message to the people of this community.

William Hoermle Sr.

A 33-year-old Southside institution, Hoermle's have been a consistent user of advertising space in the Leader and News. Among the first in Columbus to initiate modern methods in merchandising Hoermle's has displayed an intimate knowledge of the needs and desires of the people of this community.

William Hoermle Jr.

Through The Use Of The South Side Leader and Rural-Urban News Local People Have Become Better Aquainted With What Hoermle's Have To Offer

Budget Accounts

Hoermle's long ago provided a service which has made it possible for thousands of Southsiders to acquire merchandise on a budget plan tailored to their needs in addition to regular 30-day accounts.

Free Customer Parking

To make shopping more convenient at Hoermle's, adequate off-street free parking has been provided for customers in the rear of the store.

Nationally Known Merchandise

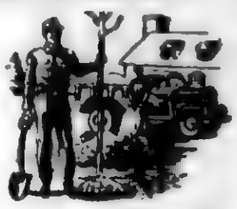
. . . selected to meet the needs and desires of the people of this area.

John Hoermle

Personalized Service

The majority of salespeople at Hoermle's have been with the company for many years and, consequently, are able to offer a personalized service not customarily found in metropolitan stores.

Delivery Service



Free delivery service is another Hoermle service, along with an up to the minute gift-wrapping service.

The LEADER and NEWS Takes HOERMLE'S Message Direct to People of this Community

Your Only
REAL SECURITY

A HOME OF YOUR OWN
IN EUREKA PARK

Nothing has so universal appeal and understanding as SECURITY. It is the cherished desire of every age, for every way of life, for every nationality, in every country. It's meaning can be stated, and understood in every language.

The privilege of enjoying SECURITY by owning your own home is your heritage as an American citizen. It stands out above all nations as the standard of the free way of life. It is the envy of many peoples throughout the globe. It is the one right which we will defend with our lives.

GIRL SCOUTS

A district meeting was held recently in the Board Room of the Central Scouting Office. Betty Hollenbach, district director, and Mrs. Arthur Foster, district chairman, presided.

Those present were Mrs. Charles Davies, Mrs. Guy A. Cochran, Mrs. Vincent Meyer, Mrs. Lawrence Lane, Mrs. Robert Nicholson, Mrs. Louis Rehl, and Mrs. Odessa Allen.

MEMO — Attention established camp committee — The Do-Dads group need fathers to help open camp at Ken-Jockety on Sat., Apr. 19. At that time tents will be pitched, beds and mattresses moved into tents and the unit kitchens opened. Mothers could help with the unit kitchen work. In case of bad weather on Apr. 19 — camp will be open on Apr. 26, the subsequent Saturday.

Call or write Frank Miller, 385 E. 16th-av, AX. 9-5638, or C. Nelson Black, 642 S. Everett-av, CA. 1-0617. Goal is to have 20 men volunteers from each district. It is a lot of fun and lunch will be served.

TREFOIL PATCH

The Ohio Trefoil sleeve patch, which will be worn on the right sleeve by adults and Girl Scouts will be available at the Lazarus Scout section this week. Brownie patch will be worn on the pockets.

The Ohio Trefoil Council announced that now there are 10 districts, 72 neighborhoods, 800 troops, and 11,871 girls.

BROWNIE TROOP 433

Leader, Mrs. Wilbur Liddil, assistant leader, Mrs. Velma Haugan.

This troop has just received two new members into the troop Susan Carver and Mary Forman. Troop meeting are held every Wednesday afternoon after school.

DESHLER AVENUE SCHOOL

Deshler Avenue School now has a new Intermediate Troop 150; their leader is Mrs. Alfred Knox, 973 Kelton-av. Troop meetings are held every Wednesday at the school.

Mrs. Knox recently moved here from Ft. Smith, Arkansas where she was the leader of Girl Scout Troop 109 for three years, and also served as neighborhood chairman for one year prior to moving to Columbus. Her assistant leader is Mrs. Cyril Goldston.

On Wednesday, Mar. 19, a "Sing Together" was held after school under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Ross. Troops participating were Brownie Troop 281, leader, Mrs. M. V. Sarchet, assistant, Mrs. Bertha Hinkle, Brownie Troop 526, leader, Mrs. L. Rubin, assistant, Mrs. Jack Miller, and Intermediate Troop 190, leader, Mrs. Alfred Knox, assistant, Mrs. Cyril Goldston. Fifty-seven Scouts participated.

CORPUS CHRISTI NEIGHBORHOOD

News of Brownie Troop 664

Leader, Mrs. Carmen Mininni, assistant leader, Mrs. Raymond Rysell.

The members of this troop held an election of officers on Mar. 12. They are president, Nina Mininni; vice president, Julie Castrop; secretary, Carol Plank; treasurer, Ann Sinacola.

A discussion was held on Girl Scout week — "A Girl Scout Is A Friend To All And A Sister To Every Other Girl Scout."

HEYL AVENUE SCHOOL NEIGHBORHOOD

On Friday, Mar. 14, WOSU-TV—Uniscope program—7-7:30 p.m. Mrs. Paul Zimmer, service co-ordinator of the program committee for the Ohio Trefoil Council, was interviewed by the station hostess, Rosemary Elsun. This program was in honor of Girl Scout Week. Mrs. Zimmer interviewed one Senior Girl Scout, Vivian Marcum, of Troop 881, and one Intermediate Girl Scout, Barbara McLaughlin of Troop 615, whose leader is Mrs. Guy A. Cochran. These girls spoke about their troop service projects which were: The Senior troop is doing Hospital Aide work, and the Intermediate troop has 18 shut-ins for whom they plan to prepare and deliver Easter baskets and remember throughout the year.

Brownie Troop 446

Mrs. Wiley Stein, leader.
Mrs. Harvey Akers, assistant.

The members of this troop have chosen as their service project a little girl in Children's Hospital, as their Easter Shut-In friend. She is recovering from surgery and the troop plans to fill an Easter basket and deliver it to the Hospital along with a stuffed toy.

Mrs. Guy A. Cochran, troop organizer, is surveying this scvhool area for the possible formation of new Brownie Scout troops, to be started in September. Any girls seven years of age or in the second grade in the fall, is eligible to belong and should contact Mrs. Cochran at HI 4-0978. In connection with these plans Mrs. Cochran has distributed slips among the first graders.

Schedule Heyl Avenue Meeting

The regular monthly neighborhood meeting will be held at the Ohio Avenue EUB Church on Thursday, Mar. 27, at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs Charles Davies presiding. Also present will be Miss Betty Hollenbaugh, district director, and will give a brief course on the Brownie Fly-Up procedure. This is for the leaders who need the course now and have been unable to attend the Fly-Up training course.

District Workshop

On Tuesday, Apr. 1, the regular monthly district Workshop will be held at Schiller Park starting at 9:30 a.m. There will be a song session and instruction on tent pitching and charcoal cooking. Plan to stay for lunch and bring your "Sing Together" song books and table service.

A hike to the river is contamplated for the cook-out, weather permitting.

CORPUS CHRISTI SCHOOL NEIGHBORHOOD

Brownie Troop 485

Mrs. Wilbur Liddil, leader.

Campfire Girls Plan Unique Forty-eighth "Birthday Fair"

The 48th birthday of the Campfire Girl organization will be celebrated in a unique manner by the Southeast District this year.

The Birthday Fair will feature exhibit booths by Campfire Girls, Bluebirds, and Horizon groups on the seven crafts. The crafts are home, business, creative arts, citizenship, frontiers, outdoors, sports and games.

The fair will be held in the basement of South Methodist Church, Morrill and Sixth-sts, Saturday, Mar. 29 from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

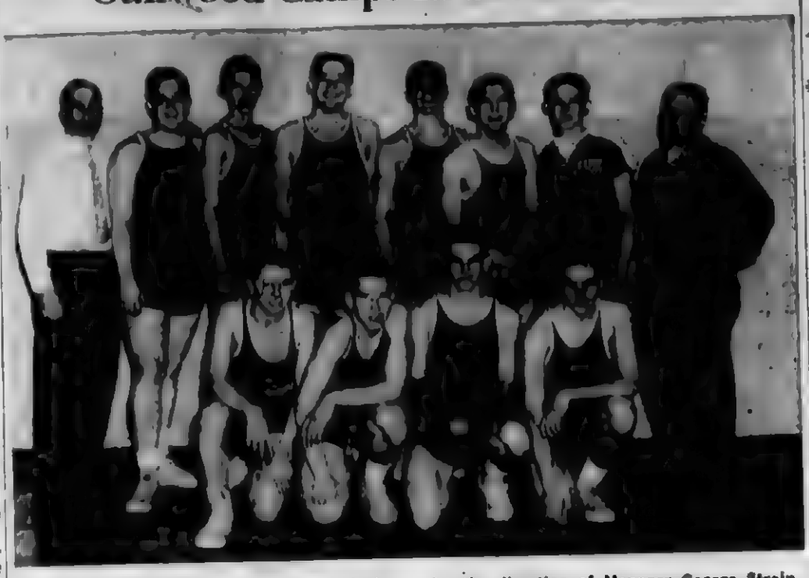
The venture is non-profit making, but 25 cents admission will be charged to cover the cost of ice cream, cookies, fish pond and games. There will also be a booth featuring handwriting analyses.

Films will be shown featuring Campfire Girl activities. It is open to the public.

Scab Control Uses Listed By Specialist

Farmers attending the Ohio Vegetable and Potato Growers association meeting at Columbus recently heard of several practices Wisconsin growers are using to control scab.

John A. Schoenemann, extension potato specialist of the University of Wisconsin, said growers of that state were meeting the scab problem by planting scab-resistant varieties and by growing potatoes in a three year rotation with oats and red clover and liming only enough to insure a good crop of red clover.



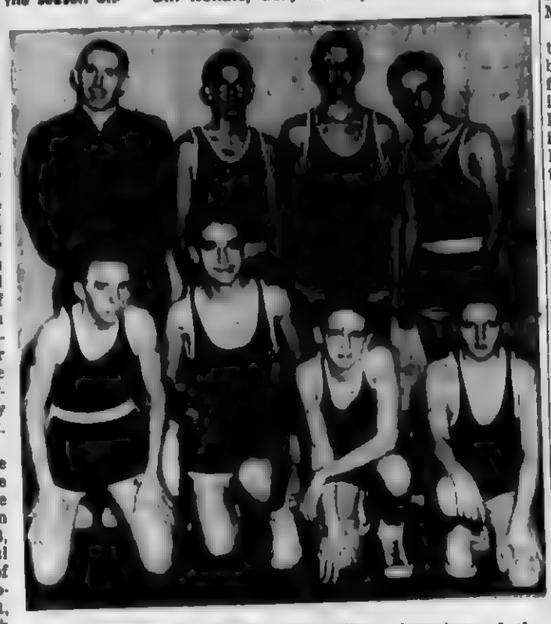
They also grow potatoes in a two-year rotation using an acid-tolerant legume, such as soybeans or vetch and using commercial fertilizer to supply the necessary nitrogen.

Schoenemann also reported that research work at Wisconsin indicated that higher potato yields resulted when potash was applied before planting and a fertilizer application of 11-48-0 was made in the row.

The use of "conditioned seed" also boosted potato yields in Wisconsin tests, the extension specialist said. Seed was conditioned by taking it out of cold storage and holding it at temperatures of between 60 and 70 degrees for two or three weeks before planting.

In tests last year, he noted, conditioned seed produced 428 hundredweight of potatoes to the acre, compared to 377 hundredweight for cold storage seed. The conditioned seed yielded 317 hundredweight of U. S. No. 1 potatoes and the cold storage seed 254 hundredweight of U.S. No. 1's.

Oakwood Camps In Southside 'Y'



Champion of the Junior League of the South Side Branch YMCA Church League is Oakwood Methodist, which went through the season unbeaten. These boys showed great desire and teamwork throughout the season under the direction of Manager George Strain. They are, front row, left to right, Jerry Wigfield, Harold Eads, Jim Silvanis, and Tom Craft. Back row: George Strain, manager; Bill Rundio, Gary Martin, and Bob Tidwell.

The South Side Branch YMCA and Intermediate Church Leagues drew to a close last week.

As was expected all season, both Oakwood Methodist teams came through to win their respective championships. Neither team lost a ball game all year to mar its won-and-lost record.

Last week's play consisted of the all-star games of each league. Oakwood of the Junior League played an all-star team made up of Bob Harris, Bill Warren and Butch Campbell of St. John E&R, Darrell Branham and John Evans of Frebis Avenue Church of God, Bill Zigler of Central Community, Mike Grayem and Dave Pence of Livingston Methodist, and Wally Rueckel and Dave Mouser of St. Paul E&R.

Oakwood of the Intermediate League played an Intermediate all-star team made up of Steve Rounds, Larry Badger and Dan Mitchell of Ohio Avenue EUB, Tom Bolen, Doug Childers, Paul Watters and Dave Spanner of St. Paul E&R, Harvey Thompson of Gates-Fourth Methodist, and Gordon Ball from South Methodist.

Retired Professor Finds Outlet In Statistics

A retired professor of statistics has come up with some interesting details about his fellow senior citizens who are members of the Senior Citizens Recreation Center.

Dr. William J. Blackburn, jr., 116 W. Tompkins-st, retired in July from a professorship in the Social Administration at Ohio State University and almost immediately joined the Senior Center.

The professor, who was asked to look into Senior Center membership statistics, spent many hours poring over those cards with the same enthusiasm with which he had always directed his graduate students at the University, and the result is a series of tables of valuable statistics about an important segment of the city's older citizens.

700 Analyzed

More than 700 membership cards were analyzed in the course of his study. The most significant single fact seems to be that at least 66 percent of this group of older people have lost husband or wife over the years, only 22 percent of them now being married. Another somewhat surprising figure is that the largest number continue to live in their own homes some 10 percent of them alone, 24 percent with spouse or other relative. Only eight percent are in the furnished rooms so long associated with the older years.

The Senior Center, which is operated by the Columbus Recreation Department as a recreation and activities day center for men and women 60 years of age and over, has attracted some 70 people who are at least 80 years of age. Another 12 percent are under 65, but more than half of the total fall within the ages of 65 and 75. The average age of the men runs higher than for the women, 73.5 as compared with 70.2 for the women. Incidentally, the women outnumber the men about two to one — a pretty fair cross-section of the country's older population.

Still Working

More than half of the members, according to Dr. Blackburn have retired, although 32 per cent report that they are still working on either full or part-time jobs. Over a quarter of the total membership had only grade school education, and only 13 percent got to college—an interesting evidence of changing educational requirements over the last 60 years.

South Figures Low

The Senior Center is located in Old Memorial Hall on East Broad-st, where it has been in existence for less than two years. Yet only some 13 percent of the members come from the downtown area, while more than 30 percent are from the North End. The South Side has the smallest representation, some 10 percent, the West Side more than 15 percent, and the East End above 18 percent. There seems to be no relationship between distance and continuing participation, according to Dr. Blackburn's figures, as those who enjoy outside activity seem to make the effort regardless of either age or distance.

Bottled marachino cherries are about 40 per cent sugar solids and glazed cherries are about 75 per cent sugar.

Test Pilot Will Talk On Airplanes

Stewart Avenue PTA will hear a talk by Fred Hanson, test pilot of North American Aviation Inc., at its Family Night program on Thursday, Mar. 27.

Hanson will talk about and display models of airplanes.

The invocation will be made by Rev. Walter Peters of South Methodist Church. Pledge of Allegiance will be made by Ronnie Roadcap.

The PTA will also have a short business meeting, and announce the names of nominees for offices on the Stewart-av School Board. The nominating committee is Mrs. Orland Sells, Mrs. George Quarry and Principal Eugene Kirby. The program begins at 7:30 p.m.

Election

Officers will be elected at the meeting on Apr. 24, publicity chairman Mrs. William McDonald said.

Annual Meeting Of WSCS District

The annual meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Columbus District will be held at Glenwood Methodist Church Friday, Mar. 28.

Mrs. Paul D. Spencer of Alliance, president of the North Central Jurisdiction of the Woman's Society, will be the speaker.

Registration will be at 9:30 a.m.

The afternoon will be inspirational and will include a worship service conducted by Dr Joseph B. Shellhaas, the host pastor.

Following an address by Mrs. Spencer, the installation of new officers will take place, Dr. Harold M. McAdow, superintendent of the Columbus District Methodist Church, will officiate.

Mrs. Karl E. Kuhn, president of the Ohio Conference Woman's Society, will have a significant part in the program. Mrs. L. Dale Davis, Columbus District president, will preside.

In St. Louis

Esther Anne Hepner, a student of South High School, attended the 21st National YWCA Convention in St. Louis, Mo., Mar. 13-19. She was one of four girls chosen to represent the Y-Teens of Columbus at the convention.

The other area girls included Bonnie Hommack, North; Corinne Sells, Bexley; and Gail Meyer, Westerville.

PTA Council To Meet At Central High School

The Columbus Council of Parent - Teacher Associations will meet Apr. 3 at 1:30 p.m. at Central High School. The theme is "Expanding Horizons in Student Achievement." E. T. Stone, science teacher at West High School, will explain the District High School Science Day, an annual event in the Columbus public schools. Science students are encouraged to exhibit their science projects once a year. Two of the students will describe their entries and Mr. Stone will show colored slides of past projects.

Miss Helen Sandfort, director of fine arts in the Columbus public schools, will exhibit the student entries for the cover design of the annual Festival of Music program.

The invocation will be given by Neal W. Greenfield, principal of Livingston and Beck-st schools.

Dinners

Corpus Christi PTA will serve a ham dinner Sunday, Mar. 30, from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the social hall. Adults $1.25; children, 60 cents. Mrs. John Wittenmeier is chairman of the dinner and Mrs. Wesley Sharon and Mrs. Robert Turner are in charge of the kitchen. Mrs. Jack Krauss is publicity chairman.

'Y' Church Leagues—

EUB; Jim Rothwell, South Methodist; Burt Emick, St. Paul United Church of Christ; Frank Garnes, Thurman Methodist.

Team sportsmtnship winners were Central Community for the Junior League and Oakwood Methodist for the Intermediates.

Other trophies presented were team champions, which were both Oakwood Methodist teams from each league. Foul shooting champions were Dave Duerler, from Livingston Methodist in the Class A Division and Ed Filbin, also from Livingston, in the B, or younger age, class.

Church Basketball

The Junior and Intermediate All-Star games concluded the Inter-Church Basketball Leagues of the South Side Branch YMCA Church Leagues for the 1958 season.

Both Oakwood teams lost their first games of the season to the respective All-Star teams. The Junior All-Stars stopped the champs 17 to 14 in a thriller all the way. Mike Grayem's 11 points put the winners on the way to Oakwood's first defeat.

Oakwood's Intermediate team was put down 49 to 38 with the All-Stars' scoring being done mostly by St. Paul United Church of Christ team members. Paul Watters dropped in 22 points for the winners and Doug Childers put in 11 for the winners. Tim Woodyard scored 19 points for the losers.

LITTLE PEOPLE AT SCHILLER

Easter Egg Hunt Set For Saturday

The Schiller Park Easter egg hunt will start at 9 a.m. Saturday. All boys and girls eight years and under are eligible to participate in the hunt for 2,000 eggs of which 500 will be prize eggs with a cash value of from 10 cents to $5 dollars.

The children will be separated into two different age groups and each will have its own section of the park ground in which to hunt. All children who plan to hunt for eggs are asked to come directly to the Recreation Center building by 8:30 a.m. When they arrive at the center the boys and girls will be divided into groups: five years and under will go directly to the auditorium and the six, seven, and eight year olds will assemble in the game room where they will be told in what sections of the park they are to hunt.

At 9 a.m. a signal will be given for the hunt to start, and it will continue for about 45 minutes, after which the children finding prize eggs will return to the same room in which they assembled to be awarded the prize according to the color found.

The hunt is co-sponsored by the Ohio State Journal, the Southeast Lions Club and Columbus Recreation Department, the two former groups each furnishing 250 of the prize eggs.

Otto Meier At Meet In Chicago

Traffic Commission Chairman Otto Meier left at the beginning of the week for Chicago, Ill., where he attended the President's Committee for Safety regional conference. The invitation was received here from the White House.

The traffic commission's chairman is expected to return at the week's end to wrestle with the South Side's pressing need for relief in its traffic congestion.

Easter Sunday services at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, 1013 S. Ohio at Whittier will begin with the sunrise service at 6 a.m. An instrumental fantare by Dave Long will begin the service. The Girl's Choir will sing "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy One" and James Damewood will speak. He is at OSU studying for the ministry. This service will be sponsored by the three youth groups of the church with Joe Glick as chairman.

The worship services are at 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. The pastor, Rev. Glendon Herbert, will preach on "The Last Word From the Cross." At 8:30 the Girls' Choir will sing "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy One" and Terry Cromwell, tenor soloist, will sing "The Holy City."

At 10:30 the Children's Choir will sing "Song for Easter" and the Chancel Choir will sing "I Know that my Redeemer Liveth" with Donna Bornshine as soloist.

Sunday will begin an "Eight Sundays for God" attendance campaign at Ohio av. Church. Attendance will be registered in the worship services each Sunday in April and May. A master chart in the fover will record the week-by-week attendance of each member of the church.

The Sunday school will meet Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Suburbs' Rates Would Be Established On Costs

An exhaustive study of financing and administration of a sewage collection and treatment system for the Greater Columbus area was made public this week by the Water and Sewer Committee of the Development for Greater Columbus at a luncheon in the Fort Hayes Hotel.

Major recommendations contained in the 142-page report, presented by Committee Chairman C. Carlton Hartley to the gathering of Development Committee sponsors and public officials include:

The $30,500,000 program of trunk sewers needed immediately by the area should be started by issuing $3,000,000 of 40-year general obligation revenue bonds in 1959, supplementing this by any sewer surplus which might accrue.

A 10-year construction program would thus result.

Regarding administration, the committee recommended that the City of Columbus continue as the primary administrator of the sewerage system through a system of contracts with suburban municipalities. The committee recommended these contracts meet five requirements, including agreements to construct the Master Plan of trunk sewers, be of a term long enough to insure proper financing, provide rates based on cost of service and directly related to the Columbus rate, provide adequate means of settling disputes, and limit taps to existing corporate limits except as agreed otherwise by legislative bodies of the participants.

The result of more than a

New Church, Easter Services

Dan Bayes

The newly formed South Side Christian Church now meeting at the Scioto Trail School, 2951 S. High st. will hold Easter Services.

Rev. F. S. Dowdy, of Lancaster, a minister who has been instrumental in the establishing of many new churches, will bring a special Easter message. Bible school will begin at 9:15 and worship service at 10:20.

Due to the rapid growth of this community, a New Testament Church is being formed for the futherance of the gospel. A special invitation is extended to all.

The first services were held last Sunday, and the results were very encouraging. An extensive calling campaign has been planned. The church firmly believes in a strong young people's department. For this reason they have asked Dan Bayes to serve as the youth minister and assistant superintendent of the Bible School.

Dan is an active member of the Christian Crusaders choral group and president of the South High Bible Club.

Board Date

Siebert School PTA president Mrs. Alvin Pfeiffer has announced that the monthly board meeting will be held Wednesday, Apr. 9, at 1:30.

South East Lions Give Six Drums

The South High School music department was presented last week with six new drums by the South East Lions Club of Columbus.

The presentation was made at an assembly in South's auditorium.

The gift consisted of five snare drums and one large drum. Presentation was made by president Frank Neubeck. Receiving the drums were principal H. D. Swain; Randall Near, band teacher; Bruce Papier and Gordon Scholz, drummers in the band.

The presentation was followed by three numbers by South's orchestra.

Company Tells Of Plans To Build 100 Homes

(See Drawing on Page)

A proposed housing development on Parsons-av. was announced last week by a spokesman for the Virginia Homes, Inc., building organization. The proposed operation, involving 100 or more $12,000 homes, is scheduled for the 3100 block of Parson.

The operation is expected to occupy both sides of Parsons-av. according to the spokesman, who pointed out the location is in a rapidly developing residential area offering easy access to the shopping centers, Lockbourne Air Base, and the city's major industries.

Building Details

These homes will be three bedroom full basement frame construction with a wide range of exterior variations and roof designs. Each home will be heated with forced-air central heating systems. In some instances it was said there will be electric kitchens.

A Problem

With increasing costs, it was said, the problem of building modern homes at "payable prices" has become a serious matter to many people. It is here according to the company's president W. F. Wittman that they have accepted the challenge and planned to make available modern homes for six people for those whose earnings amount to $70 per week. Technicians have worked six months to develop plans and arrange for materials that would permit selling to persons with modest weekly income, Wittman said.

Beginning

The company will construct one street, Wittman said, and install sewerage, water and utility lines, and the lawn in front at sides and part of the rear of each property, and landscape each lot.

"We expect these houses to be the answer to a demand for

'Y' Funds Boosted! . . . $5,596

The YMCA-YWCA joint development fund received a decided boost at a report meeting of the South Side special gifts division at Barrett Junior High School on Monday night when workers reported $4,265, a rise of 220 per cent over the previous report. Their total now stands at $5,596.

Chief credit for this advance goes to team captain Cliff Olson, who reported $2,425. His total now stands at $3,025.

Totals of other teams are: C. C. Brown, $750; Paul C. Kaefer, $100; Robert E. Madden, $625; Dr. Ray Leupp, $150; Tom Moody, $400; Cliff Olson, $3,025; Thomas J. Quick, $51; and Harold D. Washburn, $495.

Donald E. Lund, division chairman, announced that 155 prospect cards are still available at the South Side YMCA Branch.

South Side workers will make their third report on Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Barrett Junior High School.

South 'Y' Sportsmanship Winners Announced

One-Way Traffic For South Side Studied

Traffic congestion in the South Side, from S. High-st to Parsons-av., will get a good going-over as studies are made to find a solution for a constantly worsening condition.

For many months, it was said, complaints have been made in increasing numbers that reasonable speed by automobiles is not feasible here because of the unrestricted parking in many streets. Previously it was thought that nothing could be done to alleviate the congested traffic conditions because of the method long ago employed in laying out the streets.

However, one resident who requested that his name not be used said that he preferred "one side of the street" banned to parking, rather than having to "poke" along in the congested street to reach his home.

Highly Important

For many in the area the final decision will be highly important, the commission chairman told the Leader. When asked if one-way traffic is feasible, he said that was one of the big factors which the commission must determine before taking definite steps to expedite traffic and still avoid hardships on any one.

Avoid Hardships

Uppermost in the commission chairman's mind was the apparent urgency for establishing one-way traffic in the area between S. High and Parsons-av. It is expected the study will center around the difficulties and problems which may result with the banishing of unlimited parking on one side of a street accustomed to having two-way parking. It seems probable that a number of streets will not have space for even one-way traffic.

One-Way Parking

Although the commission has not completed the study of the situation, it seems to be the concensus that one-side only parking will be necessary to permit one-way driving, at least, in many instances. At the present time the only "through traffic" street in the High to Parsons area is Bruck-st. It is felt that this is entirely inadequate for "stop-over" cars as well as the cars of families living in the area. Some have said that "we will have to do something" and "we must each do our share in helping solve the problem."

When the commissioner was asked about the program, he said he approached it with an open mind, as one should in all situations of this kind. "We will have to do even more than we have done . . . trying to solve problems with the least possible inconvenience to any citizen," he told the reporter.

Back-Up Traffic

Attention was called by the commissioner to the "back-up traffic" caused by left-turns onto busy streets. This is particularly true, it was said, at Prebis and Champion-av., which will come under thorough consideration. "Whatever will work the least hardship upon the local people . . . will be done . . . to solve the heavy traffic problem which causes most inconvenience," the commissioner said.

The Dolly Varden trout, a rainbow colored fish was named after a character in Charles Dickens' "Barnaby Rudge."

Sewer Program . . .

years intensive study by the committee and Development Committee staff the report provides a detailed analysis of financing and administrative solutions open to the Greater Columbus area in support of its recommendations.

The Water and Sewer Committee was organized in December 1956. It immediately began a review of the 1954 Master Plan for Sewers and Sewage Treatment prepared for the Regional Planning Commission. In July, 1957, the committee recommended this plan as modified for developments of intervening years be adopted and construction begin on a program totaling $38,165,000 as already available.

On Pay-As-You-Go Basis

Predicting that a maximum $27,576,641 will be available between now and 1980 for capital improvements the report states that, should the maximum amount be realized the "immediate needs" program could be completed by 1962 on a pay as you go basis. Issuance of bonds with a maximum term of 40 years in annual amounts of $3,000,000 each year for 10 years could be accomplished within the present structure, however.

"It should prove practical, and is therefore the recommendation of this committee," the report stated, "to start the improvement program under the method of issuing $3,000,000 per year in 40-year bonds, and supplementing or expediting this capital improvement program to the extent possible through any surplus which might accrue."

This would require that 40 year bond maturities for sewers be given to cities, instead of the present 25-year limit but "the normal amortization of sewage treatment facilities over a 25-year period and sewers over a 75-year period would tend to support a move on the part of cities to get the next General Assembly to amend the state laws to permit such financing."

Since maximum revenues must be made available, the committee recommended that a proper cost accounting system be installed and that a comprehensive rate analysis be made, utilizing the best consultant services available.

After these two steps are taken, "it would be possible and is therefore recommended that a more appropriate construction schedule be balanced against an appropriate rate schedule," the report continued.

Assessment Plan Defined

Since construction of the main trunk sewers recommended in the 1954 Master Plan would require the companion development of sub-trunk sewers estimated to cost 50 per cent of the trunk sewer cost the committee urged that a combination of assessments and funds of the Trunk Storm and Sanitary Sewer (acreage) fee be used to construct sewers. This would place the cost upon the persons directly benefited, instead of from general sewer revenues.

Recommendation that the City of Columbus continue as the primary administrator of the sewerage system was made after an extensive investigation of possible alternate administrative solutions. Five general types of administrative solutions—consolidation, functional transfer, functional consolidation, city-county consolidation and separation and federation—were studied for both general desirability and application under Ohio law. Retention of the present system of Columbus contracting with suburban municipalities for sewer service, subject to certain conditions, was recommended "because none of the other methods studied would have significantly greater advantages nor could they become operative in time to provide the facilities needed immediately."

Conditions on these contracts, as outlined by the committee, include:

"1. The City of Columbus as evidence it intends to shoulder responsibility for constructing the master plan of sewers, should adopt said plan and agree in contracts with various municipalities to use sewer rental funds to construct all trunk sewers set forth in the master plan in accordance with a priority schedule.

"2. Contracts with suburban municipalities should be of a sufficient term to allow for proper financing of the master plan improvements. This would produce a degree of permanence in sewer planning not now evident.

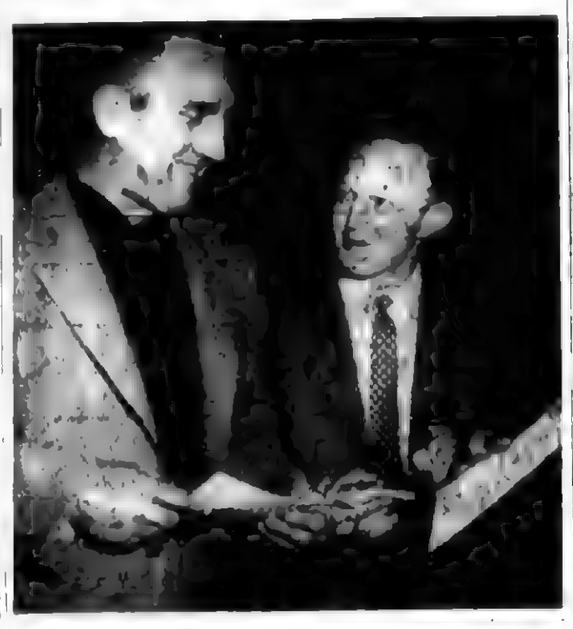
"3. Contracts should provide for rates based on cost of service by the City of Columbus as determined by proper rate analysis. Likewise, these rates should be directly related to the rates in the City of Columbus and subject to automatic adjustment up or down when the Columbus rate changes.

"4. Contracts should include adequate means of settling disputes over rates and service short of cancellation of contracts.

"5. Additional sewer taps in suburbs should be limited to existing corporate limits except as agreed otherwise by the legislative bodies of the participating bodies."

The committee recommended further that line extensions in unincorporated areas be made only on an emergency basis and regulated in such a manner as to promote the corporate growth of the City of Columbus, since its assumption of the master plan construction would require the central city to be as strong as possible.

These contractural terms differ somewhat from those set forth in ordinances approved by City Council in 1954 and followed by city negotiators in their talks with suburban municipal officials since that time. Present policy is for two-year contracts, with no provision for construction of the Master Plan trunk sewers outside Columbus included.



Necessary Sewers Listed

Sewer facilities included in the "immediate needs" program recommended by the city include: Alum Creek trunk to Morse Rd., Big Walnut trunk to Broad Street, Olentangy trunk to Worthington, Scioto and East Scioto main trunks, Big Run trunk, second Southeast Treatment Plant near Lockbourne, and trunk sewer along Big Walnut Creek from its juction with Alum Creek to the second treatment plant.

In developing the report, the Water and Sewer Committee met with representatives of both Columbus and suburban municipalities, experts in the field of sewage treatment, and others interested in the problems of the Greater Columbus area.

Members of the committee in addition to Chairman Hartley are: Arvin J. Alexander, Roy Brenholts, Edmund A. Donnan, Henry A. Flaharty, J. Parker Garwick, L. A. Guzzo, Paul J. Jones, Robert K. Levy, Harry E. Mayfield, Don E. Weaver and Allen W. Lundstrum.

Pleased With Launching Of South Side 'Y' Funds Drive

Jenkins-av and Sixth st has been picked as the site for a new South Side "Y" building. Dr. Ray Leupp, a captain, and Donald E. Lund, division chairman, appear optimistic as the South Side Y's area campaign was launched with vigorous pleas for building funds.

Barrett List Of Students Exhibits High Scholarship

Barrett Junior High School released the names, this week, of students who have achieved honor roll distinction:

Patricia Ann Trigg, 1291 S. High-st, Sherri Dupree, 489 Stanley-av, Linda Johnston, 506 Thurman-av, Joyce Reese, 300 E. Whittier-st, Sandy Nagy, 299 Woodrow-av, Jane Daniels, 800 S. Third-st, Jo Ann Crabtree, 148 E. Welch-av, Bonnie Husse, 95 E. Deshler-av, Anita Parsons, 386 E. Mithoff-st, and Ferd Gaulke, 104 Nursery-Lane, were on the All-A Honor Roll when grade cards were given out for the first grading period of this half-year. These 10 superior students had earned the highest possible grades from every class teacher.

Earned A and B

Seventy-eight others had earned A and B grades and nothing lower, the report showed. These "excellent" students are:

Junior Bowlers

Columbus Recreation Department will conduct its annual city championship junior bowling tournament on Monday, Apr. 7 at Hillcrest Bowling Lanes. The tournament is open to boys and girls of school age and competition is offered for two age groups, 12 and under and 13 through 18. Juniors will bowl three games starting at 9:30 a.m., while the Bantams will bowl at 1:30 p.m.

This handicap tournament is for five member teams only, and these teams must be either all boys or all girls. Entry blanks are available at Room 124, City Hall, it was said.

Exploratory

Exploratory classes in copper enameling which have been started at Schiller Recreation Center are attracting much attention. Openings exist for several people. These classes will be making copper-enameled jewelry, such as earrings, cuff-links, brooches, etc. Also small ash trays and plaques.

Classes are held Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. Anyone interested in learning to do this type of craft, or those who have learned but do not have a kiln available and would like to continue, should communicate with Thora Gatwood at Schiller. Phone is HI. 4-7262.

April 9 Show

On Wednesday, Apr. 9, there will be a tumbling and gymnastic show presented in the gymnasium of Schiller Recreation Center. This exhibition, which is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m., will be a demonstration of skillful use of body movements, coordination, balance, flexibility, poise, and rhythmic sense. There will also be a judo demonstration and a wrestling demonstration.

One of the most fascinating events of the evening will be the dive and roll. The participants run, jump, and dive over a line of girls on their hands and knees, landing on their hands and rolling to their feet. The feature will also be done over the high jump bar. The girls have mastered many extremely difficult tumbling stunts, it was said and "you will see such stunts as a running back round-off to a back handspring to a back somersault."

Another difficult routine will be tumbling and gymnastic stunts on the balance beam, a wooden bar 12 feet long and three inches wide, placed three feet above the floor. There will be no admission charge, it was said.

NO DANCE

Schiller Recreation Center will not hold a dance this Friday evening as is the usual custom, Director Cranshaw announced.

The movie which is ordinarily shown only at 4 p.m. will be repeated at 7:30 p.m. in place of the regularly scheduled dance.

Noon Opening

Schiller Recreation Center will open at 12 noon next Monday, Apr. 7, and opportunities for boys and girls to work on arts and crafts projects will be available at that time. In addition, the game room also will be open as well as free play volleyball in the gymnasium.

This opening time will hold good for the one day only since the schools will be in vacation period. On Tuesday the opening time will again start at 2 p.m. and the regular schedule of hours for participants will be 12 years and under 'til 6:30 p.m. and teen-age and adults from 6:30 p.m. to closing. This schedule is in accordance with the city law requiring children 12 and under to be off the streets by dark.

In City Tournament

Teams from the Schiller Saturday A.M. Bowling League that will participate in the City Tournament are Harts Folly All Stars, Superior Plumbing, Allied Signs, Ideal Sporting Goods and Gems A.C., all boys' teams. One girls' team, the Hot Shots, will participate.

Eugene Tuff Heavy Champ

Army Pfc. Eugene A. Tuff, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Tuff, 382 Hinkle-st, recently won the 10th Infantry Division heavyweight boxing championship in Bamberg, Germany. He is regularly assigned to Company C of the division's 29th Infantry. He entered the Army in July 1956 and was last stationed at Fort Ord, Calif.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1950 graduate of South High School. He was employed by S. A. Shenks and Company in civilian life.

Jenkins Man Ends Training

Sgt. Don E. McNeal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. McNeal, 79 Jenkins-av, recently completed the Army's Armor School advanced non-commissioned officer course at Fort Knox, Ky.

The course included training in the command and tactical employment of a tank.

Sgt. McNeal entered the Army in 1943 and was last stationed in Germany.

The sergeant is a 1943 graduate of Trade High School.

Youth Choir Sings

South High EUB Special Services Set

THIS HAS BEEN QUITE A BUSY Easter season for the Youth Choir of the South High EUB Church. On Palm Sunday there were 22 voices to do a beautiful rendition of the hymn "He Tenderly Looked at Me." For the Communion service Thursday evening they will sing "The Calvary Road." At the Easter Sunrise service a trio, Sharon Beechler, Sandy Skinner and Pat Smith will sing "Were You There" and the choir will also have a number. For the 11 o'clock worship service the group will also sing. Left to right, first row, Janet Mooney, Linda Luft, Lenade Baars; Sara Hill, organist; Judy Bush, Joann Anderson, Susan Beechler; second row, Sharon Wikoff, Lucy Sanford, Beverly Brown, Peggy Glenn, Sandy Skinner, Sharon Beechler, Jean Ekers; Pat Smith, choir director; third row, Stacie Dunford, Sharon Pearrell, Jim Strawser, Judy Huffman, Jerry Reed. (Rev. William L. Snider, pastor; Mrs. Richard Smith, choir mother).

Heart disease killed 11,318 persons in London, England during 1957, a third of the total deaths.

SCIOTO TRAIL

By Elizabeth Smith
HI. 3-1164

I want to start this column off this week with a welcome to a new family in our community. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brodnax and three sons have recently moved into their new home at 2640 S. High-st. They are former residents of Reese. We do hope they will like our community and will find a hearty welcome in our school and in the church they may choose to attend.

Mrs. Robert Darst burned her hand when a book of matches exploded as she was lighting one. Her hand is healing but has been very painful at times.

The Y-Teen Club of Marion Franklin just had a very busy Saturday, Apr. 29. Some of the girls worked in the lily parade in downtown Columbus. Armed with baskets of handmade paper lilies and donation cans, the girls stood on street corners for three hours at a time and sold lilies for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Society.

Other Y-Teen girls sold baked goods at the South High-st Kroger Store to help increase the club treasury.

Rev. William Snider of the South High EUB Church will speak at the assembly at Scioto Trail School on Thursday, 2:15 p.m.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Elizabeth Hoppes of 3798 Parsons-av, who passed away on Tuesday. Services and burial were at Rutland, O., by the Chase Funeral Home.

Bob Canter was operated on in University Hospital Wednesday of last week, and it will take some time to tell just how much of a success the operation was. A shower of cards from the neighbors will do a lot to lift Bob's outlook and also will let his parents know that we are all thinking of them.

Let's not forget our two little shut-ins this week. A cute Easter card will make the holiday much brighter for them. Marcia Goodfleisch, 3324 S. High-st, and Dina Shumaker, 2650 Thorndale-av.

Mrs. Alice Gray is still a patient at University Hospital, and at this writing is improved. She may be permitted to come home some time this week.

The Darst family is planning a big day for about Apr. 12. With five birthdays in the family for April, they are preparing for a family pot-luck dinner at Laurelville.

Cyrus Donahue, Jr., is making a nice recovery from his recent knee surgery, but it will still be a couple of weeks before he will be able to return to work.

Mrs. Lillian Donahue has been very happy to have her mother visiting with her for the past couple of weeks.

David Boren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boren, is appearing on the TV program, "Romper Room" on WTVN at 9-10 every morning for the next two weeks. He is a very excited little boy and is only 3½ years old.

I have already heard inklings of a lot of visiting and entertaining to be done this Easter week-end. Won't you please take a couple of minutes to give me news for this column next week. The calls were almost nil this past week, and I just can't put together a column if I don't get any calls.

The Variety Show at Marion Franklin was a very enjoyable show both nights of Mar. 28 and 29.

The executive council of Marion Franklin PTA will meet at the home of their president, Mrs. John Nippert, Monday, Apr. 7, at 8 p.m.

Vicki Hess, a sophomore at Marion-Franklin, represented the school on "High School Hit Parade," the local teen-age record show, Saturday morning. After reporting on Marion's activities and the tune of the week, Vicki, Anita Quick and Carol Scheiderer, who accompanied her, were presented a record and treated to refreshments.

Mrs. Lola Stone was a visitor at our home on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Channing Betz arrived home from Florida last week-end and this past Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Russell Evans arrived home from their winter in Florida. Welcome back, neighbors.

Fashion wears out more apparel than the woman! The style conscious woman with an eye toward the pay check can learn to design and make the simple tailored things that are never dated. Did you know there are many easy-to-understand books on this art at your Columbus Public Library?

'Y' Sportsmanship Winners Named

The annual recognition banquet was held in the Marion-Franklin cafeteria with 135 in attendance. Bob Foreman, a member of the Smith Road Club, was toastmaster. Don Fogle, Fornof, gave the invocation. Diane Nippert, Smith Road, extended the welcome with Ted Grotsky, Scioto Trail, making the appreciation remarks and awarding recognition tokens to eighteen voluntary advisors, assistant advisors and coaches.

Miss Bonnie Brown and Paul DiGioia presented special entertainment and Tom Calvo, Clarfield, pronounced the benediction.

George Trautman, outstanding Capital University athlete in both track and football was the guest speaker who challenged all present with their responsibility to their home, school, church and community.

Auditor, Recorder's Job

County Keeps Many Records

By State Representative Archer E. Reilly

County government is concerned in record keeping — literally hundreds of thousands of records. And they are vitally important to anyone in the county with either an interest in real estate or a stake in a legal action. The Recorder's office and the Clerk of Court's office are the repositories of such records.

The Recorder's office is primarily involved with providing public notice via recording of interests in property. This is, of course, very significant to purchasers and future owners. Generally, the priority of such rights or interests is determined by the time of recording. The often quoted rule is, "First in time, first in right."

REILLY

The Recorder maintains indexes of all records. From the individual's point of view, they represent the key to finding any records in the office. For, without the indexes, finding data among 8,000 separate record books contained in the office would be nearly impossible. These records date back to 1803.

The Recorder's office does not want for business. During the course of a year, there are approximately 25,000 deeds filed; along with 18,000 real estate mortgages; close to 100,000 chattel mortgages and over 1,000 leases. The present Recorder is James Schaeffer.

The Clerk of Court's office is also a very busy place. It is, in fact the focal point in the county legal system.

Roy King is the Clerk of Courts. His office is involved in every official step in a county legal action. In a civil suit it is here that the petition, service of summons, answer and judgement are duly filed.

In a criminal case, the Clerk's office is involved from the time the bond is issued until the case is concluded with either a dismissal, an acquittal or a conviction.

Making Things Hot

This is the principal function of the main office located on the second floor of the old Court House.

The Divorce Division is a separate unit situated in the Juvenile Center across Mound-st from the Court House.

The office plays an important part inprocessing child support payments through its juvenile department.

It is here that all money, paid by parents and others for child support, is received and disbursed. This is quite an operation involving 9,000 checks per month.

The Ohio Certificate of Title Law, by its provisions, places a great emphasis upin the certificate itself.

The clerk is responsible for the issuance of all certificates of title on motor vehicles purchased in the county along with notations concerning liens and mortgages recorded thereon.

This is round-the-clock mass production operation. Every effort is made to speed title processing. In that connection two new mechanical index machines have been installed to make the work as mechanized as possible.

This department includes 25 employes which makes it the largest single department in the Court House.

The Clerk's office is responsible for maintaining all court records and allied papers. This involves quite a filing operation as there are over 3,000,000 of these records. At the present time the office uses microfilming for the older papers.

The clerk handles all court costs. This amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars every year and requires a full time bookkeeping department. It also processes the filing of many miscellaneous legal documents and a variety of licenses.

The importance of these two offices is often underestimated. Public records are very much like personal portant part in processing for granted. But when they are needed, they may be needed badly. Thus, the efficient operation of these two offices is significant to the entire county.

YMCA, YWCA Provide Lessons In Moral Living

This is one of a series of topics by distinguished citizens of Columbus, bearing on the purposes, programs, and the activities of the YMCA and the YWCA.

The word "informal" is sometimes applied to education in a disparaging sense. This is unfortunate. Education is a continuous process, in school and out. We are educated by our vocations, friendships, recreations; by our reading, and by our participation with others in the activities of church and state.

The completion of a formal course of education is merely the beginning. The acquisition of a degree is no assurance that one is educated. The formal part of our education is comparatively brief, but informal education continues until our departure from earth. It is the larger part of our education.

If we expect freedom in America to flourish and grow, we must look to the quality of our citizenship. This depends on education. One of the several virtues of democracy is the privilege of making choices, which means we are confronted with alternatives. Unless we know what the alternatives are, and can weigh them on the scales of education and experience, our choices may be unwise or irresponsible.

Most of our acts involve morality, often popularly and erroneously construed as merely a curb on human passions and appetites. Justice, benevolence, veracity, temperance, and tolerance are sometimes ignored.

Dr. Harold H. Eibling
Superintendent of Schools
Columbus Board of Education

Lapses in the public conscience are due, in no small degree, to the general failure to recognize morality for what it really is.

Morality lies at the core of life. "It is a necessity," says Ralph Barton Perry, "imposed on man by the undeniable fact that his life, whether personal or social, is composed of a multitude of needs, wants, desires, and wills, which conflict with one another if they are allowed freely to run their several courses.

"Conflict breeds war — between rival impulses, between members of the same household, between one man's demands and his neighbor's, between the interests of different classes within society, and between the ambitions of the several nations and groups of nations that compose mankind."

Morality saves us from self-destruction by creating some order in life and harmonizing conflicting interests. The ultimate cure for our lapses in public and private conscience must rest in education. A mere recital of precepts and aphorisms is not enough. Such education must begin early, in the home, the church, the school.

But we must utilize every organization which has proved its value in the realm of character development. Immediately the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association come to mind. For more than a century they have provided young people with a world-wide fellowship based on the enduring principles of Christianity. Through their programs and facilities they have supplied an "informal" education in living and working together.

Their members are encouraged to make the right choices in life, to value Christian morality, not by bans, threats and penalities, but by recognition of the fact that it is fun to practice such virtues as faith, hope, love, prudence, justice, courage, honesty, and unselfishness.

If we want a better world, we can help to make it by supporting the YMCA and the YWCA in their effort to improve people — at the age when they are susceptible to improvement.

The Social Club of Achbar Auxiliary will meet Friday, Apr. 4, in Dorst Hall of the Central YMCA, with luncheon at 12:30 and a business meeting at 1:30. Hostesses for the social hour are Mrs. Mattie Raymond and Mrs. Florence Figgins.

'Trailer-Sailors' Have Backyard Docks

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

John Seidel and I spent one of the most pleasant fishing days I can remember, on Lake Erie in his outboard boat when the white bass were running.

John, a Columbus architect, goes up to Lake Erie a half dozen times a year, but doesn't want to leave his boat there permanently. So he takes it back and forth with him on a trailer.

When not on use, the boat is in dry dock in John's garage. It could just as easily be "docked" in the backyard and covered with plastic or some other weatherproof material.

This do-it-yourself docking formula has been discovered by thousands of land-locked sailors and fishermen during the past ten years. It has given rise to a whole new breed of outboard boating enthusiasts—families who live long distance from water but spend their weekends and vacations afloat.

Trailer Sales Spurt

Further indication of this trend on a national level comes from a series of surveys made by the Outboard Boating Club of America, which reports that in 1947 the total nationwide sale of boat trailers was 3,790; by 1957, a short ten years later, this annual figure had risen to 165,000. One trailer is now sold for every two boats which the public buys.

Boat trailers of today are more than racks on wheels on which to carry boats. They are, in fact, mobile launching ramps. And the modern trailer, with its engineering innovations, has made the launching and loading of a boat, even one as large as an outboard cruiser, virtually a matter of delightful prospect.

Boat trailers have made boat ownership possible for millions of people who do not live "on the water." Now, many central Ohioans pack on the boat, fishing gear, and the family for an enjoyable day of fishing and boating.

pushing the right button.

Many a two-week vacation is now planned to include a day or two of motoring to get to the water, and then to spend eight or ten days fishing and boating. John Seidel, for instance, takes his boat to Canada on fishing trips. The boat is as much a part of his standard equipment as fishing tackle.

Big Boost to Boaters

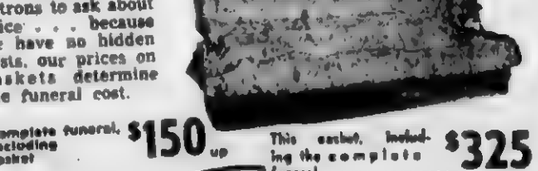
The boat trailer has made more water available to more people than any other single development in the boating field. At one time, boat ownership was virtually limited to persons who possessed lake or riverfront property. Now the man with a garage or backyard finds himself with "riparian rights," and boat ownership becomes not only possible, but a

Youth Group Makes Plans

The Southern Deanery of the Catholic Youth Council of Columbus, comprising Corpus Christi, St. Ladislaus, St. Leo, and St. Mary Parishes, will hold their Fiesta week in the South End.

Fiesta Week will start with "The Bunny Hop" on Easter Sunday. This is their annual Easter dance, to be held at the Grand Ballroom of the Southern Hotel from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. The "Classmen" will play for this dance, which is open to the public.

On Friday, Apr. 11, at St. Mary's High School gym, they will have their actual Fiesta dance. Steve Joos of WCOL will be there with his top "40" records. There will be door prizes, refreshments, a rock-'n-roll contest, and entertainment and fiesta fun. This will begin at 8 p.m. and last three hours. Price: 60 cents per person.



The following day, the three parishes will have a day of bowling at the Moose Lodge on South High.

*"And children's faces looking up Holding wonder like a cup."

Sara Teasdale's poem kept running through my mind during the services this morning . . . there could be no truer description of the shining glory in my children's eyes. Wonder, yes—and discovery and complete trust.

Suddenly I realized where I had seen that look before. I was about the age of my own youngsters, sitting beside my mother . . . just as they were sitting with me now. I remember so well—looking up and seeing that same expression of worship and faith and wonder on my mother's face. And such a deep happiness that I felt I had to reach out to touch her to share in this warmth.

I don't remember that we ever talked together much about religion, my mother and I. I needed only to look at her face to know that I might find her peace and security at the same source that sustained her over the years. The whole family worshipping together every week, with others who believed as we did, was always a very special time. It gave us a closeness we felt very strongly, a strength that helped carry us through the week with hope and courage.

And so at service this morning, I sent up a prayer that my children would see my mother's look on my face . . . and have it to remember all their years.

Give them a Faith to live by...

Worship with them this week

At a spelling contest for the seventh and eighth grade students in Barrett Junior High School, Kenneth Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith, became spelling champion for the school. Yvonne Abahazie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Abahazie, was runner-up. The other contestants, champions of their own homerooms, were Pat Burns, Sharon Rings, Larry Leach, Frank Cruz, Marilyn Dersoon, Irene Barkie, Robert Arthur, Vicki Hook, Janet Anne Bryan, Judy Quidor.

The city-wide spelling contest will be held at Mohawk Junior High School Saturday, Apr. 12. Kenneth Mills will represent Barrett there.

Tim Mitchel, John Powell, James Cordell, Boyce Barry, from Barrett had entries in the Ohio State Industrial Arts Convention last Thursday and Friday, Mar. 27 and 28, at the Neil House.

A record 398,673 tourists visited the Isle of Jersey in the English Channel during 1957, 50,000 more than the previous year.

The second annual Father-Daughter Banquet for the members of Brownie Troop 770 was held at the Hope Lutheran Church on Lilley-av, on Thursday, Mar. 13. Seventeen girls were present and their mothers prepared and served the dinner. Honored guests were Miss Ruth Schollenbarger, Executive Director for the Ohio Trefoil Council and Miss Betty Hollenbaugh, district director. Leader of this troop is Mrs. Lawrence Lane.

Mrs. Carmen Mininni, leader of Brownie Troop 665 and Mrs. Wilbur Liddil, leader of Brownie Troop 455, had a joint service project; both troops worked together and completed 80 Easter baskets and delivered them to the State School and State Hospital on Thursday.

Brownie Troop 754
Mrs. Frederick Mauger, Leader

This troop celebrated the second birthday anniversary with a party on Thursday, Mar. 27 during the regular troop meeting. Under the direction of their assistant leader, Mrs. Leslein, the girls learned a skit and surprised their leader with this dramatic presentation. "Mrs. Mauger and Her Brownies."

A new committee mother has been welcomed into this troop, Mrs. John Gergens.

Refreshments of cake and ice cream concluded the birthday anniversary.

During the meeting the girls were awarded their one year stars and membership cards.

Troop 150
Mrs. Alfred Knox, Leader

The First Court of Awards for the members of this troop was held on Wednesday, Mar. 26 at the Muti-purpose room at the Deshler-av School. Eighteen mothers and guests were present during the presentation of awards by Mrs. John Peer, assistant neighborhood chairman.

Patsy Conley and Barbara Heskett were invested as Girl Scouts.

Hospitality and needlecraft badges were presented to Cheryl Meinrod, Karen Lambert, Tanya Alban, Madeline Heisel, Joy Crook, Barbara Eddy, Carol Spiro, Carolyn Goldston, Velma Fisher, Saundra Thompson, Sandra Sarchet, Jane Mathews, Karen Barber, Patsy Conley, Barbara Heskett, Jeanne Kierman, and Shirley Ninccheiser. Proficiency badges were awarded to Tonya Alban, Joy Crook, Kathy Fletcher, and Cheryl Meinrod, musician to Jeannie Knox, gardening, to Joy Crook, dabbler to Tanya Alban.

Eighteen girls received their year pins.

Tickets for the Scout-A-Rec were distributed among the local troop members for the special presentation which will be held in the Youth Center at the State Fairgrounds. Each scout will have four tickets to sell.

Jet Badges

This year the Girl Scouts are among the groups selling Jet Badges. Each badge costs 50 cents and enables any child up to 16, if accompanied by an adult, to attend most all games at the Jet Stadium (Sundays and holidays are not included).

Miss Wharton Honored

On Friday, Mar. 7, Miss Olive Wharton, 930 Enfield-av, was a special guest of honor on the Uniscope television program, from 7 to 7:30 p.m. — WOSU, Channel 34, and was presented a Certificate for Outstanding Community Service as a Girl Scout Volunteer Worker for 25 years.

Miss Wharton is a retired teacher of the Heyl-av school. In the interview she stated her favorite activities are her church and scouting. She has sung for many years in the choir of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and serves on the training and camp committees of the Ohio Trefoil Girl Scout Council.

Miss Wharton also received special recognition for her 25 years of scouting during the January Special Recognition Tea held by the Ohio Trefoil Council at St. John's Parish House, Worthington, at which time she was awarded a special Girl Scout recognition pin.

roominess and livableness among lower income families," Wittman said. Construction is to start at once, with models expected to be ready to show in May and houses to be ready for occupancy June 15.

The executive also expressed satisfaction that it is possible for his company to contribute to employment while making additional needed housing available.

"It is the duty of everyone to make at least one person happy during the week," said the Sunday School teacher. "Have you done so, Freddy?"

"Yes," said Freddy promptly.

"That's right. What did you do?" said the teacher.

"I went to see my Aunt Mary, and she was happy when I went home."

New Five-Point Program

Alcoholism Council Rolls Up Its Sleeves

The "go-ahead" signal was given last week for an extensive program to be conducted locally by the Columbus Council on Alcoholism.

Committees and subcommittees will be staffed immediately to activate a program that has been under study and preparation since the council was organized last fall.

Approximately 25 members of the council attended last week's meeting in the Columbus Health Center. The council Steering Committee, headed by Msgr. Lawrence J. Corcoran, was authorized to make the necessary committee appointments.

Both preventive and remedial measures are included in the five-point program: 1, Education and information; 2, Hospital Services; 3, Medical advisory; 4, Rehabilitation; 5, Finance.

Under these general assignments, each committee will be responsible for its own phase of the program, with Monsignor Corcoran's four-man Steering Committee as the coordinating unit.

Other members of his committee are Dr. Floyd Faust, minister of Broad Street Christian Church; Dean Strausbaugh Judge of the Columbus Municipal Court; and Rabbi Jerome D. Folkman, Rabbi of Temple Israel.

"After careful study of both the problem and the personnel and facilities available," Msgr. Corcoran said, "we have concluded that the program should be launched as rapidly as possible. The problems created by alcoholism are widespread; they are not diminishing; the sooner we do something about it the sooner we'll get something accomplished. It is essential that the work of the council be started at once."

Duties of a permanent chairman will be handled by the Steering Committee for the time being. It was the consensus of council members that appointment of a chairman should be delayed until the organizational structure is complete and functioning, at which time the duties and responsibilities of the chairman will be more clearly defined.

Committee chairmen are: Phillip Baehr, hospital services; Dr. Charles Harding, Medical Advisory; Donald Levi, rehabilitation; and Harry Richter, finance.

An education and information committee chairman will also be named.

The council — through its committees — will begin immediately to explore means and methods to improve Columbus' treatment of those persons addicted to alcohol.

The need for new studies, treatment, and perhaps facilities was declared last fall by both municipal judges and clergymen.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR

Protein Foods—ham, turkey, chuck roast, large eggs.

Vegetables — carrots, salad greens, frozen peas and spinach.

Fruits—Bananas, pineapple, Winesap apples, prunes.

HAM FOR EASTER DINNER

A big juicy ham, glazed and beautifully garnished, has become an American tradition for Easter dinner. And luckily so, for you'll find ham is one of the best meat buys at the market this week. Since ham fits nicely into almost any meal pattern, consider a whole ham . . . at the present it is the best value.

Types Available—Fresh ham . . . no curing has been done, and must be fully cooked before eating.

Tenderized ham . . . partially cooked; needs additional cooking.

Ready-to-Eat or Fully Cooked Ham . . . heated to temperature where safe to eat; flavor improved with further cooking.

You may have these types in a variety of forms, namely, smoked skinned ham, skinless-shankless ham, boned and rolled ham, or canned ham. In figuring the cost in comparison with other meats, remember that a regular smoked-skinned ham yields about 75 percent of its weight in edible portions, while about 90 percent of the skinless-sankless ham is edible. Remember, too, that each additional service done to the ham for you adds to the cost.

Care — Ham is a cured meat, unless specifically labeled as fresh ham. It should be stored tightly covered in the coldest part of the refrigerator. While freezing is not generally recommended for ham, portions of the Easter ham can be frozen and kept up to three months if wrapped in a moisture and vapor-proof package and stored at 0°F.

EGG COLORING TIME IS HERE

Because white shells dye in clear, bright colors, eggs of this color are generally in heavy demand the week before Easter. Sometimes this pushes the price up, while in some markets there may be specials in eggs for coloring.

Brown or speckled shells do not take color in quite the same way as white shells, but they do give unusual color effects, and they are often a good buy for special decorating with decals, transfers or a fine paint brush, for example.

Mothers frequently ask whether children should eat dyed cooked eggs. A statement that the color is harmless may be found on the package containing Easter egg dyes. Though the dyed eggs are hard cooked, it is best to refrigerate and eat them within a day or two.

Your favorite cookbook has many ideas for using hard cooked eggs. Among the suggestions you will find are stuffed egg appetizers and main dishes. Try varying deviled eggs with deviled ham or finely minced meat or fish, chopped parsley or green pepper. Hard cooked eggs are good in salads . . . try adding them to tossed salads.

Creamed or scalloped eggs and their many variations make good protein main dishes.

Witnesses

This Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the South Unit of Jehovah's Witnesses will meet in Kingdom Hall at 1705 S. High-st to share in the world-wide observance of the memorial that annually commemorates the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. The discourse, "The Lord's Evening Meal," will be given by Victor F. Schmidt.

Defer Meet

The regular meeting of Dorcas Missionary Society of Emmanuel Lutheran Church has been postponed until Apr. 10. Mrs. Albert Gramlich will have the devotions. After the Bible study by Pastor Sutorius a business meeting will be held. Mrs Fred Hatfield, Mrs. Roland Hepner and Mrs. Dale Ernsthausen will be hostesses for the 12:30 luncheon.

Every member of a club or organization should know how to introduce a speaker, organize a panel discussion, plan a program, and conduct a business meeting. Did you know that you can get help on these problems from books at the Columbus Public Library?

Easter Egg Hunts Saturday

Find An Egg . . .

Three areas in the South Side have been set aside for Saturday morning's annual egg hunt, beginning at 9 o'clock. Backed by the Council of South Side Organizations, Schiller, Livingston Park, Southeast Lions Club, Lincoln Park with South Side Business and Industrial Association, in cooperation with Ohio State Journal, an estimated 3,000 children will join in the annual hunt for hidden eggs in the three parks of the area

Age Areas

"Toddlers" five to eight years of age are invited. They will be divided into special groups before they enter upon the hunt. An official has pointed out that each child should report to officials before the hunt for registration and for instruction.

Report at Finish

Children finding hidden eggs should, as soon as the signal ends the hunt, report to the park office and present the eggs to qualify for prizes. Anyone failing to report will not be able to receive a prize.

There are a number of "prize money" eggs, it was announced—eggs containing money or redeemable for money. These, as is the requirement with every finder, should be reported to the park office as soon as the hunt is ended.

Contributors

Council of South Side Organizations will share with the Ohio State Journal the prizes to be awarded at the Livingston Park "round-up" of hidden eggs, it was said, and here, as in other areas in the three-way South Side egg hunts, the 9 o'clock starting time will prevail. Children planning to enter should be ready when the "go" signal is sounded, officials said.

Great Interest

Great interest has been shown in the egg hunt every year since it was instituted, according to the sponsoring groups. It is understood that eggs will be placed early Saturday morning.

Centenarian Rites Held

Services for 100-year-old Mrs Emma Stahler Smith, of 2435 Adams-av, who died Wednesday, Mar. 26, were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Cook and Son Funeral Home.

Mrs. Smith was a one-time contributor to a children's page published in a local daily newspaper. She was also author of "Sweet Home Stories for Children" and her poetry had been published widely in the United States.

She was a native of Pemberville, O., named for her mother's family, a pioneer Wood County family, descendants of Lord Pemberton in England.

The last charter member of South Congregational Church, Mrs. Smith was the widow of Alvin C. Smith, a construction engineer employed on the building of the old Hocking Valley Railroad.

After her husband's death in 1904 Mrs. Smith operated the cafeteria at old South High School on Deshler-av for 18 years.

She had also been active in the South Side Music Club and was a founder of the South Side Mothers' Clubs.

Wedding Set In June For Miss Early

JUNE CELIA EARLY

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Early sr., 386 Woodrow-av, have announced the engagement of their daughter, June Celia, to Fredrick Eugene Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jenkins, 1934 S. 9th-st. Miss Early is a graduate of South High School and is employed at University Hospital, while the bride-groom to be is a graduate of Central High School and is employed at Battelle Institute

The wedding will take place on June 14 at 5 p.m. in Clair Chapel Methodist Church.

GOOD TRAINING

Juvenile delinquency can be prevented. It is not a scourge which rules with an inevitable necessity. One of the best weapons with which to attack this malady is religious training.

The young boy and girl trained in the teachings of the Bible have a moral reliance which serves as a compass for every day living. They know the difference between right and wrong, good and evil. They are able to conquer the temptations of life.—J. Edgar Hoover.

Ball-Hawks Hunting Jet Badge Prospects

HUNTING—Getting ready to catch some red-hot Jet Badge prospects are Scott James, representing the Boy Scouts; Robert Vogel of the Catholic Youth Organization; Walter Steffens, representing the South Side Branch YMCA. These boys are all members of a few of the many organizations that will be selling the Jet Badges in Columbus from Apr. 1 to May 1. The badges will cost 50 cents each and be good for any Jet home game except the opening game, Sundays, holidays, and special games, providing the youngster is accompanied by an adult. Gra-Y, Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs of South Columbus will make this opportunity a service within their respective schools by having them available during the months of April. Each club will gain a small profit from each sale that will be used in a service project for the club or school.

South High Students Tapped For National Honor Society

Thirty-six members of South High School's June '58 graduating class, were taken into the National Honor Society last Friday. The induction followed the traditional tapping ceremony at which alumni members of the Honor Society went among the audience and "tapped" the students who had been selected.

To be eligible, students must have at least a three point average. Besides scholarship, they are judged on their character and leadership.

Four members of the January class who were elected to the society, Pat Carsella, Orella Gatwood, Chuck Hegenberger, and Patty Trumps, were present to take the Scholarship, Leadership and Character Pledges along with the newly elected members. When they completed the final pledge led by Tim Hepner, '57, they were all full-fledged members of the Society.

New members are Melba Allen, Donna Baker, Sue Baldeser, Bob Bateman, Jay Beatley, Jack Beeson, Theresa Boggs, Elaine Cuthbert, Don Dreher, Diane Dunkin, Dick Evans, Judie Farley, Ron Firman, Don Fischer, Ruth Gatewood, Jay Gramlich, Barb Hoover, Billie Jordan, Patricia Kimes, Barry Kleinline, Stephanie Lando, Marcia Lipson, Joyce Luketz, Chuck Mason.

Bob Meinrod, Russ Meyer, Barbara Nicholson, Carol Petty, Bob Reall, Judy Sager, Bob Seman, Ilga Tillers, Ralph Walls, Alan Weinberg, Julie Warner, and Mary Lou Werner.

Don Fischer and Stephanie Lando were elected the president and vice-president respectively.

WE HAVE THINGS IN COMMON

Good Churches . . .
Someone has truly said that the church is the cradle of character. We build on a firm foundation only as we grow in spiritual enrichment. Support the church of your choice. Religion is the bulwark of our dearest dreams.

Good Homes . . .
Every community needs goods homes. Good homes make good citizens. This community is especially favored in the number and variety of dwellings available to meet the needs of people of all economic levels.

Good Schools . . .
Never has there been a time when it was more essential to educate young people to meet the complex problems of an advancing age. Give the local school system your full cooperation.

BUY YOUR DRUGS AND DRUG NEEDS FROM THESE REPUTABLE . . . SOUTH SIDE DRUGGISTS

A GOOD FAMILY DRUG STORE

Yes we are proud of our drugstores, with many years of continuous service to this community . . . along with the Church, the School and the Home there is need in every community for good drugstores. We are proud to dedicate the facilities of our pharmacies to the maintenance of local health and welfare standards. You are invited to make our drugstores your drugstore and to bring your Doctor's PRESCRIPTION'S to us for careful compounding.

Easter Sunday

The glory of Easter Sunday shines brightly in the hearts of men, women and children, the world over. In our observance of this most joyful of all days, may each one of us find the inspiration of hope renewed, of faith fulfilled. May all of us find new spiritual strength in the heartening promise of life everlasting, given to all the world on that first Easter Sunday, almost two thousand years ago.

• • •

Let us gather with family and friends in church this Easter Sunday. Let us join our voices with the choir in those beloved old Easter hymns. Let us see in the profusion of Easter flowers, the miracle of spiritual rebirth. Let us life our hearts with the glory of the age-old Easter message. Let us return to our work-a-day worlds, refreshed in spirit by all the wonder and beauty that is Easter Sunday!

REAL SECURITY

IN EUREKA PARK

Nothing has so universal appeal and understanding as SECURITY. It is the cherished desire of every age, for every way of life, for every nationality, in every country. It's meaning can be stated, and understood in every language.

The privilege of enjoying SECURITY by owning your own home is your heritage as an American citizen. It stands out above all nations as the standard of the free way of life. It is the envy of many peoples throughout the globe. It is the one right which we will defend with our lives.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lenox
HI. 4-1051

An open house commemorated the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emrick, 1102 Wilson-av, this past Sunday. The couple has one daughter, Mrs. John Drake, and two sons, Rev. Wendell Emrick and Robert Emrick. Three grandchildren complete the family circle.

Get-well cards are appropriate for Virginia Keeling, 1439 S. Ohio-av, and Ronald Santee, 400 Hinman-av. Ronald is an eight-year-old who had the misfortune of breaking his leg.

Didn't meant to forget Charles Mason's Mar. 22 birthday, so belated greetings go your way, Charlie.

Our sympathy to two families this week — the Rohrers and Itskins. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rohrer lost an infant recently. The mother of Lorraine Itskin passed away last Saturday in Willshire, O.

Circle 4, Grace Lutheran Church, will meet Apr. 8, 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Marguerite Andrews, 804 Linwood-av. Mrs. Donald Shaw and Miss Miriam Glessner are in charge of the program. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Paul Bernlohr and Miss Mabel Jasper.

One of the City Firemen's Wives' Auxiliary officers installed at the Jal-Lai recently was South Sider Mrs. Tom Pettit, 806 Whittier-st.

We've been asked to announce about the church services held at Scioto Trail School, 2951 S. High-st, each Sunday. Fred Dowdy is the minister of the South Side Christian Church. Bible School is at 9:15 a.m. and church services are at 10:20 a.m.

Birthday time will soon be here for Sarah Hughes, Don Dicke and his grandmother, Anna Dicke, Emerson Darst, Willie Davis, now of Cincinnati, and Ted Day.

Guild 2, St. Ann's, meets at 8 tonight in the home of Mrs. D. Rinehart, 73 E. Gates-st.

Mary Ellen Wampler will exchange her wedding vows today with Herbert Morris. Miss Wampler is the niece of Mrs. Robert H. Silvius, 39 E. Moler-st.

Members of Junior C.E. of the Southwood Church of Christ will have an Easter egg hunt Saturday, Apr. 5, at 11 a.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Sedwick.

Richard Merriman, home address 1717 S. Third-st, now in Ft. Bragg, N.C., is quite proud of his newly-acquired "private first class" rating.

Kiddies who have birthdays as well as Easter to look forward to this week are these: Debbie Bayes, 47 E. Welch, Apr. 5; Johnny Waugh, 79 Woodrow, Apr. 3; Eva Kocsis, 370 Southwood, Apr. 5; Susan Dennis, 20 E. Moler, Apr. 4; Becky Bogdanowitz, 1300 S. Pearl, Apr. 5; Sandra Moore, 142 Woodrow, Apr. 4; Donnie Rice, 31 E. Innis-av, Apr. 8.

Now here is something extra special to our way of thinking, don't you agree? Lodge 11, Loyal Order of Moose, and the Women's Chapter 206 will furnish transportation for those who would like to attend church this Easter Sunday but have no way to do so. This should be a boon for invalids and older citizens particularly. In order to arrange the schedule ahead of time, those interested are asked to call the Moose Hall on W. Sycamore-st no later than 6 p.m., Saturday, Apr. 5. And further news from the Moose is this: The officers are in charge of the Apr. 9, 5 to 7 p.m., dinner at 36 W. Sycamore-st. The menu is roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered peas, cole slaw, sheet cake with sauce and coffee. Kiddies' portions are 75c and "grownup" size is $1.25.

Two bake sales this week, so if you're in the vicinity of either one this week-end, why not drop in? Chapter 312 of the Navy Mothers is holding a bake sale Saturday, Apr. 5, at Hoermle's, 1894 Parsons-av. Mrs. Arlene Boso is chairman of the event. Southwood School PTA executive board members are holding their sale at Penney's, in the Great Southern Shopping Center on Good Friday.

The touch of tonsillitis that our Tommy had last Friday kept us from attending the fish dinner at St. Ladislaus' personally, but we availed ourselves of the carry-out service, so can report that it was a very tasty meal. St. Ladislaus will be having more news in the near future, which you'll be reading about in the Leader.

Bill Greene, a fellow South Sider and member of 103, Musicians Union, had the misfortune of having his terrier killed by a car.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel De Weese, 229 Innis-av, will be celebrating a 30th anniversary on Apr. 7, for which, congratulations.

The birthday party of the Camp Fire Girls held at South Methodist Church last Saturday was a highly successful endeavor and ye Gadabout's family enjoyed it immensely. We still have gobs of analyses to do, so here's what we plan to do: We shall finish them and pass them on to Mrs. Skobrak, who can distribute them to the various leaders. Those writers we know personally, we'll give them to them as we see them. But we'll get 'em done, by cracky!

A religious Easter to all of you, that's the wish of—

The Gadabout

Many a woman who can't add can certainly distract.

Victory In Good Sportsmanship

Among the trophy winners at the South Side Branch YMCA Inter-Church Basketball Award party was Central Community Church's Junior team. These boys earned their trophy by showing the best sportsmanship as a team throughout the past basketball season. Their won-lost record was 2-8 for the season-but this didn't dampen the boys' spirit as they came back game after game with desire and love of play. Standing in the back are the managers, Howard Henry and Art Parilla. The boys are, from left to right, "Buzz" Wallace, Bill Hickle, Bill Zigler, John Deye, George Mather, Don Wray, and Jim Henry.

ST. ELIZABETH KNIGHTS' AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of St. Elizabeth's Auxiliary No. 3, Knights of St. John will be held Wednesday, Apr. 9, at 581 S. High-st.

The entertainment and refreshment committee is in charge of members whose last names begin with the letters S, T, and V. Mrs. Martha Schaefer is chairman and Mrs. Anna Schwartz is co-chairman.

TO SELL FLOWERS

Columbus Chapter 1 of the American Gold Star Mothers will sell Easter flowers at Fischer's Service Station, corner Parsons and Kossuth-av, Apr. 4 and 5.

Mrs. Frances Fischer, a member of the chapter and its registrar, is in charge of the sale.

ROBERT WEITZEL

Funeral services were held Saturday morning for Robert Weitzel, 71, of 564 S. 18th-st, at Schoedinger State-st Chapel. He died Thursday, Mar. 27, with survivors two brothers, four sisters. Interment was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

'Superior' Ratings Won By South Hi's School Musicans; 'Song of Norway' Due 24

Ensemble "Superior"

South High School's mixed ensemble received a rating of superior in a district contest held Saturday, Mar. 15, at Ohio State University.

The group, which sang "You Stole My Love" and "Dashing Away With the Smoothing Iron," will compete in state competition in early April.

The ensemble includes Ann Pritt, Sue Hancock, Barb Hoover, Judy Herrel, Jim Hoptry, Guy Couf, Bob Fornoff and Jordan Traikoff.

Individual "Superiors"

The instrumnetal department received 11 superior ratings at the district solo and ensemble contest held at Capital University, Mar. 15.

Dave Phillips, Ralph Kleinlein and Bill Gischell received superior ratings for a trumpet trio. A brass sextet made up of Phil Garrity, Bob Karrer, Jim Justus, John McDowell, Dave Phillips ann Bill Gischel, a clarinet quartet with Jay Gramlich, John Justus, Jim Terrell and Russ Meyer and a sax quartet including John Justus, Jay Gramlich, Jim Smith and Bill Johnson also received superior ratings.

Drums were also entered in the contest with a drum duet by Bruce Papier and Gordon Scholy and a drum ensemble with Jim Balinger, John Boling, Bruce Papier and Gordon Scholy taking top honors.

All of the groups, which were accompanied by Judie Farley, will compete in the state finals early in April.

"Song of Norway"

Tickets for South's coming operetta are on sale from members of the music classes. The tickets are $1, reserved.

The title of the operetta is "Song of Norway." It will be held in the auditorium Thursday and Friday, Apr. 24 and 25, at 8 p.m.

Bulldogs First Track Meet With East Hi

The South High Bulldog's track team, coached by Charles Shaner, will have its first track meet Thursday, Apr. 3, with the powerful East Tigers. Tuesday, Apr. 8, they have a meet with Central at South.

South didn't do very well last year but with 13 returning cindermen and some fine prospects, they should make a fine showing.
